U. S. AFTER THE TURK

AMERICAN CONSUL AT BEIRUT ASSASSINATED.

Admiral Cotton's European Fleet Ordered to the Scene of the Cowardly Crime.

Washington, D. C. Aug. 27.—A cablegram reporting the assassination of the United States vice consul and deputy consul at Beirut, Syria, was received at the state department this morning from the United States minister Constantinople. Within an hour after the receipt of the dispatch instructions were sent to the minister at Constantinople to use the most vigorous measures to impress the Sultan of Turkey with the gravity of the case. He was told that he should demand the immediate apprehension and conviction of the murderers. From the tone of these instructions it is evident that this government does not propose to tolerate any delay by the Turkish authorities, but will, if necessary, take drastic measures to arouse Turkey to a full realization of the seriousness of the situation.

Mysterious Death in Charlotte.

Charlotte, N. C., Aug. 27.—Ralph F. Elliott, of Greely, Col., died at midnight at the Charlotte hotel under what were regarded as suspicious circumstances. Elliott has been living at Southern Pines and Hamlet for three years, having gone to that section for his health. He came to Charlotte on the 20th. Yesterday he worked all day in the hot sun, and when he went to supper complained of feeling unwell. He remained around the hotel office until 9 o'clock and then went to bed; about 11 o'clock he was found in convulsions and died shortly afterwards. The circumstances surrounding his death were investigated today and it is given out that the young man was overcome by heat.

Did you ever notice that the man who has the least use for you is the man who owes you money that he won't pay, or has otherwise done you an injury?—Asheville Citizen.

Woman Slain From Ambush.

Laurinburg, N. C., Aug. 27.—Alice McDonald, colored, of Laurel Hill township, this county, was shot and instantly killed last night while quietly sitting on her front porch with her husband and children. The coroner's jury after a full investigation today rendered a verdict that the wound was inflicted by a gun in the hand of an unknown person. Several buck shot were found in her body. There seems to be no clue to the murder.

$75,000 Wind and Hail Storm.

Petersburg, Va., Aug. 27.—News reached here today of a terrific wind and hail storm which passed over Mecklenburg county. The path of the storm was between Boydton, the county seat, and South Hill and the damage done to crops was great. A man just arrived from the county says that the tobacco on over three thousand acres was torn from the stalks and that corn was ripped to pieces. The loss is estimated at over $75,000.

The Deadly Mosquito Again.

Durham, N. C., Aug. 27.—Near this city Will Strayhorn, a white boy, is at death's door as a result of a mosquito sting. The insect stung him on the little finger last Saturday and a few days ago blood poison set in. It was decided that amputation of the arm was necessary, but in the meantime the patient became so ill that the operation could not be performed. His friends and the physicians who are attending him have little hope of saving his life.

In the Same Predicament.

It is told on a certain young man in town that he recently accompanied his best girl to church—which was nothing unusual. When the collection was being taken up the aforesaid young man explored his pockets and whispered to the young lady: "I haven't a cent; I changed my pants." In the mean time the young lady had been searching in her pockets and finding nothing, blushed a rosy red as she stammered: "I—I'm in the same predicament."—Henderson Gold Leaf.

Well-wishers say that the character of Oklahoma would convert an infidel to belief in a future state. Others say that the character of Oklahoma would make the infidel believe—and tremble.—Albany Argus.

"Too Much of a Good Thing"

That's what we have—too much Silk Mull, Mercerized Pebble Cloth, Mercerized Chambray, etc., for the season. The season really lacks two months of being over, but we must reduce stock for fall goods. Consequently we are making great reductions in Wash Silks, White Goods, Embroideries, Percals, etc. The profit goes to you if you take advantage of these reductions at once. We will not carry them over. You'll not have another chance to get the same goods for anything like the same money. Note these prices.

Silk Mulls, all colors, was 40c, now 25c.
 Mercerized Pebble Cloths, was 30c., now 20c.
 Mercerized Chambray, was 25c., now 15c.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, AUGUST 28, 1903.

GOD IS OVER ALL.

To how many people does the old academy building, in its march toward back streets, teach a lesson and illustrate the mutations of the age? 'Tis the very embodiment of the spirit of the times. The old is steadily forced into the past to make room for the new. Progress strides down the path of civilization. Evolution surveys the field of human endeavor, nor pauses even for a breathing spell. Enlightenment dawns upon the world with a glow more for reaching than the aurora borealis of the northern sky. Yesterday is but a memory, today the theatre of action, tomorrow illimitable in possibilities. The supreme unselfishness of human nature compels our admiration when we reflect that none who labor today shall live to see the complete fruition of their efforts. They strive and toil and die, and ever leave the task undone. Hence there must be some divine guidance for the hands and hearts that strive for right and truth, knowing that they can never in this mortal life reach the end. Truly, God is over all.

With a heavy heart we drop a tear to the memory of Wallace Rid-dick, the Hertford young man whose tragic and, to us, untimely death has brought the bitter cup of sor-row to the lips of his friends and relatives. His was a heart of gold. He was one of nature's noblemen, brave, generous, manly. We do not believe that in all his life he was guilty of one dirty act. He was the soul of honor and his friends and friendships were sacred to him. To the broken-hearted mother, father, brothers and sisters who sit in sorrow in the home where his foot-steps shall ne'er again find echo, we extend the sympathy of one who knew him well. When they have drained the cup may the peace that passeth all understanding come to them from the One who cares for each sparrow that falls.

"Had you noticed" asked Justice H. Harding, "that there is always more litigation when money is tight or scarce than when it is easy or plentiful?" Continuing he said, "It is a fact that when money is easy and plentiful people do not seem to take so much concern about what is due them, and seldom re-sort to the law to collect a debt. But when money is tight the situa-tion is different and people become more uneasy and warrants or suits to collect debts are frequent."

Booker Washington's party prob-ably thought they were due special privileges at Hamlet on account of its name being somewhat similar to the name of that Ham who went into the land of Nod.

Tom L. Johnson may never be governor of Ohio, but he can be depended upon to make the cam-paign interesting to the republicans.

If the tobacco trust is real good we may give it a chew of tobacco once in a while when we get our in-dependent factories going.

DECAYED WIT.

For the sake of the fitness, of things, there should be scant mourn-ing if a few of our "humorists" were planted beneath the cold, cold ground. The alleged "wit" of some of them is as flat and inane as a half dozen yesterdays. In witness where-of we exhibit the following from the Atlanta Journal:

"Kansas barbers charge $5 for shaving a corpse. Nobody else in Kansas ever shaves, and barbers have got to make a living somehow."

If the perpetrator of the above knew anything about Kansas he would not write such rot. Kansas may not be much along the line of Beau Brummels, Ward McAllisters and Harry Lehrs, but it is a highly civilized, progressive and intelligent country. Without having access to the exact figures, we will venture the assertion that Kansas has more, larger and better schools, colleges, hospitals, churches, libraries and other adjuncts and evidences of civilization than Georgia can claim. The impression of one who travels through Kansas is that there is a school house on every hill, and it is a matter of fact that there are thou-sands of people in the Sunflower state who have never tasted a drop of whiskey, and many who never saw a drop. Kansas has her faults, tis true, but we don't believe there ever was a Kansan mean enough to cow-hide the bare back of a woman. Now let the Georgia stone-thrower chew that for awhile.

We are glad to note that Raleigh can raise other things besides crops of murderers and politicians. The following from the News and Ob-server gives rise to the question: "Why can't we make banana grow-ing a profitable industry in North Carolina?"

"The banana tree in front of the governor's office is beginning to blossom. This will be followed by a bunch of bananas."

Says the Atlanta Journal:

"A Columbus, O., woman laughed when her husband told her how mosquitoes had bothered him all night. Then she died, which teaches us that wivos should be carefull how they laugh at husbands' misfor-tune."

Yes, and it ought also to teach husbands to tell such troubles as mosquito bites to the doctor.

It is sometimes cruel to probe a failure, but 'twould be profitable if 'twere done oftener. It would then be found that the failure never got much out of life and work be-cause he never put much into them.

As Mr. Root could have made much more money in private life, we sup-pose he has been acting as secretary of war from patriotic motives.

Secretary Root probably thinks it is glory enough for one man to have pushed General Miles off the bench.

Snapp—He's got a scheme for making money that seems to be all right in theory.

Skrapp—Huh! all men with theories are fools.

Snapp—Indeed? That's your theory, is it?—Philadelphia Ledger.

Taken With Cramps.

Wm. Kirmse, a member of the bridge gang working near Littleport, was taken suddenly ill Thursday night with cramps and a kind of cholera. His case was so severe that he had to have the members of the crew wait upon him and Mr. Gifford was called and consulted. He told them he had a medicine in the form of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy that he thought would help him out and accordingly several doses were administered with the result that the fellow was able to be around next day. The incident speaks quite highly of Mr. Gifford's medicines.—Elkader, Iowa, Argus.

This remedy never fails. Keep it in your home, it may save life. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; R. L. Davis & Bro. Farmville.

Easy come, easy go, and hard to get again.

SAVE THE CHILDREN.

Ninety nine of every one hundred diseases that children have are due to disorders of the stomach, and these disorders are all caused by indigestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is just as good for children as it is for adults. Children thrive on it. It keeps their little stomachs sweet and encourages their growth and development. Mrs. Henry Carter, 705 Central St. Nashville, Tenn., says: "My little boy is now three years old and has been suffering from indigestion ever since he was born. I have had the best doctors in Nashville, but failed to do him any good. After using one bottle of Kodol he is a well baby. I recommend it to all sufferers. "Kodol digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

Most any girl can make a man fall in love with her; few of them can make him stay there.

Sick Headache.

"For several years my wife was troubled with what physicians called sick headache of a very severe character. She doctored with several eminent physicians and at a great expense, only to grow worse until she was unable to do any kind of work. About a year ago she began taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and today weighs more than she ever did before and is real well," says Mr. Geo. E. Wright of New London, New York. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros., Farmville.

When a man settles down in life it's often because his creditors have made him settle up.

DEWITT IS THE NAME.

When you go to buy Witch Hazel Salve look for the name DeWitt on every box. The pure unadulterated Witch Hazel is used in making DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, which is the best salve in the world for cuts, burns, bruises, boils, eczema and piles. The popularity of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, due to its many cures, has caused numerous worthless counterfeits to be placed on the market. The genuine bears the name of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

Its a race problem all right when the way a man's family grows beats the way his income ought to grow to keep up with it.

EAT ALL YOU WANT.

Persons troubled with indigestion or Dyspepsia can eat all they want if they will take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. This remedy prepares the stomach for the reception, retention, digestion and assimilation of all of the wholesome food that may be eaten, and enable the digestive organs to transform the same into the kind of blood that gives health and strength. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

If beauty were taxable the fair sex would neer dodge the assessor.

POTENT PILL PLEASURE.

The pills that are potent in their action and pleasant in effect are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. W. S. Phipot of Albany, Ga., says "During a bilious attack I took one. Small as it was it did me more good than calomel, blue-mass or any other pills I ever took and at the same time it effected me pleasantly. Little Early Risers are certainly an ideal pill." Sold by J. L. Wooten.

MARVELOUS CURE BY DR. MOORE.

NORTH CAROLINA
Pitt County
To all whom it may concern:
I hereby testify that my wife, Fanny L. Pearce, and my son, John W. Pearce, and Leona Pearce, wife of my son, J. W. Pearce, on or about the first of last March were strangely effected with a malady resembling fits, and when the attacks were on them they would scream and their paroxysms were so violent that they had to be held by main force. I applied to and had the services of five physicians without realizing any benefit whatever. I finally sought the ministrations of Dr. W. H. Moore, colored, and under his treatment my son passed three snakes, two of them were alive and one was dead. My wife passed several bugs with long snouts to them. It gives me pleasure to announce that they are all getting well and the fits have disappeared.

My medicine and treatment are no humbug, but I guarantee a cure in all cases or take no pay. Don't continue to suffer, but try me and be convinced.

I am Cupid's chore-boy,
Season in and out—
Messenger and store-boy,
Page and roustabout.

I compose the golden
Story that he sings;
I repair the olden
Arrows, bows and strings.

When he spies a victim
I direct his feet
Where he may afflict him
With an arrow fleet.

Every precious feather
Has my care, and I
Gauge the wind and weather
Ere he lets them fly.

If an arrow finds a
Target in a heart.
I am called to bind a
Barb upon the dart.

But if Cupid kiss the
Golden tip in vain,
And his arrow miss the
Heart he would have slain.

I must then meander
Round that target-heart,
Wait, and seek and wander—
Till I find the dart.

Sweet Minded Women.

So great is the influence of a sweet-minded woman on those around her that it is almost boundless. It is to her friends come in seasons of sorrow and sickness for help and comfort. One soothing touch of her kindly hands works wonders in the feverish child, a few words let fall from her lips in the ear of a sorrowing sister do much to raise the load of grief that is bowing its victim down to the dust in anguish. The husband comes home worn out with the pressure of business, and feeling irritable with the world in general; but when he enters the cosy sitting-room, and sees the blaze of the bright fire, and meets his wife's smiling face, he succumbs in a moment to the soothing influences, which act as the balm of Gilead to his wounded spirit. We all are wearied with combating the stern realities of life. The rough school boy flies in a rage from the taunts of his companions to find solace in his mother's smile; the little one, full of grief with its own large trouble, finds a haven of rest on its mother's breast; and so one might go on with instances of the influence that a sweet-minded woman has in the social life with which she is connected. Beauty is an insignificant power when compared with her.—Selected.

Woman vs. Man.

As an all-round proposition a woman can discount a man any day. The man knows one thing, maybe, and he sweats over that and tells how hard he works—while a woman from early morn till dewy eve, and if the baby has the colic, until after midnight, does more things than a man could do. Her environment has held her down—but she is learning new tricks right along, and within three hundred years, unless man progresses, he is going to be a back number when compared to the brisk busy, little business woman of today.—Fairbrother's Every-thing.

State Auditor Dixon says that he feels reasonably sure the valuation of all the property in this state will be increased from 15 to 35 per cent., this including the tax on railways. He thinks that the total amount of taxes will be sufficient to meet the state's expenditures and thus relieve the situation which last year and so far this year has been quite a troublesome one. He expects considerable revenue from the whiskey tax under the new law. Of course no one can tell yet what this tax will be, and still less what it will be next year, as so many towns are going dry. Still, there is liability for the tax until the saloons and distilleries are closed.—Raleigh Cor., Charlotte Observer.

It takes two women longer to explain over a telephone why they can't go to lunch together than it does a dozen men to draw up plans to build a railroad.

It takes two women longer to explain over a telephone why they can't go to lunch together than it does a dozen men to draw up plans to build a railroad.

LETTER TO REV. H. M. EURE, Greenville, N. C.

Dear Sir: Three churches in Baldwinsville, N. Y. have had their first lesson in Devoe.

Messrs. Osterhout & Lookwood painted the Presbyterian parsonage; estimated 30 gallons; took 22

Messrs. Slingerland & Shutter painted the Episcopal church; estimated 40 gallons; took 28.

Same painters painted the Catholic church; estimated 50 gallons; took 39.

Of course, they estimated from what they had been using. The saving in paint and work is $4 or $5 a gallon. Total saving on three jobs $125 to $150—the painting costs two or three times as much as the paint, you know.

Yours truly
F. W. DEVOE & Co
P. S.—H. L. Carr sells our paint.

Remember the meeting of subscribers to the stock to establish an independent tobacco factory and put buyers on the market, will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in the court house.

We have not seen a man with an overcoat on today, but there was plenty of ice.

There was more tobacco on the market today than any day since the first of the season.

Mighty young moon, but the street lamps were afraid of it last night.

Miss Lina Sheppard will open her music school on Tuesday, Sept. 1st, at her home in South Greenville.

THE WEATHER.

Generally fair tonight and Saturday. Cooler Saturday in western portion.

The Hamlet Hotel Boycotted. Baltimore, Md., Aug. 27.—A protest and pledge not to ever again patronize the Jameson and Gresham Hotel at Hamlet, has been signed by over three hundred traveling salesmen that travel and go through North Carolina.

Residence Burned.

Kinston, N. C., August 27.—Fire was discovered in Mr. Jesse Fields' house in Vance township, about six miles from Kinston, yesterday morning at 12:15 and in a few minutes the building and nearly everything in it was destroyed. Mr. Fields' daughter discovered the fire from the smoke in her room and gave the alarm. No fire had been in the house since five o'clock the evening before and some suspicion that the fire was the work of an incendiary. The amount of the loss is not known, but it was learned that Mr. Fields had $275 insurance.

RENTSON ITEMS.

RENSTON N. C., Aug. 27, 1903. The farmers are very busy pulling fodder.

I. B. and Richard Oakley, of Tugwell, spent Saturday night and Sunday in the neighborhood.

Jerome McGlohon went over the river Friday, returning Monday.

G. A. Jackson spent Saturday night with his uncle, E. E. Dail.

Pig Forbes was in the neighborhood Tuesday.

R. W. Ward was in the neighborhood Sunday.

Rev. Blanchard preached an interesting sermon at Tucker's school house Sunday afternoon.

Bad Behavior at Church.

Young people who go to church should have a sufficient amount of respect for themselves, if not for others, to refrain from talking and whispering during services. We have heard some complaint along this line regarding a few of our young people and we are fearful that if they continue this kind of misbehavior they will be called down by the preacher. It will, of course be unpleasant for the preacher to do this, and we would advise those who are in the habit of going to church to talk and laugh while the preacher is talking to his congregation to make up their minds to stop it or stay at home.—Louisburg Times.

Louisburg is not the only town in the state where such complaints can be made. There are many others and we are sorry to say that Wilmington is among the number. There may not be such conduct among the young people in all the churches here, but we know it is so as to some of them.

It has not been very long since the pastor of one of our churches referred to the bad behavior in his church and commented severely upon such conduct. It does seem that all well-raised people would behave becomingly in church—if not from a feeling of reverence, then through respect for those who go there to worship. If those people who make a habit of talking and otherwise misbehaving in church knew what the others present thought of them they would surely either stop such conduct or stay away.—Wilmington Messenger.
