Save the Checks you get at Ricks & Wilkinson's

The above is the motto of a system of business in operation for benefit of cash buyers at this store. Every cash purchaser gets with each purchase a check similar to this:

75 APR 21
RICKS & WILKINSON,
Dealers in Fine Dress
Goods, Clothing, Shoes,
Hats and all kinds of Furnishing Goods.
B $10.00
Save your checks and when you get $20.00 worth return to Ricks and Wilkinson and get 50 cents in trade.
It pays to buy for cash.

It means on April 21 you bought and paid for goods to the amount of $10.00, under our contract that whenever such purchases added together amount to $20.00 the return of the checks will entitle you to 50 cents worth of goods free. In other words, we will pay a dividend of 2 1/2 per cent. on every $20.00 you spend in cash at our store, making you a partner in our business to that extent.

The check is printed and the transaction recorded and the dividend made possible by our New National Cash Register. It is a beautiful piece of mechanism and the perfection of system and accuracy in business transactions between clerks and customers. You would pick up a dollar if you found it on the street, and think you were in luck. You can pick up dollars here. But it is not luck, it is business—good business. We are bringing all our resources to bear to make it pay you to be a regular customer at this store.

Died.

Mrs. Mary Jane Jackson died at 2:30 o'clock, Friday afternoon, at the home of her son, Mr. N. W. Jackson, in South Greenville. Her death was due to heart failure. For the last few days she had been in apparent good health, but was taken sick about 9 o'clock and lived only a few hours afternoon.

Mrs. Jackson was 75 years of age and leaves two sons, Mr. N. W. Jackson, of Greenville, and Mr. Andrew Jackson, of Vanceboro. The remains were taken to Vanceboro today for burial. Deceased was a member of the Episcopal church and Rev. W. E. Cox accompanied the remains to conduct the funeral service.

Sunday night in the Baptist church Rev. J. N. Booth will preach his farewell sermon as pastor of the church here.

The committee of the graded school trustees are considering the selection of a suitable site for the building. Several sites have been suggested.

Winterville Department.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., April 25. Miss Bessie Chapman spent yesterday in Greenville.

J. E. Green, Claud Dawson and Nann Everett went to Grifton last night. They report a fine time.

Miss Rosa Tucker was in town yesterday.

There is much talk of changing on West side of railroad, on the part of the merchants. H. L. Johnson will occupy the new store.

Don't forget that Sherwin Williams paint spreads further than any other.

Rev. C. W. Blanchard will fill his regular appointment here today, Sunday morning and night.

I have sold out my entire mercantile business to Winterville Mfg. Co. and hereafter same will be conducted by that firm, who will be pleased to have all our old friends continue to call on them.

ROWAN COOPER

At a recent meeting of the town board J. E. Green was appointed Registrar, Josephus Cox and Joshua Manning pollholders for the coming election.

This week very nearly closes planters and fertilizer distributor business with the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. for this season and they wish to thank their friends for the liberal patronage extended. Now for a few weeks it will be trucks, trucks, trucks, until the farmers both far and near are supplied with the little "Handy." Yes the Handy truck is what they are going to want and nothing else will satisfy them even if the price was more than for others. They really only cost you about half what most other so called trucks cost, and when you get one you have got something that will stay with you. You see this firm has had several years experience in making several styles of trucks and ought to know and do know what they are now offering you.

The nice row of stalls which B. F. Manning & Co. have just built is a valuable addition to that side of the rail road and a very great convenience.

Boys! Don't forget to bring your laundry to me on May 4th, in order to get it back before commencement. First class work always guaranteed.—C. A. Fair, Agt.

Some arrangements are being made which will be of great interest to all buggy buyers. If you see him ask B. H. Hunsucker what those arrangements are, or you might write him.

SCHOOL CLOSED.

FARMVILLE, N. C., April 22, 1903

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

As time in his relentless flight passes o'er us, bringing into our lives many, many changes, some for the better, and some for the worse perhaps, our memories and footsteps will sometimes stray to our childhood home and mark with sadness or pleasure the changes that have taken place there.

It was with the greatest pleasure we were accorded the privilege of visiting our old home Tuesday evening, April 21st, and attending the closing exercises of the public school in the new school district made last year across the creek from Farmville, in the Bynum and Barret neighborhood. This district has, on the old R. A. Bynum plantation, a modern, up-to-date school building, well lighted and heated, which are two necessary points to consider in a school house, and one, alas, that is so often neglected.

This was the first scholastic term of the new district school and the committeemen are both to be praised and congratulated in their wise forethought and good fortune in selecting for their first teacher that most beautiful, highly accomplished and rarest jewel of womanhood, Miss Nancy Coward, of Hookerton, Greene county. Miss Coward is a graduate of the State Normal School, and although this is her first experience at teaching she has proven to us she is naturally gifted as an instructress. Anyone who visited her school room at the closing exercises and marked the affection and esteem with which she was regarded by both pupil and parents could not doubt for a moment that she had gained a warm place in the hearts of all.

This school has about thirty pupils and a more refined or handsome set of lads and lasses we wager no district in the state can boast. The exercises consisted in music, recitations, dialogues, pantomimes, tableaux, &c. Every piece reflected great credit and honor on both pupil and teacher. But the graceful movements of the young ladies in the pantomime and facial expression classes would do honor to any college in the state.

We must especially mention the pantomime and tableaux of that dearest of old hymns, "Rock of Ages." White Miss Coward, at the piano, so sweetly and touchingly sang "Rock of Ages, Cleft for Me," Misses Mary Bynum and Helen Barrett, dressed in soft flowing Grecian robes of purest white, so symbolical of their own sweet pureness and grace of soul, with beautiful bare arms and faces containing and expressing every divine thought and emotion of the words and music of the song, held the audience spell bound in admiration and wonder at their sylph like movements.

At the close of this pantomime the curtain fell for a moment only, to rise again on a most beautiful tableaux of the same piece. Under the glamor and spell of the soft colored stage lights we beheld an angel with golden hair and lily blue eyes, looking tenderly down from a tall white cross around which her soft bare arms were entwined, on three lovely young maids, who were gracefully kneeling at the foot of the cross imploring divine blessings.

But the piece which most pleased and delighted the audience was the graceful dancing and singing of "Coon" by little Miss Annie Bynum Barrett, of Wilson, and the burlesque pantomime of the same by Miss Mary Bynum, dressed as a typical Diana. These

A Few Hints for Spring

It's the details of a man's apparel that gives tone and character to his make-up. Poor or poorly fitting Haberdashery, antiquated or obsolete styles of Collar, Shirt, Necktie, etc., does away with the otherwise happy effect of a fine suit. A stroll through our Men's Furnishing Goods Department shows, at a glance, the newest, best and brightest in the thousand and one things that come under this heading, all at prices that fear no competition in this city.

This is a man's store, and the man who comes here to trade goes away contented and happy.

THE KING CLOTHIER.

The New White Front

This store has been crowded with visitors and customers from the first day it was opened, and feels very grateful to its friends for the kind words of praise and the liberal patronage which it has received. The stock is large and complete in each line shown. The weavers have certainly outdone themselves in bringing forth novelties in fabrics.

An elaborate and noteworthy showing of all the new ideas.

Space forbids mentioning the different lines, but we wish to call especial attention to the Beautiful Dress Goods, Trimmings, Summer Lawns and Thin materials.

The White Goods Showing is a feast of beauty. The many beautiful things shown here for Ladies' wear easily makes this

"The Ladies' Furnishing Store."

Come to see us and we will please you.

HOW LONG?

May a kind Providence deliver us from further discussion of the "race problem." We cry quits. We are surfeited. The thing palls, grows monotonous, intolerable.

With their usual tendency to run things in the ground, Americans have chased the negro up the back alley of oratory, over the fence of newspaper philosophy and across the common of made to order logic until the public is worn and weary and the negro knows not "where he is at." Hardly a day passes but some budding Webster or Grady splits the air with impassioned pleas for something or other as a solution of the "race problem." "Behold the race problem in the South," they shriek, when there is no race problem in the South. There is not even a question at issue between the white and black people of the South. While the Northern people are going into hysterics over the negro, he is quietly hoeing his own row in the South. The great majority of negroes in the South have accepted the new constitutions of the states in which they live, and are better off than they have been since the war. Negro carpenters, blacksmith, farmers, etc, are employed by white men all over the South, and there are no strikes, no disturbances of labor. The "race problem" is a chimera of the brain of fanatical zealots. We are prone to ask how long must we listen to the stuff hashed up daily by the self styled friends of the negro—many of whom have never seen a real Southern darkey in all their lives. How long? We earnestly hope that the fog of race discussion will soon float away and leave the prospect free, full and sane once more.

"The stories to the effect that Spencer Blackburn would move back to Wilkes county and run for congress again have evidently been set at rest by his purchase of a four-acre building lot in Greensboro," says the Raleigh Post. From congressman to a four-acre lot! Well, this is about three acres more than Spencer's size.

Andrew Carnegie has donated $600,000 to the endowment fund of Tuskegee Institute, of which Booker Washington is president. In his letter conveying the gift Carnegie refers to Washington as "the modern Moses," and classes him with George Washington as a father of his people.

After holding two primaries to reach a choice, Kinston selected N. J. Rouse as the democratic candidate for mayor of that town. Mr. Rouse is a prominent lawyer and will make Kinston an excellent mayor.

The Edenton young 'un seems to be cutting teeth this week, but they are not wisdom teeth.

The Missouri editors by resolution request Mr. William Randolph Hearst to start a great and aggressive Democratic newspaper in their state. What a confession of incompetency—and taste—on the part of those members of the Fourth Estate!—Winston Sentinel.

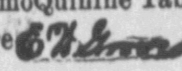

Miss Rebecca J. Taylor has fallen heir to $300,000. The brilliant young woman can now lampoon the administration and expose its weaknesses without fear of losing her financial head but there will be increased demand for her hand.—Durham Sun.

It is said that a Washington paper is now booming Mr. Fairbanks' candidacy, which probably means that he has placed his money where he thinks it will do the most good.—Durham Herald.

The Gattis-Kilgo case, that was set for trial the third time this week in Oxford, has been postponed. The case will likely be removed to Wake county.

The Greensboro telephone exchange has been sold to the American Telegraph and Telephone Company.

A Mecklenburg farmer bought a mule in a novel way, the price agreed upon being 10 cents a pound. The mule weighed 685 pounds.

WEAK LUNGS

Weak lungs are mostly due to a neglected cough. Only a small per cent. of the millions who have consumption inherit it. A slight cold, a tickling or hacking cough is the beginning, and after it has reached a certain advanced stage there is no ending except the grave. Any case of consumption that is curable; that is, any one having consumption whose family or friends still hold on to a ray of hope, may take comfort in the knowledge of the fact that One Minute Cough Cure will give instant relief and finally cure. This famous remedy does not pass immediately into the stomach, but lingers long in the throat, chest and lungs, producing the following results:

(1) Relieves the cough.
(2) Makes the breathing easy.
(3) Cuts out the phlegm.
(4) Draws out the inflammation.
(5) Kills the germs (microbes) of disease.
(6) Strengthens the mucous membranes.
(7) Clears the head.
(8) Relieves the feverish conditions.
(9) Removes every cause of the cough and the strain on the lungs.
(10) Enables the lungs to contribute pure life-giving and life-sustaining oxygen to the blood. Cures Croup and all Cough, Lung and Bronchial Affections.

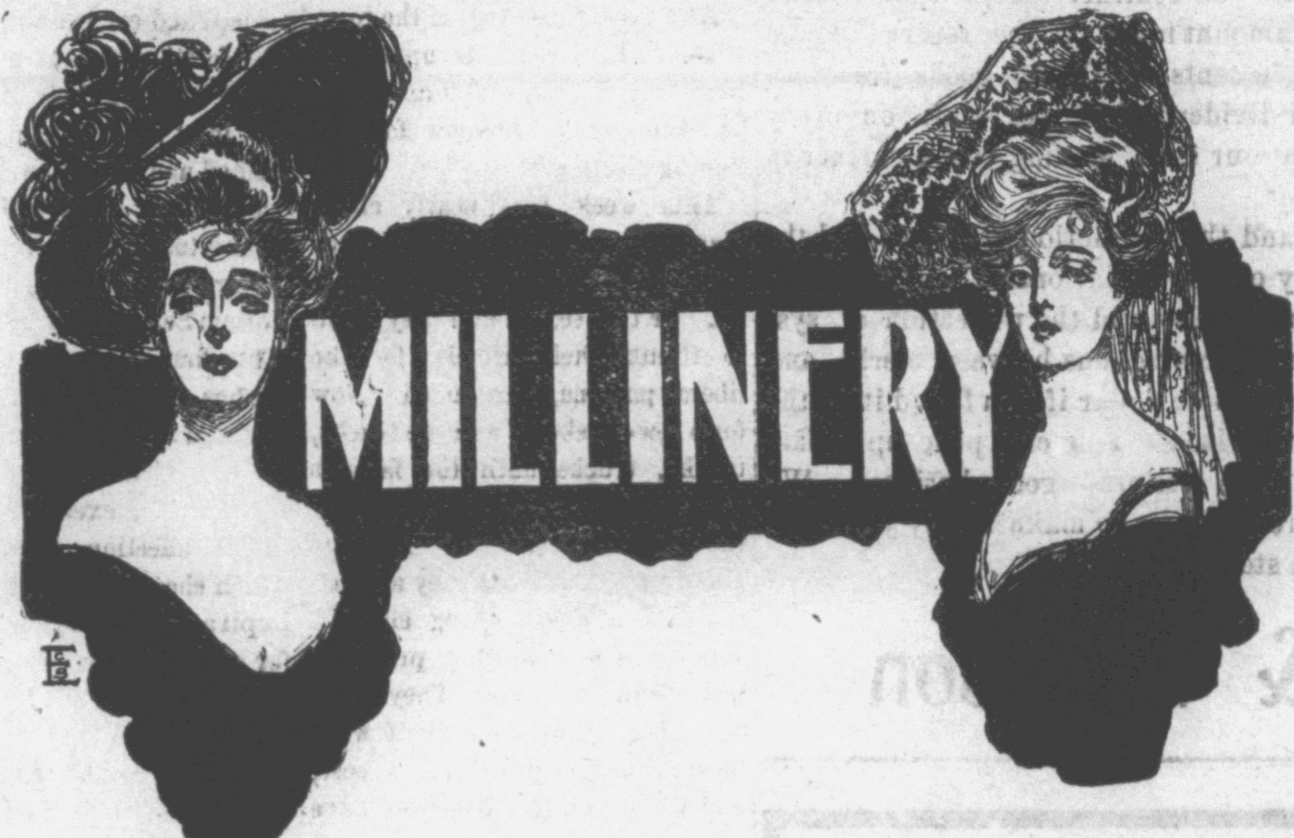

CONSUMPTION CURED.
"My physician told me one year ago that I would die of consumption inside of a year. I commenced taking One Minute Cough Cure for my lung trouble and it cured me. I have gained 20 pounds and I am a pretty live 'dead woman.' One Minute Cough Cure saved me." MARY F. SULLIVAN, Grand Rapids, Mich.
Pleasant to the taste. Good for Children. Good for every body. For Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping-Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, Pneumonia and all Throat and Lung troubles no remedy is so good as A Prominent Minister Recommends Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Rev. Francis J. Davidson, pastor of the St. Matthew Baptist church and president of the Third District Baptist Association, 21 Second St., New Orleans, writes as follows: "I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for cramps and pains in the stomach and found it excellent. It is in fact the best cramp and colic remedy I have ever used. Also several of my parishioners have used it with equally satisfactory results." For sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville, Farmville Pharmacy Farmville.

In order to tell a woman's age correctly a man must first ascertain it.

Good for Children.

The pleasant to take and harmless One Minute Cough Cure gives immediate relief in all cases of Cough, Croup and LaGrippe because it does not pass immediately into the stomach, but takes effect right at the seat of the trouble. It draws out the inflammation, heals and soothes and cures permanently by enabling the lungs to contribute pure life-giving and life-sustaining oxygen to the blood and tissues. Jno. L. Wooten.

Ministers denounce gambling, yet they keep right on boosting the matrimonial game.

A Demonstration of What Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Can Do.

"One of our customers, a highly respected citizen of this place, had been for ten years a sufferer from chronic diarrhoea," writes Walden & Martin, druggist, of Enterprise, Ala. "He had used various patent preparations and had been treated by physicians without any permanent benefit. A few months ago he commenced taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and in a short time was entirely cured. Many citizens of Enterprise who know the gentleman will testify to the truthfulness of his statement." For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, Farmville Pharmacy Farmville.

If a man is able to collect his thoughts he can pull through without borrowing trouble.

A Sweet Breath

is a never failing sign of a healthy stomach. When the breath is bad the stomach is out of order. There is no remedy in the world equal to Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for curing indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders. Mrs. Mary S. Crick, White Plains Ky., writes: "I have been a dyspeptic for years—tried all kinds of remedies but continued to grow worse. By the use of Kodol I began to improve at once, and after taking a few bottles am fully restored in weight, health and strength and can eat whatever I like." Kodol digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. Jno. L. Wooten.

If you would predict a man's future get the proper focus on his past.

A disordered stomach may cause no end of trouble. When the stomach fails to perform its functions the bowels become deranged, the liver and kidneys congested, causing numerous diseases, the most fatal of which are painless and therefore the more to be dreaded. The important thing is to restore the stomach and liver to a healthy condition, and for this purpose no better preparation can be used than Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville Farmville Pharmacy Farmville.

It isn't what a man is that makes him happy; it's what he thinks he is.

For liver troubles and constipation There's nothing better in creation Than Little Early Risers, the famous little pills.

They always effect a cure and save doctor bills.

Little Early Risers are different from all other pills. They do not weaken the system, but act as a tonic to the tissues by arousing the secretions and restoring the liver to the full performance of its functions naturally. Jno. L. Wooten.

wonderful Minute Shells.

There is a sand bank at Connemara, on the west coast of Ireland, that is the Mecca of every curiosity seeker who is fortunate enough to know of its existence. As a general thing sand banks are not a great attraction, but in this particular case the attractive power is not in the sand itself, but in the millions of extinct miniature shells which are almost as numerous as the grains of sand with which they are intermingled. The largest of these little wonders is smaller than the smallest pin-head and some of them so minute that they can easily be put through the eye of a common sewing needle, yet each is as perfect as the pearly nautilus, the spider shell, the sea urchin or any other marine oddity.

They are of all shapes and forms imaginable. One will have the perfect outlines of a miniature basket, another will look like a fairy's tobacco box, while a third needs no effort of the imagination to give it the form of a bottle. The flash shells of Ceylon and Australia are the only living representatives of these conchological wonders. Naturalists who have examined the Ceylonese flash shells say that each is filled with a tiny bit of jellylike substance, which of course is the animal itself, but which is so infinitesimal that no distinction can be observed between head and heart, mouth and stomach.

Eskimo Mythology.

Among the Eskimos the sun is a maiden, and the moon is her brother who is overcome by a wicked passion for her. Once as this girl was at a dancing party in a friend's hut some one came up and took hold of her by the shoulders and shook her, which is, according to the legend, the Eskimo manner of declaring one's love. She could not tell who it was in the dark, and so she slipped her hand in some soot and smeared one of his cheeks with it. When a light was struck in the hut, she saw to her dismay that it was her brother, and without waiting to learn any more she took to her heels. He started in hot pursuit. And so they ran until they got to the end of the world, the jumping off place, when they both jumped into the sky. There the moon still chases his sister, the sun, and every now and then he turns his sooty cheek to the earth, when he becomes so dark that you cannot see him.

Raw Eggs.

When raw eggs are ordered for an invalid to whom they are objectionable, make as palatable as possible by having the egg as cold as one can make it and then serve it from a cold glass as soon as it is opened. Of course it is useless to serve any save perfectly fresh eggs.

If the white alone is to be taken, it should be beaten with a whisk until very stiff and frothy, then seasoned with salt or sugar, whichever is preferred, and eaten with a spoon.

Some who object to an egg beaten in a glass of milk, sweetened and flavored, can take the egg if the sugar is omitted and the flavoring extract replaced by brandy.—What to Eat.

Women and Money.

If you would have your women folk economical, let them handle money and learn to respect its value. There may be women who have not sufficient womanliness to honor the confidence this trust implies, but they are exceptions. If such be your daughters, it is your business to teach them otherwise. If they be your wives, it is your own fault for having married them. When a father gives his son an allowance, he should do the same for his daughter, not as a matter of material favor, for the daughter's bills might double the son's allowance, but as a matter of discipline, of financial experience and education.—Collier's.

The Story of Bishop Hatto.

Bishop Hatto was a wicked prelate who lived in 970 on the banks of the Rhine, where he owned a tower, which is at the present day pointed out to travelers as the Mouse tower. Here are stored large quantities of grain. A famine ensued, and the bishop invited the people to his granaries. As soon as they were there he set fire to the building and burned up the people. The next morning the souls of the dead appeared as an army of rats and not only destroyed everything belonging to the bishop, but finished by making a meal of his person.

Quick Wit.

Regnier, the French actor, had once to call out to a fellow actor who was expected to enter from the right wing. "Ha, ha—there you are!" For some unaccountable reason, however, the actor came on the stage on the left side, and Regnier, without being in the least disconcerted, gave his call and added, with a smile, "I saw you in the looking glass."

A Widow.

"Can any little boy or girl tell me the meaning of the word widow?" asked the teacher. "Well, Willie?" to an urchin who waved his hand vigorously. "A widow," said Willie breathlessly, "is a man's wife that's lost her husband."

GUARD HEALTH

WINE OF CARDUI FOR WOMEN

Every woman should see that the periodical function is kept in a healthy condition. The way is to take an occasional dose of Wine of Cardui.

Every woman is subject to conditions which bring on female weakness. Wine of Cardui gives women strength for all the duties of life. It gives them strong nerves and freedom from pains.

Wine of Cardui not only cures but guards the health. The organs quickly respond to the healing vegetable ingredients of which Wine of Cardui is composed. A healthy woman does well to take this medicine on approaching her periodical sickness. Wine of Cardui cures the worst cases of prolonged female troubles and has cured thousands of them quickly and completely in the privacy of home.

CHICORA, Miss., May 1, 1902.
Wine of Cardui and Thedford's Black-Draught is a sure cure for all female diseases. I recommend your medicines to all my friends everywhere I go. Five months ago I could not walk across the house without great pain but I am well again. I have only taken four bottles of Wine of Cardui but feel better than I have felt in two years.
MRS. N. T. GLIDEWELL.

A Combination of the Tobacco Interests.

Raleigh, N. C., April 22.—It is learned that it is proposed to form a combination of the tobacco warehouses in this state, to reduce the force of employees therein and to eliminate the drummers, and further to operate jointly the warehouses at each of the largest points and to cut out those at the smaller places. This is an interesting piece of news. It is said that Virginia warehouses are in the "combine." The warehousemen have in the past been strong friends of the leaf growers and have always used their best efforts to put up the prices for their customers. If the report of this combination be true, it means a big loss to the farmer. It is reported that the tobacco trust is behind the movement.

"Dorothy Dodd"

THE FAULTLESS FITTING SHOE FOR WOMEN

Let us assume that your shoes fit you. Now, what next? What is most important? Unquestionably, style. If it has style you want it. If it has not style, but everything else, you do not want it. The style of a Dorothy Dodd is unique. It cannot be duplicated by any other maker, because the Dorothy Dodd is a totally different construction from any other ladies' shoe. Besides being exclusive in style, it holds the foot firmly at the instep, prevents the foot from slipping forward, and gives a correct poise in walking. It makes the foot look nearly a whole size smaller. That's curious, and you won't believe it until you see it. Just for once try the Dorothy Dodd Faultless Fitting Ladies' Shoe and prove the truthfulness of our assertion.
