Negroes on the Warpath.

Charleston, S. C., June 2.—A pitched battle occurred between two parties of negroes 17 miles from here last night. Thirty were wounded. A picnic train with 2,000 negro passengers was returning to the city when negroes from the surrounding country opened fire on the train, which was stopped and the picnic negroes called forth to battle.

Three negroes died of injuries received and others are not expected to live.

Search is being made for those who fired on the train. Great excitement prevails among the negro population.

AYDEN COMMENCEMENT.

Closing Exercises of F. W. B. Theological Seminary.

The fourth annual commencement of the F. W. B. T. Seminary at Ayden is in progress this week. The exercises began Tuesday night with an address before the Amphiction Society by Prof. W. H. Ragsdale, superintendent of schools of Pitt county. After musical selections by a special choir of excellent voices and prayer by Rev. Chas. E. Furman, of New York, Prof. Peeden, president of the seminary, introduced the speaker.

Prof. Ragsdale took for the subject of his address "What does the present demand of young men and young women?" The first demand mentioned was the cultivation of broad liberal views, of things and life—laying a solid foundation on which to build. No man of contracted views can become great, good, or useful. Emphasis was given to the fact that we must know self, our relations to others, and to time and eternity.

The second demand was training. This is not education. It is skill to do well what one undertakes. Train yourself to do one thing well. This demand applies to every vocation.

Following this and of grater importance was the third demand, symmetrically developed intellect—liberal education. This gives power to the trained hand. It is this which originates, discovers and invents. There is a tendency to abnormal development of faculties, but the ideal student is the one of general preparation. The intellect, the power which utilizes and moves matter, needs to be able to act in more than one direction. Of equal importance was the fourth demand named—culture. This gives power over those with whom we come in contact. Education is not culture. Culture is the flower of education.

Much stress was laid upon the fifth demand—a keen and rightly adjusted moral perception, coupled with a dauntless disposition to follow the promptings to right doing. It is this that gives character. No life can be great without character. No character can be great that is not guided and directed by an enlightened conscience. Reputation is what you are thought to be—character is what you are.

The preceding demands heeded fit us for the next—activity. The world's question of every man and woman today is not from whom are you descended, nor from what college you came, but what can you do? This age demands that you bring things to pass.

The address closed with the admonition that after you have done the best you can there is one lesson to learn—resignation. You will often see your fondest hopes decay. God rules individuals, nations and worlds. His plans and ways are wise. Our wills must be submitted to His. Fight life's battles bravely, have faith in God, leave results to Him and all will be well.

The audience was large and attentive and Prof. Ragsdale's excellent address made a deep and lasting impression upon them. Many gathered around him at the close to thank him for what he had said.

Further exercises of the commencement were announced as follows:

Wednesday at 8 p. m., address by Elder Bennett, of Pamlico county.

Thursday at 10:30 a. m., address by Rev. Chas. E. Furman, of New York.

Thursday at 8 p. m., annual concert by the students.

The seminary was established at Ayden by the Free Will Baptist denomination about four and a half years ago. For four years Prof. T. E. Peeden has been president of the institution. The past year the faculty has consisted of three teachers and the enrollment reached 115, several states being represented among the students. The teaching embraces literary, normal, theological and music departments. The seminary is doing splendid work and is an honor to the denomination founding it.

ORMONDSVILLE ITEMS.

ORMONDSVILLE, N. C., June 2.

Now that the school is closed, and the teachers and pupils have all gone to their respective homes, it is quite dull among us. The school this year has been a decided success, and the employment of the same teachers for the next session is only a greater assurance for its success again.

Miss Effie Grimsley, who has been attending Littleton Female college, returned home Friday night, accompanied by Misses Fannie Hardee and Florence Dail, who went up to attend the commencement.

Jasper Frizzell and Leslie Turnage went to Wilmington today on the Methodist Sunday school excursion from Kinston.

Miss Rosa Lee Hardee, of Institute, Lenoir county, is visiting her Uncle J. I. Frizzelle. Miss Hardee was once a student of Ormondsville High school, and made lots of friends while here.

Mr. W. A. Darden went to Snow Hill yesterday, accompanied by Miss Martha Harper, who has been visiting at his home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Edwards, of Ayden, visited Mrs. Edward's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elias Turnage, Sunday.

Quite a large crowd attended the Union meeting of the Free Will Baptist church here Sunday. It was impossible for all to hear the able sermon preached by Mr. Vause, their being fully four hundred people in attendance.

The crops in this section are exceptionally fine for the time of the year. The tobacco and cotton crops are looking really well.

We are very glad to say that Mrs. Irene Ormond, who has been quite sick with fever for several weeks, is up again. She has been greatly missed since she has been sick.

The writer, in behalf of the community, wishes to thank the editor of THE REFLECTOR for the kind remarks he made of our section in reporting the commencement of the High School. We also wish to thank him heartily for being with us on commencement day and reporting so well the proceedings. We hope he will come out and be with us again.—[The pleasure was ours—Ed]

WANTED---RESULTS.

It is better to do something and get cussed for mistakes than to make the greatest mistake of all—doing nothing. "A touchin' of and appertainin' thereto," we suggest to the recently elected improvement and school boards that they get busy forthwith, and let us see something being done. Our streets are in darkness and the town practically at the mercy of the first fire springing up under favorable conditions of wind and weather. In other words, in the matter of municipal improvements and the adjuncts of civilization, light and water, Greenville is a back number. The people have voted that this should not be, and they are beginning to look for results.

THE GOVERNOR GOES TO EXTREMES.

The very best friends of Governor Aycock have feared for some time that he would finally go too far in the matter of pardons and bring a storm of criticism and indignation down upon himself. If he has not done this in the case of Murrow, the rapist, of Guilford county, he has come very near to it. Condemning the governor's action the Greensboro Record says:

Governor Aycock denounces the crime for which Murrow was convicted as "a horrible one and one that justly deserves the severest punishment but it is not believed that justice nor public opinion requires the death penalty in this case." No indeed, governor; the justice and mercy loving people of old Guilford did not desire an execution in this case, but they did want to see something like justice extended to this poor orphan girl, and it was left as purely a matter of choice with Murrow. He chose the roads and gave his money to the lawyers and others to get him off, rather than give any of it to the girl. Judge Shaw, after patiently hearing all the evidence in the long and impartial trial, said Murrow should pay the girl $1,500 for the support of herself and child or go to the roads for seven years. He chose the roads, where he has been for only one year and nine months. Now who is going to take care of the girl—Governor Aycock or Mr. Murrow? It is evidently the duty of one or the other. Which shall it be, Judge Shaw? From what we hear it seems that her health is much worse today than that of Murrow and she is needing help to get through the world.

It certainly appears from the above that Governor Aycock has carried things to extremes and his friends would do well by him to try to dissuade him from further acts of this kind. It's no use denying that entirely too many convicts have been pardoned for the good of the state and society. There is nothing so unjust as an just mercy.

"The passing tribute of a sigh" we dedicate to the memory of Major Patrick F. Duffy, for 15 years chief editorial writer for the Wilmington Star. Major Duffy was a genial, light-browed Irishman, a courtly gentleman and the highest type of citizen. Though a Northern man by birth, he was a democrat, and his love and sympathies were ever with the land whose bright skies sheltered so many of the noblest years of his noble life. As a writer he was sound and conservative, absolutely tireless and inexhaustible. As a man and friend he was a delight and inspiration. Peace to his ashes.

Wilmington is agitated over the organization of a negro labor union. We don't think there is any great danger in such an organization, but Wilmington can be depended upon to manage her affairs properly, and this new scheme of agitation will get what it deserves.

The country should be and probably is properly thankful that the president has so far refrained from butting into the postoffice investigation. The president is the one man in the country who can make the affair a greater mess than it is.

The Wilson News is going to send up a balloon. We suggest that the man who stole that half column of editorial paragraphs in the News of June 1 be placed in the balloon and the whole outfit be shot out of a cannon.

We are in line with the Durham Herald in that you would never know there is another paper in town if you depended upon us to tell you about it.

It may be all true, but it makes us extremely tired to have Walter H. Page come down occasionally and tell us how ignorant we are.

THE DAILY REFLECTOR carries more home advertisements than any paper in a town of the size of Greenville in the whole state.

We regard it as an unmixed blessing that the South does not have to deal with a socialistelement and agitation.

We would like to have an expert opinion from the Wilson News on the commandment, "Thou shalt not steal."

Of course it is all nonsense about North Carolina strawberries producing gout. "Revenue" is the word.

THE STATE PRESS

In Kansas where tornadoes blow and whiskers long as yard sticks grow and women wield the hatchet, the latest freaks are uphill rivers which knocks the record all to shivers; no other State can match it.—Winston Journal.

There was a suggestion of human intelligence in the way Mount Shasta, the chief asset of the copper trust, hid behind a cloud when the "trust-busting" president came its way.—Durham Sun.

Much has been made of a few cases of injustice to negroes in Alabama, where for trifling offenses they were sent to the chain-gang and thence sold into slavery. Alabama is redressing that wrong in the most earnest spirit. Mean time there is foreign mission work to be done in New York city.—Charlotte News.

DO YOU ENJOY WHAT YOU EAT?

If you don't your food does not do you much good. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the remedy that every one should take when there is anything wrong with the stomach. There is no way to maintain the health and strength of mind and body except by nourishment. There is no way to nourish except through the stomach. The stomach must be kept healthy, pure and sweet or the strength will let down and disease will set up. No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, sour risings, rifting, indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles are quickly cured by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. Sold by John L. Wooten.

You can bet your boots, my boy, your boss knows what you are about. You don't fool; him you fool yourself.

LADIES AND CHILDREN INVITED.

All ladies and children who cannot stand the shocking strain of laxative syrups, cathartics, etc., are invited to try the famous little Early Risers. They are different from all other pills. They do not purge the system. Even a double dose will not gripe, weaken or sicken; many people call them the Easy Pill. W. H. Howell, Houston, Tex., says nothing better can be used for constipation, sick headache, etc. Bob Moore, Lafayette, Ind., says all others gripe and sicken, while DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work well and easy. Sold by John L. Wooten.

Men of small minds are slow to see in any man more than they are capable of seeing in themselves.

"I have been troubled for some time with indigestion and sour stomach," says Mrs. Sarah W. Curtis, of Lee, Mass., "and have been taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets which have helped me very much so that now I can eat many things that before I could not." If you have any trouble with your stomach why not take these Tablets and get well? For sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville, Farmville Pharmacy Farmville.

His Last Hope Realized.

[From the Sentinel, Gebo, Mont.]

In the first opening of Oklahoma to settlers in 1889, the editor of this paper was among the many seekers after fortune who made the big race one fine day in April. During his traveling about and afterwards his camping upon his claim, he encountered much bad water, which, together with the severe heat, gave him a very severe diarrhoea which it seemed almost impossible to check, and along in June the case became so bad he expected to die. One day one of his neighbors brought him one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a last hope. A big dose was given him while he was rolling about on the ground in great agony, and in a few minutes the dose was repeated. The good effect of the medicine was soon noticed and within an hour the patient was taking his first sound sleep for a fortnight. That one little bottle worked a complete cure, and he cannot help but feel grateful. The season for bowel disorders being at hand suggests this item. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

There is no such thing as ease within the belief of men and women whose hearts are unselfish.

A SERIOUS MISTAKE.

E. C. DeWitt & Co. is the name of the firm who make the genuine Witch Hazel Salve. DeWitt's is the Witch Hazel Salve that heals without leaving a scar. It is a serious mistake to use any other. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles, burns, bruises, eczema and all skin diseases. Sold by John L. Wooten.

Make chums of your wife and children and know the whole charm of home.

Cuts, Bruises and Burns Quickly Healed.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm is an antiseptic liniment, and when applied to cuts, bruises and burns, causes them to heal without maturation and much more quickly than by the usual treatment. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

The Honeymoon.

It is said by some authorities that the honeymoon, or month after marriage, takes its sweet sounding title from a practice of the ancient Teutons, who drank honey wine (hydromel) for thirty days after a wedding.

A far more simple and direct derivation is found in associations common to many times and people. The words month and moon have come to us from one source, the Anglo-Saxon mona, which is formed from an old root, ma, to measure. The moon thus measures time, and Dryden links it with its kindred month when he speaks of "one revolving moon." Honey is an obvious equivalent for anything enjoyable and sweet, and Shakespeare attaches it closely to the tender passion when he says, "honeying and making love."

Anthony Trollope has used honeymoon as a verb—"Some decent sort of body to honeymoon along with me," and in an old volume of the London Tatler there is an interesting sentence which clinches the connection between moon and month—"Sometimes the parties fly asunder even in the midst of courtship and sometimes grow cool in the very honey month."

Curious Mathematical Fact.

There is a certain popular young lawyer in Atlanta who when in college was known as the best mathematician in his class. He is still much interested in knotty questions of figures, and he propounded a query on the street yesterday that none of a dozen men could answer.

"Take any two consecutive numbers," he said, "say four and five; square them and subtract the lesser result from the greater, and the number you have is the same as the sum of the numbers you started with—in this case four and five, their sum being nine."

"This will work out every time, no matter what two consecutive numbers you take. The rule is well known, but I have never been able to find an explanation of it. Why is this always true, and can any one explain it to me?"

His hearers figured long, but none was able to tell why the sum of the two consecutive numbers is equal to the difference of their squares.—Atlanta Constitution.

Mankind's Progress.

Institutions may crumble and governments fall, but it is only that they may renew a better youth. The petals of the flower wither that the fruit may form. The desire of perfection, springing always from moral power, rules even the sword and escapes unharmed from the field of carnage, giving to battles all that they can have of luster and to warriors their only glory, surviving martyrdoms and safe amid the wreck of states. On the banks of the stream of time not a monument has been raised to a hero or a nation but tells the tale and renews the hope of improvement. Each people that has disappeared, every institution that has passed away, has been a step in the ladder by which humanity ascends toward the perfection of its nature.—George Bancroft.

Two Definitions of a Gentleman.

To be a gentleman "is to be honest, to be gentle, to be generous, to be brave, to be wise, and, possessed of all these qualities, to exercise them in the most graceful manner," says the great novelist Thackeray.

A diner in a certain hotel became so palsy that the proprietor directed his removal. The waiter who successfully accomplished this, on returning to the room, expressed his regret at having been obliged to put the individual out, for, said he, with emphasis, "he's a perfect gentleman," adding after a pause, as if to explain how he arrived at so decided a conclusion, "He give me 'alf a crown."—Notes and Queries.

Burmese Girls.

The Burmese girl begins smoking when she is about three years of age. A group of schoolgirls in Mandalay will sit in a circle passing around the cigarette, just as American girls would pass round the bag of caramels. It isn't a weedy little thing two inches long and no thicker than the Burmese girl smokes. It is a whacking big cheroot, nearly a foot long and weighing about three-quarters of a pound.

Nine National Capitals.

How many readers could tell offhand the number of national capitals this country's congress has sat in and give the names? Not many probably. Well, there have been nine of them—Washington; Baltimore and Annapolis, in Maryland; Trenton and Princeton, in New Jersey; Philadelphia, Lancaster and York, in Pennsylvania, and New York city.—National Magazine.

Woolgathering.

"For one's wits to go woolgathering" is an allusion to a pitiful industry sometimes seen in older countries. In parts of France, Germany and Spain very old people are sometimes employed in gathering wool from bushes in sheep pastures where it has been plucked from the fleece as the animals pass too close to the branches.

She Agreed.

Spinks—What made him so mad? Winks—He told his wife she had no judgment, and she just looked him over critically from head to foot and said she was beginning to realize it.

How They Would Sound.

Mrs. Galey (musingly)—Suppose I should publish your love letters? Mr. Galey—Why not simply make a public acknowledgment that you married an idiot?

His Own Exclusive Privilege.

A man calls himself a fool a hundred times a day, but it isn't safe for some one else to do it just once.—San Francisco Bulletin.

CARDUI BABIES

Many homes are mere lonely abodes because no children are there. Barrenness exists in almost every case because female diseases have paralyzed the organs of womanhood. Wine of Cardui imparts health and strength to the diseased parts and makes motherhood possible in thousands of cases where barrenness is supposed to be incurable. Wine of Cardui regulates the menstrual flow and also prevents miscarriage and cures bearing down pains. Wine of Cardui removes the cause of barrenness by making the female organism strong and healthy. Go to your druggist and secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui. The use of Wine of Cardui will bring happiness to your home.

Wine of Cardui is worth its weight in gold. It does more than you claim. It has saved my life and caused me to become a mother when everything else failed. MRS. DORA I. E. LE FEVRE.

BRYANT, VA., Feb. 18, 1902.

My daughter-in-law, Lizzie Giles, found great benefit in Wine of Cardui. She had a miscarriage in March 1901, before using your medicine. She was in very bad health, so I persuaded her to try Wine of Cardui. Since then she has had a fine baby boy. Soon he will be three weeks old. She highly recommends Wine of Cardui.

My daughter, Fannie Hudson, also has a fine baby boy by your treatment. She highly appreciates Wine of Cardui. MRS. LOUISA GILES.

Queen Quality

WILL YOU TRY IT?

Are you ever irritable? Many a woman can trace her irritability to ill fitting shoes. It is hard to be cheerful, isn't it, when all the time there is a drag and pinch upon the feet. But there is one shoe that is different in this matter of FIT. It is not made like a box into which the foot is thrust, but on the plan of a bandage wrapped around the muscles of the foot to strengthen and sustain them.

That Shoe is the "Queen Quality"

It makes walking easier for thousands of women. It will do it for you. Will you let it?

NEWS NOTES FROM WINTERVILLE.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., June 3.

Only one possible objection could be raised to the concert given by the Oxford Orphan Asylum singing class and that is that it was too soon over with, although they entertained us till most eleven o'clock. All regret so much to have to say good-bye to the children this morning. We love them and want them to come again. Receipts were something over $50.

Those sending laundry from this section should see that C. A. Fair gets it by Tuesday, June 9th.

Mrs. Taylor our popular milliner, left yesterday afternoon for LaGrange.

Have you seen a "Handy" tobacco truck? Tobacco farmers, this is a question easily answered, but a very important one to the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. of this place. So important is it that you shall see them that they have them on exhibition in every town in the tobacco belt. Write them for full particulars or go to your nearest town and your dealer will hand you a card of introduction. There is so much to be said in its praise that we cannot tell it all at one time, but will keep bringing out important points in these columns each week.

Mrs. A. G. Cox and Miss Dora Cox returned from Ayden Monday.

Yesterday morning while a crowd was waiting at the depot a scream was heard at John Baird's house near by, which seemed to cause considerable excitement among the colored folks. It was soon learned that one of his children had caught a fire and was seriously burned. Dr. Cox says its recovery is doubtful.

B. F. Manning, J. F. Harrington and W. L. Hurst left Monday afternoon to spend a few days at Wrightsville Beach.

Don't worry about placing your order for Tobacco Flues. A. G. Cox Mfg. Co., keep a plenty of them ready made on hand to supply you.
