Sunday School Picnic.

The Presbyterian Sunday school, which on Wednesday had an excursion to Yankee Hall and a picnic there, got back a little after 6 o'clock, and a most delightful time was reported. Before coming back home they took a run down the river to Grimesland. Superintendent F. L. Walker was in charge and managed the excursion splendidly.

"What is a trust?" asked the teacher. "A trust," replied the newspaper man's boy, "is a subject for an editorial when there is nothing else to be discussed."—Chicago Evening Post.

EAST ST. LOUIS IN THE FLOOD.

MISSISSIPPI CARRIES DEATH IN ITS WILD MAELSTROM.

LEVEES CRUMBLING AWAY.

Two Thousand Prisoners Watch Doom Approach in the Fierce Flood.

St. Louis, Mo., June 10.—One half of East St. Louis is buried in the flood. Ten thousand persons are homeless and at the mercy of the raging waters. Families are prisoners in the garrets of their homes or on the roofs. They are without food and are crying for help. Two thousand people who sought refuge in the Washington hotel, the Franklin school, St. Mary's church and the plant of the St. Louis Syrup Refining Co., are prisoners and suffering greatly.

The breaks on the Illinois Central dykes came at 30 minutes after midnight and in 5 minutes a mighty torrent was tearing through the large residence section in the eastern part of the city. The people in thousands of homes were in bed, so certain that the city was safe, but were warned by the blowing of train whistles, firing of riot guns and the cries of those already on the embankment trying to save it. At 8 a. m. the flood had swept clear through to the river and the city lies under an unbroken stretch of rising, whirling torrent. Thirty persons were drowned last night in East St. Louis.

Raleigh & Eastern Railroad.

Dr. S. H. Croker, of Stantonburg, Wilson county, spent yesterday and last night in the city conferring with parties concerning the building of a railroad from Raleigh to Washington, N. C. Mr. Croker was the guest of Mr. J. A. Spence while here. If this project should be successful the road would naturally penetrate one of the finest sections of the State. The tobacco section along the route which the line would run is of the very best, while the timber lands are second to none in this State. The building of the railroad would mean much for Raleigh and for the people of Eastern North Carolina, especially those who deal in lumber and other products which they have now to carry across the country at a great expenditure of time and money.—Raleigh Times.

Meeting in Christian Church.

There was a large congregation at the Christian church last night and the interest in the meeting was good. Tonight the subject of Rev. Mr. Powell's discourse will be "Study of the Bible" and all Christians are requested to take their Bibles to church with them.

Excursion Tonight.

Don't forget the moonlight excursion tonight by the ladies of the Episcopal church. The boat will leave promptly at 9 o'clock. There will be good music on board and everybody will enjoy the fine trip and delightful breeze. Be sure to go.

NO NEW TRIAL FOR WILCOX.

Supreme Court Decides on His Appeal.

Raleigh N. C. June 11.—The Supreme court of North Carolina has affirmed the decision of the lower court in the case of the state against James Wilcox for the murder of Nellie Cropsey at Elizabeth city. The opinion written by Justice Connor is an elaborate one and reviews in detail all the links in the long chain of circumstances in connection with the case. Wilcox's term is 30 years.

ROTTEN EGG MAN WINS.

Seaboard Road Must Pay H. F. Seawell $4,500.

Raleigh, N. C., June 10.—The N. C. Supreme court in an opinion written by Chief Justice Walter Clark affirms the lower court in the noted case of H. F. Seawell against the Seaboard Air Line railroad. This is the case in which Seawell obtained in Moore county Superior court a verdict for $4,500 damages for being egged in the S. A. L. station at Shelby in 1900 while he was on a campaign trip as republican nominee for lieutenant-governor. The suit was for $10,000.

Suicide in Wilmington.

Wilmington, N. C. June 9.—William H. Bobbitt, aged 67 years, of Marion, N. C., committed suicide here today by sending a pistol ball through his brain. After a short conversation with the clerk and having him a note directed to Dr. Thomas S. Burbank of this city, Mr. Bobbitt walked across the lobby of the Orton hotel and sat down. In less than a minute he placed a revolver to his right temple and blew his brains out, the ball passing entirely through his head and imbedding itself in a door. Death was instantaneous and he did not move except to throw his head back.

Whipped by Whitecappers.

Columbia, S. C., June 9.—Rock Hogan, a white man living six miles from Columbia, called on Governor Heyward today to show his back, which had been striped and cut by whitecappers. The men ordered Hogan to get out of the state within ten days or suffer death. Hogan's offense was in notifying Governor Heyward that the "blind tigers" of Columbia were having their liquor unloaded at a small station near town and hauled into the city, thus escaping the constables. Hogan was lured from his house, caught by eight men, tied to a tree and unmercifully beaten in the presence of his wife. Governor Heyward offered a reward of $200.

Trial for Smuggling.

U. S. District Attorney Harry Skinner left Wednesday evening for New Berne to be present at the trial of the two Portuguese of the wrecked Vera Cruz. The trial was before Commissioner Hill.

ADVOCATING A SOCIETY FOR THE PREVENTION OF CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.

Mercy and truth preserve the king, and his throne is upheld by mercy.—PROVERBS XXVIII.

There is a need in Greenville for a society for the prevention of cruelty to animals.

Such an organization has an influence aside from its main purpose that is distinctly wholesome and elevating. It makes an impression upon the minds of young people and children that is often the inspiration and foundation of a life filled with acts of merciful compassion. The very name of such a society will cause the young and thoughtless to remember their Creator in the days of their youth, when scarcely anything else would accomplish this. The purpose of these societies is mercy of Heavenly birth, and recognition of the hand of God in the creation of every living creature.

A society with 50 members could very materially aid the police in preventing the working of sick or disabled horses and overloading strong ones. Two policemen cannot see all over town at once, and the result is that horses are sometimes worked in a condition that is a disgrace to humanity, deserving correction and punishment.

The men of Greenville are very busy—some buying or selling one thing or another, others manufacturing various articles, others telling their friends how to make money on the cotton exchange, while others are not working at all—they are just lawyers. They are all very busy, and the poor galloping horse we write about may belong to some of them. So the women will have to organize a society for the prevention of cruelty to animals if it is done. The women are busy, too, but who ever knew a woman who was so busy she did not have time for mercy?

Those of our contemporaries who still seriously discuss David B. Hill as a presidential possibility display a fondness for lingering in the shadows that is difficult to understand. The Hon. David Hasbeenit could hardly carry Wolfert's Roost.

Civilization is not so far advanced as one might suppose. Father Noah knew how to get in out of the wet, and that knowledge would have been of some little benefit to those moderns who lived in recent storm districts.

Mark Twain got the proper sight on the proposition to observe "Mark Twain day" at the St. Louis exposition and placed it on the shelf. Mark realizes that a man is never too old or great to make an ass of himself.

Has any member of the Greenville cotton exchange suggested that Jesse Speight's presence in Liverpool may have something to do with the present performances of the cotton market?

"The South wants a Man for the presidency," says the Charlotte News. She shore do, but she will continue to vote for whoever is on the ticket.

The selection of Major Leonard Wood as governor of the Moros is about the wisest thing the administration has done. Wood is a MAN, if he is a republican.

La. Belle Otero, the Spanish dancer, threw a kiss at King Edward in a theatre and was ejected. What did they want her to throw—a brick?

We hope the Mississippi river will cut out its butting in habit before North Carolina's exhibit arrives at the exposition.

North Carolina may yet get a place on the flood program, but we hope not.

The Durham Sun says:

There are three big projects that should be hurried—the building of our union depot, our government building and the Isthmian canal.

The first and last projects will probably be contemporaries.

True Love.

Let me not to the marriage of true minds

Admit impediments; love is not love which alters when it alteration finds, Or bends with the remover to remove, Oh no! it is an ever-fixed mark,

That looks on tempests, and is never shaken;

It is the star to every wandering bark, Whose worth's unknown, although his height be taken.

Love's not Time's fool, though rosy lips and cheeks Within his bending sickle's compass come;

Love alters not with his brief hours and weeks,

But bears it out, even to the edge of doom.

If this be error, and upon me proved, I never writ, nor no man ever loved.

—By William Shakespeare.

THE STATE PRESS

The very Hon. E. Spencer Blackburn says that he is going to run again in the Eighth Congressional district. Of course he will. It is hard to choke off a fellow of his stripe.—Winston-Salem Sentinel.

The people of the state may not know just what kind of temperance legislation they want, but they seem to have reached the conclusion that anything is better than the open saloon.—Durham Herald.

Virginia wants President Venable, of our university, and as it seems against our principles to pay a man what he is worth, she will probably get him.—Durham Herald.

There was a pitched battle at Cumberland Union church, in Carver's Creek Township, during the services Sunday, in which a number of negroes participated, and which resulted in the killing of Ad Barney and the wounding of two and possibly three other negroes. Mr. W. M. Walker, J. P., near whose store the fight took place, issued warrants immediately after the fight for the following persons. William, Isaiah and Ed McLean and Eddus Elliott, and, that night, he and Constable Doc Reeves surrounded the home of the three McLeans and arrested them, but Elliott, who had escaped just after the fight, has fled to parts unknown.—Fayetteville Observer.

A RICKEY STORY.

After Reading this Can You Believe There are Lawyers in Heaven.

When the late Col. "Joe" Rickey was quite a young man he had occasion to employ a lawyer to collect a bill against a business man with whom he had a number of dealings. As he had never before retained counsel he went to the lawyer his father had always employed and placed the claim in his hands. The lawyer collected the amount, $276, and notified young Rickey to call for the money. In due time he called, and, after waiting some time, was shown into the private office.

"Good morning, Joseph," said the lawyer, "I'm glad to see you are so prompt in attending to business. I have your money for you."

Then ensued a general conversation for a few minutes, in which the lawyer said, among other things: "Joseph, I knew your father well and for many years. And I knew your grandfather well, and for almost as many years. They were fine men."

"Yes, sir," replied Rickey; "but as I am in a hurry, sir, I would like to get my money and go."

"All right, Joseph I will charge you even money. I will take $200 for my fee and give you the $75," said the lawyer, as he handed the money over.

"Very well, sir," said Rickey, "and I thank God you did not know my great-grandfather, too."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Charley Whitehurst, who clerks for J. C. Taylor & Bro., found a large snake in the store today.

The city wanted a strip of land from Mr. Wm. Mangum, on the north side of east Chapel Hill street, for a pavement. On this was a well Mr. Mangum, who is wedded to the old fashion way of drinking out of an old fashion well, agreed to give the land if the city would move his well. Well, sir, the city went to work and moved the well, a few feet further in and there is now a new brick pavement along that street, and over the place the old well stood. —Durham Sun.

It begins to look as if there are to be more harrowing details from Washington about North Carolina postmasterships. A popular vote on the postmastership would be a great relief.—Greensboro Telegram.

Pittsburg Gazette: "But we—we shall not begin our married life with a secret, shall we dearest?" "No, dearest," he murmured; "there's plenty of time."

"What was the trouble?" "He couldn't swim" "What has that to do with his failure?" "He got into a company where the stock was all water."—Chicago Evening Post.

His Last Hope Realized.

[From the Sentinel, Gebo, Mont.]

In the first opening of Oklahoma to settlers in 1889, the editor of this paper was among the many seekers after fortune who made the big race one fine day in April. During his traveling about and afterwards his camping upon his claim, he encountered much bad water, which, together with the severe heat, gave him a very severe diarrhoea which it seemed almost impossible to check, and along in June the case became so bad he expected to die. One day one of his neighbors brought him one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a last hope. A big dose was given him while he was rolling about on the ground in great agony, and in a few minutes the dose was repeated. The good effect of the medicine was soon noticed and within an hour the patient was taking his first sound sleep for a fortnight. That one little bottle worked a complete cure, and he cannot help but feel grateful. The season for bowel disorders being at hand suggests this item. LADIES AND CHILDREN INVITED.

All ladies and children who cannot stand the shocking strain of laxative syrups, cathartics, etc., are invited to try the famous little Early Risers. They are different from all other pills. They do not purge the system. Even a double dose will not gripe, weaken or sicken; many people call them the Easy Pill. W. H. Howell, Houston, Tex., says nothing better can be used for constipation, sick headache, etc. Bob Moore, Lafayette, Ind., says all others gripe and sicken, while DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work well and easy. Sold by John L. Wooten.

"I have been troubled for some time with indigestion and sour stomach," says Mrs. Sarah W. LETTER TO J. T. SMITH.

Greenville, N. C.,

Dear Sir: The Trustees of Fair Ground, Cobleskill, N. Y. were glad to pay 15 cents a gallon more for Devoe; and no wonder. Two other paint agents said it would take 150 gallon of their paint to cover the buildings.

Our agent put it at 125 or less. It took 115.

We saved them 35 gallons of paint and painting (worth $4 to $5 a gallon, as the painting costs two or three times as much as the paint) less 15 cents a gallon on 115 gallons. Say $140.

That's how to count the cost of paint. The cost of putting it on is $3 or $4 a gallon. You see what that means. Go by Devoe.

Yours Truly,
F. W. Devoe & Co.
