The Town Borrows Money.

The board of alderman have borrowed sufficient money to pay off town orders until sufficient taxes can be collected to pay them, and not require persons in whose favor the orders are drawn to hold them.

The board has also made a new regulation in reference to private families taking boarders. Heretofore all who took boarders were required to pay the regular boarding house license. Now that so many people are here who cannot find accommodation in the hotels and boarding houses, in order that they may find place to stay, the board has decided that any private family may take boarders, not exceeding three in number, without paying any license tax.

Senator Beveridge Up Agin' It.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 10.—While enroute from this city to South Bend to speak before the state bankers' association, Senator Beveridge stopped at Fort Wayne and got a lunch at a railroad restaurant. After he had eaten he nervously went through his tickets and announced to the waiter that he had no money. The waiter grinned and said that he had had that tried on him before, and it would not work. He placed himself between the senator and the door in such a way that would clearly indicate that the bill must be paid. The manager was called, but when the senator explained who he was the manager looked at his guest in a 'slouch hat and no vest with evident suspicion. The senator finally took out his railroad pass and a number of letters and succeeded in convincing the restaurant man that he was really the Indiana senator. He said that he left home with $50 in his pocket, but whether he lost it or was robbed on the train he did not know.

Forty-Five and Canned.

Mr. R. W. King says he never had a birthday that has impressed him like today. When he awoke this morning it came to his mind that he was 45 years old, and it made him feel like he was about to get old. But he does not look it. A pleasant feature of the day was a surprise given him by his little daughters. When he walked out on his front porch they were awaiting him and presented him with a handsome gold headed cane.

May he have many more happy anniversaries.

It takes a girl with a face as innocent as a baby's to be engaged to two men at the same time and to mean to marry the man she is not engaged to.

Where the Judge Drew the Line.

Homer Davenport tells of a Utica police court judge who formerly resided in Silverton, Oregon, where Davenport was born. Once an unfortunate man who was arrested for intoxication told the judge that he had played with Davenport in the Silverton cornet band. The judge discharged the prisoner.

The incident was published in the newspapers, and in the following year at least five other prisoners who were brought before the judge explained that they had played with Davenport in the Silverton cornet band. The other day the Utica judge telegraphed Mr. Davenport asking him of how many pieces the Silverton organization consisted. He concluded his message by saying:

"Hereafter no prisoners will be discharged on account of former membership in this band. The limit has been reached."

Murderer of Mrs. Beaver Hanged

Salisbury, N. C., Sept. 10.—At six minutes past 12 today Wilford Roseboro, colored aged 22 years, was hanged at Statesville for the murder of Mrs. Dolph Beaver, which crime was committed July 30th. The hanging took place in the jail yard. The county commissioners had ordered that the execution be private as prescribed by law, but at the last moment the surging mass of people outside the enclosure tore away the canvas and fully two thousand people eagerly witnessed the execution. Roseboro slept soundly last night, ate a hearty breakfast and maintained a stubborn stolid appearance until the trap was sprung. He made no confession except a statement soon after his conviction in which he admitted his guilt. His mother and relatives refused to accept the body and it was sent to Raleigh for dissection.

Raleigh and Pamlico Sound Railroad.

Capt. J. M. Turner, of Raleigh, was here today talking the projected railroad from Raleigh to Pamlico sound. He says the outlook for the road is good, and that all the elections to be held on the 22nd will be in favor of it. There is no doubt about the road being a great benefit to this eastern section.

W. J. CRAIG, General passenger agent. J. R. MOORE, agent.

"Baby Ruth" Cleveland is now quite a little lady and the recipient of so much attention that at times she has a tendency to put on airs, to the great disgust of Mrs. Cleveland. Recently at Marion she did something which so displeased her mother that she was corrected on the spot.

"Just because papa was president," said Mrs. Cleveland, "you must not think you are any better than anybody else, for you're not. None of us are."

Ruth pouted a moment and then came back with: "Well mama, then you're no better than old Black Joe."

Old Black Joe is the man-of-all-work employed by the Cleverlands.

Southern Wrecker Spotted.

Charlotte, N. C., Sept. 10.—Detective Honey, of the Southern railway, has spotted the man who he claims wrecked the train near Gastonia, about five weeks ago, causing serious injury to four persons and entailing a property loss of at least $50,000. The officer states that the man under suspicion is a prominent resident of Gastonia and that the arrest when made will cause a genuine sensation. The arrest will not be made for several days yet pending certain developments, but the man is constantly shadowed.

Requisition for Essex Station.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 10.—A telegram was received today from the sheriff of Pitt county at Greenville, N. C., requesting that Essex Station, the negro under arrest here, be held to await requisition papers, as he is wanted to answer the charge of murder.

Bad Negro Given the Strong Arm

Wallace, N. C., Sept. 10.—On the southern bound train on the Atlantic Cost Line, this afternoon, Capt Harvey Twining had a narrow escape from being killed by a negro who refused to pay his fare. The negro grew insulting and the captain grabbed him by the throat and shoved him against the side of the car.

The negro then paid his fare and as the captain turned away pulled a pistol and leveled it on him. The colored porter standing by grabbed the pistol and the negro dropped it in his pocket. The porter did not tell the conductor how near he came to losing his life until after the negro had got off the train.

SENATOR SIMMONS TALKS.

He Finds the Democrats in Hopeful Mood.

Winston-Salem, N. C., Sept. 10.—Senator F. M. Simmons spent the day here on his return to Raleigh from a trip to Washington. In an interview on politics, he stated that he found the democrats in Washington decidedly more hopeful in regard to the next presidential election than they were a week ago. He thinks that President Roosevelt's popularity is waning and that the large business element of the country has not the utmost confidence in the president. With a strong conservative man like Senator Gorman, the North Carolina senator thinks the democrats would have as good a chance of electing a president next year as they had in 1892, when Mr. Cleveland defeated Mr. Harrison. Senator Simmons is firmly of the opinion that Mr. Gorman would get as many votes in New York State as either Judge Parker or Mr. Cleveland, and he admits that the latter is very popular in the North and East.

The aldermen of Raleigh have decided that officers of the city must pay their debts or lose their jobs. One account against an officer in the sanitary department has bobbed up, and now the finance committee has something to investigate along that line. The debt-paying business ought to begin somewhere.—Durham Sun.

A Very Special Request.

I most respectfully and earnestly request all who were pupils of Dr. Braxton Craven to send me at once on a postal card their name and postoffice address. I feel sure that all former pupils will do this much for the sake of their great and revered preceptor.

Respectfully,
T. N. IVEY,
Editor Raleigh Christian Advocate.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, SEPTEMBER 11, 1903.

Will Greenville do anything with the liquor question—except using the same old brand? We have asked this question before, and it seems that is a very unpleasant one to many.

Never in the whole history of the state has there been such a sentiment against the saloon business as at the present time. The cry has reached the outermost bounds of the state, and the hearts of Christian men and women have prayed many a prayer to their God.

Last winter Greenville had an anti-saloon league. Where is it now? Are the members discouraged? The Lord forbid. If ever we needed persevering, patient men and women who are opposed to the saloon from principle, we need them now. Shall we bide our time till the night cometh when no man can work?

The Durham Herald inquires:

"Leaving politics out of it, why are the politicians and newspapers any more friendly to the farmers than to the carpenters, brick layers, or any other class that is supposed to perform manual labor for a living."

You can't leave politics out of it, more's the pity. Bread and butter is the reason why newspapers and politicians are more friendly to farmers than any other class. They are supposed to constitute a large majority of the newspaper and the politician's constituency, and one does not bite the hands that feeds it, Bro. King, (at least one is not supposed to do so)

Maybe the penitentiary officials used to think that if the news of an escape was given out the other convicts would read it in the papers and go and do likewise.

The Turko-Bulgarian war has not yet furnished us an opportunity to get out the exclamation points we used when the Servian incident was hot off the wire.

If there are a sufficient number of democrats who think that way about it to nominate Mr. Cleveland there should be enough to elect him.—Durham Herald.

Then why wasn't Bryan elected?

An Indiana schoolmarm complains that she was lugged while in the performance of her duties. Imagine the rush for her job.

Do you see that yawning hole in the democratic party? That is where General Simon Bolivar Buckner pulled himself out by the roots.

Harry Furniss, the novelist, says ugliness and cleverness go together. How kind of Harry. We feel better already.

We advise our good friend John Temple Graves not to try his deportation scheme in these woods just now.

If there is any species of accident that has not happened to Prof. Langley's air ship it has yet to be discovered.

The Northwestern farmers' trust has been abandoned. Wonder if they ever heard of our Mary Ann Butler?

The Chicago kindergarten class of lynchers is now studying the first rudiments.

"Fight the devil with fire," says a temperance article. Ballots are better weapons.

If that Raleigh congregation can stand Parson Massee we reckon the balance of us can.

"All the president wants," begins an article in an exchange. Yes, all is what he wants.

Dan Teachey must be a descendant of Colonel Creecy's pirate.

Alfred Austin has perpetrated again.

The Seekers.

Knock, and the Door shall open, ah, we knocked
And found the unpiteous portals locked,
Waiting, we learned us croons to while along
Those dreary watches—and ye call it Song!

Seek, and thine eyes shall find: ah, we have sought
The Vision of our Dream, yet found it not.

We limn its broken shadow, that our heart
May half-remember—and ye call it Art!
—By Arthur Stringer, in Smart Set.

If the thing can be done for nothing suppose we begin work on additions to the insane asylums now.—Durham Herald.

Cannot someone persuade one of the physicians who ordered Hanna, Gates and Schwab to keep quiet for months to prescribe for Mr. Bryan?—Durham Sun.

Public men who are loved by their friends need not care what their enemies say about them. Andrew Johnson's motto was: "Make your friends love you and your enemies hate you."—News and Observer.

Alabama evidently believes that the legislature is a necessary evil to be restricted in its operations as much as possible. It meets henceforth only once in four years and lasts twenty-two days.—Charlotte News.

In a recent speech Senator Fairbanks, adverting to the drift of population to the cities, says it will be followed by a return to the country. The Kansas City Journal says that this return drift has already set in. "So mote it be." The multiplication of good rural schools, the building of good roads and free rural delivery will make country life more desirable than city life. Goldsmith wrote truly when he says:

"But a bold peasantry, their country's pride,
When once destroyed, can never be supplied."
—News and Observer.

The Case Well Stated.

"The town runs the dispensary. The bar-rooms run the town." In these two paragraphs Webster's Weekly sums up the whole question in a nut shell. Shut up the bar-rooms and the towns will have better men in office and better city government in Raleigh, and in every other town and city. The bar-room influence in politics is only less injurious than the bar-room influence in the home: Shut them up!—Raleigh News and Observer.

In Praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"Allow me to give you a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mr. John Hamlett, of Eagle Pass, Texas. "I suffered one week with bowel trouble and took all kinds of medicine without getting any relief, when my friend, Mr. C. Johnson, a merchant here, advised me to take this remedy. After taking one dose I felt greatly relieved and when I had taken the third dose was entirely cured. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for putting this great remedy in the hands of mankind." For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; R. L. Davis, & Bros., Farmville.

THE GENUINE VS. COUNTERFEITS. The genuine is always better than a counterfeit, but the truth of this statement is never more forcibly realized or more thoroughly appreciated than when you compare the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve with the many counterfeits and worthless substitutes that are on the market. W. S. Ledbetter, of Shreveport, La., says: "After using numerous other remedies without benefit, one box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me." For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles no remedy is equal to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

Emergency Medicines.

It is a great convenience to have at hand reliable remedies for use in cases of accident and for slight injuries and ailments. A good liniment and one that is fast becoming a favorite if not a household necessity is Chamberlain's Pain Balm. By applying it promptly to a cut, bruise or burn it allays the pain and causes the injury to heal in about one-third the time usually required, and as it is an antiseptic it prevents any danger of blood poisoning. When Pain Balm is kept at hand a sprain may be treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a quick recovery. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; R. L. Davis & Bros., Farmville.

MARVELOUS CURE BY DR. MOORE.

NORTH CAROLINA } Pitt County } To all whom it may concern: I hereby testify that my wife, Fanny L. Pearce, and my son, John W. Pearce, and Leona Pearce, wife of my son, J. W. Pearce, on or about the first of last March were strangely effected with a malady resembling fits, and when the attacks were on them they would scream and their paroxysms were so violent that they had to be held by main force. I applied to and had the services of five physicians without realizing any benefit whatever. I finally sought the ministrations of Dr. W. H. Moore, colored, and under his treatment my son passed three snakes, two of them were alive and one was dead. My wife passed several bugs with long snouts to them. It gives me pleasure to announce that they are all getting well and the fits have disappeared. J. W. PEARCE. Sworn to before me, Aug. 19th 1903. H. HARDING, J. P.

The above parties are all white people of good family and well known. I also have other affidavits in my possession showing wonderful cures under my treatment. I cure all troubles that flesh is heir to. I have made the blind see, the deaf hear and the lame walk, as people living here in Greenville and in the county will testify. My medicine and treatment are no humbug, but I guarantee a cure in all cases or take no pay. Don't continue to suffer, but try me and be convinced. WM. H. MOORE, M. D. Greenville, N. C. P. O. x 180.

NOTICE OF ELECTION IN THE TOWN OF GREENVILLE.

By an order of the Board of Aldermen of the Town of Greenville adopted on Thursday the 6th day of August, 1903, notice is hereby given that there will be an election held in the Town of Greenville, Pitt County, N. ### YOUNG WIFEHOOD

Boston, Mass., 152 Shawmut Ave., Oct. 25, 1902.
After I had been married about four months I felt my health generally decline. I seemed to lose the light step and dragged wearily along instead. My appetite failed me and I lost health and strength. I was nervous and had shooting pains through my limbs and stomach while bearing down pains and constant headaches added to my misery. The menstrual flow became more and more profuse and I was unfit to attend to my daily duties. My husband called in three different physicians and I took enough medicine to kill or cure a dozen women, but it all had no effect on me whatever, until I took Wine of Cardui. In a few days I felt a change for the better, my general health improved and at the next time of my periods my flow was more natural and I was in less pain. Gradually I recovered my health and strength and am now in perfect health. I take an occasional dose of Wine of Cardui which keeps me well.

I am happy to give you this endorsement.

Bessie Ricker

President, Back Bay Woman's Club.

Why don't you try for the same health Mrs. Ricker has? It is easy to secure if you take Wine of Cardui according to directions. Wine of Cardui strengthens weak and worn-out women of any age and assists the mother and housewife to bear her exacting duties. Wine of Cardui makes women fit for all the duties of womanhood.

It will relieve the pains of irregularity, cures falling of the womb, leucorrhoea, ovarian troubles, and has been known to remove what physicians considered dangerous tumors. Women who use Wine of Cardui do not suffer at the monthly periods. They do not suffer hysterical attacks, because Wine of Cardui gives them strong nerves freed from the irritation of female suffering.

A $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui purchased from your druggist will keep you free from pain.

Havens, Versailles, O. for years he was troubled with kidney disease and neither doctors nor medicines gave him relief. At length he tried Electric Bitters. ### Ogden on Advertising.

The firm of John Wanamaker in Philadelphia, New York and Paris has a reputation in two hemispheres for successful advertising and merchandising. Therefore what Robert C. Ogden, a partner of Mr. Wanamaker and a man of scarcely less intellectual power and note than Mr. Wanamaker himself, says upon the subject of advertising may be accepted as well nigh authoritative and conclusive. He says:

First—"Advertising is a business force and a very great power—the channel through which the merchant speaks to the people he desires to address."

Second—"With the public mind fixed upon business as it now is, with the competition that exists, without advertising of the proper kind, a business cannot be successfully prosecuted to any large degree."

Third—"Lack of courage is one of the most common experiences of advertisers. A great deal of advertising fails of its results because the advertiser gets discouraged."

Fourth—"A man's advertising is the test of his character, as he speaks and as the people have an opportunity to judge of the truth of his printed utterances, day by day, they will form their estimate of his character."

Greater Diversifying in the South.

The southern land is capable of producing a greater diversity of marketable products than the lands of the west and northwest, the centre of consumption is more accessible, cost of living is less, and the climatic conditions more attractive. These are some of the reasons for the marked increase in population of the south, and indication and a promise of still greater development of her marvellous resources.—Washington Post.

Vice Versa.

I never see my rector's eyes—
He hides their light divine;
For, when he prays, he shuts his own,
And, when he preaches, mine!
—G. M. Fergess.

The latter disappeared from this vicinity soon after the attempted wreck. A true bill was found against him by the grand jury recently, and soon after he was found lurking in the neighborhood, endeavoring to learn the result of the accusation against him.
