AFTER THE PRESIDENT.

Crazy Man With Pistol Arrested.

Oyster Bay, Sept. 2.—A man giving his name as Frank Weilbrenner, was arrested at Sagamore Hill last night, while making a persistent demand to see President Roosevelt. The man was armed with a revolver fully loaded. He was taken to the village and placed in prison. Shortly after 10 o'clock last night Weilbrenner drove to Sagamore Hill in a buggy. He was stopped by the secret service officer on duty. Weilbrenner said he had a personal engagement with the president and desired to see him. As it was long after the hours when visitors were received the officer declined to permit him to go to the house. The man insisted and the officer turned him away. Soon afterwards Weilbrenner returned and again insisted that he be allowed to see the president, if only for a minute. This time he was ordered away and not to return. Just before 11 o'clock he returned a third time and demanded that he should be permitted to see the president at once. The officer's response was to take the man from the buggy and put him in the stables, where he was placed under guard. A revolver was found in the buggy. Weilbrenner was arraigned today before Justice Franklin on complaint of the secret service officer who placed him under arrest. Justice Franklin questioned the prisoner about his movements last night. His replies were made in a quiet tone of voice, but they indicated apparently beyond a doubt that the man is crazy. It is the opinion among the secret service men here that he had resolved to kill the president, and that his capture was most fortunate.

The Way to Unload.

Washington, D. C. Sept. 2.—Rev. H. L. Atkinson, D. D., pastor of Park street church, Geneva, Ohio, has a solution for the difficulty of governing the Phillippines. In a letter to President Roosevelt at Oyster Bay, which was referred to the war department for consideration, he suggests that the United States dispose of the Phillippine islands to Japan. He thinks that in consideration of this Japan should build an Isthmian canal for this country.

Killed With A Stick.

Washington, N. C. Sept. 3.—Between 4 and 5 o'clock this morning at the camp of the Greenleaf Johnson Lumber Co., near Minneola, Tom Keel knocked Will Fleming in the head with a stick. Both parties are colored. Fleming lived about 2 hours after being struck. Keel fled but was captured at Wharton and brought here to jail.

Train Jumped Track.

New Berns, N. C. Sept. 2.—The A. & N. C. shoofly train this morning jumped the track 4 miles from Havelock. Engineer Duncan reversed his engine and applied breaks, but by this time the train had torn up the track for several hundred yards. No one was hurt and no serious damage resulted to the coaches.

Killed by Explosion.

Greensboro, N. C., Sept. 2.—While engaged in tamping at the city rock quarry this afternoon, William Hamlin, colored, was killed by an explosion of dynamite. His head was blown off and his body mangled. Others standing near were uninjured.

PITT COUNTY SCHOOLS.

Teachers at Farmville, Bethel and Ayden.

The schools at Farmville, Ayden and Bethel seem to be getting in good shape for their opening and for work. The school at Bethel will open next Monday, Ayden on the first day of October, and Farmville on the first Monday in October.

All the schools have elected their teachers. Each one will have five. They are as follows:

Farmville—Superintendent, W. P. Cameron. Misses Mattie Moore, Annie Perkins, Ada Tyson. Music, Mrs. Smith.

Bethel—Superintendent, J. D. Everett. Misses Maggie Nelson, Mattie Grimes, Louie Creef. Music, Miss Lillah Davis Maun.

Ayden—Superintendent, T. H. King. Misses Ida Edwards, Mary Hodges, Georgia Joyner. Music, Miss Myrtie Moon.

We know a number of these teachers and they are all up to date in their work. Those we do not know, we are informed are highly recommended. We are sure that these schools mean a great deal for the towns in which they are located and for the surrounding communities.

PACTOLUS ITEMS.

PACTOLUS, N. C., Sept. 3, 1903.

Fodder pulling is now the general order.

We welcome the showers and cooler weather.

J. J. Satterthwaite went to Greenville Tuesday.

Well August is gone, now grow fat on taters and possum.

C. E. Bradley is looking forward for some 12 cent cotton, he has some pickers in the field.

T. R. Hodges from Beaufort county dropped in to see us awhile passing through town Tuesday.

Watermelons seem to all be off on vacation now, haven't seen one in town for several days.

Town commissioners were in regular session Thursday. One applicant presented his paper for liquor license, but the board refused to order any issued.

Heavy rain Tuesday evening, right much fodder was down and damaged some, good many farmers are about through pulling, while others have but commenced.

We here right much shooting going on in the near by woods. Some may be ignorant of any such law prohibiting their hunting on others land, while some do not care and disregard law. If some one will take the matter before some of our Justices of the Peace the violaters will be taught his first lesson. We have no use for laws without some enforcement of them.

C. E. Bradley & Co., have few more fruit jars and rubbers left. Do not wait long to round up your supply, if so they might be all sold.

Everything is going up but the REFLECTOR, the paper is up $100, its true, but we are holding the price down until you can get in on the new list. C. E. Bradley has it.

State Will Not Lease.

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 2.—The Atlantic & North Carolina railroad will not be leased but will remain under the control of the state. This was the decision reached yesterday afternoon during the joint meeting of the council of state and the directors on the part of the state.

Attend the lawn party from 7:30 to 11 tomorrow night at the home of Mrs. H. A. White.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, SEPTEMBER 3, 1903.

For some days past a bitter controversy has been waged in Reidsville over the question of establishing a dispensary there. The two papers of the town took opposite sides and stirred the matter from start to finish. The election was held Tuesday and the dispensary was defeated by eleven majority. That is bad for Reidsville. There is charge of irregularities and illegal voting in the election and the matter may not yet be settled. Several arrests were made on election day.

It is a hard lesson to learn and looks like the task had as well be given up as a hopeless one. However, will state the fact once more, that newspapers do not publish communications unless the editor knows who writes them. Simply signing "please publish" it not sufficient.

The Gastonia Gazette tells of a cow that got her tail wrapped around a tree and pulled two feet of the tail off in trying to free herself. Not everybody beside Marshall could tell a "tail" like that and see it pass muster, but we are always ready to vouch for him.

Near Winston a freight train broke in two while going up a grade. The detached cars run back down the grade and crashed into a passenger train that was following a few miles behind. The engineer of the passenger train was killed.

At Charlotte a white man has been sent to jail for drunkenness and failing to provide for his family. Oh, if that kind of justice would only become catching and spread all over the state.

New Bern is reaching out for something else on a big scale. The report comes of the organization of a half million dollar lumber company with headquarters in that city. The organizers are Ohio men.

At Asheboro Mrs. Nora Curtis was driving across the railroad track when a passing train struck the buggy and killed her. The horse was not hurt.

Uncle Sam's war with Turkey was of short duration and without blood shed. But the turkey's feathers were about to turn pale.

Charlotte has picked up another dead negro. Keep that kind of find up long enough and there will not be many left up that way.

It is almost time for Teddy and Booker to break out with a new sensation.

Why can't the old hulks of our battleships be sent to the St. Louis exposition as examples of destruction our officers and men of the navy can work when they feel like it?—Atlanta Journal.

We hope the farmers will get out of their present predicament somehow but it is too much to hope that it will prove a lesson to them.—Durham Herald.

A Patent Court.

Among the most important matters considered at the recent meeting of the American Bar association was the report of the committee on patent trade mark and copyright law, recommending the establishment by congress of a court of patent appeals for the determination of patent, trade mark, and copyright cases.

The suggestion strikes us favorably. The volume of cases bearing on patent and copyright matters is increasing with great rapidity, and form a separate branch of legal procedure. A large number of attorneys confine themselves exclusively to patent and copyright business. The regular federal courts are overburdened with such work, and furthermore, the knowledge required for the proper adjudication of patent cases is so technical that a special court, it seems to us, would be better capable of passing on these questions.

Frequently the point at issue is a comparison between two very complicated contrivances, which no one but a specially trained engineer or mechanic is able to thoroughly comprehend. The patent lawyer is a specialist in such matters; it seems to us that the judge also ought to be a specialist.—Atlanta Journal.

Did it ever occur to you how much some people are affected by the affairs of life, especially money matters? It is said that "when you touch a man's pocketbook you touch his heart." The other day we saw a man drop a nickle on the floor in the waiting room at the depot. Immediately there began an interesting search for the coin in which several men joined—men who, evidently, were well off in this world's goods. Still they looked long and earnestly for that poor little nickle, while the perspiration just rolled down their faces, it being one of those melting days. Finally the man who lost the coin gave it up and left the scene. Two or three others, however, continued the search, and so absorbed did they become that their trains were forgotten and when they saw she iron monsters steam away toward South Rocky Mount, they too, gave up the money as lost, and went out and paid a hackman 75 cents to take them to South Rocky Mount so that they might catch their trains, which remained at that station twenty minutes for dinner. The men not only figured themselves out 75 cents, but missed their dinners.—Rocky Mount Motor.

Recently a little girl in this city, whose parents are Christian Scientists became ill and died without the attention of a physician. Her ailment was such as ordinarily yields readily to medical treatment, and, but for the strange belief of her parents, the little one would doubtless be alive today. This is not the first life that has been sacrificed to strange and unnatural doctrines, but it does seem strange that such a thing should be permitted in a Christian civilized community. It is bad enough for an adult to refuse to avail himself of the remedies provided by the medical world for the treatment of disease, but to cause a little child to become a victim of such a hallucination can be nothing short of criminal. It is in the eyes of the law, for the state has deemed it wise to protect minors in such matters.—Charlotte Chronicle.

If the trust should now raise the price of tobacco it would put a number of politicians out of business.—Durham Herald.

In Praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"Allow me to give you a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mr. John Hamlett, of Eagle Pass, Texas. "I suffered one week with bowel trouble and took all kinds of medicine without getting any relief, when my friend, Mr. C. Johnson, a merchant here, advised me to take this remedy. After taking one dose I felt greatly relieved and when I had taken the third dose was entirely cured. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for putting this great remedy in the hands of mankind." For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; R. L. Davis, & Bros., Farmville.

Save your pennies and the stock market will take care of all your pounds.

THE GENUINE VS. COUNTERFEITS.

The genuine is always better than a counterfeit, but the truth of this statement is never more forcibly realized or more thoroughly appreciated than when you compare the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve with the many counterfeits and worthless substitutes that are on the market. W. S. Ledbetter, of Shreveport, La., says: "After using numerous other remedies without benefit, one box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me." For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles no remedy is equal to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

Emergency Medicines.

It is a great convenience to have at hand reliable remedies for use in cases of accident and for slight injuries and ailments. A good liniment and one that is fast becoming a favorite if not a household necessity is Chamberlain's Pain Balm. By applying it promptly to a cut, bruise or burn it allays the pain and causes the injury to heal in about one-third the time usually required, and as it is an antiseptic it prevents any danger of blood poisoning. When Pain Balm is kept at hand a sprain may be treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a quick recovery. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; R. L. Davis & Bros., Farmville.

THE PLEASURE OF EATING.

Persons suffering from indigestion, dyspepsia or other stomach trouble will find that Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. This remedy is a never failing cure for Indigestion and Dyspepsia and all complaints affecting the glands or membranes of the stomach or digestive tract. When you take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure everything you eat tastes good, and every bit of the nutriment that your food contains is assimilated and appropriated by the blood and tissues. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

A PURGATIVE PLEASURE.

If you ever took DeWitt's Little Early Risers for biliousness or constipation you know what a purgative pleasure is. These famous little pills cleanse the liver and rid the system of all bile without producing unpleasant effects. They do not gripe, sicken or weaken, but give tone and strength to the tissues and organs involved. W. H. Howell of Houston, Tex. says "No better pill can be used than Little Early Risers for constipation, sick headache etc." Sold by John L. Wooten.

DISTRESS AFTER EATING CURED.

Judge W. T. Holland of Greensburg, La., who is well and favorably known, says: "Two years ago I suffered greatly from indigestion. After eating, great distress would invariably result, I sting for an hour or so and my nights were restless. I concluded to try Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and it cured me entirely. Now my sleep is refreshing and digestion perfect." Sold by John L. Wooten.

Weak Hearts

Are due to indigestion. Ninety-nine of every one hundred people who have heart trouble can remember when it was simple indigestion. It is a scientific fact that all cases of heart disease, not organic, are not only traceable to, but are the direct result of indigestion. All food taken into the stomach which fails of perfect digestion ferments and swells the stomach, puffing it up against the heart. This interferes with the action of the heart, and in the course of time that delicate but vital organ becomes diseased.

Kodol

Digests What You Eat

Mrs. Loring Nichols of Penn Yan, N. Y., writes: "After eating, my food would distress me by making my heart palpitate and I would become very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. After using a few bottles I am cured."

Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders, and gives the heart a full, free and untrammelled action.

MARVELOUS CURE BY DR. MOORE.

NORTH CAROLINA } Pitt County } To all whom it may concern:

I hereby testify that my wife, Fanny L. Pearce, and my son, John W. Pearce, and Leona Pearce, wife of my son, J. W. Pearce, on or about the first of last March were strangely affected with a malady resembling fits, and when the attacks were on them they would scream and their paroxysms were so violent that they had to be held by main force. I applied to and had the services of five physicians without realizing any benefit whatever. I finally sought the ministrations of Dr. W. H. Moore, colored, and under his treatment my son passed three snakes, two of them were alive and one was dead. My wife passed several bugs with long snouts to them. It gives me pleasure to announce that they are all getting well and the fits have disappeared. J. W. PEARCE.

sworn to before me, Aug. 19th 1903. H. HARDING, J. P.

The above parties are all white people of good family and well known. I also have other affidavits in my possession showing wonderful cures under my treatment. I cure all troubles that flesh is heir to. I have made the blind see, the deaf hear and the lame walk, as people living here in Greenville and in the county will testify. My medicine and treatment are no humbug, but I guarantee a cure in all cases or take no pay. Don't continue to suffer, but try me and be convinced. WM. H. MOORE, M. D. Greenville, N. C. P. O. Good Order.

The good order during the recent term of court, when there was an unusually large number of people in town, and on last Saturday, when there was the largest crowd in Statesville for years, was noticeable. The police made no arrests on the occasions mentioned and the unusual good behavior is attributed to the fact that there are no longer open saloons in Statesville. There is no doubt that the lack of drunkenness on the occasions mentioned was largely due to this fact, although it is proper to say that Statesville has been noted for order for years. But whatever may be one's opinion about the sale of liquor on ordinary occasions, experience and observation has shown that it is best that it should not be sold on holidays or on occasions of great public gatherings.—Statesville Landmark.

The Sign of Returning Business.

Nothing is more significant at this season of the year, than the general increase of advertising in periodicals of all kinds, but more especially in the newspapers.

The season of the "dodger" and the dead wall "poster" have passed, for now these cheap make shifts possess no attractions for even the moderate advertiser, who during the summer months imagines that his "dodgers" flying along the sidewalks and in the gutters, are advertising his goods, —he must now give it up, for no fancy and see good advertising in the "dodger" which is now being blown alone the public highways by the September winds.

Nor is the dead wall any longer attractive, for the people, the few who usually lounge during the summer months, and fix their lazy attention upon dead wall advertisements, must now be otherwise occupied.

But it is the newspaper, with its new advertising business, and its old regular advertisers with their larger and greater display of "new goods," which best indicates the sign of better and greater business conditions.

The season of business is now upon the country, vacation time is past, and the hustling season is here.

The newspaper proves this first, and people accept the sign and join the procession which now eagerly seeks trade.—New Bern Journal.

Mrs. William Fountain Dead.

Mrs. Sallie Nora Fountain, wife of Dr. William Fountain, died early Wednesday night at their home in South Greenville. She had been sick about two months, and for some days past hope of her recovery had been abandoned.

Mrs. Fountain was a Miss Peacock and before marriage her home was in Elm City. She was married to Dr. Fountain a little more than 18 months ago, and they moved to Greenville in January last. Though her stay in this town was short she had made many friends, her lovely character winning all to her. She was just 21 years of age and her death is very sad. The heart-broken husband has the sympathy of every one in the great sorrow that has come upon him.

The remains were taken by train today to Elm City.
