LETTER FROM JESSE SPEIGHT.

Writes of His Travels in the Old World.

LIVERPOOL, June 20, 1903. EDITOR REFLECTOR:

I arrived here last Friday evening and never had a more pleasant voyage anywhere. Our ship was so steady not a single man on board was seasick. I shall probably be here for a week, when I expect to go to Manchester, thence to London, Berlin, Bremen and Paris. This will be about the extent of my European tour, as I shall want to be back by Sept. 1st to help the buyers out on cotton.

Before reaching Liverpool I received a letter from my friend, Mr. Gregory, of London, advising me to stop at Hotel Adelphi, and that he would meet me there. So he called for me to dine with him about one o'clock and in the afternoon took me over the city in his automobile. I had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Gregory during my stay at Savannah last winter and he has proved a wholesome English gentleman and friend.

Since leaving New York I have only seen two Carolinians, whom I met at my hotel—Messrs. W. T. Clark and W. M. Carter, of Wilson. They both left yesterday for London.

I was invited out to take tea with Mr. Wm. McClusker, who is private secretary and confidential clerk for D. Y. Sulley, the recent millionaire diver in cotton. Mr. Sulley is now in London and Mr. McClusker will follow next week. The latter and myself spent Saturday at the home and grounds of the Duke of Westminster. The duke owns 30,000 acres near one of the oldest cities in England, Chester, on the Dee river about 30 miles from Liverpool. His palace and grounds are magnificent and to go through his palace would remind you of our public library at Washington City. The display of skill and art here shows that we have nothing to brag on in the new world in this line.

However, you would laugh to see an English train moving about 60 miles an hour, as it almost looks like a toy compared with ours. The coaches are about half the size of ours and are divided into sections and are labeled first, second and third class on the doors, which open on the side of the cars. Each section has about six comfortable seats, but when they are crowded ten passengers are packed to a section.

Another peculiarity is the street cars, which are all two story and have stairways in each end of the car. So if you wish to ride on top you can do so. I will bring home with me a photograph of the trains and street cars which are more different from ours than any invention I have yet noticed.

In traveling through the country I notice the principle crops are wheat, potatoes and hay, and although the country appears to be hilly or rolling the lands are very fertile and rich. At this season of the year the farms all look like garden spots in America.

I have not yet been able to find a wooden house or shelter, either in the city or country. It would seem that most every building or wall is built to stand forever, as they are either of rock, iron or brick. The buildings generally are not so tall as you would find in our modern cities but are very substantial and handsomely furnished.

I will not write more until I visit London. Yours truly,

JESSE SPEIGHT.

MERCHANTS ORGANIZE.

Retailers Get Together for Protection and Profit.

Norman H. Johnson, of Burlington, a prominent young lawyer and attorney general for the North Carolina retail grocers' and general merchants' association, addressed a meeting of merchants in the court house Tuesday night.

The purpose of Mr. Johnson's presence here is to organize a local merchants association for protection against bad debtors, for securing the passage of laws placing the merchants on an equal footing with other organized lines of industry and commerce, and other protective purposes.

In his address, which was forceful and clear, Mr. Johnson stated that his association was in favor of a law which would prevent the present homestead exemption from defrauding merchants, a law making husband and wife jointly responsible for payment for necessities of life purchased by either, equalization and adjustment of merchants' taxes and a law making it false pretense for a person to obtain goods upon the promise to pay for them out of a regular salary, and not doing so. A garnishment law is also advocated.

"In union there is strength" was the idea the speaker sought to impress. He showed how successful these associations had been in other parts of the country in collecting bad debts and securing just treatment from transportation companies, also other benefits resulting from perfect organization. As explained by Mr. Johnson the collection system specially commends itself to the merchants.

Every city in North Carolina now has a local merchants' association, and the outlook is promising.

At the conclusion of Mr. Johnson's address the Pitt county merchants association was organized with the following officers:

J. R. Moye, president. H. L. Carr, vice-president. S. T. White, second vice-president.

W. A. Bowen, secretary. Frank Wilson, treasurer. The directors are C. T. Munford, Luther Savage, J. N. Hart, J. G. Moye, B. J. Pulley.

Committee on constitution and by-laws, C. T. Munford, S. T. White and J. G. Moye.

The next meeting will be held Thursday night of next week.

Every retail merchant in Pitt county is invited to join.

A Patent Infringement.

Judge Purnell on yesterday heard argument by F. H. Busbee for the plaintiff and Mr. Harding of Charlotte for the defendant in the case of the Whaley Lumber Company vs. the Ayden Lumber Company, the suit being for the infringement of a patent on a lumber carriage. After hearing the argument Judge Purnell issued a decree holding that there was an infringement and setting October 12 as the date on which the amount of damage shall be determined upon.—Morning Post.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, JULY 8, 1903.

THE WORLD MOVES.

On June 19 THE REFLECTOR presented the matter of organization to our retail merchants. Last night in the court house the Pitt County Retail Merchants' association was organized. The world moves.

A statement of the purposes of the association will be found in our news columns, and the force and lucidity with which these were presented to the merchants by Norman H. Johnson, the attorney general of the state merchants' association, and a prominent and promising young lawyer of Burlington, precluded any possibility of the initial movement being a failure in Greenville.

The association as organized has our unqualified approval, and in behalf of it we extend an invitation to every retail merchant in Pitt county to become a member. It is not intended that this shall be strictly a Greenville institution, though local in its character, but it is our opinion that you cannot become familiar with the aims of the association without wishing to ally yourself with it.

We extend the glad hand to the state association, under the direction of which this work has been successfully carried on in every city in North Carolina.

Here we have another pardon mess. The governor commutes the sentence of a Catawba county man who was convicted of improper relations with a little girl 14 years old who was in his employ, the commutation being made conditional upon the payment of a fine of $3,000. The criminal does not like this arrangement, and will probably elect to remain in jail the balance of his seven year sentence rather than pay the fine. We protest that this thing is eternally wrong. In the name of law and right and justice, what are the courts for? This man was convicted of a loathsome crime, which ought to carry the death penalty, and he should not be allowed to escape one second of his sentence, even though he should pay a million dollars into the treasury. It is wrong.

We congratulate the new city government of Durham upon the success of its efforts to "make good." At its last meeting the Durham board of aldermen ordered that all bar-rooms must close at 8 o'clock, and that there shall be no side doors, rear entrances, screens, pool rooms or partitions attached. The board has reduced the number of saloons from about 15 to eight and now refuses to issue any new licenses. This is sensible reform.

Harvie Jordan, in the Atlanta Journal, advises farmers to sell their cotton crops slowly—dividing the crop and selling only one-tenth each month for ten months—which plan would maintain a price of 10 cents for the staple through the season. This is not bad advice, but the question is about the farmers taking it.

Speak softly! The Hearst boom is dead. The Edenton Transcript, that was to carry the New York journalist into the presidential chair on a sea of Chowan county votes, has tacked up the crepe, put out the fire and turned the outfit over to the undertaker. Rest in peace.

Our warmest congratulations to the Washington Gazette-Messenger. It has enlarged the daily edition to a 7-column sheet and has improved greatly in every way.

The commissioners of Person county knocked the liquor business out of that county Monday, by refusing to grant any licenses for its sale. Those commissioners have backbone that is worthy of imitation.

Kansas has made such an immense wheat crop that the farmers, in order to harvest it, are having to work day, night and Sundays with all the help they can get.

Candidates are many and time is fleeting, and their booms, though stout and brave, still like has beens are beating express journeys to the grave.

It has been said that THE REFLECTOR killed the Hearst boom in North Carolina, but while that may be strictly true, yet it would have died anyway.

The fourth of July is said to be growing in popular favor. If the pop cracker trust didn't know anything about it, it will please take notice.

The editors of the late Edenton Transcript and the Fairbanks-colored North Carolinian doubtless have something of a fellow-feeling.

Now that the Edenton Transcript has kicked the bucket there is a mighty fine opening in the circus business for one editor.

Lives of boomlets oft remind us, "What were they begun for?" To pine, to die, and leave behind us, the brief epitaph "Done for."

What a large and enthusiastic condolence convention could be held by J. Wiley Shook and Thomas Isn't Hill!

The fishes in Edenton bay evidently are not Hearst democrats.

The editors in session at Wrightsville passed resolutions encouraging the plan to raise money for an exhibit at St. Louis, but failed to take up a collection. —Durham Herald.

In the South a white man may be given a little more latitude than a negro, but if the latter behaves himself no harm will be done him, and no one knows this better than he. —Durham Herald.

Very Remarkable Cure of Diarrhoea.

"About six years ago for the first time in my life I had a sudden and severe attack of diarrhoea," says Mrs. Alice Miller, of Morgan, Texas. "I got temporary relief, but it came back again and again, and for six long years I have suffered more misery and agony than I can tell. It was worse than death. My husband spent hundreds of dollars for physicians' prescriptions and treatment without avail. Finally we moved to Bosque county, our present home, and one day I happened to see an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with a testimonial of a man who had been cured by it. The case was so similar to my own that I concluded to try the remedy. The result was wonderful. I could hardly realize that I was well again, or believe it could be so after having suffered so long, but that one bottle of medicine, costing but a few cents, cured me." For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

A SURGICAL OPERATION

is always dangerous—do not submit to the surgeon's knife until you have tried DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It will cure when everything else fails—it has done this in thousand's of cases. Here is one of them: I suffered from bleeding and protruding piles for twenty years. Was treated by different specialists and used many remedies, but obtained no relief until I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Two boxes of this salve cured me eighteen months ago and I have not had a touch of the piles since.—H. A. Tisdale, Summerton, S. C. THE FOUNDATION OF HEALTH.

Nourishment is the foundation of health—life—strength. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the one great medicine that enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest, assimilate and transform all foods into the kind of blood that nourishes the nerves and feeds the tissues. Kodol lays the foundation for health. Nature does the rest. Indigestion, Dyspepsia, and all disorders of the stomach and digestive organs are cured by the use of Kodol. Sold by Wooten's Drug Store.

No man can succeed unless he has faith in his own ability.

CATARH OF THE STOMACH.

When the stomach is overloaded; when food taken into it that fails to digest it decays and inflames the mucous membrane, exposing the nerves, and causes the glands to secrete mucin, instead of the natural juices of digestion. This is called Catarrh of the Stomach. For years I suffered with Catarrh of the Stomach, caused by indigestion. Doctors and medicines failed to benefit me until I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure.—J. R. Rhea, Coppell, Tex. Sold by Wooten's Drug Store.

A woman never feels dressed up unless she feels uncomfortable.

JUST ABOUT BEDTIME

take a Little Early Riser—it will cure constipation, biliousness and liver troubles. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are different from other pills. They do not gripe and break down the mucous membranes of the stomach, liver and bowels, but cure by gently arousing the secretions and giving strength to these organs. Sold by Wooten's Drug Store.

It seems queer that contractors should be employed to widen streets.

Valuable Time Saved.

Slight injuries often disable a man and cause several days' loss of time and when blood poison develops, sometimes result in the loss of a hand or limb. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is an antiseptic ointment. When applied to cuts, bruises and burns it causes them to heal quickly and without maturation, and prevents any danger of blood poison. WASHINGTON WANTS IT.

Offers Greenville Tobacco Men Free Warehouses.

The Gazette-Messenger is the authority for the statement that Washington will give either of the tobacco firms in the town of Greenville, which suffered from the large fire a few nights ago, the rent of the vacant tobacco warehouses in this city for the coming season absolutely free of charge. Understand this, Washington is not attempting to make profit at the expense of the burned out Greenville. That town is going to work with characteristic energy and beginning to rebuild at once. But there is talk to the effect that the carpenters in Greenville cannot get the buildings up in time for the season. Washington wants that tobacco market here and if energy will get it, you can consider it already here. The rent of the tobacco houses in this city is offered free to either of the burned out Greenville firms.
—Washington Gazette Messenger, 6th.

This is a generous offer on the part of our neighbor town, and while we believe it is made with the best of motives there is no likelihood that the offer will be accepted. Only two of the Greenville warehouses were burned in the recent fire and both of them will be speedily rebuilt. On one of them work is already well on the way, much of the framing being already up, and work will commence on the other as soon as material can be collected. As the Gazette-Messenger well says, Greenville "is going to work with characteristic energy to rebuild," and all the warehouses will be ready for business early in the season.

Not Mr. Clark's Distillery.

Washington, N. C., July 5, 1903. To the Editor of The Post;

In your issue of Tuesday, June 30th, 1903, I saw an account of a negro murder which occurred in Beaufort county, near Latham Cross Roads, and it was stated that the negroes had been to a distillery in Pitt county, owned by James E. Clark, Jr. You do me an injustice, as I have never in any way, shape or form been connected with a distillery or dealing in whiskey. The true state of affairs is, the negroes in question work for me in Pitt county, and the night of the murder, which was Saturday night, after I had settled with them, went over in Beaufort county and got something to drink, and were on their way back home when the murder occurred.

I would like for you to make correction of this matter, as it might injure me as it now stands.

Yours truly,

JAMES E. CLARK, JR.

[The above is taken from the Morning Post. AS THE REFLECTOR published an account of the affair similar to the Post's, we cheerfully exonerate Mr. Clark.—Ed.]

NEWS NOTES FROM WINTERVILLE.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., July 8.

THANKS.

Something near six years ago we came among the people of Winterville, comparatively a stranger, and they gave us a warm welcome. As we reflect and remember since that time the kind words, generous expressions, hearty handshakes and friendly smiles that have ever been ours, our heart wells up in gratitude and we can give expression to our feelings only by declaring we feel grateful in having our lot cast among such a pleasant people.

From a small hamlet of a few small houses, now to a beautiful village of several hundred lovely homes, from a small citizenship to a population of more than five hundred; with but one small factory, now the thrilling blasts upon the morning breezes of whistles of many others, is convincing that good fortune has been ours.

Where but one, two, perhaps three, old wooden structures, called stores, now the visitor beholds magnificent brick and wooden buildings to a far greater number in their stead, denoting the determination and will of the men who laid the foundation and have never nor will ever cease in their effort toward upbuilding a beautiful city here.

Only a hut for the children to attend school with but one lone teacher to instruct, now a beautiful edifice of learning surrounded by elegant dormitories and lovely grounds show too plainly where once the unsophisticated and untutored did roam, now a scene of culture, education and refinement presents itself to the critic's eye.

Only a little shanty where on the Holy Sabbath morn we wended our way to worship our Maker. There can be seen all around towering steeples and sacred edifices telling the world we are a God-fearing and a God-loving people and here lies our richest blessing, and all this too in six short years.

Miss Effie Kittrell, after a very pleasant visit to Seven Springs, returned Monday.

Miss Mattie McLawhorn went to Hanrahan Saturday and returned Monday.

Everybody says the Greenville people are just the bestest and goodest to-be-sure.

To our friend, Hon. J. L. Fleming, we tip our hat for special courtesies last Friday.

L. L. Kittrell is a great big man with a great big heart and when he laughs you feel it all over.

If the teachers who attend the Institute here this month do not have a nice time surely it will not be due to neglected efforts on the part of our citizens.

Misses Ella May and Bertha Kittrell were here yesterday shopping.

Rev. Mr. Stevens preached a sermon at Beedy Branch, Sunday, that is spoken of by those who heard him as a very able effort. He, wife and child returned to Kinston on Monday evening's train.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. C. Dixon, who have been for sometime at the Johns Hopkins Sanitarium in Baltimore, receiving treatment, we are pleased to learn are very much improved.

Louis Manning does not freeze dogs into ice cream as we have heard of others, but his is the genuine article and can be had every Saturday at the store of Rowan Cooper.

Miss Mollie Bryan is again in the postoffice.

Miss Clyde Dawson and her friend Miss Joyner, of Portsmouth, spent Monday in Greenville.

The expectations of the Tar Heel Band during their recent visit to Greenville were not disappointing. To the contrary, they were not only CALLED ON, but were treated with every courtesy due gentlemen. Nice conveyances from and to the train were furnished; an elegant dinner served as only ladies and gentlemen of the highest order knew how to dispense; this in connection with the urgent invitation extended them a month previous is not only gratifying to our "Tar Heel Boys" but each and all of them have and will ever cherish a most pleasant recollection of that visit. All vote it the most enjoyable event of the kind in which they ever took part.

G. A. Kittrell and W. B. Nobles are both confined to their homes with sickness.

Ye Gods, how nice it must be to love a pretty girl! If any doubt, we would suggest a consultation with our second door neighbor. HE can give the definition in shape.

Jerry Nichols, of Grifton, and J. A. Nichols, of Greenville, spent Sunday here with their mother.

R. G. Chapman, Mrs Chapman and little Misses Nannie and Clyde have come home from a visit in Martin.

Manufacturing ice cream out of dogs is THE latest industry. Patent to be applied for.

J. M. Blow.

Miss Susie Everett, of Robertsonville, and Misses Ella and Eula Langley, from the country are visiting Misses Veleria and Fannie Fleming.

Miss Bessie Sledge, and little brother, Willie, of Tarboro, arrived Tuesday evening to visit Mrs. L. H. Pender.

B. E. Patrick has accepted a position with B. Fleishman & Bro.

Boston people will sit at the same table with negroes in hotels but will not take them into their homes.

Missionaries are advised to stay away from Indiana until the people stop killing each other.

Another Wreck on Southern Railway.

Charlottesville, Va., July 7.—Southern railway passenger train No. 35, from New York to New Orleans, left this city southbound 25 minutes late, and at Rockfish station, 20 miles south, ran into an open switch, colliding with a local freight and killing at least 25 persons and injuring as many more. The freight train had been shifted from the main track to the siding, and the failure to close the switch caused the wreck.

BRUTALLY TORTURED.

A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equaled. Joe Golobick of Colusa, Calif., writes: "For 15 years I endured insufferable pain from Rheumatism and nothing relieved me though I tried everything known. I came across Electric Bitters and it's the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it cured me." Just as good for Liver and Kidney troubles and general debility. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by Wooten's Drug Store.

NO PITY SHOWN.

"For years fate was after me continuously" writes F. A. Guldge, Verbena, Ala. "I had a terrible case of Piles causing 24 tumors. When all failed Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured me. Equally good for Burns and all aches and pains. Only 25c at Wooten's Drug Store.
