April turns Mayward. April has a double function to perform. She must, by hook or crook, get Winter to leave the stage, and she is naturally disagreeable until he has gone. Then in a moment she becomes all smiles and sunshine, and gives us a foretaste of May.

Today everybody is ready to welcome the new season, and there is no place like this store to help you to the new things and make Spring favorable and delightful. Men of good judgment come to this store for their furnishings.

Most women know that we carry a splendid line of Dress Goods and Trimmings.

Burned.

On Monday morning, the 27th, little Graham Jackson, the two year old child of our townsman, W. C. Jackson, was painfully burned by a pot of hot coffee being turned over upon its neck and shoulders. Dr. Joseph Dixon attended the little fellow and at last accounts he was doing as well as could be expected.—Ayden Baptist.

The stables belonging to the county home of Alamance county were destroyed by fire Sunday night. Nine head of horses perished in the fire.

Special Term of Court.

Governor Aycock has ordered a two weeks special term of court for Pitt county, beginning May 11th, to be held by Judge Ferguson. This special term is to take the place of the March term which could not be held, owing to Judge Ferguson's inability to get here because of the sickness of his wife at the time. The special term will be for the trial of civil actions only.

John Stalioga, a 92-year old citizen of Cabarrus county, died Saturday night.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., April, 29. Mesdames John Galloway and J. O. Proctor, of Grimesland, were the guests of R. G. Chapman Saturday night and Sunday.

Mrs. Dr. Cox, Prof. Lineberry and F. O. Cox left last night to attend the State Sunday school convention now in session at Kinston.

We never have seen such a rush for guano. Every farmer seems to be afraid he will not get his season's supply. If the freight is late (which is most always the case) they will wait till late in the night.

R. G. Chapman and Joshua Manning left Tuesday for Washington to attend the carnival.

Mrs. Britt & Co. still have a nice lot of spring and summer millinery.

A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. are having such a general cleaning up as they have not had before in several years. Every old piece of plank, &c., that is of no further service must be removed to make room for the extensive work which is now to open up on trucks and Flues.

L. L. Kittrell left Tuesday morning for Vanceboro, to be present at a sale at that place.

The boys are quite merry as the great rush of work is most over for a while. Guess they think it time.

Annie Cooper, who has been sick for a few days is improving, we are glad to say.

Mrs. J. C. Cox was visiting here Saturday and Sunday.

Rev. C. W. Blanchard filled his regular appointment here Saturday and Sunday.

We regret very much that our school will soon close, as we love to see the young people going to and fro, seemingly having such a good time. But such is life.

Pulley & Bowen are exclusive agents for the popular Uncle Sam shoes. These shoes are winning their way quickly in Greenville. The Uncle Sam patent leathers are guaranteed not to crack before the outer sole wears out—if they do you get your money back or a new pair. Uncle Sam shoes are on everybody's feet.

Correction.

In reporting the case in Superior court of Luke Best and Isaac Best not guilty, it should have been not guilty as to Luke Best and mis trial as to Isaac Best.

Early Closing.

As the first of May draws near the question is being asked if the merchants will begin then to close their stores at 7 o'clock p. m. and continue during the summer. There is not much trade out at night in the summer months, except Saturday nights, and by closing early the merchants will not only save the expense of lighting their stores, but will also give their clerks a needful rest and prepare them for business the next day.

Wreck of a Work Train.

Kansas City, April 27.—A Star special from Buffalo, Kansas, says: A north-bound Missouri Pacific stock train crashed into the rear end of a work train just north of this town last evening and 11 men were killed and 25 injured. Ten of the latter are seriously and four probably fatally hurt. They were Greek and Italians, excepting one, Peter Fry, an American who has lived here several years and was a boss on the work train. The cause of the wreck is given as misreading of orders.

THE LEE STATUE.

Virginia Will Present the Confederate Chieftain for Statuary Hall.

Richmond, Va., April 27.—The joint committee appointed by the legislature to provide a statue of Robert E. Lee for the National Statuary Hall in the capitol at Washington, will report tomorrow.

It will recommend that life size bronze statues of Lee and Washington be provided, the Lee figure to be made by Edward V. Valentine, of this city, and the Washington statue in the state capital here. Seventeen thousand dollars are asked for the purpose of securing the statues.

With reference to the Lee memorial the committee says:

"It will take two years at the least before the statue can be completed, and it is believed that when it is ready for presentation our brethren of the North will be ready to unite with their brethren of the South in giving the same welcome to the statue of Virginia's great hero that she has always joined in giving to the heroes of other states when their images have been presented to the nation to be commemorated in Statuary Hall."

Boy Killed by a Train.

Dunn, April 27.—Dr. J. W. Lucas, of this place, received a telegram this morning stating that his 14 year-old boy Clyde, had been killed by a train near Enfield. The boy left home about two weeks ago for Richmond and it is supposed that he was trying to get back when the accident occurred. The body is said to have been badly mangled.

The newest fabrics are here in single and double-breasted sacks, with the new narrow collars and lapels. The suits have not been out of the makers' hands long enough to lose their bloom of freshness—splendid time to make your selection. Prices to please.

THE SHERWIN-WILLIAMS PAINT is best because:

1. It costs less to do a job of painting with it for it covers most surface, and spreads easiest.
2. It looks best because it brushes out evenly, the oil in it is purest, and the colors clearest and most lasting.
3. It wears longest, and is most economical, because it puts off for the longest time the need for repainting.

You'll get satisfaction and save money if you use S. W. P. Color cards free.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, APRIL 29, 1903.

NEW CONSTITUTIONS STICK.

The Supreme court of the United States has decided, practically, that the new constitutions of Southern states are to stand.

The case before the Supreme court was the suit of a negro named Giles to compel the registrars of Montgomery county, Ala., to place his name, and the names of 5,000 other negroes, upon the registration. It was first tried in the Federal court for the district of Alabama, this court deciding that it did not have jurisdiction, and upon the question of jurisdiction the case was brought before the Supreme court by appeal and certiorari.

Justice Holmes delivered the opinion for the court. He said that according to the usual precedents the court had no jurisdiction, but said that this was a most extraordinary case and the supreme court had determined to lay aside for the time the question of jurisdiction and go into the merits of the case. It was impossible, he said, to grant the relief that was asked by the petitioner, the negro—first, because he had related that he is a qualified voter under a system, which, he admits, is fraudulent and in violation of the constitution of the United States. Secondly, observed Justice Holmes, it is beyond the power of this court to interfere in political cases of such a nature. He said that the court in Alabama properly dismissed the case.

The justices rendering the majority opinion were Chief Justice Fuller and Associate Justices White, McKenna, Holmes and Peckham. The dissenting opinions were from Justices Harlan, Brewer and Brown.

While the validity of the constitution was not actually passed upon, yet the majority opinion is construed as a declaration that the new constitutions of Southern states will be upheld for all time.

Now, in the name of common sense, let our writers and speakers drop the race problem, and turn their attention to something of practical benefit to the country. The negro has been hacked at by half-baked politicians and philosophers until it has become positively wearisome. The negro does not know or care anything about the theories of moralists or the decisions of courts, and does not need the advice of sentimental enthusiasts, and we can prove it by the Raleigh Post, as follows:

We are in full sympathy with our friend of the Greenville REFLECTOR in its earnest and well expressed wish that there be a let-up in the discussion of the "negro problem." As to his political and social "rights" they are settled, and settled to remain; and as to his industrial and educational opportunities he will receive his full consideration at the hands of the Southern people, if let alone. "Friends of the negro" elsewhere, and there are such in good faith, may lend all the aid they wish so long as it is done along those lines which tend only to the negro's improvement in the only fields that can afford him an opportunity for improvement. This done, and conditions be permitted to conform to intelligent methods under the guidance of the good people of the South, the negro no less than the white people will prosper. As the REFLECTOR insists, drop the negro as a "problem" and leave him to accommodate himself to the stern reality that by honest, sober, industry and perseverance can he succeed anywhere, and with these he will succeed more generously in the South than elsewhere.

Charlotte's 50 cent ante poker circle has received a severe jolt. Several disciples of the jackpot were indicted for gambling and were tried in the Superior court before Judge Shaw. They were convicted, and after a sound lecture on the subject of gambling Judge Shaw sentenced one of the defendants to 12 months on the chain gang, another to 6 months, one was fined $75 and costs, and four others $50 each and costs. That is the kind of justice that strikes at the root of crime.

"A waitress in a Richmond restaurant horse whipped a young man who had constantly annoyed and insulted her by his attention. A dose of good raw hide is a most wholesome thing to administer to a reprobater at times, and the woman is to be commended for her grit," says the Raleigh Times. Yes, we admire her grit, but we had rather the girl's brother or father had administered the cow-hiding.

The editor of the Winston-Salem Journal is having some little difficulty in getting onto the peculiarities of our primary and registration customs. They do these things a little differently in New York, brother, but you will have plenty of opportunity of getting used to our ways.

If Durham and Asheville do not get rid of the saloon evil and places of ill fame, it will not be due to lack of effort on the part of the better class of citizens. Other towns might well follow this example in the fight against these evils.

About the time other towns have quieted down from their local political circuses, Greenville will just begin painting up for a performance. Our election will not be held until the first Monday in June.

"About this time" begin to look out for the yarns about discord in the republican ranks and plans to defeat Roosevelt's nomination. This reminds us of fish and snake stories.

They are about to prove that Sir Walter Raleigh never saw North Carolina's shores, but Wait was such an all-around handy chap he deserves a monument on general principles.

A Prominent Minister Recommends Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Rev. Francis J. Davidson, pastor of the St. Matthew Baptist church and president of the Third District Baptist Association, 21 s Second St., New Orleans, writes as follows: "I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for cramps and pains in the stomach and found it excellent. It is in fact the best cramp and colic remedy I have ever used. Also several of my parishioners have used it with equally satisfactory results." A Demonstration of What Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Can Do.

"One of our customers, a highly respected citizen of this place, had been for ten years a sufferer from chronic diarrhoea." writes Walden & Martin, druggist, of Enterprise, Ala. "He had used various patent preparations and had been treated by physicians without any permanent benefit. A few months ago he commenced taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and in a short time was entirely cured. Many citizens of Enterprise who know the gentleman will testify to the truthfulness of his statement." For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, Farmville Pharmacy Farmville.

Paying a choir to sing you songs of praise is a great deal like smelling the perfume of flowers with some one else's nose.

A disordered stomach may cause no end of trouble. When the stomach fails to perform its functions the bowels become deranged, the liver and kidneys congested, causing numerous diseases, the most fatal of which are painless and therefore the more to be dreaded. The important thing is to restore the stomach and liver to a healthy condition, and for this purpose no better preparation can be used than Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville Farmville Pharmacy Farmville.

Due Notice is Served.

Due notice is hereby served on the public generally that DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the only salve on the market that is made from the pure, unadulterated witch hazel. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve has cured thousands of cases of piles that would not yield to any other treatment, and this fact has brought out many worthless counterfeits. Those persons who get the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve are never disappointed, because it cures. Jno. L. Wooten.

is a never failing sign of a healthy stomach. When the breath is bad the stomach is out of order. There is no remedy in the world equal to Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for curing indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders. Mrs. Mary S. Oriek, White Plains Ky., writes: "I have been a dyspeptic for years—tried all kinds of remedies but continued to grow worse. By the use of Kodol I began to improve at once, and after taking a few bottles am fully restored in weight, health and strength and can eat whatever I like." Kodol digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. Jno. L. Wooten.

The pleasant to take and harmless One Minute Cough Cure gives immediate relief in all cases of Cough, Croup and LaGrippe because it does not pass immediately into the stomach, but takes effect right at the seat of the trouble. It draws out the inflammation, heals and soothes and cures permanently by enabling the lungs to contribute pure life-giving and life-sustaining oxygen to the blood and tissues. Jno. L. Wooten.

A COMEDY OF LOST NUMBERS

"Oh, Maria, I'm ruined! Our wedding will have to be postponed."
"For heaven's sake, George, what's the matter?"
"I've lost twenty $100 bills."
"Where?"
"Where? What nonsense! If I knew where, wouldn't I go and find them? I've been robbed."
"Robbed!"
"One of the customers of the house came into the office last evening when I was alone and insisted on paying me $2,000. I told him that I would not receive it, as the safe was locked and I didn't know the combination. Then he said he had to take a night train for New York and I must receive it, as he wouldn't carry it with him. Fearing he would report me to the firm and they would blame me, I consented and gave him a receipt. After he had gone I put the bills in my inside pocket and started for home. I can remember leaving the office and walking a short distance; then my memory stops. At the end of a blank I was lying on the sidewalk, with a crowd around me. The first thing I did was to put my hand in my pocket to feel for the bills. They were gone."
"Gone? Oh, George!"
"A couple of policemen took me home, and mother persuaded me to go to bed."
"But what was the matter with you?"
"Why, the policemen say that I was undoubtedly followed by some person or persons who sandbagged me and took the money. Any one could see into the office, for the gas was on and the curtains not drawn. They may have seen me counting the bills and making a memorandum of their numbers after the customer had gone."
"You have the memorandum?"
"That's what troubles me. If I had that, the bills could be recovered. I can't remember what I did with it."
"Don't distress yourself, George, dear. Since you remember making it, we must find it. First the office must be ransacked."
"The office has been ransacked. I don't believe I left it there."
"Nor I. It would be more natural for you to take it with you. I hope you didn't put it in with the notes."
"I don't know whether I did or not. My head aches yet, and I can't remember much of anything."
"Do they blame you at the office?"
"Oh, yes. They say that I had no business to receive the money."
"And do they intimate—have they shown any disposition to suspect you?"
"They don't say so, but they look it."
"George, that memorandum must be found. You may have put it in some safe place in the office so unusual that it will be very hard to find it. You must attend to that. I can't help you. If you put it in any of your pockets, I will find it, for I will go home with you and turn them all inside out."
"Mother has done that already. No, nothing can be done. There's no hope of tracing notes the numbers of which we don't know. We are taken from a height of happiness and plunged into an abyss of misery. Tomorrow instead of being married I may be behind bars."
"Cheer up. Come; let us go to your home, and I will make a search."
"First give me your coat."
"Here it is."
"Now your vest and trousers."
"Here they are."
"Your hat. You may have put the money in the lining. No; it is not in any of your pockets nor your hat. Did you have on gloves?"
"No."
"You wouldn't have put it in your shoes. I've examined all your outer clothing. I don't suppose you have any pockets in your underclothing?"
"Not except in my nightshirt, in which I have a pocket for my handkerchief, but (contemptuously) I didn't have on my nightshirt on the street."
"Certainly not. Have you got on the shirt you had on when you were robbed?"
"No. Mother gave me a clean one to put on this morning."
"What did she do with the soiled one?"
"Oh, my dear, you are wearing me out."
"If you will get me the soiled shirt, I'll not trouble you any more."
"Here it is in the closet. But I must say that it seems very ridiculous to overhaul a shirt to find a memorandum. But father gave me a long lecture the other night to serve me, after being married, about the singular ways women have of getting at things, and it may be that after all (very contemptuously) there is some connection between $2,000 and a soiled shirt. Here it is."
"Where is the collar?"
"Oh, that's in the closet too. I suppose you want the cuffs?"
"Yes, I do."
"Well, here's the whole thing. By thunder!"
"These marks in pencil on the cuff! What are they?"
"The numbers of the notes."
"Thank heaven!"
"You mean 'thank you.' Father's right. Women do have queer ways of getting at things. Give me a kiss—another, another, a thousand."
Extract from newspaper item:
A Quick Recovery.—A man attempting to change a hundred dollar bill yesterday on which was a number known to the police was arrested, and nineteen other similar notes that had been stolen were recovered. George Randell, from whom they were taken, is to be married this evening. Mr. Randell's employers have given two of the bills to his bride as a wedding present.

GARDUI BABIES

Many homes are mere lonely abodes because no children are there. Barrenness exists in almost every case because female diseases have paralyzed the organs of womanhood. Wine of Gardui imparts health and strength to the diseased parts and makes motherhood possible in thousands of cases where barrenness is supposed to be incurable. Wine of Gardui regulates the menstrual flow and also prevents miscarriage and cures bearing down pains. Wine of Gardui removes the cause of barrenness by making the female organism strong and healthy. Go to your druggist and secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Gardui. The use of Wine of Gardui will bring happiness to your home.

Wine of Gardui is worth its weight in gold. It does more than you claim. It has saved my life and caused me to become a mother when everything else failed.
MRS. DORA I. E. LEFEVRE.

BRYANT, VA., Feb. 18, 1902.
My daughter-in-law, Lizzie Giles, found great benefit in Wine of Gardui. She had a miscarriage in March 1901, before using your medicine. She was in very bad health, so I persuaded her to try Wine of Gardui. Since then she has had a fine baby boy. Soon he will be three weeks old. She highly recommends Wine of Gardui.
My daughter, Fannie Hudson, also has a fine baby boy by your treatment. She highly appreciates Wine of Gardui.

Too Great a Risk.
A reliable remedy for bowel complaints should always be kept at hand. The risk is too great for anyone to take. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy never fails and when reduced with water is pleasant to take. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville, Farmville Pharmacy Farmville.

The height of impudence is when a merchant uses rubber stamped stationery to write to the editor of the local paper complaining about the editor accepting advertising from merchants in another town.

Is the London Bill a Law?

Senator Henry A. London, of Chatham, who was in the city yesterday to attend the Roney-Denson wedding, said:

"Did you know that the London bill, substantially as first introduced, except the fifth section, is now a law?"

"No," was the reply. "Is it?"

"The anti-jug feature seems to be a law for all prohibition counties in the State, incorporated as section two in an act entitled 'An Act to prohibit the manufacture, sale and importation of liquors in Cleveland, Cabarrus, Mitchell and Gaston counties.' I had never heard anything about it until I examined an act published in last week's Concord Times. Section two of that act entitled for the benefit of three counties so impressed me as being in the exact words of the anti-jug provision of the London bill that I got out a copy of that bill, and saw that it was word for word taken from the London bill. If it is not a law for the whole State, it certainly reads so on its face.—Raleigh News and Observer.

Five Men Missing.

Elizabeth City, N. C., April 28.—The fishing smack J. F. Becker, of New York, stranded at Bodie's Island, N. C., and is a total loss. Five men came off in a life boat. Five other started in another boat, but have not been heard from. They are: Jessie, John Baptist, Jackson Cons, John Lodez and "Spanish Joe." They may have been picked up by another smack, but it is feared they perished.

Some men spend so much of their lives trying to get rich quick that they never have time to make a living.

The most miserable failure in life is the man who always acts on the advice of others and never follows his own.

The fathers of large families would have more time to rejoice over the size if they could devote less time to meeting the bills.

Some men get fulsome praise on their tombstones because they never gave their friends a chance to praise them while alive.

We wish some man would invent a barber shop where the man who is in a hurry could always find an empty chair and an idle barber.

The Sherwin-Williams paints are the best. You can find all colors at Baker & Harts. See advertisement.

The criminal docket was completed Monday evening and court has since been engaged on the civil docket.

A smile and a frown come at the same price, but the former pays happy interest on the investment.

HUMBUGGED

There is one shoe that has built itself up to the top-notch of popularity on fit. That shoe is

WOMEN

Let us assume that your shoes fit you. Now, what next? What is most important? Unquestionably, style. If it has style you want it. If it has not style, but everything else, you do not want it. The style of a Dorothy Dodd is unique. It cannot be duplicated by any other maker, because the Dorothy Dodd is a totally different construction from any other ladies' shoe. Besides being exclusive in style, it holds the foot firmly at the instep, prevents the foot from slipping forward, and gives a correct poise in walking. It makes the foot look nearly a whole size smaller. That's curious, and you won't believe it until you see it. Just for once try the Dorothy Dodd Faultless Fitting Ladies' Shoe and prove the truthfulness of our assertion.
