FARMVILLE CORRESPONDENCE.

FARMVILLE, N. C., July 31, 1903.

It is wonderful to look out upon nature and behold the great variety of products which the ground yields. We travel along our public roads and we see vast stretches of cotton, corn and tobacco, the three great staples of commerce. Of other crops we can say that this is a fine section for all kinds of vegetables, such as cabbage, beans, peas, beats, irish and sweet potatoes. Of fruit we have never seen finer peaches and grapes grown anywhere. The apple yields a fair crop annually, with some exceptions.

In speaking of the railroad project in a former article, we have thought of the vast quantities of these products which would be shipped direct, seeking a ready market, not found nearer home. Of the manufacturing interests, we have Greenville on this line of road which does an enormous business in tobacco and cotton, then Wilson with all its varied manufactures; there would be a large traffic of these manufactured goods going out and other goods coming in to supply the demands of trade. Along this line of route the products of the ocean, fish and oysters could be handled with great profit to the shipper and retail dealer, as this road would give the shortest and quickest route to the sea.

We wish to remark here that our good town of Farmville has very little manufacturing of any kind in operation. The buggy factory of Davis & Whitehurst puts up a fine and substantial buggy, for which ready sale is to be found. The tobacco truck factory of B. L. Davis has been putting up large numbers of trucks, so much needed in gathering tobacco from the field. The brick yard of Horton Bros. has been running several months and their product has found ready sale.

There are no other factories in the town. We know of no better place in the state where a cotton factory would pay than at Farmville. We hope ere long to hear the rumble and noise of a cotton factory humming a merry tune, as it takes the cotton between its iron fingers and then turns and twists it into thread, suitable for cloth or hosiery.

A new firm has opened in Farmville, Messrs. Thorne and Parker, who carry a full line of patent medicines, toilet articles, stationery and all kinds of cool drinks usually kept at a soda fountain. The firm is composed of young men who deserve the patronage of the town and community. They handle ice by the car load and are prepared to furnish the trade in any quantity.

W. M. Lang, has gone to Baltimore to see his father-in-law, Mr. Phillips, who is quite sick at the hospital, having had a very serious operation performed.

GRIMESLAND ITEMS.

Grimesland, N. C., July 31 1903

Misses Lizzinia and Susie Moore attended a birthday party given by Miss May Galloway at her home in the country Wednesday evening.

A mad dog passed through town Tuesday and bit several dogs. He went on toward Greenville and bit several dogs on the way. Kill them all.

Rev. Mr. Hughes and daughter, Elizabeth, are in town at W. M. Moore's. Mr. Huges is looking after the interest of his school at Chocowinity.

V. A. Rountree, representing Einstein Bro. of Kinston, wholesale dealers in dry goods and notions, is here today.

Tom Talley, after a few days vacation, spent in the country with his parents, is back again with J. L. Gibson & Co.

Mrs. W. M. Moore and her mother, Mrs. Susan Moore, are visiting friends in Chocowinity today.

A horse belonging to W. M. Moore made quite an exciting runaway Wednesday. Not much damage.

D. G. Moore went to Washington Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Smithwick is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Mayo.

Mrs. Emily Hardee is spending a few days with the family of W. E. Proctor.

Young Girl Killed in a Mill.

Washington, N. C. Aug. 1.—Miss Bessie Epoch, a 12 year-old girl employed in the knitting mill here, was accidentally killed this morning. She was at work near one of the operating tables when her dress was caught in the unprotected shaft under the table. Her body was rapidly whirled around the shaft and her skull crushed against the floor, killing her almost instantly.

Recounting the miscarriages of justice that have recently occurred in this and other states, one is inclined to the belief that law cuts a small figure where a man has money and friends and can secure a shrewd lawyer who knows how to use both. One or two corrupt men on a jury has been the cause in hundreds of cases that have brought our laws into ill repute by letting scoundrels go free.—Stanly Enterprise.

In awarding damages if the juries would say how much goes to the plaintiff and how much to the lawyer it would perhaps be a good thing, except for the lawyer.—Durham Herald.

END OF BITTER FIGHT.

"Two physicians had a long and stubborn fight with an abscess on my right lung" writes J. F. Hughes of DuPont, Ga. "and gave me up. Everybody thought my time had come. As a last resort I tried Dr Kings' New Discovery for Consumption. The benefit I received was striking and I was on my feet in a few days. Now I've entirely regained my health." It conquers all Coughs, Colds and Throat and Lung troubles. Guaranteed by Wooten's Drug Store. Price 50c, and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

Durham county has found out that the way to have good roads is to build them. There is no county in the state that can make them by merely adopting long-winded resolutions.—Durham Sun.

I find nothing better for liver derangement and constipation than Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets.—L. F. Andrews, Des Moines, Iowa. For Sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

Two Piece Suits

Those new two-piece suits of ours are just the thing for summer wear. We're always plowing new ground—never following the old furrows that will soon result in a rut. Plenty of indulgence is allowable in these very handsome suits.

Rough surfaces predominate. Seems strange that a rough looking cloth can be woven to be cooler than a smooth one. But we can show you how true that is, Wool Crashes, Home-spuns, Serges, Striped Flannel.

A two-piece suit is the thing for comfort.

ALL SUMMER GOODS REDUCED. BUY NOW.

"Too Much of a Good Thing"

That's what we have—too much Silk Mull, Mercerized Pebble Cloth, Mercerized Chambray, etc., for the season. The season really lacks two months of being over, but we must reduce stock for fall goods. Consequently we are making great reductions in Wash Silks, White Goods, Embroideries, Percales, etc. The profit goes to you if you take advantage of these reductions at once. We will not carry them over. You'll not have another chance to get the same goods for anything like the same money. Note these prices:

Silk Mulls, all colors, was 40c, now 25c.
Mercerized Pebble Cloths, was 30c., now 20c.
Mercerized Chambray, was 25c., now 15c.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON, AUGUST 1, 1903.

THE LAW OF THE LAND.

Bow down to the Dick militia "law." It is getting in its work, as evidences the following dispatch:

New Orleans, July 30.—The Washington Artillery, the oldest and strongest military organization in the southwest, has split and gone to pieces over the question of the Dick militia bill and service in the militia. By a majority of nine, in a large meeting, the men decided to join the militia under government auspices. Colonel Richardson, commanding, and most of the officers left the hall after the vote was announced and refuse to abide by it. The artillery is sixty years old. It served with distinction in the Mexican war and furnished batteries to both the Confederate armies of Virginia and Tennessee, and has been used in the suppression of all local riots and disturbances. It owns its armory, cannon, guns, etc. Most of the time it has been an independent military regiment, but for the past ten or twelve years has been a member of the state militia.

Now is the Wilmington Messenger content to "abide by the officers' judgment in the matter?" It appears that the New Orleans officers are made of different stuff from the military geniuses of this state. The Messenger claims that the Dick bill is the law of the land. What, then, will happen to those officer- and enlisted men who declined to obey the law? How will you uphold the majesty of the law? The Messenger knows the Dick bill is no more the law of the land to those who decline to obey it than a town ordinance in the law of the land.

In Durham the retail merchants' association is being fought by an organization known as the "Cash Buyers Union," organized by a man from South Carolina. The union pledges its members to buy nothing except for cash, and to boycott all merchants who belong to the retailers' association. This latter's plank appears to us to be a piece of folly. The object of the retailers' association is to compel people to pay their debts, and anything in opposition to this is dishonest. If the "Cash Buyers Union" can induce its members to buy nothing except for cash it will have accomplished a great good, also one of the aims of the retailers' association. But to seek to perpetuate the frauds from which merchants continually suffer is nothing short of downright robbery.

Mention was made yesterday of the fact that a county officer in Bladen county, this state, had resigned his office and the suggestion was offered that he be detained for inquiry into his sanity. Here is a case that is even more astonishing. The commissioner of pensions has received a letter from a pensioner, as follows: "Kindly withdraw and cancel all papers in relation to my claim for a pension," he requests, "I do not need it, and the services rendered do not, in my judgment, entitle me to it." It is believed that excessively hot weather, especially if the period of heat be protracted, has a tendency to make folks fighty in their heads. This is very warm weather and the spell has been of some duration.—Charlotte Observer.

Don't give all the praise for this to the hot weather. That man may have a streak of honesty or bit of conscience left in him—things that are unknown in the make-up of the bulk of pension drawers.

Charlotte just will keep ahead, notwithstanding the recent complaint in the local department of the Observer that so little happened in the city to make news out of. It certainly looks to an outsider that Charlotte gets what is going in the way of happenings, and the nature of them ought to be startling enough to suit any burg. The latest, which was a murderous attack on a man while in bed in his home, with his wife and child, next to keeping your money.

would have done credit to a frontier town.

At Winston-Salem a young woman 17 years old was charged with infanticide and submitted to manslaughter. Judge McNiell, before whom the case was heard, expressed regret that the man who ruined this girl could not be reached and severely punished. Alas, the pity that we have such law and such society that punishes and casts out the woman in her sin, yet lets go free and opens its arms to the fiend who is the author of the girl's downfall and ruin.

Mr. Fred L. Merritt has resigned as editor of the Asheville Citizen and is succeeded by Mr. W. W. Moore. The latter is a Greenville boy and THE REFLECTOR is glad to know he is making a success of his journalistic work in the mountain city. He is not only editor but also one of the principal owners of the Citizen.

THE REFLECTOR was compelled to draw upon our esteemed contemporaries for editorial matter yesterday. While the matter was not original, it was probably as good as we would have produced had we not been afflicted with the dumps.

Judge Parker says the party has not needed him and he will remain on the bench. If there was any chance that the bench would have the same effect on some of the other also mentioned, we are in favor of placing them on the bench for life.

The latest South American revolution was started because a general got drunk. If that was sufficient cause for a revolution in this town peace would be a dream indeed.

Sir Thomas Lipton wears a baseball mask to escape the kisses of the misses. And even that doesn't feaze some of them—they stick their tongues through the slats.

An Elizabeth City man was relieved of $300 while bathing at Virginia Beach. Which shows that cleanliness may not always be next to keeping your money.

FRANK M. WOOTEN, Attorney-at-Law, GREENVILLE N. C.

Practice in all the courts. Special attention to collection of rents and other claims. Prompt attention to all business.

Taken With Cramps.

Wm. Kirmse, a member of the bridge gang working near Littleport, was taken suddenly ill Thursday night with cramps and a kind of cholera. His case was so severe that he had to have the members of the crew wait upon him and Mr. Gifford was called and consulted. He told them he had a medicine in the form of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy that he thought would help him out and accordingly several doses were administered with the result that the fellow was able to be around next day. The incident speaks quite highly of Mr. Gifford's medicines.—Elkader, Iowa, Argus.

This remedy never fails. Keep it in your home, it may save life. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; R. L. Davis & Bro. Farmville.

Too many servants spoil the work.

SAVE THE CHILDREN.

Ninety nine of every one hundred diseases that children have are due to disorders of the stomach, and these disorders are all caused by indigestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is just as good for children as it is for adults. Children thrive on it. It keeps their little stomachs sweet and encourages their growth and development. Mrs. Henry Carter, 705 Central St. Nashville, Tenn., says: "My little boy is now three years old and has been suffering from indigestion ever since he was born. I have had the best doctors in Nashville, but failed to do him any good. After using one bottle of Kodol he is a well baby. I recommend it to all sufferers." Kodol digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

There are no wicked women—they only do wicked things.

Sick Headache.

"For several years my wife was troubled with what physicians called sick headache of a very severe character. She doctored with several eminent physicians and at a great expense, only to grow worse until she was unable to do any kind of work. About a year ago she began taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and today weighs more than she ever did before and is real well," says Mr. Geo. E. Wright of New London, New York. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros., Farmville.

A girl can answer a question before it is asked if it is a proposal.

DEWITT IS THE NAME.

When you go to buy Witch Hazel Salve look for the name DeWitt on every box. The pure unadulterated Witch Hazel is used in making DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, which is the best salve in the world for cuts, burns, bruises, boils, eczema and piles. The popularity of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, due to its many cures, has caused numerous worthless counterfeits to be placed on the market. The genuine bears the name of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

A woman considers that her husband is trying to do better when he is smart enough for her not to catch him.

EAT ALL YOU WANT.

Persons troubled with indigestion or Dyspepsia can eat all they want if they will take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. This remedy prepares the stomach for the reception, retention, digestion and assimilation of all of the wholesome food that may be eaten, and enable the digestive organs to transform the same into the kind of blood that gives health and strength. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

It is simply beyond the understanding of a man how a woman can see to walk right into his arms when it is pitch dark.

POTENT PILL PLEASURE.

The pills that are potent in their action and pleasant in effect are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. W. S. Phipot of Albany, Ga., says: "During a billious attack I took one. Small as it was it did me more good than calomel, blue-mass or any other pills I ever took and at the same time it effected me pleasantly. Little Early Risers are certainly an ideal pill." Sold by J. L. Wooten.

AYDEN ITEMS

AYDEN, N. C., Aug. 1, 1903.

Ned McGonon and S. F. and J. C. Nobles went to Fountain Hill Wednesday night to be with a party on a hay ride.

P. G. Mayo, who has been operator here for some time, has gone to his home near Farmville for recreation.

Master Taylor Whitehurst, of Aurora, is visiting Master Lester Cox.

Mrs. Rountree, of Kinston, is visiting at the home of R. J. Cannon.

Misses Ella Wayne, who has been in New Bern for sometime, returned yesterday.

Miss Lizzie Anderson came over from Winterville yesterday.

We are glad to see Capt. D. G. Berry out again.

Mr. Ellington, state bank examiner, was here yesterday to look into the affairs of our bank. We are glad to report that he found it in a flourishing condition.

Mrs. Jas. Long gave an excellent supper last evening in honor of her guests, Misses Davis and Henby.

Miss Blanche Cannon went to Winterville Thursday to spend a few days.

M. C. Johnson, of Grifton, has succeeded P. S. Mayo as operator at this place.

A. P. Murray, who has been in Granville county for five weeks, returned Thursday.

J. R. Spier, of Ridge Springs, was in town Friday.

Elias Turnage, of Ormondsville, was here yesterday.

Watch the advertisements in the Ayden page of THE REFLECTOR. We have good business men and clever salesmen and prices that can't be beaten. You will save money by watching for bargains offered by them.

Old Ayden is on a boom; We will get the graded school and soon after you may look for new enterprise. Such talent and capital as Ayden has can't be buried for long. We need factories and must have them. Let the capitalists speak.

Our photographer, B. F. Manning, left Wednesday for Grifton, where he will remain a few days, doing work in that section.

J. H. Manning formerly of the firm of B. F. Manning & Bro., has opened a shoe and harness repair shop on Main street, opposite J. W. Quinerly & Bros.

Lill and Clarence Cannon went to Winterville Friday.

J. J. Stroud and D. S. Moore spent Thursday evening in Winterville.

Bryant Ives, of near Grifton, is reported as having beaten his wife and daughter very severely Monday. Tuesday night a masked crowd of eight men took Ives out and gave him fifty with a buggy trace and five with a horse whip. He has since received a note advising him to leave the state in ten days. Ives is suffering very badly from his experience.

BASE BALL.

Friday the Ayden ball team went over to Hookerton to play the home team, and left the Hookerton boys grieving to the tune of 11 to 8. The batteries were for Ayden, James and Burruss and for Hookerton, Caraway and Palmer. A wet ball toward the last of the game made playing difficult. The boys came back to Ayden in joyful mood, but they talked as much about the cleverness of the Hookerton boys as they did of their victory. Especially did they praise the most excellent dinner.

Says the Hickory Times-Mercury, Pop: The Charlotte Observer is a pretty good daily published at Charlotte. Its editor, Mr. Caldwell, fishes for whales and suckers. Sometimes he gets into shallow water and scoops a minnow. While this is none of our fracos, we can't help saying that Editor Caldwell seems to have made a "scoop" this time for a minnow—and got him.—Raleigh Post.

The Customs of the Country.

There was once a Newfoundland fisherman—he chanced to be a Catholic—who in old age came to die. He had lived in debt all his life and, no doubt, had never once given his whole catch to the dealer who supplied him, but had wrongfully slipped many a quintal over the side of a rival schooner and traded it out on the spot.

"Send for Fawther Rafferty," he said. "Send immediate!"

He wanted to confess his sins, to be shriven and to depart in peace, but his old priest had been transferred to Trinity Bay. A young man, just back from Rome, was now the spiritual head of the parish.

"Sure, 'tis Fawther Codlin," they told him.

"No, no!" the old man protested. "Fawther Codlin's a fine young man—a clever young man, I doubt me not, but 'tis old Fawther Rafferty I wants 'hear me confession."

"An' why?" they asked.

"Sure," the dying man gasped, "he knows the customs of the country."—Norman Duncan in World's Work.

Ancient Table Manners.

A description of a dinner given in 1350 shows that there has been a vast improvement in table manners since then. As a rule, one knife had to serve for two people, and often a bowl of soup was used by two persons. For this reason the party giving the dinner arranged his guests in couples, trying to place people together who would be congenial and not adverse to this common use of table appointments.

Spoons were seldom supplied to the guests, and the soup was drunk directly from the bowl, the latter usually having side handles by which it was held. In less refined company there were no separate soup bowls, only one large panging, which was passed around to the guests in turn. The diners helped themselves to the pieces of meat they desired from the common dish with their fingers.

Napkins were considered a luxury, and were only provided in very aristocratic and wealthy families.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Sponge Growing.

Sponges are cultivated in West Indian waters and the Mediterranean. In its natural state the bath or toilet sponge is fleshy and covered with a black skin. To obtain the light colored, horny and elastic skeleton, sponges are left in shallow sea water for several days in a staked inclosure until the rotten animal matter can be beaten out. For artificial cultivation a living sponge is cut into small blocks, about a cubic inch in size, with a portion of the outer skin on each. These, fixed to a frame of weighted trellis-work, are sunk into a few fathoms of clear water, where they flourish best on a bottom of green seaweed free from mud. In about seven years the cuttings grow into sponges of marketable size.

A Caustic Retort.

An Englishman of somewhat questionable reputation, who was criticizing the American way of spelling, once turned to Maurice Barrymore, the actor, and said: "I'll leave it to Mr. Barrymore. Is it right to leave out the 'u' in such words as harbor, neighbor, honor, candor, etc?" "Well, about harbor and neighbor I am not sure," replied Barrymore, "but when it comes to honor and candor I leave you out."

Oranges and Tobacco.

"Did you ever notice," asked a well known physician the other day, "that men who eat oranges are not much injured by smoking? It is a fact. Orange juice has the faculty of neutralizing nicotine, and that is the reason. I have seen men weakened and even made ill by excessive smoking, and a few oranges were all that was necessary to straighten them out."—Philadelphia Record.

Cause For Pride.

Wanton—What's the matter, Blankley? You're all cut about and your arm in a sling, as though you had been in a fight, and yet you look beaming and smiling over it all.

Blankley—The fact is I have all along thought my boy Harold a sort of muff, and the other day I undertook to give him some boxing lessons. This is the result of the first lesson. Oh, I'm proud of that boy!

He Was Competent Himself.

Bobby's father was breaking the news to him.

"How would you like to have a little brother, Bob?" he asked.

"First rate," replied the youngster cheerfully. Then he reflected a minute.

"No," he said slowly. "I guess, after all, I'd rather have a sister. I'm a boy myself, you know."—New York Tribune.

Propinquity of Now and Then.

"Bigglesworth isn't addicted to drink, is he?"

"Addicted? Oh, no. Of course he takes a glass now and then."

"I see I must modify my question. Doesn't Bigglesworth let his 'now' blend with his 'then' a little too frequently?"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

A Question of Courage.

Phyllis—Yes, he was paying attentions to her quite a long time.

Blanche—Perhaps he hadn't the courage to propose.

Phyllis—Oh, I don't know. Perhaps he had the courage not to propose.—Town and Country.

An Obstinate Man.

"Is it true the jury disagreed in that murder case?"

"Yes; they say there was one blamed crank that held out for convictin' the man who done the killin'."—Chicago Tribune.

NEWS NOTES FROM WINTERVILLE.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Aug., 1.

Little Miss Mattie Murphy, of Kinston, is visiting her uncle, Henry Murphy, near here.

A colored driver for one of the livery stables in Greenville came down last Wednesday and put his horse up at the stables of G. A. Kittrell & Co. Before leaving, however, he took a special fancy to some of those fine chickens of Mr. Kittrell's; anyway, as he started off there was a noise under the seat of the buggy and upon investigation one of the finest chickens was found tied up in a bag. The chicken is still here but if better fortune has not overtaken him, there is a hungry nigger in Greenville.

Mrs. Sarah Taylor and Mrs. J. R. Cooper were shopping in Greenville Wednesday.

An excursion train ran over a sheep and killed it near the depot Thursday. This is the first instance of the kind we ever knew.

Mrs. Nancy Jones, of Graingers, is visiting Mrs. Frank Little, near here.

Tobacco in this section has a rather small body, but it is exceedingly fine texture, which, perhaps, will make up the difference in price.

G. A. Kittrell, while in Norfolk, bought two very fine horses, one for himself and the other for a gentleman in Greene county. He says the prices for horses are very high.

A little improvement on the sidewalks, bridges, &c., might possibly add to the general appearance of our town and be to our town fathers a source of much gratification, as no doubt the commendation they would receive from a much inconvenienced public would prove both pleasing and beneficial.

Mrs. David Sutton and two children, of Snow Hill, are visiting her sister, Mrs. Sarah Taylor, and the family of her father, J. F. Elliot.

D. H. Parker, of Pinners Point, has accepted a position as assistant to J. E. Green, agent at depot.

W. L. Johnson left yesterday to accept a position as telegraph operator at Ayden.

Maj. J. B. Neal came in from Scotland Neck Thursday evening.

Miss Lee Paramore, of Kinston, is visiting the family of Rev. T. N. Manning.

Miss Mattie McLawhorn, of Hanrahan, who has been teaching a private school for Rowan Cooper left for her home yesterday.

Mr. Elias Sutton had a little boy that wandered some distance in the field the other day and got lost in the tobacco patch. After careful search and and much anxiety the little fellow was found all O. K.

Misses Carrie Brown, of Greenville, and Ella Lassiter, of Durham, have been visiting Mrs. J. R. Johnson this week.

Mrs. G. E. Lineberry, who has been spending the summer up in the middle section of the state, came home Thursday evening.

Prof. A. A. Forbes, Al Forbes, Jr., D. C. James were again with Thursday night and rendered assistance to the band that was very highly appreciated by the audience in attendance upon the lecture.

Shirt waists as described in a issue recent of THE REFLECTOR haven't made their appearance here yet. Like everything else we suppose they are on the way.
