Forbid Negroes to Vote in Primary.

Memphis, May 6.—The Democratic executive committee of Yalobusha county, Miss., has eliminated the negro from the forthcoming primaries for state and county officers by passing an order that only white voters shall participate.

The committee has recommended that the democratic state executive committee pass similar orders.

ANOTHER INDIANOLA.

WARNING TO NEGRO R. F. D. CARRIER AT GALATIN, TENN.

PAYNE WOULD SEND U.S. TROOPS

POSTMASTER GENERAL WOULD DO A BRAVE LOT OF FIGHTING BY PROXY.

Washington, D. C., May 7.—The postoffice department has another Indianola case on its hands. Information has come to the department that a negro rural delivery carrier at Gallatin, Tenn., has been held up by armed masked men and his life threatened unless he resigned. Postmaster General Payne has laid aside temporarily the malodorous scandals in his department and proceeded to give this newest incident in which a colored man is involved his personal attention. The postmaster general at once ordered the route discontinued and intimated that it might be re established by the aid of a company of federal troops, which he made plain would be sent to the scene of the trouble if necessary.

KILLED BY HIS SON

The Boy Claims That He Was Defending His Mother.

Asheville, N. C., May 6.—News received here tonight from Waynesville is to the effect that much excitement prevails there over a killing in that vicinity today. Samuel Kieth was abusing his wife when his son remonstrated. The father then turned on his son, when young Kieth shot him dead. The boy surrendered to the authorities, stating that he killed his father in defense of his mother.

Franchises Sold.

Weldon, N. C. May 6.—Major J. W. Wilson makes the announcement that the valuable franchises with all interests of the Roanoke Navigation and Water Power Company have been sold to Richmond and Norfolk capitalists, and that the transfer will take place in a few days. The sale of this property will not carry with it the Mash Island farms, Senator Cameron retaining the right to these lands. It is learned that the new owners of the canal property here will build electric lines, enlarge the power of the canal and encourage the building of factories. Major Wilson expects to return to his home at Morganton after the transfers are made.

Fines From Two Terms.

Superior Court Clerk D. C. Moore tells us that he has collected $1,271.57, fines imposed at the January and April terms of court this year. This money received for fines goes to the public school fund and has been paid to County Treasurer J. B. Cherry for that purpose. Judge G. S. Ferguson presided at both of these courts, and the large amount of fines shows he does not let violators of the law go unpunished when convicted.

FEUDS IN DARK AND BLOODY GROUND.

POLITICAL WARS ABOUT TO BREAK OUT IN OLD KAINTUCK.

Lexington, Ky., May 5.—Wood G. Dunlap, of this city, left today for Jackson, Ky., as attorney for the fusionists in the Brethitt county contested election cases. He succeeds, as counsel, James J. Marcum, who was killed in the court house yesterday while filing papers in these cases. It is feared here that the proceedings at this time will precipitate further trouble in the Cockrill-Hargis feud in which half a dozen lives have already been lost.

A telegram from a member of the Hargis faction to former Senator Alex. Hargis, at Winchester, said that Belvin Ewin, who was talking with Marcum yesterday when he was shot by the assassin in the Brethitt county court house, recognized the murderer.

Ewin, when seen yesterday, positively refused to say anything regarding the shooting, except to describe how they were standing when the shots were fired. He refused to say who fired or who was recognized in the hallway of the court house. The belief is that the feud is now re-opened. Tom Cockrill, who was charged with killing Ben Hargis and in whose defense Dr. D. B. Cox and Jim Cockrill lost their lives, is here, having returned from the west.

Former Town Marshal Johnson, by the killing of Marcum, has been brought into the feud, as have the families of Postmaster D. D. Hurst and of the Littles, one of the oldest families in the feud.

MOB CONTROLS OMAHA.

Governor Will Send Troops to Repress Violence.

Omaha, Neb., May 5.—For many hours today the wholesale business district was in the hands of a mob of 3,000 strikers who patrolled the streets, refusing to permit wagons belonging to other than union firms from doing any business whatever. Assault were of common occurrence.

Throughout the wholesale district today a state of riot has reigned. No wagons were allowed to pass in either direction, and in many cases the traces were cut, harness slashed, drivers pulled from their wagons and wagons pulled to their starting points by the strikers themselves.

The freight handlers at the depots and wholesale houses, to the number of 1,500 have signified their intention to walk out if forced to handle goods brought in by the non-union teamsters.

Lincoln, Neb., May 5.—The critical character of the strike situation in Omaha has impelled Governor Mickey to recall his adjutant general from St. Louis and all day preparations were made for quick mobilization of the state militia. The governor said tonight he would repress the first show of lawlessness and would refuse to permit any interference with men who desired to work.

It develops that the Catholic priest of Lorain, O., who was charged with murder is innocent. THE REFLECTOR published the story of his arrest, as did other papers all over the country, and we are glad to record that the priest has been fully exonerated.

News and Opinions.

We may be a little off, but don't think we are, in believing that it is exceedingly previous to be booming candidates for the governorship. The good miller doesn't turn on the water until he gets ready to grind. Frequently it transpires that the more stormy and tornado-like a boom is, the sooner it exhausts itself. And when its fury is spent it is done for.—Durham Sun.

What a glorious opportunity Mr. Roosevelt lost by not being present on the opening day of the street carnival in Raleigh. That mountain lion that made the dash for liberty must have known that this mighty hunter of large game was far away.—Wilmington Messenger.

One of the latest epigrams reads: "Every wife is the architect of her own husband." A wife may produce an excellent plan for husband construction, but if the building material be inferior a first-class edifice is out of the question.—Greensboro Patriot.

Greenville, N. C.

Mr. Joseph Pomerville, of Stillwater, Minn., after having spent over $2,000 with the best doctors for stomach trouble, without relief, was advised by his druggist, Mr. Alex. Richard, to try a box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. He did so, and is a well man today. If troubled with indigestion, bad taste in the mouth, lack of appetite or constipation, give these Tablets a trial, and you are certain to be more than pleased with the result. For sale at 25 cents per box by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

St. Louis went wild over Mr. Cleveland—which will give M. Bryan another pain in the spleen.—Norfolk Landmark.

GREATLY ALARMED

By a Persistent Cough, but Permanently Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. H. P. Burbage, a student at law, in Greenville, S. C., had been troubled for four or five years with a continuous cough which he says, "greatly alarmed me, causing me to fear that I was in the first stage of consumption." Mr. Burbage, having seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised, concluded to try it. Now read what he says of it: "I soon felt a remarkable change and after using two bottles of the twenty-five cent size, was permanently cured." Sold by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

Cigarette smoking used to be "mannish," but now it has changed. To see one smoking cigarettes is real "kidish."—Eln City Elevator.

Too Great a Risk,

In almost every neighborhood someone has died from an attack of cholera or cholera morbus, often before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. A reliable remedy for these diseases should be kept at hand. The risk is too great for anyone to take. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has undoubtedly saved the lives of more people and relieved more pain and suffering than any other medicine in use. It can always be depended upon. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

A South Carolina contemporary is of the opinion that it will soon be time for the Tuskegee graduate to "make his mark." Most of Booker's proteges are black enough to make all sorts of marks.—Florida Times Union.

A Farmer Straightened Out.

"A man living on a farm near here came in a short time ago completely doubled up with rheumatism. I handed him a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and told him to use it freely and it not satisfied after using it he need not pay a cent for it," says C. P. Kayder, of Pattens Mills, N. Y. "A few days later he walked into the store as straight as a string and handed me a dollar saying, 'give me another bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I want it in the house all the time for it cured me.'" For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

According to the inter-state commerce commission the wages paid to all the cheaper classes of railway employees are lower than they were in 1892 and 1893, notwithstanding the widely advertised increases recently granted by some companies—Exchange.

on the arm, to the worst sort of a burn, sore or boil, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is a quick cure. In buying Witch Hazel Salve, be particular to get DeWitt's—this is the salve that heals without leaving a scar. A specific for blind bleeding, itching and protruding piles. Sold by Wooten's Drug Store.

The X-Rays.

Recent experiments, by practical tests and examination with the aid of the X-Rays, establish it as a fact that Catarrh of the Stomach is not a disease of itself, but that it results from repeated attacks of indigestion. "How Can I Cure My Indigestion?" Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is curing thousands. It will cure you of indigestion and dyspepsia, and prevent or cure Catarrh of the Stomach. Kodol digests what you eat—makes the stomach sweet. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

Are due to indigestion. Ninety-nine of every one hundred people who have heart trouble can remember when it was simple indigestion. It is a scientific fact that all cases of heart disease, not organic, are not only traceable to, but are the direct result of indigestion. All food taken into the stomach which fails of perfect digestion ferments and swells the stomach, puffing it up against the heart. This interferes with the action of the heart, and in the course of time that delicate but vital organ becomes diseased.

Mrs. Loring Nichols of Penn Yan, N. Y., writes: "After eating, my food would distress me by making my heart palpitate and I would become very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. After using a few bottles I am cured."
 Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders, and gives the heart a full, free and untrammelled action.
 Bottles only, $1.00. Size holding 2 1/2 times the trial size, which sells for 50c.

Why is a lazy dog like a bill? Because he is a slow pup. (Slope-up.)

A Little Early Riser

now and then, at bedtime will cure constipation, biliousness and liver troubles. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the famous little pills that cure by arousing the secretions, moving the bowels gently, yet effectually, and giving such tone and strength to the glands of the stomach and liver that the cause of the trouble is removed entirely, and if their use is continued for a few days, there will be no return of the complaint. Sold by Wooten's Drug Store.

The St. Louis exhibit and the Sir Walter Raleigh monument are not quite neck-and-neck.

Uncommercial List.
 Artistic folk frequently have somewhat vague notions about business. Some of them are quite ignorant of it, others utterly indifferent to it and others yet hate the very name of it. One in the last named category was Liszt. He had returned from a successful tour, and Princess Metternich, the wife of the celebrated statesman and diplomatist, was questioning him regarding the concerts he had been giving abroad. "I hear," she said, "that you did good business in Paris."
 To which Liszt gave the tart reply: "I only played some music there. Business—that I leave to bankers and diplomatists."
 To another lady the musical cleric gave a still more sarcastic answer. "Ah, Abbe," she sighed, "what a great fortune you would make if only you could be induced to go to America to play!"
 "Madame," returned Liszt, "if you stood in need of that fortune, believe me, I would go at once."—Collier's Weekly.

The Eye of the East.
 Damascus, perhaps the most ancient city in the world, claims the proud title of "the Eye of the East," which the striking beauty of its aspect from a distance fully justifies.
 Bright buildings which sparkle under the Syrian sun rise out of a mass of many tinted foliage. To the northwest stretch the long, bare, snow white ridges of Anti-Lebanon, while in charming contrast gardens, rich cornfields and teeming orchards form a brilliant setting on all sides.
 Winding through this profuse display of oriental beauty, the rivers Barrada and Phege—the Abana and Parphar of Scripture—lose themselves far to the east in Lake Bah-el-Merj. On a nearer view much of this glamour vanishes, and there is abundant evidence of general decay.
 A similar title is given to Athens in Milton's "Paradise Regained." It is: Athens, the eye of Greece, mother of arts.

A Pair of Catfish.
 A pair of catfish that were continuously watched in a government aquarium made a nest by removing the gravel from a corner. During the first few days after hatching the fry, banked in the corners of the tank, were at irregular intervals actively stirred by the barbels of the parents, usually the male. Subsequently the parents were seen to suck the eggs into their mouths and then extrude them with some force. The precocious feeding habits of the old fish gradually overcame the parental instinct. The tendency to suck the fry into their mouths continued and the inclination to spit them out diminished, so that the number of young dwindled daily, and the 500 that had been left with their parents had completely disappeared in six weeks, although other food was liberally supplied.

Gounod the Man.
 Gounod was one of the most fascinating men I have ever met. His manner had a charm that was irresistible, and his kindly eyes, as soft and melting as a woman's, would light up with a smile now tender, now humorous, that fixed itself ineffaceably upon the memory. He could speak English fairly well, but preferred his own language, in which he was a brilliant conversationalist, and he could use to advantage a fund of keen, ready wit. He was at this time influenced by a recrudescence of that religious mysticism which had strongly characterized his youthful career, but his tone, though earnest and thoughtful when he was dwelling upon his art, could brighten up with the lightness and gaiety of a true Parisian.—Hermann Klein in Century.

Fuel in Ancient Rome.
 The fuel of the ancient Romans was almost exclusively charcoal. This was burned in open pans, without grate or flue, and gave economical heat for living rooms and baths. Careful experiment has shown that such fires yield no considerable amount of dangerous carbonic oxide. The inconvenience of chimneys was avoided, the heat could be easily regulated, and a pan with a burning surface sufficed to heat a church seating 2,000 people.

Work While You Pray.
 A squall caught a party of tourists on a lake in Scotland and threatened to capsize their boat. When it seemed that the crisis had really come, the largest and strongest man in the party, in a state of intense fear, said, "Let us pray." "No, no, my man!" shouted the bluff old boatman. "Let the little man pray. You take an oar!"—Success.

No Apology Necessary.
 "I congratulate you most heartily," said the nearsighted guest at the wedding, "on this happy—oh, I beg your pardon! I thought I was speaking to the bridegroom."
 "That's all right," the other man replied. "I accept your congratulations. I am the father of the bride."—Chicago Tribune.

The Nurse.
 The London Hospital complains that the word "nurse" means too many different things, from the board school girl of fourteen, who gets 2 shillings a week for minding the baby, to the highly skilled nurse who follows the army doctor to the very battlefield.

His Worst Experience.
 "Hex you ever been kicked by a mule?"
 "No, thank de Lawd. I never hex experienced nuthin' wuss dan a house fallin' on me!"—Atlanta Constitution.

Things move along so rapidly nowadays that people who say "It can't be done" are always being interrupted by somebody doing it.—Saxby's Magazine.

The Wastes of the Body.

Every seven days the blood, muscles and bones of a man of average size loses two pounds of wornout tissue. This waste cannot be replenished and the health and strength kept up without perfect digestion. When the stomach and digestive organs fail to perform their functions, the strength lets down, health gives way, and disease sets up. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that may be eaten into the kind of blood that rebuilds the tissues and protects the health and strength of the mind and body. Kodol cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. It is an ideal spring tonic. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store

There is one shoe that has built itself up to the top-notch of popularity on fit. That shoe is

"Dorothy Dodd"

THE FAULTLESS FITTING SHOE FOR WOMEN

Let us assume that your shoes fit you. Now, what next? What is most important? Unquestionably, style. If it has style you want it. If it has not style, but everything else, you do not want it. The style of a Dorothy Dodd is unique. It cannot be duplicated by any other maker, because the Dorothy Dodd is a totally different construction from any other ladies' shoe. Besides being exclusive in style, it holds the foot firmly at the instep, prevents the foot from slipping forward, and gives a correct poise in walking. It makes the foot look nearly a whole size smaller. That's curious, and you won't believe it until you see it. Just for once try the Dorothy Dodd Faultless Fitting Ladies' Shoe and prove the truthfulness of our assertion.
