ELEVEN INDICTED FOR WILSON MURDER

SPECIAL TERM TO BE ASKED.

Grand Jury Finds Bill for Murder in the First Degree Against Wilson Whitecapders.

Wilson, May 16.—The jury of inquest that has been taking testimony in the Jones murder case since yesterday has just concluded its work, and find that in said Percy Jones came to his death by pistol shot wounds inflicted by Gilbert Ward, J. B. Piver, W. H. Rich, W. P. Croom, W. W. Barnes, George Whitley and John Allen. The grand jury, however, return in open court this afternoon, court being in session here, a true bill for murder in the first degree, not only against the above named, but also against Lawrence Morgao, John Pittman, S. J. Walls and J. T. Boss. All these parties are in jail.

It is thought that a special term of court will be asked for, to try them. Much interest has been taken in the matter and crowds have attended each session of the jury. Very severe censure is put upon one or two of our policemen for being derelict in their duty, as they were especially charged with the protection of the man who was murdered, and were within 100 yards of the scene of the conflict and could have prevented it.

The murdered man was buried here this morning by the Odd Fellows.

Raleigh, May 16.—W. A. Finch, a prominent attorney of Wilson, arrived in Raleigh at 11:45 last night to procure from Judge Connor a writ of habeas corpus for S. J. Walls, one of the parties against whom a true bill for the murder of Percy Jones has been returned by the grand jury. To a reporter he said that writs for all ten of the others implicated had been issued by Judge Brown. Wall's family is related to Judge Brown, hence the necessity of procuring the writ through some other judge. Judge Connor issued the writ asked for and Wall's attorney carried it back to Wilson this morning. It is returnable before Judge Connor in the Supreme court at 4 p. m. today.

It is possible, if not probable, Mr. Finch said, that there may be no hearing in the Walls case here, that the solicitor may agree for the Walls case to be controlled by the result of the writ of habeas corpus in the ten other cases before Judge Brown. The cases are all identical and this could consistently be done. However, if the solicitor will not agree to this course, Walls, witnesses and counsel will go to Raleigh this afternoon for a hearing before Judge Connor.

Girl Stenographer Jumps From Hotel Window.

Chicago, May 13.—Miss Laura Strickler, a stenographer, was found unconscious upon the stone pavement of and alley in the rear of hotel Newport on Monroe street early this morning. She was taken to the county hospital and her condition is serious. According to her story told to the police, she was taken to the hotel by a broker who threatened her with a revolver. Thereupon, she jumped out of the third story window. The broker was arrested and claims he does not know why the young woman made the leap.

COMES OFF HIS PERCH.

Postmaster General to Reconsider Gallatin Affair.

Washington, May 15.—Further developments show that the "mob" that held up the Gallatin, Tenn., mail carrier was composed of two men. The belief is expressed that the holdup was the work of two drunken jokers, and that the former exaggerated report has been the subject for a terrific tempest in a very small teapot. Postmaster General Payne said he would reconsider the decision to abolish the route. The negro is reported to be lazy and negligent of his duties.

SEDITIONARY SHOW SUPPRESSED

Americans in Manilla Raise a Row in a Theater.

Manilla, P. I. May 15.—A party of Americans stormed the stage of the Liberator theater last night and broke up a seditious play. The piece which is historical has a climax in which the performers throw the American flag to the ground and raise the standard of a secret society. When this scene was reached a score of Americans sprang on the stage, routed the actors and smashed the furniture. The audience fled. Clonole Gletino a former insurgent, who wrote the play, will probably be arrested.

Portugese Can't Land.

Washington, D. C. May 14.—Captain Slamm of the revenue cutter Boutwell, which went to the relief of the passengers and crew of the Vera Cruz, which stranded on the 12th instant on Dry Point Shoals, North Carolina, has made a preliminary report to Captain Shoemaker, chief of the revenue cutter service. Captain Slamm says that on his arrival at the wreck he found that the master of the Vera Cruz had left his vessel with all his personal effects and instruments of navigation in the keeping of a "friend and passenger," to go to Wilmington, N. C., to secure funds with which to pay for the transportation of the passengers to New Bedford, Mass., the destination of his vessel. All of the ship's papers, including the passenger list were turned over to the collector of customs at New Bern, whither the passengers and crew were taken. The vessel, Captain Slamm, says, was practically abandoned by her crew. One hundred and thirty eight have been inspected and not one of them could land. The men claim to have deposited their money with the captain, who has skipped. They deposited from $4 to $38 each. Reports are that the captain has about 1,500 of the passengers money. Four of the immigrants will have to return to the island on account of trachoma, a very dangerous contagious disease of the eye, which causes total blindness. Dr. W. M. Glover has ordered their diet restricted as their gluttony after long famishing has caused much sickness. Sixteen are now in the hospital and several more are complaining.

How They Like Us.

A Pitt county young man now residing in Nashville, Tenn., writes THE REFLECTOR: "Enclosed please find $2 for two years pleasure of the news of Pitt county."

The Southern Comedy Co. will give an entertainment in the opera house every night next week and a matinee Saturday afternoon. Popular prices. Seats on sale Monday morning at Burch's.

A Gentleman's Haberdashery

It's the natty little "fixings" that lend grace and elegance to the summer man's apparel--nobby Shirts, Ties, pretty Hosiery and Undewear. To look and feel "summery" is an easy matter for the man who trades here. Somehow this is a great store for Men's Furnishings. What's the secret? Variety? Yes. Quality? Yes. Price? Yes. And if we should tell you there isn't a more carefully selected stock in Greenville, you'd think it just ordinary store talk. Is it? Come and be the judge.

VARIETY IS A DELUSION.

The Dunn Guide says:

In answer to the Greenville REFLECTOR's question we would say that we are thoroughly of the opinion that the little village of Greenville would furnish the quiet country atmosphere we so much desire. It's entire freedom from the noise and bustle of city and the unsophisticated character of its good people would furnish an ideal spot where one might while away the summer hours in tranquil enjoyment, and rest secure from noise or interruption. As we go from Dunn to Greenville the contrast from the city to the country would be delightful, and in much peace and tranquility we could spend a few happy weeks, free from the dust of the city and undisturbed by the sounds of commerce. Sweet Greenville, lovely village of the pines.

'Tis an idle dream, this longing for a change. We know whereof we speak. The air of a metropolis is the life and existence of the city dwellers, such as our friend from Dunn. You would miss the glittering, rushing Broadway of your grand city. The separation from society and yellow journals you could not bear. You would long for the sound of the fire bell and the odor of divorce proceedings. You would miss the daily murders and domestic sensations. You would pine for the voice of the milkman splitting the 4 a. m. air. Nay, nay, it would not do. Go your cosmopolitan way.

The Chicago Record-Herald has polled twenty-eight of the national democratic committeemen and finds only three of them in favor of the nomination of Mr. Cleveland next year, with seventeen opposed to him, eight non-committal. But the national committeemen do not nominate.

The president's San Francisco riding costume consists of a high silk hat, a very long black coat and black trousers with satin stripes down the legs. What actor has he taken for a model?

We suppose the leaders know more about it than we do. Still we think it premature to throw conuption fit about a presidential candidate.

So far the Southern educational scheme has failed to palm off its goods on the Charlotte Observer.

On the strawberry question the News and Observer is inclined to ponder o'er what might have been.

The labor situation in the northern cities is reported to be in a serious condition and that an epidemic of strikes seem to be threatened. About 1,000 men have quit work in Pittsburg, about 4,000 in Baltimore, 7,000 in Philadelphia, with a possibility of 40,000 and 5,000 in Chicago and many other cities.—Exchange.

Having been forewarned of their coming, we suppose England weighted down the other to prevent the island from tilting when Morgan and Carnegie landed at Liverpool the other day.—Winston Sentinel.

About Tobacco

The tobacco journals throughout the country are reporting better prices for the weed and there is some indication that the next season's prices will net handsome returns for the farmers. Upon the whole, the prospect has improved wonderfully.

We do not advise that the acreage be increased but we do suggest that it would be well for those who have the plants to remain steadfast in their determination to plant this crop. Don't allow the present unusual conditions of the cotton market to influence you to abandon tobacco, especially if you have already made your preparations.

The consumption of tobacco is steadily increasing and will probably so continue for years to come. It is not to be supposed that the trusts will depress the prices below the cost of production. Such a course would be suicidal.

We confidently believe that both tobacco and cotton will rule well next season, though look for no unusually high record in either.—Smithfield Herald.

We commend to the man that offers a $1,000,000 for an ideal servant girl that young woman who, in her capacity as chambermaid in an Indianapolis hotel, refused to make up a bed that had been occupied by Booker Washington. Perhaps she has too much of the Southern spirit in her to suit a Chicagoan.—Winston Sentinel.

Kitty's grandmother, whom she now saw for the first time, was deaf and had to use an ear trumpet. "You ought to see my granma," said Kitty to the girl next door. "She carries a telephone with her and makes you talk into it."—Chicago Tribune.

Mother—"Why my child, that little burr couldn't possibly have made you knee so stiff as that?" Little Lizzie—"Yes it did, too. Just try to bend it and see if I don't scream."—Baltimore American.

WEAK LUNGS

Weak lungs are mostly due to a neglected cough. Only a small per cent. of the millions who have consumption inherit it. A slight cold, a tickling or hacking cough is the beginning, and after it has reached a certain advanced stage there is no ending except the grave. Any case of consumption that is curable; that is, any one having consumption whose family or friends still hold on to a ray of hope, may take comfort in the knowledge of the fact that One Minute Cough Cure will give instant relief and finally cure. This famous remedy does not pass immediately into the stomach, but lingers long in the throat, chest and lungs, producing the following results:

- (1) Relieves the cough.
- (2) Makes the breathing easy.
- (3) Cuts out the phlegm.
- (4) Draws out the inflammation.
- (5) Kills the germs (microbes) of disease.
- (6) Strengthens the mucous membranes.
- (7) Clears the head.
- (8) Relieves the feverish conditions.
- (9) Removes every cause of the cough and the strain on the lungs.
- (10) Enables the lungs to contribute pure life-giving and life-sustaining oxygen to the blood. Cures Croup and all Cough, Lung and Bronchial Affections.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

"My physician told me one year ago that I would die of consumption inside of a year. I commenced taking One Minute Cough Cure for my lung trouble and it cured me. I have gained 20 pounds and I am a pretty live 'dead woman.' One Minute Cough Cure saved me." MARY F. SULLIVAN, Grand Rapids, Mich. Pleasant to the taste. Good for Children. Good for every body. For Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping-Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, Pneumonia and all Throat and Lung troubles no remedy is so good as

Mr. Joseph Pominville, of Stillwater, Minn., after having spent over $2,000 with the best doctors for stomach trouble, without relief, was advised by his druggist, Mr. Alex. Richard, to try a box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. He did so, and is a well man today. If troubled with indigestion, bad taste in the mouth, lack of appetite or constipation, give these Tablets a trial, and you are certain to be more than pleased with the result. For sale at 25 cents per box by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

GREATLY ALARMED

By a Persistent Cough, but Permanently Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. H. P. Burbage, a student at law, in Greenville, S. C., had been troubled for four or five years with a continuous cough which he says, "greatly alarmed me, causing me to fear that I was in the first stage of consumption." Mr. Burbage, having seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised, concluded to try it. Now read what he says of it: "I soon felt a remarkable change and after using two bottles of the twenty-five cent size, was permanently cured." Sold by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

"Has he a high opinion of his own work?" "By comparison only." "How is that?" "Well, he concedes that he is only moderately good, but he rather insinuates that all others are no: even that."—Chicago evening Post.

Too Great a Risk.

In almost every neighborhood someone has died from an attack of colic or cholera morbus, often before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. A reliable remedy for these diseases should be kept at hand. The risk is too great for anyone to take. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has undoubtedly saved the lives of more people and relieved more pain and suffering than any other medicine in use. It can always be depended upon. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

Little Mae "Is a man who hunts rats called a ratter, ma?" "I suppose so, my dear." Little Mae—"Then a woman who hunts moths must be a mother, ain't she, ma?"—Chicago Daily News.

A Farmer straightened Out.

"A man living on a farm near here came in a short time ago completely doubled up with rheumatism. I handed him a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and told him to use it freely and it not satisfied after using it he need not pay a cent for it," says C. P. Bayder, of Pattens Mills, N. Y. "A few days later he walked into the store as straight as a string and handed me a dollar saying, 'give me another bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I want it in the house all the time for it cured me.'" For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

The Wastes of the Body.

Every seven days the blood, muscles and bones of a man of average size loses two pounds of worn-out tissue. This waste cannot be replenished and the health and strength kept up without perfect digestion. When the stomach and digestive organs fail to perform their functions, the strength lets down, health gives way, and disease sets up. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that may be eaten into the kind of blood that rebuilds the tissues and protects the health and strength of the mind and body. Kodol cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. It is an ideal spring tonic. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store

The Word "Fudge."
Where did that very common word "fudge" come from, and what does it really mean? The appearance of the word in literature is in the description of the call of Lady Barney and Miss Carolina Wilhelmina Amella Skeggs on the vicar of Wakefield's household; "But previously I should have mentioned the very impolite behavior of Mr. Burchell, who, during his discourse, sat with his face turned to the fire and at the conclusion of every sentence would cry out 'Fudge!' an expression which displeased us all and in some measure dampened the rising spirit of the conversation." Does the word come from the provincial French "fuche" or the low German "futsch"? Or shall we trace it to the story of 1700 quoted by the elder Disraeli, "There was, sir, in our times one Captain Fudge, who always brought home his owners a good cargo of lies, so much that now aboard the ship the sailors, when they hear a great lie told, cry out, 'You fudge it!'"—Boston Journal.

Fish That Cannot Swim.
More than one species of fish is met with which cannot swim, the most singular of which perhaps is the maltha, a Brazilian fish, whose organs of locomotion only enable it to crawl or walk or hop, after the manner of a toad, to which animal this fish to some extent bears a resemblance, and it is provided with a long upturned snout. The anterior (pectoral) fins of the maltha, which are quite small, are not capable of acting on the water, but can only move backward and forward. Both these and the ventral and anal fins are very different from the similar fins in other fishes and could not serve for swimming at all.

Other examples of nonswimming fishes include the sea horse, another most peculiarly shaped inhabitant of the sea, which resembles the knight in a set of chessmen, and the starfish.

Robins.
American robins build plaster and dry grass nests in the crotches of trees, while the little English bird of the same name, only about half as big as its cousin in America, makes a soft moss nest on the ground. Its breast is a yellow, red or scarlet, much brighter than the American bird, and it sings even more sweetly, but it is of small value as an insect destroyer. The American robin, on the other hand, has a much duller, quieter coat, a more extended vocabulary, sounding many distinct notes of warning, fear, joy, etc., but not in so sweet a song, and is an inveterate worm and insect hunter. With only occasional lapses into vegetarianism, at strawberry and cherry ripe time, the American robin is really one of the most industrious allies the farmer can have.

"Silk" That Is Really Tin.
Of course British critics say with tin originated in Germany. At any rate, it is common enough now.
All silk is mixed with more or less foreign matter to give it weight and stability. Vegetable substances were formerly used for the purpose. In dyeing silk the necessary boiling reduces its weight about one-fourth, taking out the natural gummy substances. The weight is sometimes restored with tannic acid. Tin is more common—most of all in cheap black silks.
Very soft "wash" silks are apt to be pure. Burn a scrap, and nothing remains but ash. A tin weighted scrap when carefully burned leaves a residue like excessively fine wire gauze.

The Derivation of Gibraltar.
In 711 A. D. the Arabs crossed the narrow strait of Gibraltar and established themselves around the famous rock whose name is derived from their leader, Field Marshal Tarik and established themselves around the famous rock whose name is derived from their leader. Field Marshal Tarik was one of the leaders of the Arab invasion of Spain. Gebel is an Arabic word meaning mountain. The great rock, which was by far the most conspicuous object along the shores of the strait, was accordingly named after Tarik, Gebel Tarik, or the mountain of Tarik. It is easy to see how this name became changed into its present form, Gibraltar.

Marriage in Turkey.
The dowry of a Turkish bride is fixed by custom at about $170, which amount, for politic reasons, is seldom departed from, even by the rich. The wedding day is invariably Thursday, and the customary wedding festivities begin on Monday and last four days. They are carried on by men and women separately, and each day is distinguished by a different ceremony. No spoons or forks or knives are used at the wedding feast.

BEARING DOWN PAINS

3647 Indiana Avenue, CHICAGO, ILL., Sept. 27, 1902.

I have been a sufferer with almost every kind of female trouble for years, but as long as I could get around and do my work I would not try patent medicines as I had no faith in them. About eight months ago I had to take to my bed, suffering with prolapsus of the uterus, with bearing down pains and intense pains in the back. My aunt, who came to nurse me told me of Wine of Cardui and sent for a bottle. I am indeed glad that she did, for that first bottle started me on the road to recovery. In a few weeks I was out of bed and in three months I was in better health and stronger than I had been in years. I take a dose now, occasionally, of Wine of Cardui and am kept in perfect health.

Wine of Cardui brings certain relief to women suffering any symptom of female weakness and perfectly regulates the menstrual flow. Wine of Cardui stops bearing down pains by permanently relieving the irritation which weakens the ligaments holding the womb in place. You need not suffer every month if you take this medicine. The periodical discharge will be painless and healthy without continual weakening drains. Wine of Cardui will make your health right and you may treat yourself privately in your own home. Secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist today.

Winterville Commencement.

Friday afternoon the debate by the Vance Literary Society was held. The hall was packed with people eager to hear the speeches of the young men. The query was: "Resolved that Foreign Immigration should be Prohibited." Affirmative: D. S. Chapman, T. F. Taylor, J. C. Galloway. Negative: H. L. Stailey, C. J. Jackson, J. R. Carroll. The speeches on both sides showed careful study and preparation, and they acquitted themselves with much credit.

The judges of the debate were Prof. W. H. Ragsdale, D. T. Edwards, editor Kinston Free Press, and D. J. Whichard. Deciding which side was winner was no easy task, the contest being so good on both sides. After a careful consideration the decision was given in favor of the negative.

Friday night the concert under the direction of the Philoallean Literary Society closed the commencement. The entire program of this concert was splendid. An interesting feature on both this and Wednesday night's program was the use of three pianos, with three, six and nine performers whose playing was in perfect harmony.

Throughout the three days of the commencement Winterville was thronged with people, and they were taken care of with the town's accustomed hospitality. A gentleman from a distance was heard to remark "Every great institution is the shadow of some great man, and if the school at Winterville should exist for five hundred years the name of A. G. Cox would not be forgotten." The spirit of cooperation and harmony among the people of the town is bringing Winterville to the front.

Kidnapped 23 Years Ago, Now Home Again.

Baltimore, May 12.—Ethel Clarke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jasper W. Clarke, who was kidnapped twenty-three years ago, is once again in the home from which she was stolen.

One morning in the spring of 1880, Mrs. Clarke arose early to go to a grocery store two or three blocks distant from her home, then in a sparsely settled neighborhood. On returning she was confronted by a tramp whom she had before befriended and who demanded his breakfast immediately. Mrs. Clarke told him he would have to wait until she saw fit to give him something. The fellow cursed and threatened her. That afternoon Ethel disappeared.

On the anniversary of her disappearance one of the local newspapers published a story of Ethel Clarke's kidnapping. A few days later a handsome young woman called upon Mrs. Clarke.

"My name is Ethel Clarke, and I believe I am your daughter," said the visitor. Then she told she remembered being taken away when very young by a rough man and carried to an orphan asylum in Washington, where she remained twelve years. She was transferred to other institutions, where she remained until she was eighteen years of age. Since then she has been earning her living in a silk factory in this city.

The fullest investigation has been made, resulting in the positive identification of the young woman as the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarke.

WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE

Washington, D. C. May 14.

There is considerable concern manifested among members of the Cabinet and other prominent officials in Washington regarding the extent and the emphasis with which the President, in his western speeches, is dwelling upon the Monroe Doctrine. It is believed in the East that the Monroe Doctrine is most expensive to maintain and brings with it no adequate return. It has been pointed out that whenever a European nation secures control of a colony the commercial status of the newly acquired territory becomes fixed, the demand for foreign goods increases and the United States secures its share of the commerce. In South America, however, the integrity of numerous petty governments is preserved by the United States and the result is that these little countries are constantly at war, that they repudiate their commercial obligations without hesitation and to the serious loss of every American businessman who attempts to deal with them, and that even when the United States has a favor to ask, as in the case of the Panama canal, it receives even less consideration than is accorded European nations. Under these circumstances the officials referred to regard it as ill-advised for the facts are, of course, that Mr. Roosevelt is afraid to discuss the tariff because of the factional differences on that subject in his own party, is unwilling to discuss trusts and monopolies for fear of further offending the wall street interests and finds the Monroe Doctrine a safe topic because few people understand it and most regard it as a sort of patriotic duty to uphold it. Incidentally, Mr. Roosevelt wants a larger navy and the alleged necessity of maintaining the Monroe Doctrine furnishes an excuse for his coveted "big stick"

"Dorothy Dodd"

THE FAULTLESS FITTING SHOE FOR WOMEN

Let us assume that your shoes fit you. Now, what next? What is most important? Unquestionably, style. If it has style you want it. If it has not style, but everything else, you do not want it. The style of a Dorothy Dodd is unique. It cannot be duplicated by any other maker, because the Dorothy Dodd is a totally different construction from any other ladies' shoe. Besides being exclusive in style, it holds the foot firmly at the instep, prevents the foot from slipping forward, and gives a correct poise in walking. It makes the foot look nearly a whole size smaller. That's curious, and you won't believe it until you see it. Just for once try the Dorothy Dodd Faultless Fitting Ladies' Shoe and prove the truthfulness of our assertion.
