SUNDAY MORNING FIRE.

Two Dickinson Avenue Residences Destroyed.

Just before 3 o'clock Sunday morning fire started in the kitchen to the building on Dickinson avenue, occupied by Mr. J. T. Abrams as a boarding house. Mr. Abrams says he was awakened by a noise caused by something falling. His room was full of smoke and looking out he saw the kitchen was on fire. The boarders in the house were awakened and the alarm given.

The fire had made good headway when discovered and burned so rapidly it could not be stopped. There was time to save only a portion of the contents of the lower floor, and everything up stairs was lost. Some of the boarders lost everything they had, only having time to put on a few clothes.

In a short while the flames spread to the residence of Mr. S. B. Wilson, that was only a few feet distant, and that was also destroyed. The crowd that had gathered in the meantime succeeded in getting all the furniture out of this building.

The residence of Capt. C. A. White on one side and of Dr. McG Eruul on the other, narrowly escaped. A wood house on Capt. White's lot was destroyed. Sparks fell on the roof of the old Corey building, further up the avenue, and set it on fire but it was easily put out.

The total loss is about $5,000. Mr. Abrams had $300 insurance on his furniture. The building was owned by the Higgs family and was insured for $1,200. Mr. Wilson had $1,200 insurance on his dwelling but none on furniture.

The Best Fighter.

The home grown, hand-spanked, bare footed, hard fisted country boy makes a better fighter in the battle of life, says an exchange, than the pampered high collared and creased clothes boy who has always been dusted with a whisk broom instead of a sangle. Let the town man out of a job try a year on the farm. Plowing behind a mule will take the kink out of his throat, the gas out of his stomach, the weakness out of his legs, and will give him an appetite, an honest living and a hope of heaven.

Marriage Licenses.

Last week Register of Deeds R. Williams issued licenses to the following couples:

WHITE

James L. Witherington and Stella A. Roach.

COLORED

Ida Moore and Martha Tucker. For the month of August 4 licenses were issued to whites and 9 to colored.

Off to Wed.

Mr. Paul R. Outlaw, associate editor of THE REFLECTOR, left this morning for Moyoek, where Tuesday afternoon he will wed Miss Rudolph Freeman. He will reach Greenville with his bride Thursday and they will reside temporarily at Hotel Macon.

A Good Yield.

Mr. William Moore took 1,700 pounds of seed cotton to Greene & Hooker's gin. This cotton made 612 pounds of lint. Mr. Moore sold the bale for $72.44, and was offered $9 for the seed. This looks like there is money in cotton.

Dwelling Houses Needed.

There is much demand for dwelling houses in Greenville. Almost daily we hear of people wanting houses who are unable to get them. Wherever there is a likelihood that a house will be vacated there are numerous applications for it. The hotels and boarding houses are crowded all the time and people who want to make their home here find it difficult to get a place to stay. This is a condition that ought to be relieved by building more houses. Real estate agent R. Hyman tells us he could get tenants for a large number of houses if they were only available. Scarcity of houses hinders the growth of the town.

Six Lynchers Convicted.

Danville, Ill., Aug. 29.—The jury in the case of the eight men on trial for participation in the riots of July 25, when the jail was attacked and a negro lynched, brought in a verdict at mid-night finding all the accused guilty except Wm. Redwine and Clay Riddles. The latter is only 16 years old. The jury had the case under consideration since noon on Friday.

Laredo Quarantines Against Monterey.

Laredo, Tex., Aug. 29.—The continuous and repeated reports of yellow fever at Monterey, which have caused much uneasiness along the border, were confirmed today, and as a result the Federal and state authorities have established a rigid quarantine. The authorities at Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, also have established a quarantine against infected points.

Died of His Wounds.

Tarboro, N. C. Aug. 31.—Mr. Linwood Darden, the young man who was brought here to the Pittman hospital from Scotland Neck a few days ago, to be operated on for wounds received from the accidental discharge of a gun while hunting, died this morning at 6 o'clock. The remains were taken to Scotland Neck for interment.

MONDAY AFTERNOON, AUGUST 31, 1903.

IS IT THE LARGEST?

Parham & Parham have nearly finished their new tobacco warehouse, all the work being practically finished except painting. This house is 100x300 feet in size, and while they are not making any special boast of this fact, THE REFLECTOR believes it is the largest warehouse for the sale of leaf tobacco in the state.—Greenville REFLECTOR.

If the above measurements are exact the floor space of the Greenville warehouse is AS large as the big Kinston warehouse, Knott's, which is 150 by 200, making 30,000 feet floor space for each. But are the dimensions as given above for the Greenville correct? The Free Press has been privately informed that the measurements are 85 by 290.—Kinston Free Press.

THE REFLECTOR printed the figures as given by Mr. B. E. Parham, one of the proprietors of the house. We accepted his figures as correct without any desire to get "privately informed" if he was telling the truth. But if the Free Press is very anxious about the matter it can come over and measure the house or hire some body to do it "privately." We only asked if this is the largest house, and do not care if some other is an inch or two bigger.

The following is from the Washington Gazette-Messenger:

"Announcement is made in the Greenville REFLECTOR of the approaching marriage of Miss Rudolf Freeman, of Moyock, N. C., to Mr. Paul Repiton Outlaw. Outlaw is associate editor of the Greenville REFLECTOR. And he has made it a good paper. He has said bright things almost daily in his writings and the state press has acknowledged it by copying them and adding comments thereto. The members of this paper do not know Outlaw personally but have only had talks with him. Almost daily the telephone from here to Greenville is called into play and those in this office have learned to like the man who answers in the REFLECTOR office. Well, here's luck in advance to our press brother."

All the world still loves a lover. Allow me to drop the editorial "wc" for this once and thank the Gazette-Messenger, my friends and the state press generally for their kind expressions of esteem which I scarcely deserve. I never knew how many friends I had until I saw my name in print as a prospective Benedict. May they each and every one live forever and go to Heaven when they die. P. R. O.

We noticed in several of our state newspapers yesterday this heading to the news of Tom Johnson's victory in Ohio: "Johnson won out in the primary meeting." Now, what in the world does "won out" mean? Can anybody give a definition? There is no authority for it even in the latest dictionaries; and, as it has a vulgar sound, it must be of the same breed as that awful expression, "happened to an accident," which we have lately had sprung upon us.—Fayetteville Observer.

"Won out" first came into use about 10 years ago when "Chimmie Fadden" was grinding out base ball slang. "Out" means nothing more than "Won." It was simply tacked on for the sake of emphony.

Some scientific chaps up north are lamenting that the inhabitants of this world are of such a low order of intelligence that they cannot answer signals from the planet mars. They claim that the Martians are superior beings, being endowed with attributes higher than the creatures of this poor, benighted world ever dreamed of. This being the case, why haven't the Martians sense enough to know that we can't answer their signals?

That Georgia vagrancy law is a hummer. Under it a presiding elder of the negro Methodist church has been arrested, the officers claiming that he was without means of supports did no work and lived off such hardworking negroes as would allow him to impose on them.

We argue with the News and Observer's opinion that any candidate for office is sadly handicapped by having the support of the New York Sun, but that paper is telling the truth about the Ego in the white house.

Governor Aycock endorses Senator Gorman for the presidency. It is unkind of the governor to sever his former pleasant relations with that ancient institution, the Baltimore Sun.

Sir Thomas Lipton has the satisfaction of knowing that though he could not win the cup, he has won the admiration of men, and women, too, the world over.

The Morning Post sticks to the nowhopeless new capitol project with devotion worthy of a better cause. Why don't you pull for the insane asylum, sir.

Any Southerner might have known that Booker Washington would fall. His white friends have undone him.

It seems a pity to disappoint Admiral Cotten's fleet, but there is nothing in Beirut yet.

The fates in charge of the canal matter seem never to tire of justifying Senator Morgan.

That U. S. vice consul did not kick the bucket but he missed a mighty good opportunity.

What Month Shall it Be.

Married in January's hoar and rime, Widowed you'll be before your prime.

Married in February's sleety weather,

Life you'll tread in tune together. Married when March winds shrill and roar,

Your home will lie on a foreign shore.

Married 'neath April's changeful skies,

A checkered path before you lies.

Married when bees o'er May blossoms flit,

Strangers around your board will sit.

Married in month of roses—June,

Life will be one long honeymoon.

Married in July, with flowers ablaze,

Bitter-sheet memories in after-days.

Married in August's heat and drowse,

Lover and friend in your chosen spouse.

Married in golden September's glow,

Smooth and serene your life will flow.

Married when leaves in October thin,

Toil and hardship for you begin!

Married in veils of November mist,

Dame Fortune your wedding ring has kissed.

Married in days of December's cheer,

Love's star burns brighter from year to year.

Taken With Cramps.

Wm. Kirmse, a member of the bridge gang working near Littleport, was taken suddenly ill Thursday night with cramps and a kind of cholera. His case was so severe that he had to have the members of the crew wait upon him and Mr. Gifford was called and consulted. He told them he had a medicine in the form of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy that he thought would help him out and accordingly several doses were administered with the result that the fellow was able to be around next day. The incident speaks quite highly of Mr. Gifford's medicines.—Elkader, Iowa, Argus.

SAVE THE CHILDREN.

Ninety-nine of every one hundred diseases that children have are due to disorders of the stomach, and these disorders are all caused by indigestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is just as good for children as it is for adults. Children thrive on it. It keeps their little stomachs sweet and encourages their growth and development. Mrs. Henry Carter, 705 Central St. Nashville, Tenn., says: "My little boy is now three years old and has been suffering from indigestion ever since he was born. I have had the best doctors in Nashville, but failed to do him any good. After using one bottle of Kodol he is a well baby. I recommend it to all sufferers. 'Kodol digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet.' Sold by J. L. Wooten.

Doing nothing for others is the undoing of one's self.

Sick Headache.

"For several years my wife was troubled with what physicians called sick headache of a very severe character. She doctored with several eminent physicians and at a great expense, only to grow worse until she was unable to do any kind of work. About a year ago she began taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and today weighs more than she ever did before and is real well," says Mr. Geo. E. Wright of New London, New York. The popularity of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, due to its many cures, has caused numerous worthless counterfeits to be placed on the market. The genuine bears the name of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. POTENT PILL PLEASURE.

The pills that are potent in their action and pleasant in effect are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. W. S. Phipot of Albany, Ga., says "During a bilious attack I took one. Small as it was it did me more good than calomel, blue-mass or any other pills I ever took and at the same time it effected me pleasantly. Little Early Risers are certainly an ideal pill." Sold by J. MARVELOUS CURE BY DR. MOORE.

NORTH CAROLINA }
Pitt County }
To all whom it may concern:
I hereby testify that my wife, Fanny L. Pearce, and my son, John W. Pearce, and Leona Pearce, wife of my son, J. W. Pearce, on or about the first of last March were strangely effected with a malady resembling fits, and when the attacks were on them they would scream and their paroxysms were so violent that they had to be held by main force. I applied to and had the services of five physicians without realizing any benefit whatever. I finally sought the ministrations of Dr. W. H. Moore, colored, and under his treatment my son passed three snakes, two of them were alive and one was dead. My wife passed several bugs with long snouts to them. It gives me pleasure to announce that they are all getting well and the fits have disappeared.

Rheumacide

Continues to make Miraculous Cures
READ THIS LETTER:
ALMOST A MIRACLE.

DILLON, S. C., Aug. 18th, 1902.

Gentlemen:—In September, 1890, I took rheumatism in a very bad form. In a month after the disease started I had to give up my work and go to bed. It continued to grow worse until my arms and hands were badly drawn, so much so that I could not use them. My legs were drawn back until my feet touched my hips. I was as helpless as a baby for nearly twelve months. The muscles of my arms and legs were hard and shrivelled up. I suffered death many times over. Was treated by six different physicians in McColl, Dillon and Marion, but none of them could do me any good, until Dr. J. P. Ewing, of Dillon, came to see me. He told me to try your "RHEUMACIDE." He got me one bottle of the medicine and I began to take it and before the first bottle was used I began to get better. I used five and a half bottles and was completely cured. That was two years ago, and my health has been excellent ever since. Have had no symptoms of rheumatism. I regard "RHEUMACIDE" as by far the best remedy for rheumatism on the market. I cannot say too much for it. I have recommended it to others since and it has cured them.

Will say further, that I began to walk in about six days after I began to take "RHEUMACIDE," with the aid of crutches; in about three months after I began to take it, I could walk as good as anybody, and went back to work again.

Very truly,
JAMES WILKES.

LETTER TO J. A. JOHNSTON.

Greenville, N. C.

Dear Sir: Let's have a little private talk by ourselves on business; nobody else, please, read.

You want to know how to do a cheap job of painting, and have it look good. Here it is: The cheapest thing there is in the way of a good-looking job—say nothing about its being good—is Devco: the regular thing in Devco.

The reason is: Devco goes further than anything else. Lead-and-oil is good looking; don't go so far and costs more. The other paints are more or less short in one way or another don't go so far and costs more than Devco.

Devco costs least of all; you don't mind its lasting longer, do you? We can't help it; a paint that goes further lasts longer; we can't help it.

Would You Live a Century.

Every woman, so the story goes, carries with her signs which to the experienced tell whether she will live long. Here are some of the supposed signs of longevity:

The eyes must be round and wide rather than long and narrow, and if they are brown or hazel life will be longer than if they were black or violet

The neck must be full and pillar-like, rather than slender.

The brow must be ample and slope back slightly from an absolute perpendicular. The head must be wide behind and over the ears.

The mouth must be full and well set, and the chin square and firm.

The nose must be wide and full through its whole length, and have open, easily dilating nostrils. This indicates a good heart and good lungs.

If the orifice of the ear is low, denoting a deeply seated brain, there is a better chance of long life.

The woman who appears taller in proportion when sitting down than when standing has a good chance to live long. If the body is long in proportion to the limbs, the heart, lungs and digestive organs are large.

The pulse should beat with full and normal stroke. Limbs and joints should be large and well formed, the flesh neither too hard nor too soft.

Those who resemble their mothers may expect to live longest, and the first born is longer lived than other children. For example, a sister born ten years before another sister is supposed to have six years' greater duration of life.

United States Warship Needed Within Easy Range.

Washington, Aug. 29.—The state department today received a cablegram from Minister Leishman in which he stated advices from the American consuls at Harpoot and Beirut were to the effect that while the Americans in those places are in danger of suffering from an uprising at any time the situation was not at the time of sending the dispatches as grave as earlier reports would indicate. Mr. Leishman has been instructed to notify the Turkish government that it must keep the peace, and that it will be held to a strict accountability for any lawless acts toward American citizens.

The navy department has received a cablegram from Rear Admiral Cotton saying that the Brooklyn and San Francisco will sail from Genoa for Beirut Sunday. They have been delayed by coaling. The order for them to proceed to Beirut has not been changed.
