GREENVILLE'S GREAT DEPARTMENT STORE

"Dorothy Dodd"

THE
WOMEN

Let us assume that your shoes fit you. Now, what next? What is most important? Unquestionably, style. If it has style you want it. If it has not style, but everything else, you do not want it. The style of a Dorothy Dodd is unique. It cannot be duplicated by any other maker, because the Dorothy Dodd is a totally different construction from any other ladies' shoe. Besides being exclusive in style, it holds the foot firmly at the instep, prevents the foot from slipping forward, and gives a correct poise in walking. It makes the foot look nearly a whole size smaller. That's curious, and you won't believe it until you see it. Just for once try the Dorothy Dodd Faultless Fitting Ladies' Shoe and prove the truthfulness of our assertion.

It's the natty little "fixings" that lend grace and elegance to the summer man's apparel--robby Shirts, Ties, pretty Hosiery and Undewear. To look and feel "summery" is an easy matter for the man who trades here. Somehow this is a great store for Men's Furnishings. What's the secret? Variety? Yes. Quality? Yes. Price? Yes. And if we should tell you there isn't a more carefully selected stock in Greenville, you'd think it just ordinary store talk. Is it? Come and be the judge.

From the fashioning of the last to the finishing of the shoe no expense is spared. This explains why these shoes are worn by fashionable and well-dressed women everywhere. The shoes need no introduction to those who have worn them, but to those who have not worn them, let us say if you want to know what shoe satisfaction really means, you must wear the

MONDAY AFTERNOON, MAY 18, 1903.

"FOR HE THAT HATH, TO HIM SHALL BE GIVEN."

The philosopher Plutarch, in his life of Coriolanus, observes: "The first destroyer of the liberties of a people is he who first gave them bounties and largesses." This bit of wisdom is just as applicable to our country and institutions today as it was to Rome and Athens in the ages gone before. We have our Rockefellers, Carnegies, and other Croesuses, who seem bent upon palsying the spirit of independence and scorn of charity that has borne our country and people to heights no other nation or people have reached since time was. Whatever the motives of these moneyists, and they find in us no contempters, the result of their benefices and paternal largesses is to make whining beggars of us all. The ante-room of the billionaire is thronged with hungry-eyed petitioners. Men famous for nothing but the capacity to make money have blazoned their names across the arches of temples all over the land. Cringing is the pastime of the anxious beggar. Wringing from the poor to give to the needless is the diversion of the pompous soul who rolls in riches.

If these millionaires really seek to cast their bread upon the waters, why do they not abate some of the miseries at their own doors? Instead of palaces where only the genteel and well dressed may enter, why not shorten the hours of labor of the driven slaves who sweat blood to produce this wealth? If they are making too much money, why do they not lower the price of sugar and oil and steel, having justice and mercy at once? If they would educate, why not pay their employees according to their several needs, so that their children may enter the schools we already have?

There is no answer. With one hand these gold-saturated "fathers" wring from the people the last pound of flesh, and with the other hand pass it over to him that hath.

The May number of the Southern Industrial Guide, published at Norfolk, contains an excellent article by Congressman John H. Small on the inland waterway project. Mr. Small has done much work in behalf of this project, and it is gratifying to note that business men effected by the coast-wise trade are becoming deeply interested in it. The opening of such a waterway would be of great advantage to all the eastern coast region.

Fortunate is the woman who knows how and when to weep. She has a title clear to the world and the fullness thereof.

Of course a slump in cotton will come, but how many will be wise enough to stand from under?

We see by the papers that the civil service commission is about to lose the services of Commissioner Foulke. Now if the balance of the outfit can be shanghaied the country will be properly grateful.

Cunnel Henny Watterson says the trouble with the bloodhound as a detective is that he cannot be sworn. But some of our esteemed contemporaries occasionally swear at him.

Secretary Root says the Dick militia bill does not change the status of the state militia. The secretary either is not familiar with the law or he has been told what to say.

"Can Life be Restored?" asks the Asheville Citizen. We are under the impression that it can, but not in this world J. Shirtfront Morgan's.

We can forgive those Columbus, Ohio, South baiters for their hatred of the South, but for their ignorance of the fact that the war is over—never.

They are about to run to earth the third cousin of the barber who shaved off the whiskers of the New York dynamitard in 1890.

If those Wilson mob artists are "some of our best people," it will be an awful time when the lower classes break out.

Wanted—A few spools. We like to look at the place where cotton has been.

Comparisons are odious—to the fellow who gets the worst of it.

THE STATE PRESS

Judge Boyd's idea of "Elevating the Bench" seems to be the pulling down to his level everybody and every place that is above his reach, mentally, morally and every other. Hence his constant vapourings against Wilkes, even from his "elevated bench with his dignified gown on." Give a dung hill rooster a few grains of authority and he'll assume impudence enough to walk into the stable of a fine thoroughbred horse and order the horse out, lest he (the rooster) step on his (the horse's) toes and mash them.—Wilkesboro Chronicle.

Of course we know that there are people in both the North and the South who will never admit that the war is over, but for an organization to put itself on record as holding this view is a silly piece of business.—Durham Herald.

The navy department is shocked to learn that the officers cannot tell good powder from bad, and threw overboard $40,000 worth of good smokeless powder supposing it to have deteriorated. Of course, that is wasteful, but there are worse uses for gunpowder than feeding it to the fishes.—Goldsboro Headlight.

Mr. Joseph Pomerville, of Stillwater, Minn., after having spent over $2,000 with the best doctors for stomach trouble, without relief, was advised by his druggist, Mr. Alex. Richard, to try a box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. He did so, and is a well man today. If troubled with indigestion, bad taste in the mouth, lack of appetite or constipation, give these Tablets a trial, and you are certain to be more than pleased with the result. For sale at 25 cents per box by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

A great many men fall in love with women's clothes without ever dreaming it isn't the women themselves.

GREATLY ALARMED

By a Persistent Cough, but Permanently Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. H. P. Burbage, a student at law, in Greenville, S. C., had been troubled for four or five years with a continuous cough which he says, "greatly alarmed me, causing me to fear that I was in the first stage of consumption." Mr. Burbage, having seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised, concluded to try it. "I soon felt a remarkable change and after using two bottles of the twenty-five cent size, was permanently cured." Sold by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

It is a sign of greatness in the man who never tries to solve the problem of the way a woman's mind doesn't work.

A Farmer Straightened Out.

"A man living on a farm near here came in a short time ago completely doubled up with rheumatism. I handed him a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and told him to use it freely and it not satisfied after using it he need not pay a cent for it," says C. P. Rayder, of Patens Mills, N. Y. "A few days later he walked into the store as straight as a string and handed me a dollar saying, 'give me another bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I want it in the house all the time for it cured me.'" For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

A curious thing about a woman is that she can be proud of her grandchildren and her youth at the same time.

The Wastes of the Body.

Every seven days the blood, muscles and bones of a man of average size loses two pounds of wornout tissue. This waste cannot be replenished and the health and strength kept up without perfect digestion. When the stomach and digestive organs fail to perform their functions, the strength lets down, health gives way, and disease sets up. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that may be eaten into the kind of blood that rebuilds the tissues and protects the health and strength of the mind and body. Kodol cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. It is an ideal spring tonic. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

A woman never cares for a mirror that makes her get up on a chair whenever she wants to see how her stockings look on her.

New Guinea Swamp Dwellers.

Recently the British government published an interesting report on the apelike swamp dwellers of New Guinea. This strange race of human beings has dwelt in the swamps from times which antedate the oldest native traditions, and it is evidently on the high road to becoming a distinct variety of animal. The swamp dwellers have lost three inches in stature and, while retaining muscular arms and a robust trunk, have short and slender legs. Walking always in water or on moist ground, they have feet with long, fragile looking toes, which they place on the ground "like wooden feet." Walking on hard ground makes their feet bleed, and, unlike the ordinary natives, whose skin is everywhere tight and smooth, the outline of their loins is obscured by folds of skin. "More apelike than any human being that I have seen," is the concluding criticism of the British administrator. It is probable of course that this effort of nature to create a new species of amphibious human being with flat swimming and wading feet and degenerate physique will be defeated by civilizing agencies. Fifty years hence the last recognizable specimens of this queer race will perhaps have incased their paddle feet in boots. Perhaps their women will be wearing high heeled shoes. But the record of their existence is interesting.

The Ram Feast.

In Morocco the strange season of the Mohammedan new year, beginning March 9, is generally called "Ait-el-Hanwela," the ram feast. The people of Morocco pay more elaborate attention to the item of sacrifice than any other Moslems. In every town a supreme offering of a ram or he goat takes place at the door of the principal mosque. Immediately after it is struck by the official imam in presence of the multitude it is flung on the shoulders of a stalwart Moor, who, exerting his utmost strength, runs like a deer through the narrow streets, pursued by a rabble. The poor animal is pelted with stones by boys and is jeered at with execrations from every house, as it is reputed to be carrying the sins of the people. The man rushes along with his burden till he reaches the door of the cad's palace. If the animal is still breathing, the augury is excellent, for good luck is to be expected all through the year. But if the ram is dead all sorts of evil prognostications are muttered.

The Charitable Americans.

The Americans are looked upon by the peoples of Europe as the most wasteful persons in the world, and they do spend their money with a freedom unknown elsewhere because they have the money to spend. But with all their apparent carelessness there is no country in the world nor is there record of any in which the people devote so much to the welfare of the unfortunate and the wretched. The practice has become a habit and is looked upon rightly enough as an obligation. No one can free himself from it. Every one has a neighbor somewhere, and he will not fulfill his obligation merely by denying himself of some luxury or pleasure unless the self denial benefits his unfortunate neighbor.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Happiness.

Happiness? Sooth to say, it does not exist, or, rather, destiny serves it out to us in fractions, in small doses, homeopathically. Happiness is made up of halts. In the rough road stage of life, so long and yet so short, there are furtive moments when we sit down by the wayside and would gladly stop there, go no farther, sleep a little on the good earth which will one day embrace us. And immediately the march, march, of Bossuet rings out and urges us on. A halt? Why? Up and on, quick; we must hark forward; life continues. We rise and take up our burden again. March! March!—Jules Claretie.

National Longevity.

Of European nations the Norwegian and Swedish are the longest lived, the Spaniards the shortest. According to a foreign statistical return recently issued the average duration of life is as follows: Sweden and Norway, 50 years; England 45 years and 3 months; Belgium, 44 years and 11 months; Switzerland, 44 years and 4 months; France 43 years and 6 months; Austria, 39 years and 8 months; Prussia and Italy, 39 years; Bavaria, 36 years, and Spain, 32 years and 4 months.

He Was Mad.

A German who recently landed in this city was attacked upon the street and bitten by a vicious dog. A few bystanders rushed to the man's assistance, who was apparently more frightened than injured, and asked if the dog was mad. The German exclaimed: "Vot! Der dog mad? Vy he be mad? 'Tis me vot is mad!"—Philadelphia Ledger.

The Belief Was Mutual.

 "Don't pine away. Spruce up."—Life.

TWO CURES.

FLORENCE, S. C., Aug. 16, 1902.

Gentlemen:—I began to suffer from rheumatism about three years ago, and had it very bad in my limbs. At times I could hardly walk. Was treated by a physician without benefit. More than a year ago, Mr. George Wilson, an engineer on the Coast Line, living in Florence, told me that "RHEUMACIDE" cured him. I got a bottle and it benefited me. I took five bottles and am now as well as I ever was in my life. I regard "RHEUMACIDE" as a great medicine. I know of others it has cured.

FRIES MERGER FAILED.

Cotton Mill Consolidation is Gone Glimmering.

Greensboro, N. C., May 16.—A gentleman who is in a measure interested in cotton manufacturing in the south, said today that he believed it was generally conceded that the Fries merger scheme, had fallen through. The gentleman said the failure of the scheme was attributable to several causes. He does not think that any further attempt will be made to form a combination of southern mills.

Lily White Hopes.

Lily White republicans in Alabama are rejoicing over the reports which come in indicating that Senator Hanna or Fairbanks of Indiana will oppose President Roosevelt for the presidential nomination next year. Intimation is given that something definite has been heard from friends of Senator Hanna. J. A. W. Smith, who was the republican gubernatorial candidate last year, today issued a statement denying that any change of affairs has taken place in the republican party of Alabama through the adoption of a resolution by the state executive committee. Negroes will be kept out of the state convention by being voted out of the meeting. When a negro attempts to vote a challenge may be entered. There are 2,500 negro legal voters in the state against 35,000 white Republicans. Negroes can be kept out of county and state conventions.

There have now been removed from office four officials against whom charges have been preferred, Judge Tyner, Mr. Christiancy, Tyner's assistant, Machen and Superintendent Beavers, although the latter was permitted to resign. It is not believed that any one of these officials will be permitted to resume his duties. In the case of Machen there appears to be no occasion for his office. There is now a superintendent of city free delivery and a superintendent of rural free delivery. As "general superintendent of free delivery" Machen occupied a position analogous to that of an assistant postmaster general which he had labored to have himself appointed. It is now regarded as more than likely that after the conclusion of the present investigation the division of city free delivery will remain under the supervision of the first assistant postmaster general and that of rural free delivery will be permanently transferred to the bureau presided over by the fourth assistant postmaster general where it will be in close relationship with the star routes, etc., apparently its natural location.—Washington correspondence.

The present high price of cotton, when all of the fleecy staple has passed out of the growers' hands, recalls that story of the Durham darkey who, in turning a corner in midwinter, was struck by an icy wind that made him shiver in his rags and who exclaimed, "Huh, whar was you last August?"—Winston Sentinel.

MAY BE BAR-ROOM MURDER

A WHITE MAN STRUCK DOWN AT PACTOLUS.

JOHN SMITH'S SKULL CRUSHED

Result of a Drunken Brawl Saturday Night—The Victim May Not Recover.

A difficulty occurred at Pactolus Saturday evening that may cost one man his life. John Smith, a white man, while under the influence of liquor, got into a dispute with a negro named Louis Hodges. Smith was whittling with a knife, and seeing this Hodges went out and armed himself with a long piece of scantling. Hodges went back in the barroom where Smith was when the latter told him to put down the scantling and he would put up his knife and they would fight it out with their fists. Smith did put up his knife, and Hodges struck him a terrible blow across the forehead that broke his skull. Smith's condition is critical with chances of recovery very much against him. Hodges fled and has not been captured.

Died.

Just after midnight Saturday night death entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fussell and took their babe, Bertie. The remains were carried to Snow Hill where the burial took place this afternoon.

As soon as requisition papers can be obtained Sessoms will be brought here.

Too Great a Risk.

In almost every neighborhood someone has died from an attack of colic or cholera morbus, often before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. A reliable remedy for these diseases should be kept at hand. The risk is too great for anyone to take. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has undoubtedly saved the lives of more people and relieved more pain and suffering than any other medicine in use. It can always be depended upon. The X-Rays.

Recent experiments, by practical tests and examination with the aid of the X-Rays, establish it as a fact that Catarrh of the Stomach is not a disease of itself, but that it results from repeated attacks of indigestion. "How Can I Cure My Indigestion?" Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is curing thousands. It will cure you of indigestion and dyspepsia, and prevent or cure Catarrh of the Stomach. Kodol digests what you eat—makes the stomach sweet. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

WILD DREAM OF NEGROES.

Would Make Booker Washington President of Hayti.

Madisonville, Ky., May 16.—The account in the different newspapers throughout the country that a big movement is on foot by leaders of the American negroes to form an army to seize the island of Hayti and make it an American republic has been corroborated by an account given out of the scheme of N. L. Musgrove, secretary of the movement, who is located at Sturgis, Ky., the headquarters of the junta, near this city. The scheme disclosed is the proposed attack or subjugation and conquest of the black republic of Hayti, the investment of Port Au Prince, the capital, and the establishing in that fertile tropical clime of a miniature republic by the Afro-Americans with Booker Washington and prominent colored men at the head.

LETTER TO GREENE & HOOKER.

Greenville, N. C.,

Dear Sirs: You understand grinding wheat, buckwheat, rye, oats and corn. We understand grinding white-lead and white-zinc. The two sorts of grinding are not much alike. Very likely oats and wheat behave very differently in the mill, and you manage them differently—we know very little about work; don't need to; we'd rather depend on you.

But we paint your house and mill, and out-buildings; perhaps you'd be glad to know about grinding paint; for some people mix their paint with a stick in a tub.

We use lead and zinc—nothing else. And our zinc is as tough as your oats. Tub mixers imagine they mix it. They don't; they can't. Takes grinding to mix lead and zinc.

They are both white. Tub mixers don't know it; but tub-mixed lead and zinc is a streak of one or the other of a streak of the other.

We grind as you grind; and our paint is lead and zinc ground together, mixed intimately: it is neither lead nor zinc, but lead and zinc: the lead is lost, and the zinc is lost: each lost in the other: both lost in the mixture. Lead chalks and zinc peels: lead and zinc ground together hang on and protect each other.

We take care of your mill outside; you take care of it inside.

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOE & Co.

FIGHTING IN PHILIPPINES.

American Officer Killed in a Scrap with Bolomen.

Manila, May 16.—Captain Clough Overton, of the 15th cavalry, and Private Harry Noyes were killed and Private Hartlow was wounded yesterday in a bolo rush at Sucatlan, island of Mindanao. It is said that six of the enemy were killed. It is thought that the natives approached Captain Overton's command, pretending friendship, and then attacked the Americans.

About three hundred insurgents, armed with bolos, resisted the landing of a force of scouts at Callaman, Camiguin Island, Tuesday. They charged the scouts and wounded two of them. The scouts, whose gallantry has been commended, are pursuing the insurgents.

Nashville Goes Dry.

Nashville, N. C., 16.—The Board of Town Commissioners held a meeting last night for the purpose of deciding whether the town should be prohibition or whether whiskey should be sold after July 1st. A number of prominent citizens attended the meeting and the matter was discussed at some length, with able speeches by many gentlemen. A mammoth petition was presented to the board, signed by all the best people in town, practically asking that no more licenses be issued. As a result the board has decided to license no more bar-rooms after July 1st, at which time the present licenses expire.

Died.

Sunday morning at the home of her son, in Beaver Dam township, Mrs. Margaret Williams departed this life. She was in her 83rd year, and was the step mother of Mrs. Alfred Forbes, of Greenville. The funeral took place today.

Habeas Corpus Proceedings.

Raleigh, N. C., May 16.—Associate Justice B. M. Douglas of the Supreme court, issued an order today, postponing the hearing of the habeas corpus proceeding case against Ernest Haywood for killing Ludlow Skinner, from May 21 to 28th., giving as a reason that to hear the case on the 21st would probably interfere with the performance of his official duties in hearing and determining cases at the end of the Supreme court docket.

It is understood that the Wilcox case from Elizabeth City will be up for argument on second appeal about May 21st, hence the postponement of the Haywood habeas corpus case.

The defence is summoning upwards of five hundred witnesses for the Haywood trial.

FIVE BAILED, SIX ARE HELD

RESULT OF THE HABEAS CORPUS HEARING.

TWO POLICEMEN DISMISSED

Men Held for Murder of Percy Jones are Whitley, Piver, Rich, Barnes, Ward and Allen.

Wilson, N. C., May 16.—This morning the habeas corpus proceedings instituted last night by W. P. Croom, Lawrence Morgan, John Pittman and J. T. Bass, four of the men charged with the murder of Percy Jones on the night of the 13th, was heard before Judge Brown. By consent or agreement of Solicitor Daniels and counsel for the prisoners the evidence taken before the coroner's jury of inquest was taken as the evidence upon which his honor should make his rulings, with the additional testimony of T. J. Hadley, Jr., which was unimportant in this proceeding, however, as he merely testified as to seeing several of the parties charged with the murder several times up to 11 o'clock that night.

After hearing the evidence Judge Brown ruled that, inasmuch as the jury of inquest had acquitted these defendants, notwithstanding the grand jury had found a true bill against them, he would admit them to bail, and fixed such bail at $1,200, they being poor men.

In the similar proceedings instituted by S. J. Walls and returned before Judge Connor in Raleigh this afternoon because of the fact that by marriage he was related to Judge Brown, it was agreed that he be allowed to give bond in the sum of $2,000, which bond was given. It is thought that the other four named above will be able to give the bond.

At a called meeting here this afternoon of the board of alderman the police force of Wilson received a severe shaking up. Police Officer Snakenburg, who was near the scene of the Jones murder on Wednesday morning, was arraigned before the board and as it was shown that this officer was guilty of gross neglect of duty, he was consequently dismissed from the force. Officer Felton for neglect of duty was suspended for ten days. Officer Nichols, who is hired as watchman by the Coast Line and clothed with police authorities by the town, was stripped of his authority. His cap and black jack was found on one of the men arrested for the murder of Jones. These were taken from the officer during the early part of the night.

A DUDE IN TEXAS.

Victim of Rampageous Rustlers' Rough House.

Houston, Texas, May 16.—Phillip Buntz, of New York, traveling agent for an eastern Bible house, was killed last night in Fagan, west of here in the cowboy country, because he wore a high silk hat and also because he ordered a glass of lemonade at a bar instead of "good red licker."

When he showed fight he was felled to the floor by a blow from the butt of a heavy Colt revolver, his skull being fractured, and death following in a few minutes.
