HOW ABOUT SUNDAY TRAVEL?

(Communicated.)

Shall we have improved mail and traveling facilities for Greenville? Through the Merchants Association of Pitt county, an effort is being made to secure this community better mail and traveling facilities. Thus far the effort has not been successful, although the Atlantic Coast Line has promised a regular train on Sundays, but the promise is indefinite, that is the train is to be put on this road when the next change is made in the A. C. L. time table. The Merchants Association does not propose to abandon its undertaking until the services of a Sunday train are secure to this town or until every means by which it may be secured are tried and found to be of no avail.

Can this section of the state afford to be without a daily mail and passenger service? The question is one for the community at large, to answer. In answering it, it should take into consideration the advantages which its sister towns has in this particular. To mention them, there are New Bern, Kinston, Goldsboro, Wilson, Rocky Mount and Tarboro. These towns are classed with Greenville in point of importance, but each, in mail and traveling facilities, has an advantage over Greenville in having both, Sunday trains and double service also. Now, notice the effect, in population, commercial achievements and commercial progress. Greenville is at the foot of her class. This is a fact we are loath to admit, but when considering our own conditions, we are blindly following false idols if we refuse to see our own short comings. There is no good reason why these conditions should exist, Greenville by right belongs at the head of her class and with the assistance of her citizens, united into a body, she will go forward to the position to which she belongs. Give her improved railroad facilities and then work together to draw securely to herself that trade of her own county, together with that which is inclined to come to her from Greene, Edgecombe, Martin, Beaufort, Craven and Lenoir counties. These counties contribute no little trade to Greenville.

The paramount question, is how can a better condition of affairs be obtained? Adopt the old maxim "in unity there is strength." Come together frequently as a town and discuss fully the business affairs of the community, in open meeting, decide on what is best for the community and proceed with dispatch to execute that decision. Undoubtedly a united body can do much to drive away the commercial gloom that is now gathering over this community. There is, in the Merchants Association an unit about which can be built a powerful force that will be an immense factor in the upbuilding of the town and community. A body that will take an active interest in public affairs and give the public its determined support, that support which is essential to the commercial development of this community. Individual prosperity is, as we well know, dependent on the prosperity of the community.

If a Sunday train is wanted let the town come together and work unitedly with that aim in view and a Sunday train will be had. No community is in greater need of such train. We are twenty four hours behind in our dealings with the cut side world, and too, our town is much avoided by traveling men because of the lack of traveling facilities. Come together and avoid these commercial evils.

PRISONERS BREAK FOR LIBERTY

Louisburg, N. C. Sep. 7.—Five negro prisoners in the county jail here made a dash for liberty about 7 o'clock this evening, when the jailer went in to give the prisoners their supper. Two of them made good their escape. One of the negroes struck the jailer on the head with a piece of scantling, inflicting painful but not serious injury. The jailer, however, put up a plucky fight and shot one of his assailants twice. It is thought the wounded prisoner will die. Deputies and citizens are searching for the prisoners who escaped.

COLLEGE STUDENT KILLED ON THE RAIL

Richmond, Va. Sep. 7.—Oscar Wicker, of Rock Hill, S. C., 17 years old, a student of Hampden Sidney college, was killed yesterday by a passenger train near Keysville, Va. Wicker was returning to college from South Carolina on his wheel. The machine was found smashed to pieces near the corps. It is not known how the young man got on the track, but some suppose that he was taken sick and fell upon the rails.

Two Buggies Collide.
Early Monday night two men driving together through South Greenville, going to their home in the country, collided with Dr. W. H. Bagwell's buggy that was standing in front of a residence where he was attending a patient. Doctor Bagwell's buggy was upset, a few spokes in one wheel broken, and his medicine chest was thrown out and some of the bottles in it broken. The other vehicle fared much worse. One of the occupants was thrown out and got an arm hurt, and the horse run away with the other man left in the buggy and smashed the vehicle considerably.

Loyalty to one's city involves the same principles as a loyalty to one's country. If there be any difference it is in favor of the city in which is situated the family, the home, the friends. An opportunity to show this loyalty arises in many ways, but more frequently perhaps in every day business transactions, especially in purchasing articles of daily necessity and the letting of contracts for labor. He who patronizes home talent, home industries, home enterprises of whatever kind is helping his own family, his friends the entire city and increasing the value of his possessions in the city. He who permits himself to be drawn away after strange places and strange friends in business transactions is in a measure to say the least disloyal to family, home, friends and city. Such a man is not a type of lofty citizenship. Patronize the talent and enterprise of home first, last and all the time and you will be happier and more prosperous.—Winston Salem Journal.

Some of those gentlemen who have wilfully butted up against the Watts law will find themselves in the penitentiary before they know what has happened to them.—Durham Herald.

L. H. Pender left this morning for Durham to enter his son, Leon, in Trinity college.

HIS HEART TAKEN OUT AND PATCHED

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 7.—An operation on the heart of Matthew Plowman, who was stabbed in a fight Saturday, may save the man's life. Physicians took out his heart and sewed up the wound. Then oxygen was administered continuously and last night he was said to have a possible chance of recovery. Plowman was stabbed with a bread knife and the wound almost cut his heart in two.

KINSTON MURDERER HELD FOR COURT

Kinston, N. C., Sept. 7.—After listening to the testimony of Mr. J. C. Chesnut this morning, W. F. Gible committed Emmet Boyette to jail without-bail, for the murder of his wife last Friday. The defense did not put any witnesses on the stand and contented themselves with listening to the testimony of the leading witnesses of the prosecution, when they waived the preliminary hearing.

Mayor's Court.
Mayor H. W. Whedbee has disposed of the following cases since last report:

Sam Coward drunk on street, fined $2 and cost, total $4.20.

We believe that there is a law in this state against vagrancy but it is never invoked except it be against some tramp that is passing through, a class that does no community permanent injury.—Durham Herald.

W. J. CRAIG, General passenger agent.

Prices Still Low.
The warehouses had good sized breaks today, but as a whole prices were very low. Now and then a pile brought something near a fair price. It is hard to make predictions for future prices.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, SEPTEMBER 8, 1903.

One or two state papers are, we think, exhibiting some littleness in discussing the appointment of Mr. W. H. Bagley as director on the part of the state of the A. & N. C. railroad. Though usually very fair, the Greensboro Record reflects no credit on itself in saying:

"Mr. W. Henry Bagley, of Raleigh, a brother-in-law of Mr. Josephus Daniels, was yesterday appointed by the governor a director on the part of the state for the Atlantic and North Carolina railroad in place of T. W. Dewey, who has not returned from his summer vacation. Mr. Bagley is a nice young man, parts his name as well as his hair nicely, has nice kinfolks, and nice friends, but—well—it might have been worse. Touch the button, let him have his annual pasteboard and a rear seat in the rear parlor car and let Goldsboro, Kinston, New Bern, Morehead, Beaufort and their neighbors keep the peace whilst the Raleigh magnate directs the pulsing artery of their expanding commerce."

If the Record thinks Mr. Bagley unfit for the honor, why does it not say so, and have a manly ground for its position? Is a man's ability to hold public office creditably affected by the way he parts his hair, his name, his suspenders, or anything else? The Record's remarks are unworthy the paper.

What sort of animals are soldiers on a lark, anyway? The Statesville Landmark gives the following account of an occurrence the perpetrators of which should be punished with an iron hand:

"The special train of soldiers, enroute home from the encampment of the First Regiment, North Carolina National Guard at Asheville, passed Statesville Tuesday morning. When the train passed the John Lingle farm, four miles east of Statesville, some one fired from the train window, killing a valuable cow belonging to a tenant on the place. An attempt will be made by the owner of the cow to apprehend the guilty party."

The Greensboro Telegram says: "It probably isn't Mr. Dewey's fault, but the Newbern bank which he robbed isn't so bad off after all. The receiver finds that the assets lack only a few thousands dollars of being as much as the liabilities." Keep this from Dewey if you do not want him to die of grief at having missed an opportunity.

The Reliance's defense of the cup cost $437,360. Within the shadow of her sails there are thousands upon thousands who never heard the name of Christ except in an oath, who never knew a home, nor peace and plenty. Over four hundred thousands dollars spent for pleasure, and thousands of human starving!

The man who has nerve enough to buy tobacco now and store it for another day may never become a Napoleon of finance, but he will some day know how it feels to walk along the sunny side of easy street.

We suggest that Miss Ellen Stone be selected to lead the Bulgarian forces against the Turks. Judging from her varied experiences as the leading lady in the drama "Kidnapped," she ought to know the country.

The worst thing about the Massee incident is not the speech he made, but the fact that he is a Southerner and it did not choke him to say it.

A McKeesport, Pa., policeman has been offered $25 a week to advertise a brand of cigars. This is where the poor Indian gets it where the lady wears the beads.

The pessimist who expects the worst to happen is disappointed when it does not, for it robs him of an opportunity to say, "I told you so."

Time keeps right on justifying the noble old Roman of Alabama, Senator Morgan. The Panama canal treaty is now fatally dead.

It is always a worthless husband who kills a good wife and then makes a poor job of killing himself.

Aniline dye is now used in Pittsburg to give the glow of health and a beautiful complexion to the luscious beefsteak.

Mr. Massee says he read the proof hurriedly. Well, he ought to take a little more time in which to read the handwriting on the wall.

Kentucky is oiling up its firearms and whetting its bowie knives preparatory to pulling off a grand 2-ring campaign.

The Chicago Chronicle is running Mr. Cleveland for the presidency. The Morning Post, however, saw him first.

No, Jessie dear, the term "elastic currency" does not mean something you can sew a button on.

Open the door of your heart, my lad,
To the angels of love and truth,
When the world is full of unnumbered joys.

Casting aside all things that mar,
Saying to wrong, "Depart!"
To the voices of hope that are calling you
Open the door of your heart.

Open the door of your heart, my lass
To the things that shall abide,
To the holy thoughts that lift your soul
Like the stars at eventide.

All of the fadeless flowers that bloom
In the realms of song and art
Are yours, if you'll only give them room.
Open the door of your heart.

Open the door of your heart, my friend,
Heedless of class or creed,
When you hear the cry of a brother's voice,
The sob of a child in need.

To the shining heaven that o'er you bends
You need no map or chart,
But only the love the master gave.
Open the door of your heart.

"Allow me to give you a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mr. John Hamlett, of Bag's Pass, Texas. ## THE GENUINE VS. COUNTERFEITS.

The genuine is always better than a counterfeit, but the truth of this statement is never more forcibly realized or more thoroughly appreciated than when you compare the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve with the many counterfeits and worthless substitutes that are on the market. W. S. Ledbetter, of Shreveport, La., says: "After using numerous other remedies without benefit, one box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me." For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles no remedy is equal to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

Emergency Medicines.

It is a great convenience to have at hand reliable remedies for use in cases of accident and for slight injuries and ailments. A good liniment and one that is fast becoming a favorite if not a household necessity is Chamberlain's Pain Balm. By applying it promptly to a cut, bruise or burn it allays the pain and causes the injury to heal in about one-third the time usually required, and as it is an antiseptic it prevents any danger of blood poisoning. When Pain Balm is kept at hand a sprain may be treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a quick recovery. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; R. L. Davis & Bros., Farmville.

MARVELOUS CURE BY DR MOORE.

NORTH CAROLINA } Pit County } To all whom it may concern: I hereby testify that my wife, Fanny L. Pearce, and my son, John W. Pearce, and Leona Pearce, wife of my son, J. W. Pearce, on or about the first of last March were strangely effected with a malady resembling fits, and when the attacks were on them they would scream and their paroxysms were so violent that they had to be held by main force. I applied to and had the services of five physicians without realizing any benefit whatever. I finally sought the ministrations of Dr. W. H. Moore, colored, and under his treatment my son passed three snakes, two of them were alive and one was dead. My wife passed several bugs with long snouts to them. It gives me pleasure to announce that they are all getting well and the fits have disappeared. J. W. PEARCE. Sworn to before me, Aug. 10th 1903. H. HARDING, J. P.

The above parties are all white people of good family and well known. I also have other affidavits in my possession showing wonderful cures under my treatment. I cure all troubles that flesh is heir to. I have made the blind see, the deaf hear and the lame walk, as people living here in Greenville and in the county will testify. My medicine and treatment are no humbug, but I guarantee a cure in all cases or take no pay. Don't continue to suffer, but try me and be convinced. WM. H. MOORE, M. D. Greenville, N. C. P. O. ### YOU MAY BE CURED

544 Garfield Avenue, CHICAGO, ILL., October 9, 1902.
After doctoring for eleven months and taking forty-three bottles of medicine and finding no relief for leucorrhoea resulting from irritation of a fallen womb I took Wine of Cardui and fourteen bottles cured me. This seems strange but it is the simple truth. Wine of Cardui helped me from the time I began taking it and having heard it praised so highly by friends who had tried it I felt satisfied that it would help me, and it did. It cured me. Took every bit of ache, pain and headache, cramps and dragging down sensations away till I felt young, strong and happy once more. It is a wonderful medicine and a true friend to women. When I look back on the months of torture I had it seems like a hideous nightmare. Wine of Cardui will cure any woman I believe. I have more faith in it than all other medicines combined.

Frances Kingsley
Vice-Pres., Chicago Historical Club.

How can you refuse relief when you know you are growing worse day after day? Shooting pains, irregularity, inflammation and bearing down pains make thousands of women miserable. Why drag through life never enjoying anything? Wine of Cardui has made over 1,500,000 weak and suffering women well and strong. We ask you to go to your druggist today and secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui and begin to take it at once. Do that and the health Mrs. Kingsley writes about will soon be yours. If you think special directions are needed in your case, address, giving symptoms, Ladies' Advisory Department, The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Fix Your Ads.

Business men should be looking after advertising now. Though just at present it may look dull, the next few months are going to count for business. Those already advertising might find it profitable to increase their efforts to draw trade, while those who are not advertising might get their share by making a start. No better time than right now.

It's as hard for some to suspect evil as it is for others to suspect good.

GRIMESLAND ITEMS.

Grimesland, N. C., Sept., 8 1903.

Our great protracted meeting closed Saturday. The preachers have all gone home and our town has settled down to its usual quietness. As a result of the meeting several of our best citizens have joined the church, one of our bar-rooms is closed up and a great moral as well as religious change has been wrought in our community.

We want to see a dispensary in Grimesland, managed by a good man, and we are sure that many of the evils now incident to the liquor traffic would be done away with.

We are glad to note that the county commissioners have granted us a free ferry at Boyds Ferry. W. E. Proctor has the contract to run it and we are sure it will be attended to.

Nearly our whole population attended church at Bear creek and Salem last Sunday.

We went to Greenville yesterday and in crossing the bridge at Albritton's old mill, we noticed that it was in a dangerous condition. Now that the old mill is gone, this bridge could be made shorter by one half, and then leave space enough to take off the water. It could also be made three feet lower and thus save expense to the county.

LAND SALE.

Stokes et als against Crank Moore and wife and Rosa Stokes, the undersigned Commissioner will sell for cash before the Court House door in the town of Greenville, N. Stokes and on the west by the west by the lands of Jesse A. Stokes, containing 88 acres, more or less.

This Aug. 12th, 1903.
F. G. JAMES,
Commissioner.

Thousands suffer and hundreds die every year in this country from some form of Bowel Complaint. The best remedy for these diseases a children or adults is Dr. SETH ARNOLD'S BALSAM. Warranted to give satisfaction by J. L. Wooten, Greenville, N. C.

Brown, of Leesville, Ind. endured death's agonies from asthma; but this wonderful medicine gave just relief and soon cured him. He writes: 'I now sleep soundly every night.' Like marvelous cures of Consumption, Pneumonia, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds and Grip prove its matchless merit for all Throat and Lung troubles. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00.
