SWINDLES IGNORANT BRETHREN An Echo from the Hanna ex-Slave Pension Bill.

The Washington Gazette-Messenger tells of a large number of colored people in that section who have recently been swindled out of money by one of their race. The swindler is said to be a slick-tongued negro who represented himself as being a special representative of the government sent to distribute among the colored people orders on the treasury for the first installment of the ex-slave pension fund. This swindler collected 50 cents from each victim and in turn gave him a blank draft which he said another agent would come on a certain day and cash.

The darkeys bit at this bait like hungry fish, paid over their 50 cent coins, and are waiting yet for the other agent to come and cash the blank drafts. It just shows what easy prey they are to such swindlers.

It may be the fellow's scheme to work his game around other towns, if so a sharp lookout should be kept for him, and have him arrested wherever he shows up.

Mr. J. G. Rawls Dead.

Information came by telephone from Wilson this morning of the death of Mr. J. G. Rawls, which occurred about 7 o'clock Tuesday evening. Mr. Rawls was once a resident of Greenville and conducted a jewelry business here with his brother, Mr. W. S. Rawls. He is well remembered here.

Ex-Judge W. S. O'B. Robinson, of Goldsboro, is here attending court.

CAIN AND ABEL.

Man Slays His Drunken Brother in Ashe County.

Raleigh, May 19.—In a drinking frolic in Ashe county Dave Wilson stabbed and killed his brother-in-law, Alfred Wilson. He then took the body home and told Alfred's wife that her husband was dead drunk. She began to undress him, when she was horrified to find that he was dead. Both the Wilsons are men of property. The murderer has fled, and $500 reward is to be offered for his capture. It is thought that he is hiding in the mountains.

WRECK ON THE SOUTHERN.

Nine People Injured--Due to Spreading Rails.

Raleigh, N. C. May 19—Nine people were hurt in a wreck on the Southern railway near this city this afternoon about 5 o'clock. Those whose injuries are regarded as serious are a Mr. Fleming, of Wilson, who is injured internally, and State Representative Parker, of Wayne county, who is cut and bruised about the head and back. Others received only superficial wounds.

The train left here over half an hour late. The wreck occurred at a curve and was due to spreading rails. The cars were ditched and turned completely over.

BALTIMORE'S MAYOR SWORN IN

Baltimore, May 19.—Mayor-elect Robert M. McLane was inaugurated today without ceremony, there being present only a few people in addition to official and personal friends. This was in accordance with the mayor's wish that the proceedings be simple.

WAR TELEGRAPHER DEAD.

Charleston, S. C. May 19.—Daniel M. O'Driscoll, for 30 years manager of the Western Union telegraph office here, died today. He was born in Ireland and was probably the oldest of the war telegraphers this side of the Potomac. He sent the first message out of Petersburg announcing the surrender of General Lee.

Progressiveness in Fayetteville.

Fayetteville, N. C., May 18.—At an election today for a special graded school tax of 25 cents on $100 property valuation and $10,000 bonds for school buildings, both measures were carried by about twelve to one.

Do Away with Schedule.

If the schedule of the passenger train was annulled entirely and let the train come at any old time, the public could depend about as much upon it as upon the present arrangement.

A FIREBUG AT LARGE?

Kerosene Oil Used in Jeffress Warehouse Fire.

About 8:30 o'clock Tuesday night a fire alarm was caused by a small blaze at the Jeffress tobacco warehouse. The fire was in the shed room on the rear of the warehouse, and by timely discovery was put out before any damage of consequence was done. The floor and side wall near a window were charred.

There are strong indications that the building was set on fire, as the presence of kerosene oil is easily detected on both the floor and wall near the window where the fire was.

SLOT MACHINES BURNED.

A Spasm of Virtue Hits the Quaker City.

Philadelphia, Pa., May 19.—Thirteen hundred slot gambling machines, valued at $125,000 were publicly burned today by order of Director of Public Safety Smith. Seven hundred of the machines were captured in raids conducted by the law and order society and 600 were confiscated by the police authorities. The raids have extended over a period of five months. Director Smith has in his possession 250 pounds of nickles and pennies which have not been counted. Secretary Gibboney, of the law and order society, has nearly $1,600, taken from the machines captured by his agents. This money will be turned over to the city treasury.

During the burning of the machines two fire companies guarded the surrounding property.

To Grow Sea Island Cotton in Porto Rico.

San Juan May 18.—The weather bureau's crop bulletins announce that all over the island of Porto Rico, Sea Island cotton is being planted as rapidly as seed can be obtained and that in many instances the planters are abandoning tobacco for cotton. The movement is especially strong in the well known tobacco districts of Cayey and Cazuas. All the cotton tests have proved promising while the low prices for ordinary tobacco in San Juan is said to be bringing about the change. Close observers, including cotton men from the southern states of America, are predicting here that in a few years the figures of the former cotton trade of Porto Rico will be reached if not exceeded.

Mayor's Court.

The following cases have been disposed of since last report: Henry Baker, running restaurant without license, fined $10 and costs, $13.75. Bob Johnson and Henry Fleming, riotous and disorderly conduct, fined $1 each and costs, $7.25. William Whitaker, using profane language on street, fined $1 and costs, $4.75. W. J. Cowell and W. J. Manning, assault, Cowell fined $2 and costs, Manning fined $3 and costs, total $9.55.

"Have you decided on a name for the baby yet. Thanksley?" "Yes; we've named her for my new automobile." "What?" "Fact. We call her Gasolena."—Chicago Tribune.

What we need in religion today is more of the faith that advertises for a lost umbrella.—Atlanta Constitution.

The Ladies' Furnishing Store.

With pleasure we announce the arrival of the Celebrated "Regina" and "Autohav" Shoes. The factory was so overcrowded with orders that we were forced to wait quite awhile, but they are here now, some of them, and others will be here in a few days. The nobbiest and most up-to-date in town. Every part of "Regina" and "Autohav" shoes is of uniform high quality. Soles, uppers, linings and trimmings are always just as good as can be procured. From the fashioning of the last to the finishing of the shoe no expense is spared. This explains why these shoes are worn by fashionable and well-dressed women everywhere. The shoes need no introduction to those who have worn them, but to those who have not worn them, let us say if you want to know what shoe satisfaction really means, you must wear the

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, MAY 20, 1903.

THE SPECTACLE IN PENNSYLVANIA.

"Why do the people of Pennsylvania submit to the outrages committed by the politicians?" is the question a North Carolinian naturally asks. From close observation we can and do correctly answer—Because their spirit has been broken by long years of political vassalage. They consider it impossible to overthrow the machine. They dare not seriously attempt it, for fear of TREACHERY AMONG THEMSELVES. Quay, Penrose, Pennypacker, Stone, these penitentiary ornaments are the masters of the people as much as ever there were masters and slaves. Pennsylvania democrats are merely republican slaves under another name. Knowing that they cannot hope to win except by fraud, and the machine is the cleverest thief, they make deals with the republicans for petty places and privileges for favored friends. The people have ceased to hope. Thousands of them, in Philadelphia especially, do not want anything better. Under the present spoils government they think they have a chance to get in somewhere. With decent men in office they would have no chance at all.

And thus the degradation and pollution of an American commonwealth goes on under our eyes. Time and time again they have had the opportunity of disinfecting their public offices, but they will not do it. After years of such shameless public piracy, and with the power in their hands to sweep every member of the piratical crew out of existence, the people of Pennsylvania prefer to perpetuate their own dishonor, and if that is what they want, we say let them have it, for the sooner they become extinct through their own degeneracy, the sooner will a race of real men spring up upon the soil that has been so foully disgraced.

Everybody's Magazine for June, under the management of Messrs. Ridgway and Thayer, takes leading rank with the best magazines in the country. Mr. Ridgway was formerly with Munsey's and Mr. Thayer was with the Ladies Home Journal. They have made Everybody's beautiful and interesting in the very first issue.

The news comes from Madrid that Spain is throwing up defences. Too late. Spain ought to have taken an emetic about a year before the war.

Judge Walter Clark might not be a winner, but we could get a great deal of fun out of whooping it up for a North Carolinian.

Winston-Salem has a new depot—on paper, but Durham hasn't achieved even that satisfaction.

Farmers' Convention.

A call has been issued, signed by Governor Aycock, President George T. Winston, of the Agricultural and Mechanical College, and Professor Charles William Burkett, of the chair of agriculture in that college, inviting the farmers and others interested in agriculture to meet in convention at the North Carolina College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts, Raleigh, July 20th, 21st and 22d. Board and lodging will be furnished at the college. It is intended that this shall be the beginning of annual State farmers' conventions there for lectures, conferences, discussions and practical experiments. The railroads will no doubt give low rates.

When a gang of gamblers take it into their heads to keep the morals of the community straight it is time decency was taking to the woods.—Durham Herald.

The game of progressive matrimony now being played by the "smart set" of the New-York-Newport contingent makes us thankful that our forebears were plain, stupid—and respectable.—Durham Sun.

Of course Mr. Tillman's views on Cleveland, or any other public man for that matter, call more for amused interest than they do for serious consideration. Mr. Tillman wouldn't be himself if he didn't fly to extremes.—Greensboro Telegram.

Everybody believes that there was something else back of that Wilson affair and no doubt the people of that town know and are talking about it, but it seems they are determined to keep it to themselves.—Durham Herald.

One Rowan county man goes to the penitentiary for twenty-five years on submission to murder in the second degree and another for three years on conviction of manslaughter. Some of the "pistol toters" are getting their just dues.—Wilmington Messenger.

It is said that the present cotton crop will be in the neighborhood of 10,000,000 bales. And that speculators and dealers in futures will sell 100,000,000 bales, or ten times the amount actually produced.—Raleigh Times.

One cannot but wonder at the infinite pains Sir Thomas Lipton takes to get beat in a mere boat race.—Winston Sentinel

Dr. D. L. James,

Dental Surgeon
Greenville, N. C.

Mr. Joseph Pomerville, of Stillwater, Minn., after having spent over $2,000 with the best doctors for stomach trouble, without relief, was advised by his druggist, Mr. Alex. Richard, to try a box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. He did so, and is a well man today. If troubled with indigestion, bad taste in the mouth, lack of appetite or constipation, give these Tablets a trial, and you are certain to be more than pleased with the result. For sale at 25 cents per box by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

It is better to overlook a wrong than to be suspicious of one.

GREATLY ALARMED

By a Persistent Cough, but Permanently Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. H. P. Burbage, a student at law, in Greenville, S. C., had been troubled for four or five years with a continuous cough which he says, "greatly alarmed me, causing me to fear that I was in the first stage of consumption." Mr. Burbage, having seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised, concluded to try it. Now read what he says of it: "I soon felt a remarkable change and after using two bottles of the twenty-five cent size, was permanently cured." Sold by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

It is better to do with less than you can use than to want more than you need.

A Farmer straightened Out.

"A man living on a farm near here came in a short time ago completely doubled up with rheumatism. I handed him a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and told him to use it freely and it not satisfied after using it he need not pay a cent for it," says C. P. Bayder, of Pattens Mills, N. Y. "A few days later he walked into the store as straight as a string and handed me a dollar saying, 'give me another bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I want it in the house all the time for it cured me.'" For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

It is better to think of the blessings you have than of those you do not possess.

The Wastes of the Body.

Every seven days the blood, muscles and bones of a man of average size loses two pounds of wornout tissue. This waste cannot be replenished and the health and strength kept up without perfect digestion. When the stomach and digestive organs fail to perform their functions, the strength lets down, health gives way, and disease sets up. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that may be eaten into the kind of blood that rebuilds the tissues and protects the health and strength of the mind and body. Kodol cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. It is an ideal spring tonic. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store

Nothing is wholly bad. Even a dark lantern has a bright side. The best plane in wisdom's pinion is the memory of past follies.

Alphabetical Significance.
A writer in the Garden has discovered that many of the worst foes of the horticulturist begin with "w," and he instances worms, weevils, wind and other workers of wickedness. This, writes a correspondent, suggests a question as to whether there is any natural grouping of good or evil things under particular letters. Take "b," for example, and consider how many hoons and blessings to man begin with it. The baker and butcher bring him bread and beef. For additional foods he has bacon, beans, bovril, blenters, broccoli, broth, bivalves, bananas, berries, biscuits, buns and butter. After a banquet of bonnes bouches he may bring out his brier and blow his baccy while he bestrides his bicycle. These are but a few of the beneficent things included under that blessed letter "b." Now, as a contrast, take "d," and among the first words we think of are damp, dark, dreary, dismal, dirty, depressed, despairing and so on, the very sound of which is enough to drive one into doleful dumps.

The Hackney on Parade.
How a high bred hackney looks when he is put on exhibition at a big horse show is told by Sewell Ford in "Horses Nine." It was a very pretty sight presented to the horse experts lining the rail and to persons in boxes and tier seats. They saw a blockily built strawberry roan, his chiseled neck arched in a perfect crest, his rigid thigh muscles rippling under a shiny coat as he swung his hocks, his slim fore legs sweeping up and out, and every curve of his rounded body from the tip of his absurd whisk broom tail to the white snip on the end of his tossing nose expressing that exuberance of spirits, that jaunty abandon of motion, which is the very apex of hackney style. Behind him a short legged groom bounced through the air at the end of the reins, keeping his feet only by means of most amazing strides.

Saving.
More than 500 persons competed for the prizes offered by a Chicago company for the best thoughts on the subject of saving. The man who received the first prize wrote: "Saving produces a peace of mind unknown to him who in time of misfortune must depend on the bounty of his friends. Determine to save, for will power is the prime essential. Deposit regularly. Lay aside some portion of each week's or month's income. Deposit extra and unexpected receipts." It is a short but sound and comprehensive sermon on thrift and enlists in a good cause two forces that sometimes fight on opposite sides—will power and habit.

Rebuilding an Organist.
An organist had for some time been trying to extract a compliment from Dr. Nathaniel Emmons, a well known divine of Franklin, Mass. The old doctor possessed a cunning wit, used sparingly, however.
"The organ is not as powerful as it looks," said the organist after one of the services. "Some of the pipes are false, placed there only for effect."
"Ah," exclaimed the doctor, his features brightening, "there are times when even a clergyman may prefer the false to the real."

True Politeness.
Be careful not to confound politeness with the automatic following of social rules, says the Chicago Record-Herald. Do not seek to do only as others do, even if it is the very makers of the social laws. Preserve your originality. No one may move wholly according to rules and be natural. Remember that a bit of the milk of human kindness, a few grains of good common sense, mixed well with a desire to "do unto others," is a splendid recipe for success in most walks of life.

Would Help Her Out.
Mrs. Hiram—You may stay until your week is up, Bridget, but when you go I must tell you I won't be able to write you a letter of recommendation.

Bridget—Don't let yer want of education embarrass ye, madam. O'll write it fur ye, an' ye can make yer mark to it.—Philadelphia Press.

Hardly a Love Match.
Miss Smilax—And so Miss Passe and Mr. Gotnix really got married. Was it a love match?
Mary—On the contrary, I should call it a hate match.
Miss Smilax—Why? I don't understand you.
Mary—Why, she hated to be an old maid, and he hated to be poor.

Today.
Happy boys! Enjoy your playtime now and come again to study and to feel the birch rod and the ferule tomorrow. Sport, boys; while you may, for the morrow cometh with the birch rod and the ferule, and after that another morrow with troubles of its own.—Nathaniel Hawthorne.

Their Privilege.
Applicant—And if we want certain changes made in the flat—
Janitor—Well, when people want 'em very bad they generally move.—Brooklyn Life.

Something Missing.
Little Mildred, aged three, said one day when she stood up:
"Isn't it funny when folks stand up they haven't any laps?"—Little Chronicle.

Not He.
"Does he interest himself in books?"
"No," sniffed Mrs. Newrich; "my husband has clerks to do that for him."
—Detroit Free Press.

A clarion voice in a novel means something very disagreeable in real life—a loud falter.—Athenian Globe.

Motherhood

MOTHERHOOD is the reward nature bestows upon healthy womanhood. Women whose vitality has been sapped by disease cannot safely give birth to children. In pregnancy and in childbirth weakness of the mother is revealed in the pain and agony she suffers.

This great medicine drives out every vestige of inflammation and weakness, and gives tone and strength to the delicate organs which mature the child. The pains of pregnancy are banished by Wine of Cardui, and miscarriages, which blast so many fond mother's hopes, are prevented. Flooding, which so often occurs after childbirth, is corrected when Wine of Cardui is used during pregnancy.

Wine of Cardui babies are healthy babies, because, during the months of pregnancy, the mother is able to give them necessary vitality and strength.

With these facts presented to American women no expectant mother should be satisfied without the re-inforcement that Wine of Cardui will give her. Every mother should be able to treat herself in her home with this valuable medicine.

Wine of Cardui can be secured from any druggist at $1.00 a bottle.

Polycarp, N. C., Jan. 11, 1902.

I am the mother of seven children and while in pregnancy with the first six suffered untold misery until they were born. One month before the seventh was born I began to take a bottle of Wine of Cardui, which gave me relief after taking three doses. I used the remainder of the bottle until the birth of the child, and was stouter in three days after the birth than I was in a month after the birth of either of the first six. I am 29 years old.

A Little Early Riser

now and then, at bedtime will cure constipation, biliousness and liver troubles. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the famous little pills that cure by arousing the secretions, moving the bowels gently, yet effectually, and giving such tone and strength to the glands of the stomach and liver that the cause of the trouble is removed entirely, and if their use is continued for a few days, there will be no return of the complaint. Sold by Wooten's Drug Store.

The X-Rays.

Recent experiments, by practical tests and examination with the aid of the X-Rays, establish it as a fact that Catarrh of the Stomach is not a disease of itself, but that it results from repeated attacks of indigestion. "How Can I Cure My Indigestion?" Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is curing thousands. It will cure you of indigestion and dyspepsia, and prevent or cure Catarrh of the Stomach. Kodol digests what you eat—makes the stomach sweet. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

"There ought to be some good shooting round here!" "Yes, an' there's some darned bad shootin'." I lost two cows last week!"—Pue's.

Too Great a Risk.

In almost every neighborhood someone has died from an attack of colic or cholera morbus, often before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. A reliable remedy for these disease should be kept at hand. The risk is too great for anyone to take. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has undoubtedly saved the lives of more people and relieved more pain and suffering than any other medicine in use. It can always be depended upon. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

"Dorothy Dodd"

THE FAULTLESS FITTING SHOE FOR WOMEN

Let us assume that your shoes fit you. Now, what next? What is most important? Unquestionably, style. If it has style you want it. If it has not style, but everything else, you do not want it. The style of a Dorothy Dodd is unique. It cannot be duplicated by any other maker, because the Dorothy Dodd is a totally different construction from any other ladies' shoe. Besides being exclusive in style, it holds the foot firmly at the instep, prevents the foot from slipping forward, and gives a correct poise in walking. It makes the foot look nearly a whole size smaller. That's curious, and you won't believe it until you see it. Just for once try the Dorothy Dodd Faultless Fitting Ladies' Shoe and prove the truthfulness of our assertion.
