AYDEN ITEMS.

AYDEN, N. C., Sept. 5, 1903.
 Prof. W. H. Ragsdale, of Greenville, came down Tuesday evening to be with the board of directors in the election of teachers for the graded school. T. H. King, Hickory, N. C., was elected Prin. Miss Georgie Joyner, LaGrange, N. C., first grade, Miss Mary Hodges, Kinston, N. C., 2nd grade and Miss Ida Edwards, Ayden, N. C., third and fourth grades.

Rev. and Mrs. S. W. Stevens who have been spending several days in town, left this morning. Mr Stevens is national evangelist of the Free Will Baptist church and has been doing some good work among his and other denominations.

Mike Mewborn, of Kinston, arrived Wednesday and will represent Sprunt and Sons on the cotton yards of this place for the coming season.

A. M. Mosely was in town yesterday. He advises us he will be with us the coming season in the interest of Rogers McCabe & Co. and will make it interesting for cotton sellers.

Miss Lena Dawson, of Winterville, is visiting in town.

W. E. Hooks, who has been spending a few days with his father at Fremont, returned yesterday.

The graded school will open Oct. 1st. We believe this school to be the best thing that has ever come to Ayden, and we do not think we will fall short in our expectations of seeing quite a number of fine dwellings go up in the next few months. Our teachers efficient and we have a beautifully situated school building in the eastern part of the town where everything is quiet and pleasant.

A game of ball was played here yesterday by Ayden vs. Tom Town. The Ayden boys had nothing to brag on—beating Tom Town 14 to 12.

Allen Buhman, is ill with typhoid fever.

James H. MacDonald is the high way commissioner of Connecticut, and in the course of his travels through the 168 towns in the state sometimes finds himself at luncheon time without means of satisfying his hunger, unless he will accept the hospitality of the first selectman of the town, which he generally does.

"I've eaten so much codfish as to make for the prosperity of the Massachusetts fishing industry," he said, recently. "I expect before I die to turn to a pillar of salt like Lot's wife."

Mr. MacDonald tells a story of his visit to a small town, where he was thus entertained, and where he listened to the same old apology for codfish.

"How do you like your codfish?" the housewife asked of the assistant superintendent of highway construction, R. G. Pike. "I like mine," he answered, picked up fine, with milk and potato, etc."

"How do you like yours?" she asked of a visiting town official, and he "lowed he liked his much the same, except that he enjoyed a little more potato, and made into cakes so thin as to brown easy."

"How do you like yours, commissioner?" she finally inquired of Mr. MacDonald.

"If it is all the same to you, my good woman," said he, "I like mine swimming."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Lyman Draughn and little daughter, of Whitakers, who were visiting his sister, Mrs. Zeno Moore, returned home this morning.

TOBACCO FIRE AT KINSTON.

Kinston, N. C. Sept. 7.—About 2:15 o'clock this morning fire broke out in the four-story tobacco prize house owned by Mrs. Dan Quinerly. Both this building and the Carolina warehouse were totally destroyed, and the plant of the American Tobacco Co., was damaged to some extent by water. The latter building narrowly escaped destruction.

The fire when discovered was burning about the middle of the warehouse and is believed to have been incendiary. The building tained 125 hogsheads of tobacco, all of which was burned and insured. Of this tobacco 102 hogsheads belongs to the Randolph-Meade Co., and the remainder was stored there by the Farmers warehouse. The Carolina warehouse was owned by Grainger & Tapp. It was the first warehouse built on the Kinston market.

THE QUALITY OF A DREAM.

The distinguished young Southerner, John Temple Graves, is in the North making addresses upon the race question. In the main he has spoken brilliantly and forcefully and has been well received. His utterances have reached the farthest corners of the country.

Mr. Graves is an idealist, a man with a deep and broad imagination. He tells us of the blessings to be derived from separating the black and white races, meaning an actual geographical separation. But nowhere in his presentations of his ideas and theories have we seen explained a practical method of accomplishing this separation. In a recent address Mr. Graves said:

"Separation of the races is the way—the only way. If God hath made one blood all the nations of the earth, He hath also established unto them the metes and bounds of their habitation." He did not intend that opposite and antagonistic races should live together. The prejudice of race is a pointing of providence and the antagonism of people is the fixed policy by which God peoples the different portions of the universe and establishes the individuality of the nations. The act that brought these people together on this continent was a sin of the fathers—a sin of greed and iniquity of trade—and the sorrow and suffering of the present is for the sin of the past—a sin against nature and a sin against God. The curse can be lifted only when nature is vindicated and God is obeyed. The problem will be solved only when the negro is restored to the bounds of his habitation.

"It is neither impossible nor impracticable. The elements are willing and the way is in reach. It may be that the islands of the sea were placed by providence in our keeping to furnish an answer to the problem of the time.

The slave trade to this country was a sin—a crime against both races, but who ever thought it wise to remove the negroes from America in the days before the war? Then we had no race problem, no crimes against women, no lynchings. We are not claiming that the two races should of right live in the same land but simply looking at the bare fact without prejudice that they are here, and we do not think it likely that the black race can be transported without a revolution.

If Mr. Graves' dream was possible of being realized it would utterly change the South. We must have laborers, and experience has taught us that the immigrants who come to this country, or many classes of them, are a far worse curse than the negroes. Look at Patterson, N. J., with its breeding pens of anarchists, and Chicago and other great cities with their socialists, infidels and disorder breeders. Do we want these things in the South? Ask any retail merchant in North Carolina if he would remove every negro from his circle of trade. Not one in a thousand would so decide.

It will be argued that the country would be repopulated by other classes of people. But how many business men would be utterly ruined in the meantime, and how many farms would grow up in weeds and briars?

It may be further presented that the change could be made gradually, other people taking the places of the departed negroes as fast as they were sent away. This is folly. It could not be done, and the whole South would be in a turmoil.

No, negroes are not necessary to the existence of the South, but they are here, in every section of the land, and before they can be removed there will have to arise a genius greater than any who are today solving the race problem with tongue and pen and shot gun.

Great credit is due those gentlemen who have so industriously labored in the interest of the North Carolina St. Louis exhibit fund. More than $10,000 has been subscribed, making the like amount appropriated by the legislature available. On Friday afternoon the council of state held a special session, when and where it was resolved to proceed with the work of collecting, preparing and shipping an exhibit.

The penitentiary directors have decided that they will in future give out the news promptly when a convict escapes. While making plans for locking the door after the horse is stolen, would it not be well to make the penitentiary escape-proof?

Candidly, the independent tobacco movement in this county has not amounted to much. Why this is the case we do not know, unless it be the well-known fact that farmers are the hardest class of people to organize.

Governor Aycock is a popular man, but he can count on the opposition some of the fellows who are afraid he wants their jobs.

Whiskey may be a good thing to put out a fire with, but it is also great stuff to start a fire with.

As long as Colonel Glenn withholds his formal announcement the other fellows will have troubled dreams.

Another Servian plot has been discovered. The treasury probably has that all-gone feeling.

"Frankly, our government was a bit hasty in dispatching a squadron to the coast of Syria before receiving confirmation of the report of Mr. Magelssen's death," says the Rochester (N. Y.) Herald. And this is just the trouble with the present administration; no one, least of all the head of it, knows what it will do next, or how "hasty" it may act concerning the most serious matters. And that is why the substantial working, business interests of the country will welcome the opportunity to elect a man who will not be "hasty" in acting when important matters are concerned.—Raleigh Post.

Judge Bryan, now holding court at Fayetteville, is taking the right course for checking pistol carrying in this state. We commend his action to the other judges. Had this course been adopted in the superior courts several years ago there would not now be so many indictments for murder pending in our state. It is to be hoped that all the judges will make a point of imposing heavy sentences on persons convicted of carrying concealed deadly weapons.—Wilmington Messenger.

The Wilmington chamber of commerce is after the contingent fee attorneys. They have hurt Wilmington as they have hurt this and other towns but stopping them is not going to be an easy task.—Durham Herald.

In Praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"Allow me to give you a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mr. John Hamlett, of Eagle Pass, Texas. "I suffered one week with bowel trouble and took all kinds of medicine without getting any relief, when my friend, Mr. C. Johnson, a merchant here, advised me to take [this remedy]. After taking one dose I felt greatly relieved and when I had taken the third dose was entirely cured. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for putting this great remedy in the hands of mankind." For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; R. L. Davis, & Bros., Farmville.

Some men pray in the morning for the death of their passions and then spend the day feeding them.

THE GENUINE VS. COUNTERFEITS.

The genuine is always better than a counterfeit, but the truth of this statement is never more forcibly realized or more thoroughly appreciated than when you compare the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve with the many counterfeits and worthless substitutes that are on the market. W. S. Ledbetter, of Shreveport, La., says: "After using numerous other remedies without benefit, one box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me." For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles no remedy is equal to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

The danger of delay lies in the fact that it is really decision.

Emergency Medicines.

It is a great convenience to have at hand reliable remedies for use in cases of accident and for slight injuries and ailments. A good liniment and one that is fast becoming a favorite if not a household necessity is Chamberlain's Pain Balm. By applying it promptly to a cut, bruise or burn it allays the pain and causes the injury to heal in about one-third the time usually required, and as it is an antiseptic it prevents any danger of blood poisoning. When Pain Balm is kept at hand a sprain may be treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a quick recovery. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; R. L. Davis & Bros., Farmville.

It is an old trick for the rich to fill their ears with theological cotton when the poor are crying for bread.

THE PLEASURE OF EATING.

Persons suffering from indigestion, dyspepsia or other stomach trouble will find that Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. This remedy is a never failing cure for indigestion and dyspepsia and all complaints affecting the glands or membranes of the stomach or digestive tract. When you take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure everything you eat tastes good, and every bit of the nutriment that your food contains is assimilated and appropriated by the blood and tissues. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

He who expects to win the world's applause while he purifies its ways had better look for other business.

A PURGATIVE PLEASURE.

If you ever took DeWitt's Little Early Risers for biliousness or constipation you know what a purgative pleasure is. These famous little pills cleanse the liver and rid the system of all bile without producing unpleasant effects. They do not gripe, sicken or weaken, but give tone and strength to the tissues and organs involved. W. H. Howell of Houston, Tex., says "No better pill can be used than Little Early Risers for constipation, sick headache etc." Sold by John L. Wooten.

Many a reform has failed because it put all its steam into resolutions and saved none for the rascals.

DISTRESS AFTER EATING CURED.

Judge W. T. Holland of Greensburg, La., who is well and favorably known, says: "Two years ago I suffered greatly from indigestion. After eating, great distress would invariably result, lasting for an hour or so and my nights were restless. I concluded to try Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and it cured me entirely. Now my sleep is refreshing and digestion perfect." Sold by John L. Wooten.

To all whom it may concern:
I hereby testify that my wife, Fanny L. Pearce, and my son, John W. Pearce, and Leona Pearce, wife of my son, J. W. Pearce, on or about the first of last March were strangely affected with a malady resembling fits, and when the attacks were on them they would scream and their paroxysms were so violent that they had to be held by main force. I applied to and had the services of five physicians without realizing any benefit whatever. I finally sought the ministrations of Dr. W. H. Moore, colored, and under his treatment my son passed three snakes, two of them were alive and one was dead. My wife passed several bugs with long snouts to them. It gives me pleasure to announce that they are all getting well and the fits have disappeared.

The above parties are all white people of good family and well known. I also have other affidavits in my possession showing wonderful cures under my treatment. I cure all troubles that flesh is heir to. I have made the blind see, the deaf hear and the lame walk, as people living here in Greenville and in the county will testify. My medicine and treatment are no humbug, but I guarantee a cure in all cases or take no pay. Don't continue to suffer, but try me and be convinced.

Fine Singing.

The large congregations worshipping at the Baptist church Sunday were delighted with two excellent solos by Mr. E. T. Meeks, of Norfolk. At the morning service he sang "The Palms" and at night the "Holy City." Mr. Meeks has a rich tenor voice and rendered these favorite songs with much expression and sweetness. The choir of the church also gave splendid music at the services.

The Problem of the Murderous Turk

It is unfortunate for Europe that it must be afflicted with the presence of the Turk, whose religion is so entirely out of harmony with his surroundings.

Whenever the Turks are more liberally educated, and not then, will they be able to interpret their savage religion less literally. Not till then will they be able to realize that brutality, polygamy, on earth are not virtues and do not lead to a happy hunting ground of sensuality in the next, as they now believe, but that the pathway to salvation really lies through humane deeds and right living, and not through murderous orgies and seas of the blood of innocents.

Among the texts of the Koran which the Turks accepts as true to the letter writ, are following:

"I will cast a dread into the hearts of the unbelievers. Therefore strike off their heads, and strike off all the ends of their fingers."

"And when the months wherein ye are not allowed to attack them shall be past, kill the idolaters wheresoever ye shall find them, and take them prisoners, and besiege them, and lay wait for them in every convenient place."

"Attack them, therefore; God shall punish them by your hands, and will cover them with shame, and will give you the victory over them."

"O prophet, wage war against unbelievers and the hypocrites, and be severe unto them: for their dwelling shall be hell; an unhappy journey shall it be thither!"

"Neither do thou ever pray over any of them who shall die, neither stand at his grave for that they be believed not in God and his apostle, and die in their wickedness."

"O true believers, wage war against such of the infidels as are near you; and let them find severity in you; and know that God is with those who fear him."

Verily those who disbelieve our signs, we will surely cast to be broiled in hell fire; so often as their skins shall be well burned, we will give them other skins in exchange that they may taste the sharper torment; for God is mighty and wise."—Asheville Citizen.

You May Be Cured

544 Garfield Avenue,
CHICAGO, ILL., October 9, 1902.

After doctoring for eleven months and taking forty-three bottles of medicine and finding no relief for leucorrhoea resulting from irritation of a fallen womb I took Wine of Cardui and fourteen bottles cured me. This seems strange but it is the simple truth. Wine of Cardui helped me from the time I began taking it and having heard it praised so highly by friends who had tried it I felt satisfied that it would help me, and it did. It cured me. Took every bit of ache, pain and headache, cramps and dragging down sensations away till I felt young, strong and happy once more. It is a wonderful medicine and a true friend to women. When I look back on the months of torture I had it seems like a hideous nightmare. Wine of Cardui will cure any woman I believe. I have more faith in it than all other medicines combined.

Francis Kingsley

Vice-Pres., Chicago Historical Club.

How can you refuse relief when you know you are growing worse day after day? Shooting pains, irregularity, inflammation and bearing down pains make thousands of women miserable. Why drag through life never enjoying anything? Wine of Cardui has made over 1,500,000 weak and suffering women well and strong. We ask you to go to your druggist today and secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui and begin to take it at once. Do that and the health Mrs. Kingsley writes about will soon be yours. If you think special directions are needed in your case, address, giving symptoms, Ladies' Advisory Department, The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

B. FLEISHMAN & BRO.

LETTER TO D. C. MOORE.

Greenville, N. C.

Dear Sir: The way to reckon the cost of paint is to put costs together: the cost of the paint and the cost putting it on.

It would save this country hundreds of millions of dollars a year, it would save you alone (if you happen to be a victim) several a year.

See how it works. It cost as much to put on one paint as another, don't it?

Yes, if you use the same number of gallons.

Well, don't it?

No, you'll use twice as many gallons of adulterated paint as of Devco; and you've got to pay twice as much for putting it on.

Mr. N. Avery, Delhi, N. Y. has two houses alike and in the same conditions. Painted one house with Devco; 6 gallons. Painted the other house with a paint that was half adulteration: 12 gallons. Same painter, George Gilbert, did both jobs. One cost $27; the other $54.

Better go by the name.

Yours truly,

F. W. DEVCO & CO.

P. S.—H. L. Carr sells our paint.
