Not Quite Ready to be Embalmed.

Mrs. James Waters, of Lewisburg, Pa., who has been suffering from heart trouble for several weeks, became unconscious and apparently ceased to breathe, her husband and two women of the neighborhood making a vain effort to revive her.

An undertaker was sent for, and in preparing the body for the embalming process one of the women raised Mrs. Waters' arms, at the same time observing that she breathed.

This artificial means of respiration was continued until the woman regained consciousness. She will live.

The Philadelphia Strike.

Philadelphia, May 31.—The general strike of the textile workers of Philadelphia, for a reduction in working time from 60 to 55 hours a week, will go into effect officially tomorrow, and the leaders of the textile unions tonight claim that fully 100,000 persons will refuse to go to work unless their demands are agreed to.

The figures given out by the executive committee of the various trades affected are claimed to be too high.

The wise are polite all the world over; fools are polite only at home.—Bacon.

HAYWOOD HABEAS CORPUS.

All Kinds of Testimony From All Kinds of Witnesses.

Raleigh, June 1.—In the Haywood habeas corpus proceeding the examination of witnesses was concluded today and argument by counsel begun. Diagrams of the scene of the killing were introduced by the prosecution and the defense used these with the purpose of controverting the evidence of Druggist Gwaltney as to his having seen the shooting from his window.

The prosecution put on witnesses who testified that Hocutt, a witness for the defense whose testimony was that he saw Skinner strike Haywood, told them he saw no alteration.

Witnesses were introduced who testified that Hocutt's character was bad, while the defense introduced witnesses who testified that Representative Simpson had told a different story to them than which he told on the stand.

There was no evidence.

Harnett's Eating Boy.

Mr. Wm. Johnson, a leading farmer and a reliable man of the Buie's Creek section, was in town yesterday. He reports the following items:

A young man of his neighborhood, Mr. Elmon Matthews, a few days ago attempted to satisfy the inner man and got outside of 21 pounds of provisions. He weighed before taking the meal and weighed 74 pounds immediately after the meal he weighed 91 pounds. Following is an itemized statement of the meal:

- Ate 1 gallon mulberries.
- Drank 1 gallon lemonade.
- Ate 1½ lb lard.
- " 1½ lb candy.
- " 1 lb collards.
- " ½ lb meat.
- " 4 lb bread.
- " 4 large biscuits.
- " ½ pint molasses.
- " ½ gallon water.—Dunn Guide.

Horse Runaway.

Monday afternoon while Dr. J. E. Nobles was returning from a trip across the river, his horse took fright on the dam and ran away. The buggy went over the side of the dam and the doctor was thrown out and given a rough shaking up. The horse pulled the buggy back on the dam and had a collision with a telephone pole, doing considerable damage to the vehicle.

Woman Fatally Injured by a Negro.

Rocky Mount, May 30.—While shooting at frogs on Tar river today Lee Collins fatally shot Lizzie Battle. Both are colored. The woman was hit in the back of the head and the doctors are unable to locate the ball. Collins is not under arrest. He claims that the shooting was accidental. The negro is employed in carrying the United States mail to and from trains.

"Of course," said the optimist, "if a man gets into the habit of hunting trouble he's sure to find it." "Yes," replied the pessimist, "and if he's so lazy that he always tries to avoid it, it will find him. So what's the difference?"—Philadelphia Press.

A laugh to be joyous must flow from a joyous heart, for without kindness there can be no true joy.—Carlyle.

What North Carolina needs is a practical application of Judge Clark's dissenting opinion in the Cole case.—Concord Tribune.

TOWN ELECTION.

Regulars Elected in Every Ward Except First.

At the town election for aldermen Monday all the nominees of Friday night's primaries were elected with one exception. This exception was in the first ward where E. Buck was brought as an independent candidate and defeated E. M. McGowan, the nominee, by one vote. There were two other scattering votes in that ward and one in the fourth ward, only the nominees in the other wards being voted for. The voting was as follows:

- First Ward—E. Buck 6, E. M. McGowan 5, J. L. Hearne 2.
 - Second Ward—Charles Cobb 27, L. H. Rountree 27
 - Third Ward—H. A. White 57, R. O. Jeffress 57.
 - Fourth Ward—S. T. White 83, Hardee, 82, E. G. Flanagan 1.
 - Fifth Ward—J. C. Lanier 26.
- The newly elected aldermen will go in office the first of July.

Murderin Box Car.

Spencer, N. C., June 1.—Link Barber, colored, was shot and instantly killed here last night by Frank Tate, also colored. The shooting was done in a box car on the Southern yards and the killing was caused by a dispute over a game of cards.

Barber attempted to force Tate to surrender his money when the latter fired the ball passing through the brain of his assailant. Both negroes are bad characters, age about 25, and came from South Carolina. Tate made good his escape, though Sheriff Julian is making strenuous efforts to capture him.

200 Are Killed.

Gainesville, Ga., June 1.—It is rumored that 200 people were killed by the cyclone which passed over this afternoon. The force of the wind blew off two stories of the Gainesville cotton mill, which employed five hundred persons.

A number of cottages at Gainesville and New Holland mills were completely demolished.—Charlotte News.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, JUNE 2, 1903.

THE RALEIGH & EASTERN.

Though it is best not to be certain of anything concerning railroads, it appears that the hopes of the people interested for the immediate construction of the Raleigh & Eastern railroad are not without good foundation.

This new road is the one thing needed by Greenville, and by the country it will traverse. It will get us out from under the shadow of railway monopoly, and will be a mainspring to a new line of business that will bring profit, prosperity and convenience to us.

Greenville ought to do something to welcome the Raleigh & Eastern. There is hardly a citizen of the town who does not cherish some resentment against the Atlantic Coast line for the wretched makeshift of a railroad service. It is strictly correct to say that the people have given up hoping for anything better from the Coast line. Petitions, reasonings, pleadings—all have been of no avail. Having the town in its power the Coast line seems perfectly content to let us kick and rage indefinitely.

The new road would break the existing monopoly and cause things to quicken up in the general manager's office of the Coast line. We would have far superior passenger, freight and mail schedules, and would not be compelled to patronize a company which we detest for its indifference to our needs and its abuse of power.

When the subscription books of the Raleigh & Eastern are opened Greenville business men and money interests should get in on the ground floor and subscribe liberally. In the meantime we should do all in our power to encourage the project, by forming a business men's association for the purpose of taking up this and other such matters.

The Greensboro Record condemns the pardoning of Murrow, the rapist. The Record's position would be more consistent if it had had something to say about it before the pardon was granted, but its contention and view seem right to us. The Record says:

"In his pardon of Murrow Governor Aycock says there was a petition of three thousand signers presented to him. A wag here once wrote a petition asking that Mr. Jesse H. Lindsay, one of the most honored citizens of the state, be hanged, and twenty-six men signed it before its actual contents were known. It is safe to say that it took six months to get these 3,000 signers to ask for the pardon of Murrow. The Record undertakes to say that it can get 3,000 signers to a petition in six weeks condemning Gov. Aycock's action in the matter and what is more, the lists will contain the best element of the county, with not a non-resident on it."

Bishop A. Coke Smith, who sometime ago located in Charlotte, has removed from this state to Norfolk. The Charlotte Chronicle assigns as the reason of his leaving that there were certain persons in this state who aspired to the office bishop and that if Bishop Smith remained in that state the point might be raised when the time of election comes, three years hence, that North Carolina already has a bishop. As the Chronicle remarks, "That's a pretty howdy do." It is driving a good citizen from the state from a very unusual motive.

We sympathize with those Western people who fell victims to fire and flood. At the same time we hope some of those North Carolinians who recently left this state for the "rich West" got a taste of the Topeka horrors and can be induced to come back here and tell the people all about it. Such things are stranger than fiction to people residing in a country where nothing ever happens.

Theodore seems determined to counteract the effects of his "rest." In splitting his shirt in order to obtain the Ohio endorsement, he neglected to remember that he hasn't offices enough to go around, and if there are not at least two offices in every Ohio family somebody will be highly offended.

The Winston-Salem Sentinel editorially places R. B. Glenn in nomination for the governorship. The nomination will find an abundance of seconds.

Of course Haywood will be allowed bail. Isn't he a gentleman, and "one of our best people"? And isn't Skinner dead?

Of course Machen was in partnership with those bribers. That's what the government is kicking about.

Martial law in Kentucky does not seem to be a great improvement over the other kind.

DO YOU ENJOY WHAT YOU FAT?

If you don't your food does not do you much good. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the remedy that every one should take when there is any thing wrong with the stomach. There is no way to maintain the health and strength of mind and body except by nourishment. There is no way to nourish except through the stomach. The stomach must be kept healthy, pure and sweet or the strength will let down and disease will set up. No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, sour risings, rifting, indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles are quickly cured by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. Sold by John L. Wooten.

The future destiny of the child is always the work of the mother. —Napoleon.

LADIES AND CHILDREN INVITED.

All ladies and children who cannot stand the shocking strain of laxative syrups, cathartics, etc., are invited to try the famous little Early Risers. They are different from all other pills. They do not purge the system. Even a double dose will not gripe, weaken or sicken: many people call them the Easy Pill. W. H. Howell, Houston, Tex., says nothing better can be used for constipation, sick headache, etc. Bob Moore, Lafayette, Ind., says all others gripe and sicken, while DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work well and easy. Sold by John L. Wooten.

A great deal of knowledge, which is not capable of making a man wise, has a natural tendency to make him vain and arrogant. —Addison.

His Last Hope Realized.

[From the Sentinel, Gebo, Mont.]

In the first opening of Oklahoma to settlers in 1889, the editor of this paper was among the many seekers after fortune who made the big race one fine day in April. During his traveling about and afterwards his camping upon his claim, he encountered much bad water, which, together with the severe heat, gave him a very severe diarrhoea which it seemed almost impossible to check, and along in June the case became so bad he expected to die. One day one of his neighbors brought him one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a last hope. A big dose was given him while he was rolling about on the ground in great agony, and in a few minutes the dose was repeated. The good effect of the medicine was soon noticed and within an hour the patient was taking his first sound sleep for a fortnight. That one little bottle worked a complete cure, and he cannot help but feel grateful. The season for bowel disorders being at hand suggests this item. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

The Tale of a Tail.

A writer in tracing the ancestry of the dog to wolf and jackal notices typical differences in the case of their eyes, their body colors and markings, the habit of turning around before lying down and other interesting peculiarities, but he does not mention the most striking and infallible way of distinguishing them—namely, by the fashion in which they carry their tails. Wolves and coyotes have a sneaking way of carrying their tails low, almost dragging on the ground, while dogs carry their tails up, and the farther removed they are from the feral type the higher they carry them. Shepherds and collies, which retain many of their racial characteristics, carry their tails lowest of all; setters and pointers a degree or two higher, stiffening out straight when drawing on game; terriers and hounds elevate their tails to the spinal line; St. Bernards and Newfoundlanders affect a curve over the back, while pugs actually come to a full twist. An old plainsman could tell a wolf or coyote as far as he could see him, and in buffalo days this was a most useful indication of buffalo herds being not far away. These predatory creatures always followed a moving herd.—Forest and Stream.

Crabs and Earthquakes.

For some time previous to the day upon which the great Chilean earthquake of August, 1857, occurred great swarms of crabs of an unknown variety were seen in the bay of Payta. They all appeared to be greatly excited and were literally climbing over each other in their efforts to escape the impending calamity. How they knew that the earthquake was collecting its strength to desolate the coast is more than man can say, but that they knew something unusual was about to happen there is no doubt whatever. That there were millions of them may be inferred from the report of Dr. Forbes, who says that "ten days after the earthquake the dead crabs were thrown upon the beach in a wall-like line three or four feet wide along the whole extent of the bay."

What the Dickens!

The London Chronicle declares that "What the dickens" has nothing to do with the novelist. It is as old as Shakespeare, who in the "Merry Wives of Windsor" makes Mrs. Page say to Ford, "I cannot tell what the dickens his name is." And so the word—a palpable diminutive of Dick, like Wilkins and Hodgkins and Watkins—came into use as a substitute for another and more important D. As to "play the dickens," one thinks of Smollett and Humphry Clinker and the immortal scene in which the lion "would roar and tear and play the dickens," and in comparatively late times Thomas Moore could write: Like the Goths who played the dickens With Rome and all her sacred chickens.

A French Dog Story.

A Parisian lady went out recently for a walk in the Avenue de Clichy, taking with her a toy terrier, which she held by a string. While she was looking into a shop window two mischievous boys substituted a bone for the dog. A Great Dane then appeared on the scene, and, seeing the bone, made a dash and swallowed it, string included. The lady turned round and in despair cried out that the Great Dane had eaten her pet. The little dog was found later on, much to the joy of his mistress, who carried him off in a cab.

Bismarck's Feed of Oysters.

Bismarck on one occasion told Sidney Whitman of his well known feat in oyster eating. He was once in Liege, where he ordered some oysters in a restaurant—fifty to begin with. He saw the lady behind the counter look up in surprise; so, when he had eaten them, wishing to see what effect it might have on her, he ordered another fifty, and so on until he had eaten 170 oysters. Mr. Whitman adds that "it is only fair to remember that in all probability they were the small Ostend variety."

Naval Discipline.

The force of naval discipline is shown in this true story of the captain who, fatally smitten with cholera, was being taken ashore to the hospital. The story is told in "Sport in the Navy." The captain's men were rowing as slowly and gently as possible in order not to disturb him. The dying captain beckoned the midshipman in charge of the boat and whispered these last words: "Ten days' black list for the crew for not giving way!"

Sleep Methods.

It is said that hours of sleep can be regulated by two simple methods: First, never allow yourself to be awakened, but insist on being undisturbed until you awaken naturally; second, get up the minute you are awake. The hours of sleep will soon become adapted to the requirements of your constitution.

Gory.

"What do you gain by deluging every street of Paris with blood?" declaimed dripping Danton. "At least I will make a great alley gory," reasoned Robespierre, glancing down the Rue Royale at the reeking guillotine.—Yale Record.

Her First Query.

"My dear," said Mr. Cabbage to his wife, who was dangerously ill, "Mrs. Kickshaw is downstairs and wants to see you." "What has she got on?" asked the dying woman feebly.

A man is young a great deal longer than he is old, but it doesn't seem so long.—Acheson Globe.

Queen Quality

WILL YOU TRY IT?

Are you ever irritable? Many a woman can trace her irritability to ill fitting shoes. It is hard to be cheerful, isn't it, when all the time there is a drag and pinch upon the feet. But there is one shoe that is different in this matter of FIT. It is not made like a box into which the foot is thrust, but on the plan of a bandaged wrapped around the muscles of the foot to strengthen and sustain them.

That Shoe is the "Queen Quality"

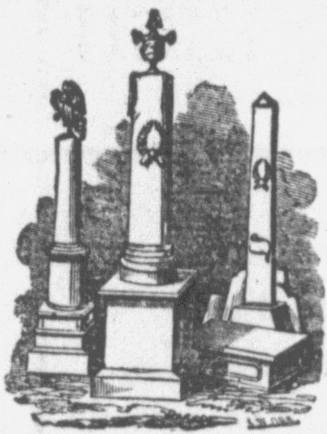

It makes walking easier for thousands of women. It will do it for you. Will you let it?

On to Washington!

Go on, go on, bravo! thou General
Payne.
Continue thy search light, under thy genial reign
You have already the confidence of the people won
By your grand and noble work, only just begun.

It seems you are determined, without stop or rest,
To clear out the putrefaction, from
the root to the crest,
By the dextrous use of thy keen pruning hook.
You have taught a grand lesson by the heads you've "took."

While our crested chief, out West is having his fun
You are hard at work—always on the run,
Applying disinfectants carefully and without stint,
You have given the microbes quite a serious hint.

I am no republican, I couldn't be if I tried;
But I believe in honesty—good works
well applied,
Why not reward an honest man?
thou, leader, Mr. Hanna,
By flouting the name of Payne on thy presidential banner.

Sweet and Tempting

There is nothing so purely sweet and tempting as Fresh, Clean Butter, Eggs and Cheese. They are certainly sweet and tempting as we buy them, and most of the well-set tables in the town give our dairy products a well-deserved place. You will be pleased if you do likewise.

IRON BEDS.

We have these in all sizes, and it will not pay you to bother with cleaning the old wooden beds when you can buy a complete metal one,
Different sizes and styles to select from.

FLY PAPER.

We keep the most attractive Fly Paper on the market—attractive to flies. You don't have to introduce the fly to the paper, either. He knows it is a good thing and wants to get onto it early in the game. He gets stuck on it.
