Still After the Trusts.

New York, June 4.—Judge Lacombe in the United States circuit court today granted an order to show cause against the defendants in the complaint of W. R. Hearst against the coal carrying roads, why they should not answer certain questions propounded during the investigation of the complaint by the Inter-State Commerce Commission. The order is returnable June 10th.

No young man can expect to have much of a place in New York society unless he has been arrested at least once for fast automobiling.—Philadelphia Press.

Committed Without Bail.

Nathan Sessoms, who sometime ago killed Osborn Walker, at Shelmerdine, was given a preliminary Thursday before Justice of the Peace C. D. Rountree. After hearing the evidence he was committed to jail without bail to await the action of the grand jury at September court.

After committing the crime Sessoms fled and Governor Aycock offered a reward of $50 for his arrest and delivery to the Sheriff of Pitt county. He was recently arrested in Norfolk and brought back here.

The recent rains have been more plentiful on the south side of the river than on the north side.

COUNCIL MEETING.

Appropriation for Entertaining Confederate Veterans.

The board of aldermen met in regular monthly session Thursday night and transacted a considerable amount of business.

The standing committees, police officers, tax collector and chief of fire department made their reports for the past month.

The street committee was authorized to proceed to condemn and lay out a street across the property of Henry Sheppard, Wiley Vines and Lance Wooten, so as to complete the opening of the street to Dickinson avenue near the depot.

The balance due, $1,880 on the purchase of the lot on the corner of Fifth and Cotanch streets for market house and fire department buildings, was ordered paid.

The returns of the recent town election were canvassed, and the following declared elected aldermen for the fiscal year beginning July 1st: 1st ward, Edgar Buck, 2nd ward, Charles Cobb and L. M. Rountree, 3rd ward H. A. White and R. O. Jeffress, 4th ward, S. T. White and D. W. Hardee, 5th ward J. C. Lanier.

An appropriation of $50 was made for the entertainment of the Confederate Veterans at their reunion on the 3rd of July.

The cemetery committee was instructed to collect for all lots sold and not paid for.

The board of internal improvements requested the aldermen to proceed to have the $65,000 of improvement bonds engraved so they may be ready when wanted. This was ordered done.

The board of internal improvements also asked for an appropriation of $100 to make a test to determine whether it is best to obtain the water supply for the town from a system of gang wells or from the river. The appropriation was made.

Whiskey And Crime.

Spending a short while in the court room at Halifax Tuesday, we were impressed with the fact that every case that we heard before the court coming from the criminal docket was the direct result of drunkenness.

And so it ever is. A large majority of the criminal proceedings in our courts are the result of the liquor traffic, either directly or indirectly.

It does seem that the intelligent citizenship of North Carolina would see the arguments for suppressing the liquor traffic from the standpoint of economy in taxes for the expense of criminal courts, to say nothing about the moral, social and civil reform it would bring about.

To be sure, to be sure, with the brightening light of a better intelligence in North Carolina, the day is not far distant when the people will speak forth their power and suppress it!—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

"No Third Terms."

Columbus, June 3.—Early this morning an army of bill posters were discovered plastering every available space about the city with highly-colored posters reading:

"No third terms. The gallant Foraker was once defeated for a third term. Don't jeopardize Hanna's reelection as Senator."

Those seeking nominations for a third term are State Auditor Guilbert, Supreme Court Judge Burkett and School Commissioner Bonebrake.

OHIO CONVENTION.

Republicans Talk About "Letting Well Enough Alone."

Columbus, O., June 3.—The opening sessions as well as the preliminary meetings of the republican state convention today showed that the claims about Senator Hanna's influence with the party in Ohio are well founded. It is conceded that his friends controlled almost all of the twenty-one congressional districts.

Those opposed to the slate tonight quoted from his speech in which he pictured the prosperity under republican rule and warned the opposition to "keep hands off," and urged the republicans to "keep on letting well enough alone."

The convention today was devoted to preliminary organization. Senator Hanna delivered an address in which he urged standing by republican principles and paid a high tribute to President Roosevelt.

The convention adjourned until tomorrow. The resolutions will commend President Roosevelt's ability and adherence to the McKinley principles and favor his nomination and the reelection of Hanna as senator, and will praise Governor-General Taft of the Philippines. No change is wanted in the tariff or other national declarations. Certain planks insist on the enforcement of the amendments for negro suffrage or the reduction of the representation of the southern states in congress and the electoral college.

Flood Will Send Up Price Of Meat.

Chicago, June 4.—The "full effect of the western floods on the price of meats will not be felt until the end of this week," said J. Ogden Armour yesterday. "By that time the shortage of livestock shipments, owing to the closing of the Kansas City market, will begin to be felt there and eastern buyers will begin to draw on the Chicago market. This will, of course, bring a consequent advance in the price of live stock and this in turn will affect the price of dressed meat. But I do not look for any great advance; there's not the slightest danger of a famine or famine prices."

Card of Thanks.

I desire hereby to express my heartfelt thanks to the citizens of Greenville for their earnest and timely assistance at Thursday morning's fire in doing every thing possible to save my property. My wife also joins me in appreciation for the kindness of the ladies in being ready in my house to do what they could in case it had become necessary to remove the furniture. W. H. BAGWELL.

I can be found at ice house near the depot at all times.

Yours truly,
BEN SAVAGE.

Clara, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Z. W. Brown, died Tuesday night about 12 o'clock at their home, 3 miles from town. The burial took place Wednesday afternoon at the Brown family burial ground.

WHAT IS THE MATTER WITH THE LAW?

It looks like the laws of our state are becoming more and more farcical in their application. Judge G. H. Brown, Jr., has admitted to bail the six men who were confined in jail at Wilson charged with the murder of Percy Jones. In giving his decision Judge Brown said that while these men had formed a conspiracy to go to Jones' room and do him bodily harm, to whip him and drive him out of the town, it is not shown that murder was premeditated. Yet in carrying out the purpose of their conspiracy Jones was killed. If, under the interpretation of the law, this is not murder, then we fail to see why burglary is a capital offence. A burglar enters a house for an unlawful purpose—to rob. He may have no premeditated intention of committing murder, yet his presence arouses inmates of the house who offer resistance and he takes life. Is that murder? If so it looks like this case at Wilson is equally so. The men went to Jones' room to do an unlawful act and killed him. They should receive the punishment their crime deserves.

GENERAL WHEELER WAS NOT SNUBBED.

Major H. A. London, of the Chatham Record, nails the lie about General Joe Wheeler's appearance at the confederate reunion in New Orleans in a federal uniform. It is presumed that we have the yellow journals to thank for this rumor. The Record says:

"The statement is untrue in two particulars. In the first place General Wheeler did not wear a uniform of any kind at New Orleans, and in the second place he was not slighted or snubbed.

He wore civilian's clothes all the time he was at New Orleans, just as did the other two confederate lieutenant generals who were there, A. P. Stewart and Stephen D. Lee. He was neatly dressed in a Prince Albert coat and walked as rapidly as a young man. He was also greeted and cheered with enthusiasm wherever he appeared, and no confederate received a warmer welcome or a grander ovation than he did. We happened to walk with him into the auditorium, when he first entered that vast building in which the reunion was held, and as soon as he was seen wild cheers greeted him and the regular order of exercises was suspended in order that he might be escorted to the stage and respond to the calls made on him for a speech."

J. R. Whichard has moved his publication, the Dixie Fancier, from Albany, Ga., to Charlotte, N. C., and the Fancier shows much improvement in appearance. It is a journal devoted to the poultry industry, and is filled with matter of much interest to those who engage in this profitable enterprise. The Fancier is issued monthly at 25 cents a year, and is worth many times the price to poultry raisers.

Isn't it about time for Governor Aycock and some of our judges to have mercy on the people who have committed no crime? Society will soon become so thoroughly sprinkled with murderers and ex-jail birds that every man will have to lock up his wives and daughters and keep his hands on his gun and pocket book.

A young woman prominent in Philadelphia society has been detected in a series of systematic thefts extending over a period of several months. The wonder is that they take notice of such trifles in Philadelphia.

Habeas Corpus and Executive Clemency are two gentlemen who are working over time in North Carolina.

If the Macedonians are so anxious for liberty that they are willing to murder the world to get it, they can get it some other way.

THE STATE PRESS

With a big-hearted man sitting in the gubernatorial chair, there are bound to be more or less pardons that shock the public's strict sense of justice.—Winston Sentinel.

A prosperous merchant of St. Joseph, Mo., thought he knew as much about stocks and bonds as anybody on Wall street. He sold out his business and went to New York to get rich. It took him just two weeks to lose every cent he had.—Wilmington Messenger.

A few days ago Mr. Dick Grant-ham purchased the old show ground. He sold the lower part of it on Hominy Swamp to Mr. George Morgan, who will locate a whiskey still thereon. On the upper part a negro preacher is erecting a tent to commence a revival. Between the two baseball games will be played this summer, and as a side issue Mr. Perry Taylor will run his merry-go-round. It bids fair to be the most attractive part of the city.—Wilson Times.

A Memphis paper is authority for the statement that a man in that city writes letters to Jesus. We fear, however, that they never reach their destination, as recent developments indicate that the Postoffice Department has no connections in that direction.—Asheville Citizen.

Heartily Endorsed.

We heartily endorse every word said by the Wilmington Messenger and Greenville REFLECTOR in regard to the promiscuous stealing of articles by the newspapers of the state. It is becoming alarming, and we think those who do it should be dealt with. If it is through a mistake that an article is not credited, why no one will get insulted by having his attention called to the fact.

If an article is worth being reproduced it certainly should be credited. We class this kind of stealing with all others and should be dealt with in the same way.

No man likes to see the articles he has pored over for hours, probably, go out as the product of another man's brain. We do not know who our brother newspaper men were referring to and do not care to know, but they were too mild in their rebuke of the party or parties who are carrying on this stealing.—Dunn Banner.

His Last Hope Realized.

[From the Sentinel, Gebo, Mont.]

In the first opening of Oklahoma to settlers in 1889, the editor of this paper was among the many seekers after fortune who made the big race one fine day in April. During his traveling about and afterwards his camping upon his claim, he encountered much bad water, which, together with the severe heat, gave him a very severe diarrhoea which it seemed almost impossible to check, and along in June the case became so bad he expected to die. One day one of his neighbors brought him one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a last hope. A big dose was given him while he was rolling about on the ground in great agony, and in a few minutes the dose was repeated. The good effect of the medicine was soon noticed and within an hour the patient was taking his first sound sleep for a fortnight. That one little bottle worked a complete cure, and he cannot help but feel grateful. The season for bowel disorders being at hand suggests this item. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

LADIES AND CHILDREN INVITED.

All ladies and children who cannot stand the shocking strain of laxative syrups, cathartics, etc., are invited to try the famous little Early Risers. They are different from all other pills. They do not purge the system. Even a double dose will not gripe, weaken or sicken; many people call them the Easy Pill. W. H. Howell, Houston, Tex., says nothing better can be used for constipation, sick headache, etc. Bob Moore, Lafayette, Ind., says all others gripe and sicken, while DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work well and easy. Sold by John L. Wooten.

Oriental View of Womanhood.

The oriental idea of the freedom which American women enjoy does not accord with that of Americans. One Hindoo lady expressed herself as greatly shocked that American men should compel their women to go about in public unprotected, their faces exposed to the gaze of strangers, and a Hindoo gentleman with whom we talked thus expressed himself on the subject of oriental treatment of women:

"You say that we do not honor our women. Why, let me tell you that all Hindoo boys, till they are ready to learn the ways of men, are taught by their mothers. We are subject to our mothers, and we know what you occidentals do not yet seem to realize—that to have good men and good citizens we must have good mothers. You will hardly find a Hindoo man, whatever his caste, daring to go against the counsel of his mother. Can you say as much for American men?"

Could as much, do our readers think, be said for American men? There are no asylums for helpless fathers and mothers in the orient. So long as there is a corner and a crust to be shared the parents in the oriental family have the lion's share.—Household.

Smoking in Spain.

In Spain people smoke incessantly under all conditions, at all hours and in all places, except in church. Men smoke in the railway carriages; they smoke in all the tram cars; they smoke in all the minor theaters; they smoke in all the restaurants, in the hotel dining rooms, and, of course, in the cafes. In business offices the merchant and his clerks smoke. In shops the shopman, while trying to sell goods to a lady, will stop to roll a cigarette, which, when lighted, he will puff in her face. You see conductors and drivers of tram cars smoking. All the hackney cabmen smoke all the time, while even coachmen and footmen of private carriages sometimes smoke on the box. Beggars approach you, cigarette in mouth, to whine for alms. If you ask for tickets at a railway office, the clerk lays down his cigarette as he hands you the dingy bits of pasteboard. The innumerable peddlers all smoke cigarettes all the time.—J. A. Hart in Argonaut.

Origin of the Tomato.

The English word of direct Indian origin most frequently in use is tomato. A native of tropical or subtropical America, it was cultivated by the subjects of the Incas and Montezumas, as well as by the other semi-civilized natives, long before the advent of Europeans on this hemisphere under the name of tumati or tomati. Though introduced into Europe almost as early as its congener, the potato, it was many years before it made its way into popular favor. There it was first known to the English as love apple, to the French as pomme d'amour and to the Italians as pomi d'amore, and these names are still in use, perpetuating the old, widespread notion that its use as food had an influence on the amatory passions.

School Customs in China.

Many strange school customs prevail in China. The girls in that country seldom go to school unless they are the children of very rich people. School work begins before daylight, and after studying their lessons aloud for two hours the pupils recite them. They then go home to breakfast, after which they return and study again till dinner time. In the afternoon they go again to school to prepare lessons for the following day. By this time it is night. This goes on every day of the week, for there is no such thing as the Sunday holiday.

Billion and Trillion.

There are two systems of numeration in use at the present day, commonly called the English and the French systems. In the former the billion is a million of millions, a trillion a million of billions and each denomination is a million times the one preceding. In the latter (which is the system used in the United States) the billion is a thousand millions, and each denomination is a thousand times the preceding.

Why He Was Single.

"Why don't you marry?" asked one Frenchman of another.
"Because I must do it on certain conditions."
"What conditions?"
"Well, you know, the lady must be beautiful, rich and a fool. If she isn't rich and beautiful, I won't take her, and if she isn't a fool she won't take me!"

She Could Spell Too.

While waiting in the reception room for their hostess some visitors were entertained by that lady's four-year-old daughter. One of the callers remarked to the other:
"She is not very p-r-e-t-t-y."
"No," instantly replied the child; "I am not very p-r-e-t-t-y, but I am very s-m-a-r-t."—New York Times.

The Publishers' Error.

"The publishers told Arthur that he would have to rewrite a good portion of his book before they could bring it out."
"Humph! I should think they would have had him rewrite some of the bad portions."—Kansas City Journal.

Musical Diagnosis.

"What an awful voice that man's got!" said the manager, who was listening to the throaty tenor.

WILL YOU TRY IT?

Are you ever irritable? Many a woman can trace her irritability to ill fitting shoes. It is hard to be cheerful, isn't it, when all the time there is a drag and pinch upon the feet. But there is one shoe that is different in this matter of FIT. It is not made like a box into which the foot is thrust, but on the plan of a bandaged, wrapped around the muscles of the foot to strengthen and sustain them.

That Shoe is the "Queen Quality"

It makes walking easier for thousands of women. It will do it for you. Will you let it?

We have these in all sizes, and it will not pay you to bother with cleaning the old wooden beds when you can buy a complete metal one. Different sizes and styles to select from.
