DEEP GLOOM

IN CAMP OF DOODLERS.

J. WILEY SHOOK WILL PROBABLY WALK

THE PLANK.

WATTS BILL A BITTER DOSE.

Chairman Rollins in Conference

Some of the Sore Ones in Asheville.

Asheville, June 22.—Forebodings dark and dreadful hung like a pall over United States revenue circles here today. Men walked about the government building as though a curious prescience possessed them.

Thos. S. Rollins, chairman of the republican state committee, arrived from Marshall in response to a hurry-up message of distress, and with Revenue Agent A. C. Patterson went to the colonel's office and remained in consultation for some time.

The sleep-disturbing Watts bill has begun to get in its work, and the question that is asked in fear and trembling is—Who is to go? It becomes apparent that J. Wiley Shook will probably lose his official head, and it is morally certain that the fear of such an event is what brought the leaders together. A berth that is "just as good" will be made for Shook if such a thing can be accomplished by the powers that be, though it is admitted that no such place is in sight at present.

PARDON FOR PULLIAM.

This is the Way They "Turn the Rascals Out."

Washington, June 22.—It was learned today that President Roosevelt was much impressed with Judge Boyd's presentation of an application for the pardon of Lawrence B. Pulliam, convicted bank thief. Judge Boyd went over the entire case. The president sent a note to Attorney General Knox by Judge Boyd in which he stated that he thought that the mitigating circumstances were such that the usual rules governing such cases might be suspended by the government. Pulliam will in all probability secure a pardon, or at very least a reduction of sentence.

MACHEN'S ROCKY ROAD.

Indicted by the Grand Jury on Twelve Counts.

Washington, June 22.—The grand jury which investigated postal affairs today returned indictments against August W. Machen, William B. Groff, Samuel A. Groff, George E. Lorenz and Arthur L. Lorenz, the two latter of Toledo, Ohio, and all charged with conspiracy to defraud the government. The indictment is based on section 5440 of the revised statutes. There are 12 counts, 11 of which are substantially the same as those found previously against Machen and the Groffs.

ALL IN JAIL.

Wilson Defendants Surrendered

by Their Bondsmen.

Wilson, June 22—Today has been one of interesting developments in the murder trial now going on.

All of the five defendants on trial are in jail, having been surrendered by their bondsmen.

The bond of Lawrence Morgan which was $2,500, has been raised by Judge Shaw to $5,000.

W. W. Barnes, who turned state's evidence this afternoon, was also turned over to the sheriff and placed in jail. It was in evidence that he had previously made affidavit before S. A. Woodard to a state of facts entirely different from his testimony on the witness stand.

The news that Barnes had peached spread rapidly and the court room was packed with people who showed intense interest. The bondsmen of John Allen have delivered him to the sheriff and he has been remanded to jail, with two other defendants, Whitley and Rich.

A warrant was issued Monday night for Sid Davi, who is implicated in the murder.

The streets were alive with excitement when it became known that Barnes had turned state's evidence. Barnes was taken from the jail under a heavy guard of deputies and carried to his home, where a close watch is kept upon him, for fear of harm being done him on account of his action in giving the crime away.

RIOTING IN RICHMOND.

Street Car Strikers Seem to

Have the Upper Hand.

Richmond, June 22.—Rioting began late this afternoon when the Passenger & Power company attempted to run cars with non-union men. Missiles of all kinds were thrown, several people were injured and great crowds gathered at the scene of trouble. So threatening was the attitude of the strikers and their sympathizers that the police advised against the installation of a service after nightfall. Conditions here are extremely serious, it having been demonstrated that the police force is insufficient. The street car company has men enough to operate a good service but will not attempt it unless ample protection is assured.

MORE POSTOFFICE FRAUDS.

A Pennsylvania Congressman

Lands His'n.

Washington, June 22.—The postmaster general will be asked to investigate the contract under which the General Manifold company, of Franklin, Pa., supplies the carrier's registration books. It is charged among other things that child labor is used in the factory, and that the specifications for the award are so drawn that competition is practically eliminated. When the attention of the public printer was called to the case he wrote to the company at Franklin for rates on the patent carbon paper used. The firm absolutely declined to make quotations. Congressman Sibley, of Pennsylvania, is said to be the principal owners of the manifold company.

Now everybody get ready for Kinston Friday.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, JUNE 23, 1903.

THE WOODEN HORSE IN CAMP.

Last winter, when this paper was condemning the Dick militia bill, our ablest adversary in this state was the Wilmington Messenger. It was difficult at that time to bring the matter of state sovereignty close home to the Messenger, because Southern people are not a suspicious race, and they could not easily be made to see a case where the federal government would think itself justified in using its army, composed in part of federalized state troops, for the purpose of over-riding the laws and sweeping away the sacred customs of the individual states.

The present conflict between the courts of Virginia and the federal government shows clearly the danger we tried to point out, and the manifest tendency of the central government to gradually encroach upon the right of the states until they become mere colonies, resembling the small subordinate companies in a modern trust. That the people who secured the passage of the Dick bill had this end in view we have not the least doubt. It is such a palpable wooden horse the wonder is that it did not come to wreck at once.

Some time ago the Messenger was inclined not take our arguments as to "state's rights" seriously, expressing willingness to trust the whole matter to the judgment of state military officers. In the light of recent events, we cannot believe that our contemporary is still of such a trusting nature, the following editorial giving evidence that the Messenger's confidence has been more or less rudely jarred:

"The opinion of the attorney general in the case of the cruiser Galveston was too sweeping in its denial of all state's rights to suit President Roosevelt, it seems, and was modified in this respect at the suggestion of the president before given to the public. Goodness knows it was strong enough to that line after modification. We would like to see a copy of the opinion as originally written. The president seems to have been unwilling for it to go out to the people that his attorney general had advised the use of the army and navy in forcibly resisting the orders of the courts of a sovereign state. This Mr. Roosevelt thought inexpedient at the present time.

The president, we take it, does not disagree with his attorney general in his opinion regarding the right of the navy department to use the military and naval forces of the government in resisting the enforcement of a judgment of a state court, but simply thinks it inexpedient for the administration to announce to the public at this time that it holds such views. He knows that it would be a startling declaration to make—one that would arouse the people to righteous indignation and create general alarm. Such a position taken by the administration would create antagonism to it among the people of every state of the union. It would no longer then be a contest between the state of Virginia and the navy department, but a fight against federal government by every state to maintain the small remnants of state's rights that have been left to them. When this right of the federal government is recognized the last vestige of state's rights will be swept away."

This is, of course, the position one would expect the Messenger to take, and we welcome it into camp, but we regret that it did not see fit to bring its influence to bear to prevent the acceptance of the Dick law. It is not too late, however, to show those companies who have accepted the law what a gross fraud it is and make them ashamed of having bound themselves by it.

"A Chicago girl let her clothes and jewelry go up in smoke but saved her love letters. Now let the gentleman who wrote 'em make good or stand the breach of promise suit," says the Atlanta Journal. As the letters were not warm enough to burn, they would be left at the post in the usual breach of promise suit.

By all means nominate Albertus Jay Beveridge for the vice presidency. He would chew up all the air in the republican convention and suffocate the whole outfit.

Clark Howell says several of the Southern states will eventually go republican. How that boy does need a good strapping! Where is his father!

A Baltimore preacher is administering ministerial knockout drops to the festive lemonade. Rain water will be barred next.

If Albert Jeremiah Beveridge is elected vice president the administration will have the jaw bone of an ass handy.

"Money not life's aim," says President Hadley of Yale. But it's Morgan's aim.

Frauds are suspected in the dead letter department. Payne makes the whole thing a dead letter.

The world turns on its own axle. This axle cannot be greased with anything but elbow grease.

"My Old Kentucky Home" just at present would be a trifle breezy for a peace conference.

Return of the Favorites. A. G. Allen's Few Orleans Minstrels who were here last season and gave such general satisfaction that many who witnessed their performance at the time are still sounding their praises and claim it was by far the best minstrel performance seen here in years. The company is billed to appear here Thursday night, June 25.

The company is said to include all the old favorites and has been augmented considerably in point of members. Many new features have been added and the performance is said to be fully up to and even better than the high standard of excellence set by them when here last season. The seating arrangements of the tent have been re-arranged and every care has been taken for the comfort and convenience of the patrons, so that they can enjoy a first class minstrel performance under canvas and at a price of admission much less than what is usually charged by minstrel shows.

LADIES AND CHILDREN INVITED.

All ladies and children who cannot stand the shocking strain of laxative syrups, cathartics, etc., are invited to try the famous little Early Risers. They are different from all other pills. They do not purge the system. Even a double dose will not gripe, weaken or sicken: many people call them the Easy Pill. W. H. Howell, Houston, Tex., says nothing better can be used for constipation, sick headache, etc. Bob Moore, Lafayette, Ind., says all others gripe and sicken, while DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work well and easy. Sold by John L. Wooten.

A SERIOUS MISTAKE.

E. C. DeWitt & Co. is the name of the firm who make the genuine Witch Hazel Salve. DeWitt's is the Witch Hazel Salve that heals without leaving a scar. It is a serious mistake to use any other. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles, burns, bruises, eczema and all skin diseases. Sold by John L. Wooten.

His Last Hope Realized.

[From the Sentinel, Gebu, Mont.]

In the first opening of Oklahoma to settlers in 1889, the editor of this paper was among the many seekers after fortune who made the big race one fine day in April. During his traveling about and afterwards his camping upon his claim, he encountered much bad water, which, together with the severe heat, gave him a very severe diarrhoea which it seemed almost impossible to check, and along in June the case became so bad he expected to die. One day one of his neighbors brought him one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a last hope. A big dose was given him while he was rolling about on the ground in great agony, and in a few minutes the dose was repeated. The good effect of the medicine was soon noticed and within an hour the patient was taking his first sound sleep for a fortnight. That one little bottle worked a complete cure, and he cannot help but feel grateful. The season for bowel disorders being at hand suggests this item. THE BETROTHED.

"You must choose between me and your cigar."
Open the old cigar box, get me a Cuba stout,
For things are running crossways, and Maggie and I are out.
We quarrelled about Havanas—we fought o'er a good cheroot,
And I know she is exacting, and she says I am a brute.
Open the old cigar box—let me consider a space;
In the soft blue veil of the vapor, musing on Maggie's face.
Maggie is pretty to look at—Maggie's a loving lass,
But the prettiest cheeks must wrinkle, the truest of loves must pass.
There's peace in a Laranaga, there's calm in a Henry Clay,
But the best cigar in an hour is finished and thrown away—
Thrown away for another as perfect and ripe and brown—
But I could not throw away Maggie for fear o' the talk o' the town.
Which is the better portion—bond-ago bought with a ring,
Or a harem of dusky beauties, fifty tied in a string?
Counselers cunning and silent—comforters true and tried,
And never a one in the fifty to sneer at a rival bride.
Thought in the morning early, so lace in time of woes,
Peace in the hush of the twilight, balm ere my eyelids close.
I will scent 'em with best vanilla, with tea will I temper their hides,
And the Moor and the Mormon shall envy who read the tale of my brides.
For Maggie has written a letter to give me my choice between
The wee little whimpering Love and the great god, Nick o' Teen.
I have been knowing Maggie Barely a twelve-month clear—
But I have been Priest of Partagas a matter o' thirty year.
Open the old cigar box—let me consider anew—
Old friends, and who is Maggie that I should abandon you?
A million surplus Maggies are willing to bear the yoke:
And a woman is only a woman, but a good cigar is a smoke.
Light me another Cuba; I hold to my firstsworn yows,
If Maggie will have no rival I'll have no Maggie for spouse!

Greenville Still Growing.

News comes to us that the beautiful lot recently purchased by our young and energetic townsman and cotton buyer, B. W. Moseley, which is situated near the railroad and a portion of the Latham lot, is soon to be adorned by a beautiful residence. This is no joke, as lumber for the erection of same is now on lot.

Good for you, Bro. Moseley. We need lots of others just like you.

It may seem funny to some, to see a young unmarried man take such steps, but you have the satisfaction of knowing that it is nobody's business but yours. With best of wishes, A FRIEND.

VIRGINIA VICTORIOUS.

U. S. Had to Guarantee Claims Against Galveston.

Richmond, June 22—United States officials are now in charge of the cruiser Galveston, and the launching will take place at 3:30 Wednesday, with Miss Ella Sealey, of Galveston as sponsor. Judge Grinnan dissolved the injunction upon the filing of an indemnifying bond, by United States District Attorney Lewis, for the protection of claimants against the Trigg company.

York-Anderson.

Mr. C. V. York and Miss Mabel Anderson were united in marriage today at 11 o'clock, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. N. E. Anderson, on Washington street. Rev. H. M. Eure performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. York are among Greenville's most popular young people, and we join their many friends in wishing them the fairest things in life.

Large Crowd Expected.

Much preparation is already going on for the reunion of Confederate Veterans here on Friday, July 3rd. There will be a large crowd here to hear Gen. Ransom speak. Every veteran should come.

The weather prophet never bet on his own predictions.

CHALLENGE FROM J. L. WOOTEN.

Offer to Refund Money if Dr. Howard's Specific Will Not Cure Any Case of Constipation or Dyspepsia.

J. L. Wooten is seeking the worst case of dyspepsia or constipation in Greenville or vicinity to test Dr. Howard's new specific for the cure of those diseases.

So confident is he that this remarkable medicine will effect a lasting cure in a short time, that he offers to refund the money should it not be successful.

In order to secure the quickest possible introduction J. L. Wooten will sell a regular fifty cent package of this medicine at half price, 25 cents.

This specific of Dr. Howard's will cure sick headache, dizzy feelings, constipation, and all forms of malaria and liver trouble. It does not simply give relief for a time; it makes permanent and complete cures.

It will regulate the bowels, tone up the whole intestinal tract, give you an appetite, make food taste good and digest well, and increase vigor. Joy and happiness will take the place of that "don't care whether I live or die" feeling.

Take advantage of J. C. Wooten's challenge and secure a bottle of Dr. Howard's specific at half price, with his personal guarantee to refund your money if it does not help you.

There is no need of suffering with constipation, dyspepsia or liver disease when you can get sixty doses of a scientific medicine for their cure like Dr. Howard's specific for the small sum of 25 cents.
