MAD WITH LOVE.

Young Man Kills His Sweetheart and Himself.

Richmond, Va., Aug. 31.—Herbert B. Bates, son of assistant city engineer, shot and killed Miss Rena Gentry at the young lady's home in this city this morning, and then killed himself. Bates was madly in love with the young woman, and it is believed that it was because of her refusal of his proposal of marriage that the tragedy resulted. Bates accompanied Miss Gentry and a lady friend to church last evening returning apparently in the best of spirits. He left his home, a short distance from that of Miss Gentry at 7 o'clock this morning and went down town, secured a pistol and came back to the home of his sweetheart. He was ushered into the parlor and at 8:15 o'clock two shots were heard. Members of the family rushed to the rooms, the place being filled with smoke. Miss Gentry was found dead, the bullet having entered the right temple and Bates was in the throes of death. He lived three minutes. Miss Gentry was a music teacher and very pretty and popular. Bates was note clerk in the First National Bank and was an exemplary man in every respect.

Died From Mosquito Bite.

Durham, N. C. August 31.—William Strayhorn, a young white man, died at his home a few miles from this city Saturday night, his death being caused by blood poison brought on by the bite of a mosquito. It was two weeks ago Saturday that the insect bit Mr. Strayhorn on the little finger. In a short while the finger inflamed and blood poison developed. Physicians decided to amputate his arm but in the meantime his condition became such that they were afraid to attempt the operation. He lingered until Saturday night and died in agony.

Brutal Assault.

Asheville, N. C., Aug. 31.—A rape case under circumstances of peculiar brutality was reported this afternoon from the northern part of Buncombe county. Mr. and Mrs. James Lee Williams went a short distance from their home, and during their absence John Chandley, a young painter, attempted to criminally assault their 6-year-old daughter. Two men happened to be near and attracted by the child's cries took Chandley into custody. He was later brought here and committed to jail without bail to await the next term of court.

Mayor's Court.

Mayor H. W. Whedbee has disposed of the following cases since last report:
Sarah Spruill, riotous and disorderly conduct and assault fined $5 and costs, $8.50.
Dick Teel, using vulgar and profane language, fined $1 and costs, $5.15.
Frank Cox, drunk and down fined $1 and costs, $3.20.
L. H. Womack, drunk, fined $1 and costs, $3.20.

Cart Load of Hams.

Mr. I. H. Little, of Carolina township, today sent a cart load of hams to town. There were 60 hams in the load, the average weight being 10 pounds. He sold the entire lot at 17 1/2 cents a pound, getting $105 for the load. This is a kind of farming worth talking about. Mr. Little is one of the most substantial farmers in the county.

CENTRE BRICK.

The New Warehouse Begins Business.

The new Centre Brick warehouse, just built by Brinkley & Hooker, had its opening sale today with something near 50,000 pounds to offer.

This warehouse, which is the only one here built of bricks is 128 by 210 feet in size and one of the best in the state. The working force is made up as follows:

Brinkley & Hooker, proprietors.
W. T. Burton, auctioneer.
W. N. Pugh, bookkeeper.
W. L. Hall and R. C. Cox assistant bookkeepers
W. H. Hackney, floor manager.

An Old Time Sunday Law.

Esquire C. L. Hunter has found an interesting document among the old court house papers, and gives it to The Observer for the benefit of its readers. It is a license for the running of an ordinary or inn, and is as follows:

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

Know all men by these presents. That we, Abraham Roach and Edward Waive, are held and firmly bound unto the chairman of Mecklenburg court, in the sum of one hundred pounds, current money, to be paid to the said chairman for the time being. To the which payment well and truly to be made, we bind, ourselves, our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this twenty-ninth day of January, Anno Domini 1795.

The condition of the above obligation is such. That whereas the above bound Abraham Roach hath obtained a license to keep an ordinary at Charlotte, in the county of Mecklenburg, if therefore the said Abraham Roach doth countfully find and provide in said ordinary, good, wholesome and cleanly lodging and diet for travelers, and stabling, fodder, hay, corn, oats, or pasturage as the season shall require for their horses, for and during the term of one year, or to the court of said county next succeeding, from the twenty-ninth day of January, 1795, and shall not foffer or permit, any unlawful gaming in house, nor on the Sabbath day fudder any perform to tittle or drink any more than is necessary, then this obligation to be void otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.

Signed, sealed and delivered in the presence of Isaac Alexander.

ABRAHAM ROACH,
EDW. WAINE.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, SEPTEMBER 1, 1903.

A man in Alexander county has sued a neighbor because his little daughter was bitten by the neighbor's dog. That is an unusual case and the result will be watched with interest. It does look, however, if the owner of a vicious dog allows the cur to go unmuzzled he ought to be responsible for any damage the dog does.

Only four of the Southern states now hold state fairs, these being Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Texas.—F. A. Olds in Charlotte Observer.

Possibly the others learned to bury a thing when it was dead. Some of the fairs at Raleigh of late years, so far as their credit to the state goes, had better been left unheld.

The suggestion for a race with a change of crews of the contesting yachts is a good one. Its dollars to doughnuts the Shamrock would win. Fact is we believe it is the skill of the American sailor over the Briton more than superiority in construction of the yachts.

The Mecklenburg negro outlaw, Will Harris, is bobbing up at as many places as a cork. Every strange negro appearing in any town up that way is regarded as Harris, and straightway there is some telegraphing to Charlotte officials.

A colored woman was tried at Greensboro for the murder of her husband, was convicted and got a sentence of thirty years in the penitentiary. That is the kind of sentence some men ought to be getting. Charlotte, Raleigh and Wilson should look to Greensboro.

It is all right—that the Turk did not kill our Vice Consul, but all the same some other countries have been given an idea what Uncle Sam would have done if he had been killed.

Never throw an empty bottle at an umpire.—Atlanta Journal.

Throwing empty bottles is dangerous, for a fact. We saw a wag throw one at a picador in a bull fight once, and he got in jail in short order.

No, sir, you just can't leave Charlotte. The latest in that wide awake town is a 10-year-old boy who stole $134. Unlike Dewey, the New Bern thief, the boy got caught.

Not everyone can tell the difference between a five and ten cent cigar, or two plugs of tobacco, but everybody knows how to put the trust out of business.

It seems that feminine human is the same as in the ages past. Now we hear of a woman who could not make up her mind whether to stay dead or not.

It is not always the safest thing to insult a woman with an umbrella as the soft headed Raleigh student found out.

The unspeakable Turk is demanding his share of public attention just now.

Polonium is worth $2,000,000 per pound. We are just out of it. Isn't there something else?

Gambling in Futures.

In his charge to the grand jury at Guilford Superior Court this week Judge Geo. H. Brown, according to the report of the Greensboro papers, said that "dealing in futures, where the commodity is not purchased outright, is as much a crime as shooting craps or playing poker, and it is equally as demoralizing to bet on the rise or fall of cotton, stocks or bonds, as upon the color of a card on the strength of a hand." This, we are told, created somewhat of a sensation in Greensboro, as there are licensed bucket shops doing business there. The state revenue act, section 59, page 16, provides for licensing dealers in "futures," or "bucket shops." The tax is $100 in towns of less than 5,000 and runs up to $300 in towns that have more than 15,000 people. But the acts of the Legislature of 1889, we believe it is, makes such transactions gambling, and three Superior Court judges have recently charged grand juries at length in regard to violations of this act.

These things suggest several inquiries. One is why the state licenses a business which it says is a criminal offence to engage in. Another is why the Superior Court judges have only recently become so much concerned about the enforcement of this law. But if it is the law it ought to be enforced and the judges should exert themselves to see that it is. It may be that if one was empowered to send for persons and papers and make due examination under oath that some of the Superior Court judges might be found liable to indictment for engaging in some form of gambling, but even if this is true the judges should see that the law is enforced.—Statesville Landmark.

The Road to Success.

In these days of "make haste to get rich" the methods of doing this are not often considered. A man with a big bank account is not in the habit of worrying over how he got it, and the world is very indulgent. Just so the man is rich it frequently closes one eye and sometimes shuts both as to his methods.

"How to succeed?" is a question which many ask and which many attempt to answer. But if the answers don't suit them the man who wants to succeed goes ahead on his own plan or drops out of the race. Success is too often measured in money, for there are many successes in life which are worth far more than the gold of Midas.

One man who made money was Anselm Rothschild and if one follows out the maxims he gave then these are certain to act on character, and if character and wealth go hand in hand one can reasonably say that he has succeeded.

The twelve maxims of Rothschild are worth preservation and study. To their observance he attributed much of his success in life. In his will he stated these as follows:

1. Seriously ponder over and thoroughly examine any project to which you intend to give your attention.
2. Reflect a long time and then decide promptly.
3. Go ahead.
4. Endure annoyances patiently and fight bravely against obstacles.
5. Consider honor as a sacred duty.
6. Never lie about a business affair.
7. Pay your debts promptly.
8. Learn how to sacrifice money when necessary.
9. Do not trust too much with luck.
10. Spend your time profitably.
11. Do not pretend to be more important than you really are.
12. Never become discouraged, work zealously and you will surely succeed.—Raleigh News and Observer.

Taken With Cramps.

Wm. Kirmse, a member of the bridge gang working near Littleport, was taken suddenly ill Thursday night with cramps and a kind of cholera. His case was so severe that he had to have the members of the crew wait upon him and Mr. Gifford was called and consulted. He told them he had a medicine in the form of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy that he thought would help him out and accordingly several doses were administered with the result that the fellow was able to be around next day. The incident speaks quite highly of Mr. Gifford's medicines.—Elkader, Iowa, Argus.

THE GENUINE VS. COUNTERFEITS.

The genuine is always better than a counterfeit, but the truth of this statement is never more forcibly realized or more thoroughly appreciated than when you compare the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve with the many counterfeits and worthless substitutes that are on the market. W. S. Ledbetter, of Shreveport, La., says: "After using numerous other remedies without benefit, one box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me." For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles no remedy is equal to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

These famous little pills cleanse the liver and rid the system of all bile without producing unpleasant effects. They do not gripe, sicken or weaken, but give tone and strength to the tissues and organs involved. W. H. Howell of Houston, Tex. says "No better pill can be used than Little Early Risers for constipation, sick headache etc." Sold by John L. Wooten.

MARVELOUS CURE BY DR. MOORE.

NORTH CAROLINA }
Pitt County }
To all whom it may concern:
I hereby testify that my wife, Fanny L. Pearce, and my son, John W. Pearce, and Leona Pearce, wife of my son, J. W. Pearce, on or about the first of last March were strangely affected with a malady resembling fits, and when the attacks were on them they would scream and their paroxysms were so violent that they had to be held by main force. I applied to and had the services of five physicians without realizing any benefit whatever. I finally sought the ministrations of Dr. W. H. Moore, colored, and under his treatment my son passed three snakes, two of them were alive and one was dead. My wife passed several bugs with long snouts to them. It gives me pleasure to announce that they are all getting well and the fits have disappeared.

A Costly Race

The bills which Sir Thomas Lipton has doubtless paid by this time on account of his latest effort to lift the America's cup foot up to an enormous total. Each of his former races has cost him half a million dollars but this one will leave him nearly three quarters of a million dollars poorer.

It is no light matter to build a racing yacht and man and equip it in the most approved fashion. The mere construction of Shamrock III, before she was fitted with sails or any other equipment; cost $200,000. The sails alone cost $100,000 and the rigging and spars nearly $150,000.

Sir Thomas' expenses on account of the race, according to an accurate estimate, were as follows:

Building Shamrock III	$200,000
Five suits of sails at $20,000 a suit	$100,000
Spars, rigging and minor expenses	150,900
Wages for six months of officers and crew on the two Shamrocks, the Erin and auxiliary boats	50,400
Fitting Shamrock II astral horse	50,000
Maintenance of crew	18,000
Dry dock charges, etc	15,000
Tug Cruiser bought to act as tender	75,000
Barge and houseboat on which guest of Sir Thomas are entertained	20,000
Miscellaneous expenses, entertainment, etc.	32,000
Total	$710,400

Consumption Cured by Excitement Over the Killing of a Deer.

The cure of Miss Grace Merritt, daughter of Charles Merritt, of this city, who was afflicted with consumption is the most remarkable on record. Miss Merritt's brother died of consumption. She became ill of the same disease and was advised to go to the Adirondacks and live in the open air. She did so, but the improvement, if any, was so slight that she became discouraged, and so despondent and downhearted that her physician was in despair.

One day she was induced to go out with a hunting party. While on this trip she shot and killed a deer. Her joy was intense and for weeks she was in a high state of excitement. She sent the carcass of the deer home to be sold for the benefit of her church. An entire change came over her. She became happy and hopeful, and her recovery, though slow, was certain.

Today Mr. Merritt received word from her doctor that she was entirely cured.

He said her cure was really due to the joy and excitement and healthy stimulus caused by her killing the deer last autumn. Her lungs began to heal immediately. As an evidence of her returned health and strength, he said, she had just returned from a tramp of 118 miles with a party through the Adirondacks, during which she slept out of doors under her canoe at night without the slightest symptom of exhaustion.—Kingston, N. Y., Dispatch.

Sworn and subscribed to before this 26 day of August, 1903, E. J. Brooks, Mayor of Grifton.

GRIMESLAND ITEMS.

Grimesland, N. C., Aug. 31, 1903.

We read with great interest the communication in Friday's REFLECTOR by Farmville correspondent in regard to bond election to build the railroad. We had proposed to write something along this line, but the communication referred to above so completely covers the ground of argument, that we will only say that if a good and sufficient guarantee reaches this place before September 22nd then we will vote for bonds, and if the guarantee is not forthcoming the bond proposition will be defeated.

The protracted meeting in the Disciple church continued through last week with services every night except Saturday night.

Rev. Mr. Tingle returned to his home in Ayden Saturday and returned to this place yesterday to hold services at 11 o'clock a. m. and 7 o'clock p. m.

Rev. Mr. Powell and family went back to Greenville Saturday morning. Mr. Powell preached every night while he was here. He and his excellent wife charmed our people and we must say that all were benefitted by their visit and work here. Mr. Powell will return this week and further protract the meeting.

Mrs. T. R. Moore, of Greenville, came in this morning to visit her sister, Mrs. W. M. Moore.

Miss Lizzina Moore is on the sick list today. She intended to go to Raleigh today to attend the Baptist Female University. She will go in a day or two, or as soon as she is well enough.

Mrs. W. E. Tucker spent last week with her sister, Mrs. W. S. Galloway.

Miss Lavina Ward returned home yesterday after a few days visit to her sister, Mrs. C. M. Jones.

Mr. Wooten was here today soliciting subscriptions to the antitrust tobacco company of Greenville. He had a long list of subscribers and seemed to have no trouble in getting subscriptions. He is an active capable man and will succeed in doing his share of work. He went from this place to Black Jack community and we are sure he will make good report at next meeting.

Montana has produced this year 37,500,000 pounds of wool valued at 16 cents a pound, the whole worth $6,000,000. The sheep from which this wool was clipped would produce $250,000,000 worth of mutton. Yet there are many people who would rather raise dogs than sheep.—Durham Sun.
