ILL-FATED GRIMESLAND

AGAIN SWEEPED BY INCENDIARY FLAMES.

PROCTOR BROS. LOSE THEIR MILL, GIN HOUSE, COTTON WAREHOUSE AND REPAIR SHOPS.

The town of Grimesland has been visited by another disastrous fire, the third conflagration there in little more than a year. About 12-30 o'clock Friday night fire was discovered in the mill of J. O. Proctor & Bro., and this together with their cotton gin, seed house, cotton storage house and repair shop were entirely destroyed. The amount of the loss could not be learned, though it is total, as there was no insurance whatever on the burned property. The fire is supposed to be of incendiary origin.

JOYNER AND DAIL WILL BUILD A WAREHOUSE

O. L. Joyner and W. H. Dail, Jr., have purchased a lot on Tenth street, just opposite the American Tobacco Co., and in a few days will begin the erection of a mammoth warehouse, 100x250 feet, for the sale of leaf tobacco. This new warehouse will be modern in every particular and will be completed before the opening of the next season.

Mr. Joyner has been in the tobacco business eleven years and has done more for the advancement of the Greenville market than any other one man. He built the second warehouse that the market had and from that time has been closely identified with the tobacco industry. Besides his efforts in securing the location of buyers here, many articles from his pen appear in print from time to time that were helpful to the planters and brought this eastern section more prominently to the attention of the trade.

Mr. Dail has been identified with the Greenville market for five years, and these years have given him valuable experience as a tobacconist. He knows the business thoroughly, and is a young man of energy and integrity.

The farmers can rest assured that this new warehouse will do every thing for their interest and will merit a liberal patronage.

Mass Meeting.

On the third Sunday afternoon a mass meeting of citizens will be held in the court house, to take the sentiment of the people in regard to holding an election here on the question of a dispensary for Greenville. The question should be agitated between now and the meeting, and every one favorable to temperance should be present.

Racing.

Some of the owners of fast horses in Greenville have an occasional meet out at the race track. A race took place Friday afternoon between horses belonging to W. E. Hooker and Dr. William Fountain. Mr. Hooker's horse won.

CHAMBERMAID DREW COLOR LINE

PLUCKY INDIANA GIRL WOULDN'T MAKE UP BOOKER WASHINGTON'S BED.

[Special to REFLECTOR.] Indianapolis, Ind., May 9.—Miss Louise Hadley, a chambermaid in the Hotel English, has drawn the color line against Booker Washington in a way that has caused an immense sensation. Washington lectured here Wednesday evening, stopping at the Hotel English. Thursday morning Miss Hadley refused to make up his bed and clean his room. The manager told her she would have to do so or leave the hotel. She left, declaring she would not make up a negro's bed.

Big Hail Storm

O. L. Joyner returned this morning from Onslow county, where he had been adjusting some losses caused by hail. He tells us a big hail storm struck that section last Tuesday morning. In some places the hail reached a depth of 18 inches and the stones lay on the ground several days.

CONFEDERATE DEAD HONORED AT TARBORO.

[Special to Reflector.] Tarboro N. C. May 9.—Memorial day was appropriately observed here today. All business houses closed for a short while and many veterans who wore the gray assembled. Fitting exercises were held in the town hall under the auspices of the Daughters of the Confederacy. The program was as follows: Prayer, Rev. W. E. Gamble. Chorus, "The Old North State." Poem, "C. S. A.," E. A. Allbrooks. Address, Hon. Fred Phillips. Chorus, "The Bonnie Blue Flag." Roll call. Chorus, "Rest, Comrades, Rest." Presentation of crosses of honor, Mrs. H. C. Bourne.

Thanks to speakers and others in behalf of chapters, H. C. Bourne. "Dixie."

At the completion of program a procession was formed, headed by the Edgemont Guards, and all repaired to the town commons, where a sumptuous dinner was served.

School bonds For Sale.

By advertisement elsewhere in this paper Mayor H. W. Whedbee gives notice of the sale of $10,000 Greenville graded school bonds. Sealed bids for these bonds will be received on the 10th of June. The bonds will be in denomination of $100 each and will bear interest at the rate of 5 percent., payable semi-annually. It will be a fine investment and the bonds should bring a good price.

Offenders Growing Less.

Mayor Whedbee has turned over to the public school fund of the county $22.04, the amount of fines collected in his court for the month of April. This is the smallest collection of any month since the beginning of the fiscal year, July 1st. It shows that there are fewer arrests and fewer cases to be tried.

Teacher's Institute.

The county school board have ordered a teacher's institute for the colored in June, but whether there will be one this year for the whites depends. It has been suggested that for the whites there be a district institute held jointly by several counties, Edgemont, Pitt, Martin and others and continue for four weeks. If this can be arranged this county will do its part, otherwise there will be no institute for white teachers till next year.—Tarboro Southern.

Pitt county usually holds a four weeks institute, and has already arranged to hold one this summer at Winterville, beginning the middle of July. We feel sure that if the teachers of Edgemont desire to attend this institute they will be cordially welcomed.

Court will begin Monday for the trial of civil cases.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON, MAY 9, 1903.

DO YOU REMEMBER COEUR DE ALENE?

When THE REFLECTOR first denounced the Dick militia bill as a scheme of the federal government to obtain control of the state troops, our contemporaries and the public generally seemed entirely ignorant of the purposes and tendencies of the new law. Hence we stood almost alone in opposition to it. The attempt to put the law in operation, however, has brought about a discussion that bids fair to render it useless, in some states, at least.

Our contention has been and is that the law is wholly unnecessary, un-democratic, un-American and a taste of republican militarism that is likely to linger in bitterness in the mouths of all who accept it and abide by it. Events, even this early have demonstrated that is the right one, and it has been adopted and defended by some of the ablest journals in the South and in other states.

The strongest point against the law is illustrated by the trouble between the people of Galatin, Tenn., and a negro rural free delivery carrier, who was threatened with injury should he refuse to resign, and whose route has been discontinued by the post office department.

The impression prevails in Washington that the republican administration would not hesitate to order federal troops to shoot down the people of Galatin in the event of further trouble. It is known that the rank South haters and negro lovers in office in Washington would gladly give the order to federal troops, where the shadow of an excuse could be found.

What would happen, then, if the state guards were subject to the orders of such men as Payne, Roosevelt and their crew? Suppose the case were nearer home—right here in Greenville, and Roosevelt should order a company of Wilmington soldiers to march to Greenville and shoot and bayonet people, as has been done time and again with the regular troops in other states. Do you remember the bull-pens of Coeur de Alene, Homestead, &c? What would happen, we ask? Why, inevitably a conflict between the people on one side and their friends and relatives among the soldiers on the other. That is, if the soldiers obeyed the orders of their superior officers, and if they did not they would be court-martialed and shot.

We are not passing judgment upon the act of the Galatin people in demanding the resignation of the negro carrier. There are two sides to every question, and it may be that the people were perfectly justified in their course. The same thing might have happened in any state in the union—might happen right here. And certain it is that the position once taken, Pitt county would be an interesting location for federal troops.

A great cry is being raised around Raleigh because the newly elected aldermen have been doing a bit of trading so as to get the offices of the city distributed among their friends, have dismissed a lot of faithful officials and filled their places with incompetent men, and have turned the administration of the city upside down generally. Barkeepers and saloon clerks figure prominently in the new regime. If the situation is as bad as pictured in the News and Observer, Raleigh has a sorry set of aldermen, and it naturally prompts the question, Why did the city elect that kind of men? A little more care in selecting the right kind of men would have avoided all this rumpus that follows on the heels of the election. We expect these aldermen were voted for by the very men who are now criticising them.

The following from the Whiteville News is—well what would you call it?

We thinking the Governor was to wise to expect Editor with a long list of diligent subscribers to contribute even to so good a cause interpreted it to ask our subscribers to contribute. So if you have any spare change pay up your subscription and send balance to the Exposition fund that your State may be fittingly represented at this great Worlds Show.

The navy department is the latest to get a shadow on its hale.

"We object to the Greenville REFLECTOR calling Mr. Hearst plain Bill. Such familiarity is unseemly except it come from the Edenton Transcript" says the Durham Herald. All right, we'll compromise and call him Willie.

A former mayor of Minneapolis has been convicted of accepting bribe money and declared to have been "temporarily insane." Doubtless he stayed that way long enough to plant the money until he gets out of jail.

The Mississippi man who wanted to buy a post office probably thought it was cheaper than stealing one.

Judge Boyd, in "slandering Wilkesboro's hotel accommodations talks like a man who lived the first half of his life on corn husks.

"If Theodore should remain in hiding a few more weeks the country would forget that he ever lived."—Greenville REFLECTOR.

That is certainly so, and if the newspapers would quit having so much to say about him the people would soon forget him anyway, but every time he kisses a baby or goes to hunt bears or "coons" the papers tell it under big head lines. —Clarkton Express.

Decision Against Christian Scientists.

Philadelphia, May 6.—The Pennsylvania supreme court today affirmed a ruling of the late Judge Arnold, in which the latter refused to charter a Christian Science Association. Judge Arnold referred the application for a charter to a master, who after a hearing recommended that the charter be refused on the ground that "it would be injurious to the community to incorporate a group of citizens who would preach the doctrine that there is no such thing as a contagious disease any disease and practice the art of curing of what are called contagious diseases by inaudible prayer whether in the presence of the sick or at a distance."

The master's opinion was endorsed by Judge Arnold, who filed an opinion refusing the charter on the ground that the purpose of the association as disclosed was improper and in violation of the laws intended to prevent the practice of medicine by non qualified persons. The Supreme court today upheld this view and quashed the appeal.

Doctor Kills Negro.

Newton, N. C., May 6.—Dr. W. S. Davidson, a prominent physician and surgeon of this place, shot and instantly killed a negro, Dan McNeely, here yesterday evening. There were no witnesses to the shooting, but the facts as near as they can be ascertained are as follows:

McNeely was a servant at Mrs. Trott's where Dr. Davidson boards. Several days ago there had been trouble between Davidson and the negro, and the negro had threatened either to whip Dr. Davidson or to kill him. Late yesterday evening the trouble was renewed, when the negro started for Dr. Davidson with an axe. Dr. Davidson drew a revolver and shot twice, one shot striking just above the heart and another in the abdomen, killing him instantly. The coroner's inquest was held here yesterday evening and Dr. Davidson was committed to jail without bail.

If the young men of our country would take the advice of those who have been through the crucible of experience, what a generation of philosophers the next would be. But they refuse to do it, believing, perhaps, that they possess a higher order of intelligence more strength of character and can be successful where millions have failed. At the expense of health and happiness they persist in declining advice and at length reach the same goal as those gone before them. This is human nature.—Winston Journal.

GREATLY ALARMED

By a Persistent Cough, but Permanently Cared by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. H. P. Burbage, a student at law, in Greenville, S. C., had been troubled for four or five years with a continuous cough which he says, "greatly alarmed me, causing me to fear that I was in the first stage of consumption." Mr. Burbage, having seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised, concluded to try it. Now read what he says of it: "I soon felt a remarkable change and after using two bottles of the twenty-five cent size, was permanently cured." Sold by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

Too Great a Risk.

In almost every neighborhood someone has died from an attack of cholera or cholera morbus, often before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. A reliable remedy for these diseases should be kept at hand. The risk is too great for anyone to take. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has undoubtedly saved the lives of more people and relieved more pain and suffering than any other medicine in use. It can always be depended upon. A Farmer Straightened Out.

"A man living on a farm near here came in a short time ago completely doubled up with rheumatism. I handed him a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and told him to use it freely and if not satisfied after using it he need not pay a cent for it," says C. P. Snyder, of Pattens Mills, N. Y. "A few days later he walked into the store as straight as a string and handed me a dollar saying, 'give me another bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I want it in the house all the time for it cured me.'" For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

WEAK LUNGS A SOFT JOB

Weak lungs are mostly due to a neglected cough. Only a small per cent. of the millions who have consumption inherit it. A slight cold, a tickling or hacking cough is the beginning, and after it has reached a certain advanced stage there is no ending except the grave.

Any case of consumption that is curable; that is, any one having consumption whose family or friends still hold on to a ray of hope, may take comfort in the knowledge of the fact that One Minute Cough Cure will give instant relief and finally cure. This famous remedy does not pass immediately into the stomach, but lingers long in the throat, chest and lungs, producing the following results:

- (1) Relieves the cough. Cures for my lung trouble and it cured me. I have gained 20 pounds and I am a pretty live 'dead woman.' One Minute Cough Cure saved me." MARY F. SULLIVAN, Grand Rapids, Mich.

YOUNG WIFEHOOD

BOSTON, MASS., 152 Shawmut Ave., Oct. 25, 1902.

After I had been married about four months I felt my health generally decline. I seemed to lose the light step and dragged wearily along instead. My appetite failed me and I lost health and strength. I was nervous and had shooting pains through my limbs and stomach while bearing down pains and constant headaches added to my misery. The menstrual flow became more and more profuse and I was unfit to attend to my daily duties. My husband called in three different physicians and I took enough medicine to kill or cure a dozen women, but it all had no effect on me whatever, until I took Wine of Cardui. In a few days I felt a change for the better, my general health improved and at the next time of my periods my flow was more natural and I was in less pain. Gradually I recovered my health and strength and am now in perfect health. I take an occasional dose of Wine of Cardui which keeps me well.

I am happy to give you this endorsement.

The government of the United States has been exceedingly wise in its policy of increasing and improving the facilities for delivering mail in the rural districts. The Rural Free Delivery, which some of us thought a great humbug when it was first announced, is proving to be a wonderful blessing to many a neighborhood and affording people remote from the centers of thought and life advantages which were never dreamed of a few years ago. Daily papers are now going into many a home which heretofore had a hard time getting a paper once a week, and children in back country districts are learning more of the world than others who live in cities and who enjoy all the opportunities of metropolitan life. For country people read. They have time and inclination for it. They are not so absorbed with trifles that take the time and attention of our youth in towns, who see and hear so much, but read and reflect so little. It is right at this point that the R. F. D. is doing its helpful work. It is sending into the dark places a stream of light that is going to tell mightily in the years to come. We get our big men from these country places anyhow. They are not found, as a rule, in our towns and cities, and the R. F. D. will find them quickly and stir them to action. The government is wise in thus providing the means for finding and bringing to its service these strong country boys who having learned how to manage stubborn "critters" on the farm, the sooner and the easier learn to control the more stubborn elements in public life.—Thomasville Charity and Children.

COL. P. M. PEARSALL'S BROTHER DEAD.

A telegram received in the governor's office yesterday brought the sad news of the death of Mr. Mat J. Pearsall, of Moultrie, Ga., which occurred yesterday morning as the result of injuries received in an accident. The telegram came to Col. P. M. Pearsall, private secretary to Governor Aycock, the deceased having been a brother of Colonel Pearsall, who was out of the city, having left Wednesday for Wilkesboro on business. Up to a late hour yesterday evening the sad news of his brother's death had not been gotten through to Wilkesboro to Colonel Pearsall.

Mat J. Pearsall was about thirty years of age and was a young lawyer of marked ability. Only recently Governor Tyrrell appointed him solicitor in the judicial district in which Moultrie is situated.

A later telegram received last night stated that the remains of the deceased will be sent to Morganton. This message came from Morganton, where a sister of Colonel Pearsall resides.

HUMBUGGED

Don't be fooled by advertisements of men's shoes which are "super-elegant," "sculptured," "dainty," "architectural" and "statuesque."

Use a good honest Saxon word and ask if they fit.

There's the point! There's the rub!

There is one shoe that has built itself up to the top-notch of popularity on fit. That shoe is

Lewis Crossett's

If you want your foot look a full size smaller, if you want to spare yourself half of your daily fatigue, if you want to own shoes which will be a constant delight and last longer because they fit accurately, buy a single pair of "Crossetts." A million men say this. Comment is unnecessary. Oxfords, $3.00 and $3.50. Boots, $3.50 and $5.00. One price to all.

now and then, at bedtime will cure constipation, biliousness and liver troubles. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the famous little pills that cure by arousing the secretions, moving the bowels gently, yet effectually, and giving such tone and strength to the glands of the stomach and liver that the cause of the trouble is removed entirely, and if their use is continued for a few days, there will be no return of the complaint. The Wastes of the Body.

Every seven days the blood, muscles and bones of a man of average size loses two pounds of wornout tissue. This waste cannot be replenished and the health and strength kept up without perfect digestion. When the stomach and digestive organs fail to perform their functions, the strength lets down, health gives way, and disease sets up. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that may be eaten into the kind of blood that rebuilds the tissues and protects the health and strength of the mind and body. Kodol cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. It is an ideal spring tonic. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

THE FAULTLESS FITTING SHOE FOR WOMEN

Let us assume that your shoes fit you. Now, what next? What is most important? Unquestionably, style. If it has style you want it. If it has not style, but everything else, you do not want it. The style of a Dorothy Dodd is unique. It cannot be duplicated by any other maker, because the Dorothy Dodd is a totally different construction from any other ladies' shoe. Besides being exclusive in style, it holds the foot firmly at the instep, prevents the foot from slipping forward, and gives a correct poise in walking. It makes the foot look nearly a whole size smaller. That's curious, and you won't believe it until you see it. Just for once try the Dorothy Dodd Faultless Fitting Ladies' Shoe and prove the truthfulness of our assertion.
