April turns Mayward. April has a double function to perform. She must, by hook or crook, get Winter to leave the stage, and she is naturally disagreeable until he has gone. Then in a moment she becomes all smiles and sunshine, and gives us a foretaste of May.

Today everybody is ready to welcome the new season, and there is no place like this store to help you to the new things and make Spring favorable and delightful. Men of good judgment come to this store for their furnishings.

Most women know that we carry a splendid line of Dress Goods and Trimmings.

LaGrange Bank Robbed.

For liver troubles and constipation There's nothing better in creation Than Little Early Risers, the famous little pills They always effect a cure and save doctor bills. Little Early Risers are different from all other pills. They do not weaken the system, but act as a tonic to the tissues by arousing the secretions and restoring the liver to the full performance of its functions naturally. Jno. L. Wooten.

Washington Letter

Special Correspondence from the Capital of the Nation.

Washington, D. C. April 27.

There has been, within the past week, open avowal of the determination on the part of certain influential republicans to defeat Mr. Roosevelt in the national republican convention. This opposition is based on his alleged erraticism and the ground that he is not a "safe man." It is an ill wind which blows nobody good, however, and the same men who are opposing Mr. Roosevelt are contemplating the support of the democratic ticket if a careful and conservative man should be the nominee. A prominent New Yorker who has been recently in Washington said, on this subject, "We do not want a man in the White House who is always looking for a new sensation and who is willing to abandon even the things of his own invention as soon as they cease to be novel. The enforcement of laws which exist and the advocacy of more effective legislation to a desired end is not to be objected to in a president, but we do not want a president to whom the sensational appeals and who would do a thing in the wrong way rather than in the right in order to appear in the glare of the lime light." This is only a sample of the arguments advanced against Mr. Roosevelt's candidacy by that element of New York business men known as "conservatives" and it is heard so frequently as to occasion serious concern to the supporters of the president.

There is consternation in the state department as a result of advices from China to the effect that Russia has refused to withdraw her troops from Manchuria, has demanded partial sovereignty over the province and has further demanded the exclusion of all other nations. This is regarded as in direct violation of treaty pledges made to the United States, as well as to European nations, and the situation is regarded as serious although it is not likely that this country would go to war with Russia even if the latter violated her treaty obligations. It is more than possible, however, that the United States will join with the European powers in an emphatic protest, but that remains for the president to decide. Secretary Hay says he will submit the case to Mr. Roosevelt at Saint Louis.

A party of forty-six German agriculturists will arrive in New York the first week in May and will make a 10,000 miles tour of the United States, studying the agricultural methods of this country. The expected visitors are members of an "up-to-date" German agricultural society whose members make an annual excursion to some foreign country with a view to learning improved methods and being able to estimate the competition which confronts them in the various departments of agriculture. The party will be accompanied in this country by representatives of the department of agriculture, who will afford them every assistance in seeing the country. They will first visit the northwest, then go on to the Pacific slope and return through the southwest section of the country.

It is learned at the state department that Mr. Andrew Carnegie has added to the long list of his benefactions by donating $1,500,000 for the erection of a building to accommodate the Hague Tribunal. Mr. Carnegie has long been a most earnest advocate of peace and of arbitration and his generous donations is only a concrete expression of his great gratification at the establishment of an international arbitration tribunal. A rumor to this effect was in circulation some time ago but no definite action had been taken at that time and only last week did Mr. Carnegie put his offer in writing.

AYDEN ITEMS

AYDEN, N. C., April 28, 1903. W. E. Hooks returned from Fremont Friday night.

J. J. Stroud was in town Saturday.

Miss Eula Cox, who has been teaching near Willow Green, returned home Sunday. We are glad to have her with us again.

Miss Maggie Cox, of Centerville, spent Friday in town.

E. H. Jefferson, of Washington, was in town Saturday.

Jim Keel, of Hobgood, was in town last night.

The Odd Fellows and Rebekah's had their anniversary last night. They met at the hall, formed in procession and marched to the chapel of the C. C. College, where a very interesting program was rendered. The Daughters of Rebekah added much to the occasion. After the program they returned to the hall, where cake and cream were served.

Miss Josie Darden, of Willow Greene, was visiting Miss Helen Cox Sunday.

Jas. W. Hodges, of Washington, spent Saturday night and Sunday in town visiting her son and daughter Mrs. A. J. Manning and Stancill Hodges.

Rev. D. W. Davis was on our streets Saturday on his way to Ronntrees.

Rev. J. H. Griffith conducted services in the Episcopal church Sunday.

N. B. Roberson spent last Thursday night in town visiting C. M. Holton.

Your program committee, desiring to select the best qualified man to speak on the progress of Southern Education, invited ex Governor and ex Senator Jarvis, of North Carolina to make the address at this hour. Important legal engagements prevent his attendance and only a few days ago I was requested to fill the place on the program. I regret that you are denied the privilege of hearing that grand old Commoner, who for forty years has been a leader in the educational, political and industrial progress of the South. As a boy he volunteered in the Confederate army, returning home with a shattered arm. But with a clear head, a stout heart and a brave spirit he has been truly an educational Gamaliel in his Commonwealth. I suppose I was selected in his place because as a boy, living in an adjoining county, I sat at his feet, and am supposed to have caught his spirit and imbibed his views. In his robust old age, he has recently led a fight to establish a graded school and erect commodious buildings for it in his own town, consenting to serve as chairman of the board of trustees. There is the true civic spirit for you—an ex Governor and an ex Senator thinking it not beneath his dignity to serve on a local school board, and take active leadership in local contests for public education.—Extract from a speech delivered by Josephus Daniels, editor of the Raleigh New and Observer, before the educational conference in Richmond.

Installation Services.

A very impressive service was held in the Presbyterian church Monday night, at the installation of Rev. F. G. Hartman as pastor of the church. The sermon was delivered by Rev. James Thomas, of Wilson. His theme was an outline of the life of Abraham with special emphasis upon the faith of the patriarch and his constant dependence upon God. It was a sermon filled with good thought.

At the conclusion of the sermon Dr. W. D. Morton propounded the questions usual at such ceremonies and delivered the charge to pastor and congregation. The charge was one of earnest admonition to both, pointing out the duties of each to the other.

Dr. Morton will remain here during the week and hold two services each day, at 4 and 8 p. m.

Better Give us the Go By.

Safe crackers seem to be working numerous towns in the eastern section of the state. It may be that they have Greenville on their program for a visit, if so they had better take warning and mark this town off. There are some good blood hounds here that have been known to catch folks. Both the banks in Greenville are also equipped with burglar proof safes.

Hurt in Runaway.

W. B. Burnett, of Farmville, came to Greenville this morning, and about three miles from town his horse ran away. Mr. Burnett was thrown out of the buggy and quite painfully hurt, one wrist being sprained and his face badly skinned.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, APRIL 28, 1903.

LIGHT A-BREAKING.

The Wilmington Messengersays:

The announcement of the war department that it is ready to furnish riot cartridges to the national state guard causes much comment in the press. Does the government expect to use the state guard as a national police to suppress riots is the question some are asking.

The Messenger will remember that we practically asked that question some months ago, at which time The Messenger could see no harm in the new militia law. Is our seaside contemporary still willing to submit to the officers' opinions? Have the protests of the militia of New York, Virginia and other states shown The Messenger a new light?

"A contemporary is pleased to learn that ten dollars has been raised as a starter toward the ten thousand needed for a state exhibit at the St. Louis exposition. Now if somebody will kindly fill in the gap The Post will undertake to guarantee that the last ten dollars will be forthcoming," says the Morning Post. How can you expect North Carolinians to attend to a matter like this when it takes 10 hours per day to properly indentify the various boards which are just begging us to let them educate us?

The kid king of Spain, at a reception in the palace, of the international medical congress, disposed of the various nationalities in different parts of the palace, placing the Americans and Cubans in the dining room. This is construed as an intentional insult, and, we think, upon very flimsy grounds. We can't answer for the Cubans, but the average American's feelings are in no very great danger when he is lined up along side a table bearing all the delicacies of the season.

"Is marriage a failure?" asked the Irish citizen. "Ask Dooley. Bayfour th' mortgage on him was foreclosed he wurrucked seven days per week in twinty-four hour shifts, an' handed out bunches of Erin go Bragh with nateness an' dispatch. Now what d' yez see? He aint wroitin enough t' buy a baby-carriage, an' th' toime a comin', when the afoorsaid vayhicle will be a household necessity in Dooley's flat."

Official Washington punishes office-holders who have grown too big for their jobs, but hushes up proven charges against army officers who cheated the government out of many dollars in smuggling operations. This thing is not confined to any political party, but the federalists seem to be the best players.

Mr. and Mrs. Josephus Daniel, of Raleigh, have issued invitations to the fifteenth anniversary of their marriage, Saturday, May 2nd.

The Texas law looking to greater accuracy of statistics of the cotton crop is a good and wise measure and should be adopted by all cotton raising states.

It makes it obligatory on the manager of each gin in the state on the first of September of each year to make a report to his county judge of the number of bales of cotton he has ginned since May 1st, and thereafter until May 1st, he shall make a report for each previous month of the number of bales ginned. He shall also make with each monthly report an estimate of the percentage of cotton in his territory that has been ginned and of that which is yet to be ginned.

"Judge Grosscup in Chicago enjoined a number of leading railroad from discriminating against small shippers. It is remarkable how difficult it is to prevent the strong from imposing on the weak," says the Greensboro Telegram. Civilization certainly does not seem to have gotten far from the day when people

"Lived on the simple plan:
Let him take who hath the power
And keep who can."

Those Chicago preachers who entered into a dispute about the resurrection of Christ, ought to lay aside the cloth and take to the corn field. One verse of Scripture is enough to silence them: "And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain."

Civilization is sometimes not a wholly unalloyed blessing. Blinded by his town's new electric lights, the editor of the Dunn Guide credited a recent editorial from THE REFLECTOR to the Wilmington Star. Of course it is immaterial to us, but the Guide may be doing an injustice to the Star.

H. P. Cheatham, ex-negro congressman from North Carolina, is making an earnest effort to dig his fingers in the federal pap pot at Washington. Statesmen out of a job seem to have a hard time making an honest living.

"The announcement that half hose will be worn this summer is no doubt interesting to women, but few men will be able to see the difference," says the Asheville Citizen. Except on rainy days.

The board of education of New York City has ordered the exclusion of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" from the city libraries. It ought to have been done fifty or sixty years ago.

We are not placing too much credence in the stories from Washington about those stolen papers. They can fix up these little plays very handily.

A Prominent Minister Recommends Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Rev. Francis J. Davidson, pastor of the St. Matthew Baptist church and president of the Third District Baptist Association, 21 a Second St., New Orleans, writes as follows: "I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for cramps and pains in the stomach and found it excellent. It is in fact the best cramp and colic remedy I have ever used. Also several of my parishioners have used it with equally satisfactory results." A Demonstration of What Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Can Do.

"One of our customers, a highly respected citizen of this place, had been for ten years a sufferer from chronic diarrhoea," writes Walden & Martin, druggist, of Enterprise, Ala. "He had used various patent preparations and had been treated by physicians without any permanent benefit. A few months ago he commenced taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and in a short time was entirely cured. Many citizens of Enterprise who know the gentleman will testify to the truthfulness of his statement." For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, Farmville Pharmacy Farmville.

A disordered stomach may cause no end of trouble. When the stomach fails to perform its functions the bowels become deranged, the liver and kidneys congested, causing numerous diseases, the most fatal of which are painless and therefore the more to be dreaded. The important thing is to restore the stomach and liver to a healthy condition, and for this purpose no better preparation can be used than Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville Farmville Pharmacy Farmville.

Due Notice is Served.

Due notice is hereby served on the public generally that DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the only salve on the market that is made from the pure, unadulterated witch hazel. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve has cured thousands of cases of piles that would not yield to any other treatment, and this fact has brought out many worthless counterfeits. Those persons who get the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve are never disappointed, because it cures. Jno. L. Wooten.

A Sweet Breath

is a never failing sign of a healthy stomach. When the breath is bad the stomach is out of order. There is no remedy in the world equal to Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for curing indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders. Mrs. Mary S. Crick, White Plains Ky., writes: "I have been a dyspeptic for years—tried all kinds of remedies but continued to grow worse. By the use of Kodol I began to improve at once, and after taking a few bottles am fully restored in weight, health and strength and can eat whatever I like." Kodol digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. Jno. L. Wooten.

Good for Children.

The pleasant to take and harmless One Minute Cough Cure gives immediate relief in all cases of Cough, Croup and LaGrippe because it does not pass immediately into the stomach, but takes effect right at the seat of the trouble. It draws out the inflammation, heals and soothes and cures permanently by enabling the lungs to contribute pure life-giving and life-sustaining oxygen to the blood and tissues. Jno. L. Wooten.

The Passions and Health.
"The passions effect on the health is not sufficiently regarded," says a physician in the Philadelphia Record. "The passion which is best for the health is avarice. It keeps one cool, encourages regular and industrious habits, leads to abstemiousness and makes against all excess. And hence the avaricious, the misers, live to a great age. The misers of history were all noted for their longevity. Rage is very bad for one. The passion causes an irregular, intermittent beating of the heart, and the intermittency in time may become chronic. Hatred creates fever. If we hate, we grow lean. This hot passion eats us like a flame. Fear is bad for the nerves, the heart and the brain, and therefore we should never permit ourselves to be afraid. But the strangest effects of all have been caused by the passion of grief. The medical books record cases where, coming suddenly in a violent shock, it has caused a loss of blood from the lungs in one person, paralysis of the tongue in another and a failure of sight or temporary blindness in a third."

"Three Sheets in the Wind."
"What was the origin of the phrase for drunkenness, 'three sheets in the wind'?" a landsman asked a sailor the other day. "Well," said the sailor, "I'll explain that matter to you. The two lower corners of a ship's sail are held taut by two ropes, one called a tack and another called a sheet. The tack is always kept very tight, but the sheet is loosened according to the wind, and the looser the sheet is the more freely the sail swings. If the sail is quite free, its sheet is said to be 'in the wind.' Now, suppose that all three of a ship's sails were quite free. They would then fly about very crazily, and the ship would wobble. The course of the ship would be a zigzag one, and the reason for this would be that she had 'three sheets in the wind.' That, I guess, is why a man, when he zigzags in his course, is said to be 'three sheets in the wind' also."—Philadelphia Record.

An Irish Duel.
The annals of the Emerald Isle bristle with incidents of dueling in which Irish humor, if not at all times Irish bravery, is conspicuous. On one occasion Sir Jonah Barrington fought a duel with a barrister named McNally. The latter had one leg shorter than the other and because it was his habit when in a hurry to take two thumping steps with the short leg to bring up the space made by the long one he was nicknamed "One Pound Two." McNally could get no one of his bar to fight him, and so he challenged Barrington, who good naturedly exchanged shots in the Phoenix park.
The baronet hit his opponent in the braces, then called the "gallows," and feared he had killed him. When the result was made known, one of the seconds shouted, "Mac, you are the only rogue I ever knew who was saved by the gallows."

Slaughter House Byproducts.
Some of the uses of byproducts of slaughtered animals: The blood is used for the production of albumen, the bones for knife handles, toothbrush handles, chessmen, etc.; the horns for combs, backs of brushes, large buttons, etc.; the hoofs for buttons, ornaments and fertilizers. Neat's foot oil, extracted from the feet, has a high commercial value. The fat is used for glycerin and butterin. Gelatin, glue, pepsin and other articles are obtained from slaughtered cattle and sheep. The value of such articles made every year represents many millions of dollars.

Children and Growth.
The year of greatest growth in boys is the seventeenth; in girls, the fourteenth. While girls reach full height in their fifteenth year, they acquire full weight at the age of twenty. Boys are stronger than girls from birth to the eleventh year; then girls become superior physically to the seventeenth year, when the tables are again turned and remain so. From November to April children grow very little and gain no weight; from April to July they gain in height, but lose in weight, and from July to November they increase greatly in weight, but not in height.

Meanings of Several Names.
Asia means morning or east; Europe, evening or west; Australia means lying to or in the south; hence we may consider that these names mean eastern land, western land and southern land. Asia is a Greek word; Europe is a Hebrew word; Australia is a Latin word. The origin of the word Africa is uncertain. Some conjecture that it is a Semitic word meaning "Land of Wanderers."

Unaffected.
Miss Speltz—Of course, no one could truthfully speak of her as pretty.
Mr. Lovett—Well—perhaps not, but she has such a quiet, unaffected manner.
Miss Speltz—Yes, but it has taken her several years to acquire it.—Philadelphia Press.

Asking a Good Deal.
"How about the rent of this house of yours, Flitter? Doesn't the landlord ask a good deal for it?"
—Flitter—Yes; he often asks five and six times a month for it.—New Yorker.

Proof Positive.
Miss Charcoal—I tell yo', Miz' Johnson, dese heah patent medicines hain't no 'count at all. I've been usin' dis lily balm face bleach fo' a year now, an' it 'fected me none.—Exchange.

Not Settled.

About now the old song "Put me off at Buffalo" may become popular with scandal mongers.

We hope the president will enjoy his vacation, but when he does get back to his job it would be well to adopt the motto, "Get Busy."

The mere fact that property is bringing no returns on the investment is no argument that it should not be taxed. There are numerous vacant lots in this town that are paying nothing on the investment, but you just try to buy one of them and you will learn more than we can tell you.—Durham Herald.

Mayor Tom Johnson positively refuses to allow any boomlet with himself as the boomed ito get under way, believing that it would interfere with the work he has set out to do in his own State, and Mayor Johnson is wise.—Charlotte News.

His Arm?

Mr. Bryan can come nearer working every day in the week without injuring his arm than any man in the business.—Durham Herald.

Mrs. Tyner did an unwomanly—and at the same time very womanly—act in going through the safe in the postoffice department in broad day light. One cannot but admire her superb nerve and her splendid devotion to the man she married. But what of the husband who sent her—or at least consented to her going—on a mission that will likely place her before the bar of justice for trial on a criminal charge and that may land her into prison.—Winston Sentinel.

Tom Johnson, of Cleveland, Ohio, shows his good sense in his letter to his friend Merrill. He stands no chance for the democratic nomination for presidency and he knows it and that an attempt to start a boom for him would injure his political prospects. He has too much sense to be tickled by such a nonsensical proceeding.—Wilmington Messenger.

Gov. Aycock is sending out 1,000 personally signed letters appealing for contributions towards raising the $10,000 desired to be thus secured for the purpose of making a state exhibit at the St. Louis exposition. It is his wish that any public spirited person who may see this notice in print will contribute something to this fund. This $10,000 has to be raised before the state can give a like sum.

Benson Burned.

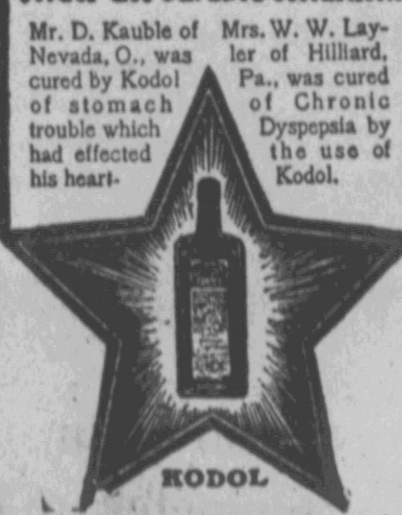

Benson, N. C., April 25.—Fifteen stores—a whole block—were burned here here last night, and also three dwellings the mayor's office and the guard house. The loss, it is estimated, will reach nearly $75,000, but its impossible at this writing to give the amount of insurance. It was the greatest fire the progressive town of Benson has ever had, but there will soon be new buildings taking the place of those burned, as the people of Benson are full of pluck and energy and are not to be discouraged.

It was with the greatest efforts that a great deal more of the business part of the town was saved.

"Dorothy Dodd"

THE FAULTLESS FITTING SHOE FOR WOMEN

Let us assume that your shoes fit you. Now, what next? What is most important? Unquestionably, style. If it has style you want it. If it has not style, but everything else, you do not want it. The style of a Dorothy Dodd is unique. It cannot be duplicated by any other maker, because the Dorothy Dodd is a totally different construction from any other ladies' shoe. Besides being exclusive in style, it holds the foot firmly at the instep, prevents the foot from slipping forward, and gives a correct poise in walking. It makes the foot look nearly a whole size smaller. That's curious, and you won't believe it until you see it. Just for once try the Dorothy Dodd Faultless Fitting Ladies' Shoe and prove the truthfulness of our assertion.
