SEVEN PERISH ON ILL-FATED SOUTHERN.

Charlotte, N. C., Sept. 3.—West bound train No. 15 on the 3 C's branch of the Southern railway fell through the trestle over Fishing creek, 3 miles east of Forkville, at noon today. Seven persons were killed, five or six fatally and about twenty more or less severely injured. The train was approaching the trestle at a slow rate of speed and when near the middle the structure gave way, precipitating the engine and three cars into the creek 45 feet below. There were 35 passengers on the train, half of them negroes. The engineer, fireman, postal clerk and two negroes were killed outright and their bodies are still under the wreck.

$200 FOR THREE YEARS IN THE PEN

At today's meeting of the directors of the state penitentiary here, a remarkable incident came to light. It was found that during the fusion administration of the state, a negro, Henry Allen from Halifax county, was sentenced to the penitentiary for two years. He escaped, but was recaptured. In some way there was an error made as to the length of his term, and he was kept three years over the length of his sentence. He died recently, and his administrator, a prominent white man, asked that payment be made for this overtime. Today the directors allowed $200, which was satisfactory. The error as to the prisoner's being kept in confinement was due entirely to the old board of directors, and not to the present one. It was the only error of the kind ever made in the state.—Raleigh cor. Charlotte Observer.

JIM JEFFRIES WILL FIGHT JACK MUNROE

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 3.—The news comes from Los Angeles that Champion Jim Jeffries has made a match with Jack Munroe, of Butte, for Oct. 16th at Los Angeles. The fight will be twenty rounds and Jeffries agrees to give the entire proceeds to Munroe if he does not knock the Butte man out.

The directors of the penitentiary, at their session today found that they have to their credit about $40,000; that the crops on the state farm, on the Roanoke river, were never better, and that experts say the cotton there is the best they have ever seen. They expect to have $80,000 to their credit, and Director Hackett thinks the amount may reach $100,000. He says the state farm is one of the best pieces of property it owns. There are 1,400 acres in cotton. Forty acres of land were today ordered purchased on the line of the Raleigh & Cape Fear Railway, in order to obtain brick clay. It is found that brick making with machinery is very profitable. An order was given for the building of some large houses for drying brick, so that the work can go on both winter and summer.—Raleigh cor. Charlotte Observer.

Market Doing Better

Tobacco row took on a business look today. The warehouses had large sales and prices were a little improved. Prices are not yet what they ought to be, but we hope the better feeling will continue to improve.

THE TOWN PAYS FOR THIS LIQUOR?

At the meeting of the board of aldermen Thursday night a bill was presented for one gallon of whiskey bought for the fire department. It is presumed that the liquor was used to "temper up" some of the firemen after fighting the Dickinson avenue fire Sunday morning. If this is correct, then the further presumption is that the liquor was bought on Sunday. Then the question naturally arise, did the purchaser of the liquor have a doctor's prescription saying the liquor was necessary? And who sold that whiskey on Sunday? It looks like a little investigation is in order here.

ROOSEVELT'S ENEMY IN INSANE ASYLUM

Minneola, L. I., Sept. 3.—Henry Weibrenner, who was arrested on Tuesday night on Sagamore Hill while seeking an interview with President Roosevelt and who had a loaded revolver, passed last night in a cell in the Nassau county jail. This morning he was brought before the county judge and formally committed to the state asylum at King's Park. The proceedings were very brief.

THE ALDERMEN.

Not Much Doing at Last Meeting. The board of aldermen met in regular monthly session Thursday night, but outside of the regular routine of business such as hearing reports of the officers and the standing committees, there was not much doing.

The street committee was authorized to employ counsel and proceed to the condemnation of property on Dickinson avenue so as to improve and straighten the street and make it a proper width.

The sale of fresh meats at places other than in the market house will be permitted, but the seller will have to make petition to the board for approval of location and pay a license.

A proposition was made verbally to the board relative to running a pipe along the principal street to supply water to individuals for the purpose of sprinkling in front of their places, and also for use in case of fire. As the proposition was not in writing the board did not consider it.

MORE POSTAL MANIPULATIONS

Washington, D. C., Sept. 3.—It seems probable that the controversy growing out of the dismissal of Miss Hulda Todd, postmaster at Greenwood, Sussex county, Del., will increase in bitterness and cause some embarrassment to the administration. Postmaster General Payne has been quoted as saying that no charges had been made against Miss Todd, that there was nothing against her so far as he knew, but that she was "politically and personally objectionable" to Senator Allee. In plain English Miss Todd was dismissed because Senator Allee wanted to put a constituent of his own in the place. Greenwood is in the section assigned to Senator Allee and as he wanted some one else in the office Miss Todd was dismissed.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, SEPTEMBER 4, 1903.

TAXATION WILL BE AN ISSUE

We are not the scribe to teach Editor Furman political and social economy, but knowing him as a man of astuteness and political sagacity, we hoped he would get a true line on our position regarding a new or enlarged state capitol. The Post ought to know that THE REFLECTOR does not oppose the capitol proposition, and THE REFLECTOR does know that the Post has championed well and faithfully the cause of the insane. The Post has not only "pulled" for the best interests of the state, but has even gone behind and pushed the car of progress. But the new capitol is not a proper question to bring up at this time. We have too many other needs pressing us more closely. The schools are not what they should be. There is where improvement will do us greater credit than a costly new temple in which to pass bad laws. The insane must be cared for. The legislators are better able to stand the present undoubted inconveniences at the state house than the insane are to do without any kind of house.

We will hear Bro. Furman:
The Greenville REFLECTOR flings the following at the Post:

"The Morning Post sticks to the now hopeless new capitol project with a devotion worthy of a better cause. Why don't you pull for the insane asylum, sir?"

My Dear Boy, we have never yet failed to pull for anything that promised good or a benefit to any interest of the Old State, nor hesitated to pull or desert a cause because of the narrow ignorance of some and worse than ignorance on the part of others. We have not only "pulled" in season and out "for the insane asylums" but expect to do some of the liveliest pulling you ever saw when the next assembly meets. We will pull, too, showing that the state can not only make the improvements at the asylums and the capitol, without hardship, but prove it. With the present assessment of property and rate of taxation, and the issue of bonds, every improvement called for can be made and every expense of the government can be met.

The Post is as sound on the asylum proposition as it is sensible on the capitol proposition. Go thou and be likewise.

"With the present assessment of property and rate of taxation," says the Post. Is it possible that our contemporary sees nothing behind that sentence—nothing between the lines? Doesn't the Post know that the subject of taxation is, at a day not far distant, to rise to a burning question in North Carolina? We know that the editor of the Post has thought of this and we hope he will be on the side of sound public policy when the question knocks at our doors for a decisive analysis.

If THE REFLECTOR paragrapher has any enemies who wish to be forgiven, let them come forward at once. Three days after his wedding a man is not apt to have any very lively hatreds.

The farmer who got more money from the tobacco trust than the goods sold were worth can be depended upon to get along some how.

Reidsville takes whiskey by a majority of eleven. But in this case eleven pleases the devil as well as eleven hundred.

A Bargain Blessed.

My true love hath my heart, and I have his
By just exchange one for another given;
I hold his dear, and mine he cannot miss,
There never was a better bargain driven.
My true love hath my heart and I have his.

His heart in me keeps him and me in one,
My heart in him his thoughts and senses guides:
He loves my heart, for once it was his own,
I cherish his because in me it bides
My true love hath my heart and I have his.
—Sir Philip Sidney.

Under the laws that the lawyers permit us to have it is about as hard to keep people in jail after they are once lodged there as it is to get them in. Sam Parks had hardly gotten to Sing Sing before some complainant judge was found who was willing to issue a certificate of reasonable doubt in his favor, and that after the jury had said he was guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. So Sam is out on bail after a trip up the Hudson. If the lawyers do not see that it is this kind of thing that makes lynch law condoned because of its certainty as compared with the delays and uncertainties of the courts, they are a blinder set of people than we take them to be.—Charlotte News.

Thirty-six jurors, after hearing all the legal evidence, have found Caleb Powers guilty. Two judges have presided at his trials. Found guilty in three trials without a dissenting vote, although several of the jurors were republicans, ought to convince the public of his guilt beyond any reasonable doubt.—Asheville Citizen.

One of the serious results of the recent conduct of Booker Washington is the bill introduced in the Alabama legislature to withdraw from the Tuskegee institute and all other negro schools the usual allowance made by that state.—Wilmington Messenger.

Of course Raleigh wants those improvements made upon the capitol, and no one can blame her, being as how she is not expected to furnish the money.—Durham Herald.

Maude Adams says that while attending a performance in the Palace theatre, London, a young dude insisted on standing up in the pit, to the great annoyance of those behind him.

Angry shouts of "sit down," "turu him out," etc. were raised, but he still persisted in keeping his position. At last a cockney in the gallery cried out in a voice of sympathy:

"Let 'im alone; he's only a poor tailor resting himself."
The dude sat down instantly.

Sour Stomach.

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, sour stomach is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals, and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the sour stomach may be avoided. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store and Greenville and R. L. Davis & Bro., Farmville.

In Praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.
"Allow me to give you a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mr. John Hamlett, of Eagle Pass, Texas. "I suffered one week with bowel trouble and took all kinds of medicine without getting any relief, when my friend, Mr. C. Johnson, a merchant here, advised me to take this remedy. After taking one dose I felt greatly relieved and when I had taken the third dose was entirely cured. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for putting this great remedy in the hands of mankind." For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; R. L. Davis, & Bros., Farmville.

Nobody is modest enough not to be vain about it.

THE GENUINE VS. COUNTERFEITS.
The genuine is always better than a counterfeit, but the truth of this statement is never more forcibly realized or more thoroughly appreciated than when you compare the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve with the many counterfeits and worthless substitutes that are on the market. W. S. Ledbetter, of Shreveport, La., says: "After using numerous other remedies without benefit, one box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me." For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles no remedy is equal to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

The length of a woman's shoe string tells its own story.

Emergency Medicines.
It is a great convenience to have at hand reliable remedies for use in cases of accident and for slight injuries and ailments. A good liniment and one that is fast becoming a favorite if not a household necessity is Chamberlain's Pain Balm. By applying it promptly to a cut, bruise or burn it allays the pain and causes the injury to heal in about one-third the time usually required, and as it is an antiseptic it prevents any danger of blood poisoning. When Pain Balm is kept at hand a sprain may be treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a quick recovery. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; R. L. Davis & Bros., Farmville.

The way not to quarrel with your wife is not to have one.

THE PLEASURE OF EATING.
Persons suffering from indigestion, dyspepsia or other stomach trouble will find that Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. This remedy is a never failing cure for Indigestion and Dyspepsia and all complaints affecting the glands or membranes of the stomach or digestive tract. When you take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure everything you eat tastes good, and every bit of the nutriment that your food contains is assimilated and appropriated by the blood and tissues. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

A woman can learn to love most any man if he jingles loud enough.

A PURGATIVE PLEASURE.
If you ever took DeWitt's Little Early Risers for biliousness or constipation you know what a purgative pleasure is. These famous little pills cleanse the liver and rid the system of all bile without producing unpleasant effects. They do not gripe, sicken or weaken, but give tone and strength to the tissues and organs involved. W. H. Howell of Houston, Tex., says "No better pill can be used than Little Early Risers for constipation, sick headache etc." Sold by John L. Wooten.

Usually a woman drives a horse as naturally as a man sews on buttons.

DISTRESS AFTER EATING CURED.
Judge W. T. Holland of Greensburg, La., who is well and favorably known, says: "Two years ago I suffered greatly from indigestion. After eating, great distress would invariably result, I sting for an hour or so and my nights were restless. I concluded to try Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and it cured me entirely. Now my sleep is refreshing and digestion perfect." Sold by John L. Wooten.

KODOL
Digests What You Eat.

Weak Hearts

Are due to indigestion. Ninety-nine of every one hundred people who have heart trouble can remember when it was simple indigestion. It is a scientific fact that all cases of heart disease, not organic, are not only traceable to, but are the direct result of indigestion. All food taken into the stomach which fails of perfect digestion ferments and swells the stomach, puffing it up against the heart. This interferes with the action of the heart, and in the course of time that delicate but vital organ becomes diseased.

Kodol
Digests What You Eat

Mrs. Loring Nichols of Penn Yan, N. Y., writes: "After eating, my food would distress me by making my heart palpitate and I would become very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. After using a few bottles I am cured."

Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders, and gives the heart a full, free and untrammelled action.

MARVELOUS CURE BY DR. MOORE.

NORTH CAROLINA } Pitt County
To all whom it may concern:
I hereby testify that my wife, Fanny L. Pearce, and my son, John W. Pearce, and Leona Pearce, wife of my son, J. W. Pearce, on or about the first of last March were strangely effected with a malady resembling fits, and when the attacks were on them they would scream and their paroxysms were so violent that they had to be held by main force. I applied to and had the services of five physicians without realizing any benefit whatever. I finally sought the ministrations of Dr. W. H. Moore, colored, and under his treatment my son passed three snakes, two of them were alive and one was dead. My wife passed several bugs with long snouts to them. It gives me pleasure to announce that they are all getting well and the fits have disappeared.

Masonic Fair at Raleigh.
The Masons of North Carolina are making a determined effort to erect a handsome Masonic Temple in Raleigh, the capital city of the state. They are now preparing a grand Masonic fair on a large scale to be held in Nash Square, Raleigh, October 12 to 24, 1903. Col. Noble F. Martin, one of the best managers of such events in the United States, has charge of the fair, while various committees are hard at work, and Masons all over the state are talking and pulling for the success of the fair.

There will be absolutely none of the usual vulgar midway attractions about it. Everything will be clean and bright, and the standard of Masonry will be kept elevated. The railroads will grant reduced rates, so that all can avail themselves of an opportunity of having a good time and placing one or more bricks in the grand temple building.

The Rev. James C. Bradley, a young preacher of Texas made a funny slip of the tongue, but is very glad of it now. He was leading a service at a young people's meeting, and in the course of prayer said: "O Lord, give us clean hearts, pure hearts, sweet hearts." The last caused a titter which nearly broke up the service. After the meeting was over one of the young sisters jokingly inquired if he really meant it. Her question gave him an opportunity to plead a suit he had feared to suggest hitherto and the culmination of his odd mistake in the pulpit came in his union with the lass who joked him about it.

Hetty Green recently bought a parrot of a bird fancier of no particular standing. The man wanted the bird to be a splendid talker, but Mrs. Green found after some months that it never made a sound approaching the semblance of a word. She called on the bird fancier and demanded an explanation.

"Well, Ma'am," said that worthy, "that there bird was brought up in my humble home, and I expect when it went to your residence and saw all the beautiful, luxurious surroundings, it was struck dumb with surprise. I dare say it won't ever talk again, but that ain't no ways my fault, so I can't take it back."

"I met a half witted fellow down on Long Island last summer," said Attorney David Rockmore. "He was going along talking to himself. I stopped him and asked him why he talked when he was alone."

"Well," he replied, "there are two reasons. I like to talk to a smart man and I like to hear a smart man talk."

LAND SALE.

By virtue of a decree of the Superior Court of Pitt County, made in the special proceedings entitled G. T. Stokes et als against Crack Moore and wife and Rosa Stokes, the undersigned Commissioner will sell for cash before the Court House door in the town of Greenville, N. C., on Monday, the 21st day of September, 1903, the following described piece, parcel or tract of land situate in the County of Pitt and in Swift Creek Township. That tract of land upon which the late Edward Stokes lived at the time of his death and being all the land owned by the said Edward Stokes at the time of his death, bounded on the north by the lands of Henry Stokes, on the east by Clay Root Swamp, on the south by the lands of James A. LAND SALE.

By virtue of a decree of the Superior Court of Pitt County made at the special May Term 1903, in a certain action therein pending, entitled "Florence P. Tucker against J. H. Gurganus, and F. G. James assignee of J. H. Gurganus," the undersigned, will, on Monday, September 21st 1903 before the Court House door in the town of Greenville, N. C., sell at public sale to the highest bidder for cash, a certain tract of parcel of land in Pactolus township Pitt County which lies south of the high water mark on the south side of Grindle creek, and fully described as follows: Beginning at the big cypress at the river wharf, thence up the river to Broad Creek, thence from said creek with the McG. Staton line (now Fleming and Davenport line), thence on across the Greenville road by Davenport's coachshop to the Rollins canal, thence down said Rollins canal to the high water mark of Grindle Creek as it was when the mill dam of the said Tucker was standing, which is near a double sweet gum oil said canal, thence with the said high water mark of Grindle creek to the late William Grimes' line, thence with Trimes line to the beginning, containing even hundred acres more or less saving and excepting therefrom the 1/2 acre of land fully described by metes and bounds in the deed from R. S. Tucker and wife to Sophia M. Fleming dated March 9th 1891 and registered in the Register's office in Book 45, page 375, provided however that the roadway known as the "Rollins' road" and running from the old town of Pactolus by the church and school house towards the residence of Mr. J. J. Rollins shall not be closed," but shall be kept open by the purchaser through the land above described as a public road.

W. H. Bagley of Raleigh, N. C. a brother of Eusign Worth Bagley, who was killed in the Spanish-American war, tells of a Tar Heel farmer who was inclined to look on the bright side of things.

"The man was at work on land so poor that you couldn't raise your hat on it when a stranger passed," said Mr. Bagley, "and asked him about the crop prospects. The farmer seemed to be depressed, and finally the stranger expressed sympathy with him and his condition. "This nettled the farmer, and he said: See here, stranger, I ain't so blamed bad off as you think. I don't own this here farm."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Shot While at Work.

Will Maxwell was shot and killed by G. W. Daniels this morning about 9 o'clock, in the woods near the Gay Lumber Co's., camp while he was at work cutting timber. The camp is about 25 miles from Kinston near the Duplin county line, and is a section not far from the scene of a number of homicides in recent years.—Kinston Free Press, 3rd.

When Hetty Green was brought to court on complaint of not having a license for her dog Dewey she said:

"I've got a New York license for the dog. Ain't that enough?"

"No, you must have a Jersey license."

"Must it? Well, it's mighty extravagant; but a dog's worth more'n a lawyer, anyhow; barks louder for you and don't cost near so much."—Philadelphia Ledger.
