LAST NIGHT'S STORM.

Wind, Rain and Hail Cause Much Damage.

A terrific rain storm, accompanied by some hail and wind, struck this section Friday evening about 6:30 o'clock. The rain came in torrents, hail pelted thick and fast, and for a few minutes the wind blew a perfect gale. Greenville has not had such a drenching in a long time. Owing to the bad system of working the streets that has prevailed here—the continued throwing of dirt out in the streets until they have been raised higher than the sidewalk—the drains could not take off the surplus water and the result was it swept right over the sidewalks and in some instances store floors were flooded. From the same cause yards and lots in various parts were deluged for the time being. The wind broke many branches from trees.

The hail did much damage to crops in various parts of the county. It was worse in that section south of the river between Falkland and Greenville, where many tobacco crops were almost destroyed. In portions of Beaver Dam township and also near Galloway's cross roads there were spots where much damage was done. There was some hail on the north side of the river and some east of town on the south side but did not do much damage. Taken all together the loss in the county is quite large.

A special to THE REFLECTOR says farmers in the vicinity of Nashville, Nash county, suffered terrible loss, the entire destruction of cotton and tobacco crops being reported.

GROVER IS WRATHY.

Says Newspaper Correspondent Did Not Treat Him Right.

Princeton, N. J., June 19.—Ex-President Grover Cleveland, when informed of the alleged interview with him as published by George M. Bailey, Washington correspondent of the Galveston News, and copied by some New York dailies, expressed surprise over it and was indignant after reading the full account of the conversation as given by Bailey. He declined to discuss the interview part by part but unhesitatingly gave out for publication a statement which not only denies that the conversation was held with the understanding that it was to be published in Bailey's paper but also states that it is grossly inaccurate and that some of the statements are without any foundation.

AYDEN ITEMS.

AYDEN, N. C., June 20, 1903.

F. A. Simpson, a dry goods drummer, spent Thursday in Ayden.

A. L. Harrington, of Hart & Harrington, of Kinston, with his little daughter, Velma, left Thursday evening for home after a visit to relatives here.

Wednesday night was the regular meeting of the town board of commissioners. On account of the illness of the mayor, J. M. Dixon presided as mayor pro tem.

The board settled with the tax collector and the insolvent list for the year 1902 was only $15.13, quite a good showing for the people of the town. Another good showing was the sum of $387.83 on hand. The board had spent in public improvements since last report $157.53 and the cost of lighting the town up to June 1st has been only $42.

Following the item in Friday's REFLECTOR with regard to the cemetery the committee reported and the board recommended the erection in the cemetery of a suitable lodge as a resting place for visitors and a refuge in inclement weather. Now in appreciation of this action of the board let the owners of lots join hands in cleaning and beautifying the cemetery by the planting of trees and flowers.

Mrs. Leon Patrick, of Grifton, returned home on Thursday afternoon from a visit to Mrs. J. W. Quinerly.

Miss Helen Quinerly is home again from a recent visit to friends and relatives about Johnsons Mills and Grifton.

Joe Blow, of Winterville, came over Thursday to attend a meeting of the Masonic lodge here in Ayden.

CURIOUS COINS.

J. C. Nobles, of our town, showed us on Friday a gold quarter of a dollar, the first one we ever saw. It is of date 1871 and quite valuable as a curiosity. Recently in the postoffice in Ayden a good specimen of a ½ cent coin was taken in over the stamp counter. In exactly the same way some years ago in the postoffice at Dunn, the writer's brother secured a ½ cent piece, making two now in our possession.

C. C. Skinner, of New York, arrived on Thursday evenings train to spend the night here with his brother, Dr. Louis C. Skinner. He returned to Greenville Friday morning.

Mayor J. J. Stokes went to Winterville Thursday to sit with the tax assessors there.

Mrs. C. N. Holton returned from a visit to Washington Thursday.

E. S. Edwards went to Greenville Friday to exchange papers with L. H. Rountree in the purchase of Mr. Rountree's property here.

AS TO A SCHOOL.

Ayden ought by all means to have a good graded school. There is a considerable sum of money each year due this Ayden district and which had heretofore been diverted into the other institutions here. This the law now prohibits. What shall we do now? Why not have a public mass meeting to discuss the matter. With comparatively little agitation and little trouble and little work Ayden can have a good free school nine months of the year for every boy and every girl. This much by way of suggestion. Let the people speak. Then act.

CAN WE HAVE FACTORIES.

Ayden lacks factories to employ her labor's. In most cases idle men develop into criminals. Certainly idleness breeds crime. In the Mill and Mfg. Co. The Ayden Brick yards, The Ayden Lumber Co., and the Tripp shops, The Ayden Canning Factory, she has made a fair beginning. But she needs more.

Industrial history proves that a people must first begin themselves, and first show their own "faith by their own works" before the outside capitalist can be induced to come in and invest.

We need an oil mill, a knitting mill, a truck package company, a barrel factory, the raw material to supply them being right at our doors. And Ayden will subscribe one-half the stock in any first class enterprise desiring a suitable and healthy location. Until all sections learn to develop the raw material at their very doors there can be no permanent prosperity for us. Let our watchword be a factory for every hundred people. Let us make the raising of smoke-stacks of factories keep pace with the building of dwell houses.

The was an altercation here this morning in which George Jones shot Daniel Winfield in the mouth with a pistol. Both the parties are colored. The trouble was over one of Jones' children who had been staying at Winfield's home. Jones went after his child this morning and they got into a row. Jones took to the woods immediately after the shooting. Winfield's injury is serious.

Entered at the post office at Greenville, N. C., as second class matter.
Subscription rates: One Year, $3.00; One Month, 25 cents; One Week, 10 cents. Delivered in town by carriers without extra cost.
Advertising rates reasonable and can be had on application to the editor or at the office.
We desire a live correspondent at every post office in the county, who will send in brief items of news as it occurs. Write plainly, and only on one side of the paper.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON, JUNE 20, 1903.

THE NATION'S SHAME.

The whole country, exclusive of the sharpers who have looted the national treasury, turns away in disgust from the spectacle at Washington. After all his brave talk about "going to the bottom of things," the postmaster general makes the shameful statement that the charges against Perry S. Heath will be hushed up. Shades of our fathers! to what ignominy have we fallen! What a spectacle for Americans to behold! Thievery, corruption, abuse of official and political power—these specters stalk through our national life unpunished and unrebuked. Yet they all said Payne was an honorable man. Honorable, indeed! If there is honor among thieves, he is honorable, for he has taken good care of his own.

Will Roosevelt have the courage and common decency to cleanse his household of this nest of vermin?

Will he turn the rascals out—high and low—great and small?

Will he punish the thieves who have pillaged the treasury till they are grown rich and greasy?

No. Payne, from the mention of whose name there must ever arise a stench, will be allowed to hover his precious rascals under the wing of the government. If they do not steal what is left it is because they have as much as they can get away with.

Eastern Carolina probably has more to exhibit than any other section of the state, yet the West and the Piedmont have made and are making every effort to achieve an exhibition at St. Louis, while we of the East have done nothing at all. It is not a question of whether we can afford to make an exhibit. We cannot afford not to, as the New Bern Journal truly states. It is rapidly getting to the point in this matter where the East will have to get busy or get out of the procession of progress.

If the government attempts to launch the cruiser Galveston from the Trigg shipyard in Richmond, after the Virginia courts have issued injunctions, we may expect a fresh lot of pensioners to result from the conflict between the United States navy and the James river navy.

Captain Ewen, a noted figure in the Kentucky feuds, was offered $5,000 to leave town or swear falsely. If he lives long enough he will probably regret that he did not take the money and hire an army to exterminate his persecutors.

As Booker Washington has not had time to grow exceeding fat and juicy on Carnegie's money, perhaps the South African cannibals have not missed such a good thing, after all.

It is a pity the postmaster general could not dig up some excuse for shielding the other postoffice boodlers. Such an interesting collection of rascals should not be disturbed.

The Georgia legislature will meet next week, and Governor Terrell will borrow $75,000 to pay its expenses. The state will be out that much in addition to interest.

If the government is sincere in its prosecution of postoffice highwaymen the best thing it can do is to send for District Attorney Folk, of St. Louis.

Cable dispatches state that King Francis Joseph has lost his cabinet. Well, he is a head ahead of the late King Alexander.

Payne virtually licenses every crook in his department to take what he wants.

No doubt the various postoffice boodlers know that they have nothing serious coming to them.

That Anti-Jug Law.

Senator H. A. London, who spent yesterday here, said that he would be on hand for the state temperance convention, July 7th, in Raleigh. He laughingly remarked that he would bring the London bill, which he withdrew, after the Watts bill passed, to prevent its defeat, with him to exhibit.

Senator London thinks that no attempt will be made to enforce the anti-jug law in North Carolina. "The Legislature did not know that there was such a provision, applying to the whole state, in the bill," said the senator, "and this is so apparent that I should not think an effort to prosecute under the place of sale would be wise or just. If the Legislature had known the provision was in the bill it would be different."—Morning Post.

Worthy Patronage.

While in Greenville a short while Saturday we got a peep into the busy office of the Greenville REFLECTOR. Remembering the claim that paper made recently that it carries the largest standing advertisement the year round of any paper in the State, we reflected as to why such should be the case. From the evidences of business and hustle in the REFLECTOR office we concluded that it is because the paper is worthy of such patronage and the advertisers think the investment pays them. We see few papers whose advertising patronage compares with the REFLECTOR's, and we believe it is well placed—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

Thos. J. Jarvis has been governor of his state and a senator of the United States. But when the circle of his influence diminishes, he wisely adapts himself to his limitations, and does with his might what his hands find to do—in the present instance it is serving as chairman of the board of trustees of the graded school in his town. This is a North Carolina way. Nathaniel Macon, Badger and Mangum, if we remember aright, were active in forwarding neighborhood and local interests

DO YOU ENJOY WHAT YOU EAT? If you don't your food does not do you much good. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the remedy that every one should take when there is anything wrong with the stomach. There is no way to maintain the health and strength of mind and body except by nourishment. There is no way to nourish except through the stomach. The stomach must be kept healthy, pure and sweet or the strength will let down and disease will set up. No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, sour risings, rifting, indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles are quickly cured by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. His Last Hope Realized.

[From the Sentinel, Gebo, Mont.] In the first opening of Oklahoma to settlers in 1889, the editor of this paper was among the many seekers after fortune who made the big race one fine day in April. During his traveling about and afterwards his camping upon his claim, he encountered much bad water, which, together with the severe heat, gave him a very severe diarrhoea which it seemed almost impossible to check, and along in June the case became so bad he expected to die. One day one of his neighbors brought him one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a last hope. A big dose was given him while he was rolling about on the ground in great agony, and in a few minutes the dose was repeated. The good effect of the medicine was soon noticed and within an hour the patient was taking his first sound sleep for a fortnight. That one little bottle worked a complete cure, and he cannot help but feel grateful. The season for bowel disorders being at hand suggests this item. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

Letters from Women

Cured by the use of Kodol are received daily. Their troubles nearly all begin with indigestion or other stomach disorder. If the food you eat fails to give strength to your body, it is because the juices secreted by the stomach and digestive organs are inadequate to transform the nutrient properties of the food into blood. That is indigestion. The system is deprived of the amount of nourishment required to keep up the strength, and the result is that one or more of the delicate organs gradually grows weak, and then weaker, until finally it is diseased. Here a great mistake is made. That of treating the diseased organ. The best doctors in the land make this very mistake. Why should they? It is so easy to see that the trouble is not there.

Kodol Cures

This famous remedy puts the stomach and digestive organs in a healthy condition so that rich, red blood is sent coursing through the veins and arteries of every muscle, tissue and fiber throughout every organ of the entire body, and by Nature's law of health, full strength and vigor is soon restored to each.

Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders. I have taken Kodol for nearly two months after each meal and it is the only remedy that gave relief from the terrible pains I endured. After a time I would take it but once a day, and now, while I keep a bottle handy, I seldom need it, as it has cured me. Mrs. J. W. COOLBAUGH, Milo Center, N. Y.

Women's Headaches

542 1-2 Congress Street.
PORTLAND, MAINE, Oct. 17, 1902.

I consider Wine of Cardui superior to any doctor's medicine I ever used and I know whereof I speak. I suffered for nine months with suppressed menstruation which completely prostrated me. Pain would shoot through my back and sides and I would have blinding headaches. My limbs would swell up and I would feel so weak I could not stand up. I naturally felt discouraged for I seemed beyond the help of physicians, but Wine of Cardui came as a God-send to me. I felt a change for the better within a week. After nineteen days treatment I menstruated without suffering agonies I usually did and soon became regular and without pain.

Wine of Cardui is simply wonderful and I wish that all suffering women knew of its good qualities.

Mrs. Wilhelmina Snow
Treasurer, Portland Economic League.

Headaches are the danger signals of coming disease. Both men and women suffer headaches, but periodical headache falls only to the lot of women and is the unerring sign of irregular menstruation and bearing down pains. Completely prostrated by nine months of suppressed menses, blinded by headaches and racked with pain Mrs. Snow was made a strong and healthy woman again. Remember with Wine of Cardui no case is hopeless because this great remedy cures permanently nineteen out of every twenty cases and never fails to benefit a case of irregular menses, bearing down pains or any female weakness. If you are discouraged and doctors have failed, try Wine of Cardui, and try it now. Remember that headaches mean female weakness. Secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui today.

All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

WCRST OF ALL EXPERIENCE.

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. S. H. Newson, Decatur, Ala. "For three years" she writes, "I endured insufferable pain from indigestion, stomach and bowel trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and remedies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters and the result was miraculous. I improved at once and now I'm completely recovered. Fore Liver, Kidney, Stomach and Bowel troubles Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50c Its guaranteed by Wooten's Drug Store.

GRIMESLAND.

Something About the Town and Its People.

Notwithstanding the town of Grimesland was thrice in fifteen months visited by destructive fires, the courage of the people is undaunted and the town is rapidly recovering from these disasters. Such a multiplication of losses would stagger and discourage any other than strong hearted people, but those at Grimesland are proving to be that kind.

The first fire occurred on Feb. 8th, 1903, when every store on the north side of the business street was destroyed. W. M. Moore & Co., who were among the losers then, soon set to rebuild and in a short while had a large three-room, two-story building completed and they resumed business.

The second fire was on Feb. 13th 1903, when every store on the south side of the street was swept away and the new Moore store mentioned above was the only business house left in the town. Realizing that something must be done quickly, J. O. Proctor & Bro., who owned a saw mill and had lumber convenient, secured all the carpenters possible and in just two weeks they put up a temporary store building 60x70 feet, a part of it two stories, and at once resumed business, intending later to erect a large brick building. Since then T. F. Proctor has put up a store building 64 feet square resumed business, and Dr. C. M. Jones has completed a nice building for his office and drug store. Some other buildings in the way of warehouses, stables &c., have also been put up.

The third fire was the 8th of May—just little more than a month ago—when the lumber mill and ginning plant of J. O. Proctor & Bro. was wiped out. The other blows to the town had been bad enough, but this was the worst of all. It took away the opportunity to get lumber near by and retarded the progress of buildings to great extent. The smoke of this fire had hardly cleared away before the rebuilding of the mill started and it will soon be ready to resume work.

These examples show the pluck and determination of those who suffered by the fires, and such a spirit will soon place Grimesland even ahead of what the town was before. It is surrounded by one of the best farming sections in the state and is the center of supply for a large territory.

To let the outside world know what is going on in that plucky community, a regular correspondent has been secured and the business men have arranged for a Grimesland department in the twice a week edition of THE REFLECTOR.

The Winston Tobacco Association has decided to begin a campaign for a tobacco exhibit at the St. Louis exposition. We would like to hear the Greenville Tobacco Board of Trade second the motion.
