WAR ON WESTERN UNION COMPANY.

PENNSY RAILROAD TEARS DOWN WIRES AND POLES.

5,500 Poles and 15,000 Miles of Wire Destroyed Between two Days.

Pittsburg, Pa., May 21—Along the right of way of Pennsylvania railroad to Philadelphia every telegraph pole of the Western Union Telegraph Co. was cut down before nightfall. Thousands of section hands went to work shortly after 3 o'clock p. m. cutting and slashing poles. An inextricable tangle of wires and poles lies along the track. There were 5,500 poles and 15,000 of wire along this road.

This wholesale destruction of telegraph lines was the result of the decision of Judge Joseph Baffinger, of the United States District court, dissolving the preliminary injunction obtained by the Western Union Telegraph Co. against the Pennsylvania railroad.

The Western Union has not a wire working on the Pennsylvania railroad in this state. However it claims to be keeping up with business by using wires over the Baltimore & Ohio and New York Central railroads by a round about route.

Reliance Distances Columbia.

New York May 21—The Reliance won her first race today, defeating the Columbia, the twice defender of the American cup, by 14 minutes and 43 seconds. As a test of the ability of the two yachts the test was an unsatisfactory one, the wind being unfavorable.

Young Miner Roasted to Death.

Roxboro, N. C., May 21.—Sam Wintry, a miner at a Yancey county mine, was roasted to death in the residence of George Woody. Other occupants of the building barely escaped, and one man who slept with Wintry was painfully burned as he passed through the flames.

$30,000 Fire in Louisburg.

Louisburg, N. C., May 21.—Fire this morning about 1:30 o'clock destroyed $30,000 worth of property here on which there was only $6,000 insurance. The fire originated in the brick hotel and from this was communicated to Hill's sales stables, then to Hayes & Fuller's stables and also to the rear of Hill & Co's. store on Main street. Other adjoining property was badly damaged and narrowly escaped destruction.

A Bad Nigger Comes to Grief.

New Orleans, La. May 21—A sensational scene occurred in the mayor's court at Corinth, when a negro was being tried for carrying concealed weapons. The man's wife was a witness against him and during the progress of the trial he drew his gun and shot her. The negro brandished his gun and bid defiance to the court, at the same time backing toward the door. Once outside he fled and being pursued took refuge in a house in a negro quarter. Still defying arrest, his pursuers burned down the house and riddled the negro with bullets.

J. M. Moore and bride arrived Thursday evening from Durham to visit Mr. Moore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Moore, in West Greenville. Miss Jenette Moore, of Burgaw, accompanied them.

$100,000 FOR YOUNG ROUSS.

Dead Millionaire's Son Establishes His Parentage.

New York, May 21.—The jury in the suit of Charles Broadway Rouss, Jr., who sued the estate of Charles Broadway Rouss for $100,000 for maintenance and support, returned a verdict today for the full amount with $5,776 interest. The boy who was suing is 10 years old and claimed to be a son of Charles Broadway Rouss. His mother claimed that Rouss was the father of the boy and had promised to settle $100,000 upon him when he reached the age of 10.

MARY OCTAVIA GRIMES MEDAL.

For Best Essay on North Carolina or Pitt County History.

The handsome gold medal offered last year by Hon. J. Bryan Grimes for the best essay on North Carolina history, or on some part of Pitt county history, aroused considerable interest in these studies. I have rarely seen a more beautiful medal than the one presented to the successful competitor last year. Mr. Grimes again offers this medal on the same conditions as last year. Those who wish to compete for it must send in their names to me by the 15th of September, and their essays must be in my hands by the 15th of November. The contest is open to any pupil in any school in Pitt county. The writer must certify that the work is his own. I trust that there may be at least one hundred contestants for this medal this time. I would ask parents to call the attention of their children to this prize. I would also request the teachers of the county to interest themselves in the matter and see that their pupils are encouraged to enter this contest. Don't fail to send in your name by the 15th of September and begin work at once on your essay so that you may win this lovely medal.

Bring Out the Street Sprinkler.

It was good as far as it went—the street sprinkling that Chief Griffin did with the fire engine and hose Thursday evening. He placed the engine at the pool in the academy branch and ran out a line of hose up Main street until it reached beyond Fourth, where a little sprinkling was done, then carried the line on to the corner of Third and sprinkled some more. Here the water or steam, or both, gave out and the sprinkling stopped. There was a refreshed feeling in the vicinity of the sprinkling and its a pity the whole street did not get some. The secretary of the cotton exchange declared that he saw right through the whole thing—that the sprinkling was done before the newspaper offices to get the cry for the street sprinkler hushed. Yes, sir, THE REFLECTOR enjoyed what there was of it, but the street sprinkler ought to come out and lay the dust along the line.

LATER—The street sprinkler came out today and gave all a touch of relief from the dust.

Misses Irma Lee Cobb, Mary Higgs and Myra Moore returned Thursday evening from Raleigh, where they have been attending school.

Dr. W. H. Bagwell left this morning for Raleigh in response to a telegram announcing the death of the wife of his brother, L. C. Bagwell.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, MAY 22, 1903.

If those Wilson mob artists are "some of our best people," it will be an awful time when the lower classes break out.—Greenville REFLECTOR. Pretty good for you, Brother Whichard, but you do not understand the situation yet. You will find that when the evidence is thoroughly sifted to the bottom, it will narrow down to a focus of a few men who are directly responsible for the murder of Jones—men of unsavory reputation, representing the very worst element of this town, and men, one of whose hands are already stained with blood.—Wilson News.

There is one thing we do understand—Percy Jones is dead. It is also pretty certain that his murderers are in jail. Now, the only way in which Wilson can "make good" in the eyes of the world is to punish Percy Jones' slayers according to the statutes in such cases made and provided.

"If an 8 dollar a week clerk in an English bank can steal $800,000 it would seem that John Bull's banking methods must be in a very bad way, indeed," says the Winston-Salem Journal. Not one whit worse, than American banking methods, brother. The same thing happens every once in a while in the best regulated families.

"Despairing of democratic success at the polls next year with a party split into irreconcilable factions, would he rather offer up a Southerner on the altar of sacrifice?" asks the Winston Sentinel. This is going too far. Mr. Bryan certainly would not offer up anyone as a sacrifice. He must be given credit for sincerity, whatever else is charged against him.

Prof. Alexander Graham, superintendent of the Charlotte graded schools, will conduct the Greene county teachers' institute to be held in Snow Hill from the 3rd to the 31st of August. We congratulate our neighbors upon securing Professor Graham.

Charlotte's opinion of Greensboro is that the latter is a fine place in which to take the Keeley cure, and Greensboro probably think Charlotte a fine place in which to take things that make the Keeley cure necessary.

The gentlemen who brought about the much desired sprinkling of Main street yesterday deserve a vote of thanks. If they had carried the good work a few streets further they would have deserved a monument.

If the Massachusetts cotton manufacturers still have troubles of their own, we would remind them that North Carolina is firmly attached to the open door policy in this respect.

We believe that Judge Clark stands less show than some of the other gentlemen who have been mentioned, but this would have been true of Mr. Bryan's choice if it had been anybody else.

"With all of this talk very few leading politicians or papers have committed themselves to any candidate," says the Durham Herald. Have you forgotten the Edenton kindergarten outfit?

Old Sol will see to it that yesterday's deluge doesn't amount to anything unless it is repeated daily until Jupiter Pluvius begins to get in his work.

"Street carnivals don't live up to their posters," says a contemporary. But the towns that had them generally live up to their promises to sin no more.

That fellow Tulloch up a Washington speaks like a man who ought to have been made boss of the whole outfit in the first place.

It must be admitted that Mr. Bryan has something of a mental anguish grievance against Mr. Cleveland.

The newspapers continue to print pictures of the various members of the reigning family. What a bore it is to be great.

Are the numerous wrecks on the Southern railway sent as punishment for its sins committed against Durham, et als?

When Tulloch begins to get down to real startlers he will be side tracked very securely.

Durham doesn't need a depot so badly now that this high weather is at hand.

It's up to Charlotte, Winston and Durham to form a merger in the depot matter.

Two Crops a Year.
Some one has suggested that North Carolina be named "The Berry State," and the Greenville REFLECTOR thinks that perhaps it would be the thing to do. Almost any one could agree to the proposition in view of the regular berry crop that is gathered in the state every year. And certainly no one could object to it after reading of the prospects of two crops a year as told by the Duplin Journal as follows: "A good many strawberry growers are expecting to make another crop this summer. The plants in some of the farms are white with blooms and there are already a good many young berries. Mr. I. R. Faison is among those who will hope for a full crop by this second edition."—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

The Ashes of Patrick Henry.

Richmond, Va., May 20.—A strong movement has been begun in Richmond for the removal of the body of Patrick Henry from its present grave in Charlotte county to St. John's churchyard in this city, and the erection of a marble monument to the great Virginia orator and leader of the revolution. It was in St. John's church that Henry made his famous speech ending: "Give me liberty or give me death."

Mr. Joseph Pomerville, of Stillwater, Minn., after having spent over $2,000 with the best doctors for stomach trouble, without relief, was advised by his druggist, Mr. Alex. Richard, to try a box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. He did so, and is a well man today. If troubled with indigestion, bad taste in the mouth, lack of appetite or constipation, give these Tablets a trial, and you are certain to be more than pleased with the result. For sale at 25 cents per box by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

President Roosevelt declares that within the present century the United States must control the Pacific Ocean. When it gets so it can control Teddy it will be ready to tackle that job.—Charlotte News.

GREATLY ALARMED

By a Persistent Cough, but Permanently Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
Mr. H. P. Burbage, a student at law, in Greenville, S. C., had been troubled for four or five years with a continuous cough which he says, "greatly alarmed me, causing me to fear that I was in the first stage of consumption." Mr. Burbage, having seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised, concluded to try it. Now read what he says of it: "I soon felt a remarkable change and after using two bottles of the twenty-five cent size, was permanently cured." Sold by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

A girl wears ribbons so that they will show through summer clothes and then pretends to be embarrassed if you notice it.

A Farmer Straightened Out.

"A man living on a farm near here came in a short time ago completely doubled up with rheumatism. I handed him a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and told him to use it freely and if not satisfied after using it he need not pay a cent for it," says C. P. Rayder, of Patten's Mills, N. Y. "A few days later he walked into the store as straight as a string and handed me a dollar saying, 'give me another bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I want it in the house all the time for it cured me.'" For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

The X-Rays.

Recent experiments, by practical tests and examination with the aid of the X-Rays, establish it as a fact that Catarrh of the Stomach is not a disease of itself, but that it results from repeated attacks of indigestion. "How Can I Cure My Indigestion?" Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is curing thousands. It will cure you of indigestion and dyspepsia, and prevent or cure Catarrh of the Stomach. Kodol digests what you eat—makes the stomach sweet. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

"I have only the most distant relatives."
"Has the family died out?"
"No. They have all become rich."

A Little Early Riser

now and then, at bedtime will cure constipation, biliousness and liver troubles. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the famous little pills that cure by arousing the secretions, moving the bowels gently, yet effectually, and giving such tone and strength to the glands of the stomach and liver that the cause of the trouble is removed entirely, and if their use is continued for a few days, there will be no return of the complaint. Sold by Wooten's Drug Store.

Blackburn is Willing.

Winston-Salem, N. C., May 19.—Ex-Congressman Spencer Blackburn passed through the city this morning on his way to Wilkesboro to spend a day or two. He said that it was not his purpose now to make a fight for the republican nomination for congress next year. However, he admitted that if the people wanted him he would be willing to make the race again.

THE STATE PRESS

No town can be held accountable for the individual acts of its inhabitants but when these acts are an infringement of the law it is up to the town to see that punishment follows.—Durham Herald.

Roosevelt expects to return next month, he says, "completely rested." But when he gets back to Washington he will find enough things gone wrong to give him the tired feeling again.—Charlotte News.

The politicians of his party may oppose Mr. Roosevelt for the nomination but if he gets it the democrats do not want to think that they will not make an effort to elect him.—Durham Herald

One hundred thousand Bibles were given away in Pennsylvania last year. But republican campaign literature still has the right of way in that state.—Charlotte News.

The street carnivals don't live up to their posters. They have not reformed in this respect, judging from the accounts that come from North Carolina towns that have had them this spring. The fakirs always get the best of it—or, more correctly speaking, nearly all of it.—Winston Sentinel.

Several of our contemporaries are venturing guesses as to how tobacco will sell next fall. With the present discouraging prospects for the crop of this year it will fetch high prices. The spring has been the most unfavorable for transplanting experienced in a long while. Unless we have rain soon there will not be much of a crop, and even with rains at this late date the yield must turn out unsatisfactory.—Winston Journal.

It is greatly to the credit of the Wilson board of aldermen that they summarily dismissed from the police force Officer Snakenberg who knew that a plan was on foot for a mob to horsewhip Jones and winked at it. Had the officer done his duty the murder might never have occurred; certainly Jones would not have been killed at the time and in the way he was.—Asheville Citizen.

The Honorable Furniford McL. Simmons, senior senator from the state of North Carolina, is for the Honorable Arthur Pue Gorman, senator from the state of Maryland, for president, and we observe en passant that the fellow who goes up against this couple while nursing the delusion that they are a pair of slouches will find himself as badly fooled as if he had rent his shirt.—Charlotte News.

Sprinkle Sunshine.

If you should see a fellow-man with trouble's flag unfurled, An' lookin' like he didn't have a friend in all the world, Go up and slap him on the back, and holler, "How do you do?" And grasp his hand so warm he'll know he has a friend in you. Then ax him what's a-hurtin' him, an' laugh his cares away, And tell him that the darkest night is just before the day, Don't talk in graveyard palaver, but say it right out loud, That God will sprinkle sunshine in the trail of every cloud. This world at best is but a hash of pleasure and of pain; Some days are bright and sunny, and some all sloshed with rain; And that's just how it ought to be, for when the clouds roll by We'll know just how to 'preciate the bright and smiling sky. So learn to take it as it comes, and don't sweat at the pores Because the Lod's opinion doesn't coincide with yours; But always keep rememberin', when cares your path enshroud, That God has lots of sunshine to spill behind the cloud. JAMES WHITCOMB RILEY.

Too Great a Risk.

In almost every neighborhood someone has died from an attack of colic or cholera morbus, often before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. A reliable remedy for these diseases should be kept at hand. The risk is too great for anyone to take. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has undoubtedly saved the lives of more people and relieved more pain and suffering than any other medicine in use. It can always be depended upon. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

The Wastes of the Body.

Every seven days the blood, muscles and bones of a man of average size loses two pounds of worn-out tissue. This waste cannot be replenished and the health and strength kept up without perfect digestion. When the stomach and digestive organs fail to perform their functions, the strength lets down, health gives way, and disease sets up. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that may be eaten into the kind of blood that rebuilds the tissues and protects the health and strength of the mind and body. Kodol cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. It is an ideal spring tonic. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Moore Entertain.

Thursday evening at their home in south-west Greenville, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Moore entertained about twenty-five couples of young people, in honor of their son, Mr. J. M. Moore and his bride who were married in Durham Thursday morning, and their daughter, Miss Myra Moore, who has just returned from school at Raleigh, accompanied by her cousin, Miss Jennette Moore, of Burgaw.

Their home was tastefully decorated for the occasion, and as the guests arrived they were received at the front door by Mr. B. W. Moseley with Mrs. Willie Hughes. In the hall the guests were taken in charge by Mr. C. M. Jones with Miss Mary Moye and made to feel at home. Dr. R. L. Carr with Miss Ada Wooten and Miss Myra Moore received in the parlor with the bridal couple.

Mr. C. S. Carr with Miss Lizzie Jones presided at the punch bowl and Mesdames Blalock, Johnson and Baily served delightful refreshments in the dining room.

It was an occasion of much pleasure to all and the newly married couple were showered with congratulations and best wishes.

A Big Hearted Man.

The awful responsibility resting upon a judge of the courts is realized no more deeply by any one than by Hon. W. C. Neal, now presiding over the present term of Forsyth Superior Court. That he believes that it is not only the duty of the court to administer punishment to the violator of the law in an effort to uplift fallen humanity, but that philanthropic methods should be adopted was manifested during yesterday's session in disposing of an indictment against James Wrenn, a lad charged with stealing 50 cents. When the case was called the appearance of James aroused the tender sympathies of His Honor, who inquired into the conditions of the boy's home. He stated that he was a fatherless boy, and that he tried to aid in the support of his widowed mother. Judge Neal, through his keen knowledge of human nature, saw something good in the face of the boy and asked him to go home, take a bath and change his clothing and to return to the court room at 12 o'clock. The boy obeyed and though collarless, the appearance of the boy was entirely changed. His Honor gave the boy money to purchase a collar, and after giving him fatherly advice the Judge secured for him a position in a factory where he will receive good wages.—Winston Journal.

"Dorothy Dodd"

THE FAULTLESS FITTING SHOE FOR WOMEN

Let us assume that your shoes fit you. Now, what next? What is most important? Unquestionably, style. If it has style you want it. If it has not style, but everything else, you do not want it. The style of a Dorothy Dodd is unique. It cannot be duplicated by any other maker, because the Dorothy Dodd is a totally different construction from any other ladies' shoe. Besides being exclusive in style, it holds the foot firmly at the instep, prevents the foot from slipping forward, and gives a correct poise in walking. It makes the foot look nearly a whole size smaller. That's curious, and you won't believe it until you see it. Just for once try the Dorothy Dodd Faultless Fitting Ladies' Shoe and prove the truthfulness of our assertion.
