LETTER TO BRYAN AND NICHOLS.

Greenville N. C.

Dear Sir: Shuffert Hardware Co., Hickory, N. C. bought a carload of paint; after stalling it a few months, found-out it measured seven pints a "gallon."

Returned it to the maker and credited customers with what they had lost from short measure.

What do you think of a short-measure paint? Don't you think it half white-wash? Halt the paints are part whitewash.

Go by the name: Devoe lead-and-zinc. No whiting or clay in that; full-measure besides. A gallon Devoe is worth two of whitewash paint.

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOE & Co.

P. S.—H. L. Carr sells our paint.

Fifty-Four Baptised.

As a result of the meeting being held at Reedy Branch church, six miles from town, by Rev. Sam Stephens, 54 persons were baptised in Forbes' mill pond Sunday morning. The baptising began at 9 o'clock and the evangelist finished in time to drive back to the church and preach at 11 o'clock. The meeting continues this week and very large crowds are attending. We hear he will hold a meeting in Greenville some time in October.

Sunday Trains.

Mr. H. L. Carr, secretary of the merchants' association, is in receipt of a letter from the officials of the Atlantic Coast Line, that with a change of schedule to go in effect on the road from Weldon to Kinston on the 21st, the train will be run Sundays. Nothing is said in the letter about the double daily trains, which we believe is of far more importance than Sunday trains. Two trains a day are the greatest need on this road, and the agitation should continue until they are secured.

AGAINST SUNDAY TRAINS.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

In your issue of Tuesday, Sept. 8th, there is an article without signature, but "communicated," advocating Sunday trains.

I judge the writer is a representative of the Merchant's association and expresses the views of that organization. As I understand, that association was formed with the idea of benefitting the town.

Any plan to benefit an individual, corporation or body politic that ignores true morality as a basis, is erroneous, and positively damaging. Your representative of the Merchants association offers, as advantages to Greenville in the Sunday train, daily mail, and a chance to leave town on Sunday.

We now have mail daily, except Sunday. Sunday's mail is sent by Kinston, so that we now get Sunday papers by nine o'clock Monday morning. Then the real advantage your Merchants association desires is to receive this mail on Sunday that replies may leave on Monday. Your business man will spend Sunday studying and answering his Sunday mail. Then he must look over the news and conditions of markets, so that by the Sunday mail he would be utterly disqualified for the services of the sanctuary. By this course the influence of the business man would be wielded over young men, against the highest morality, against the worship in the sanctuary, against the sanctity of the Sabbath—against obedience to the laws of God. If this Sunday train is so essential to the success of Greenville, why not secure greater success by keeping your stores open all day Sunday? Run, your tobacco and cotton markets on Sunday? Require your telegraph and telephone offices to remain open all day Sunday that your gambling in futures may not be interrupted. Is all this in accordance with true morality? Any system of morality not in harmony with the law of God is detrimental to the best interests of humanity.

Then you can only get out of town on Sunday, if you only have a Sunday train. Is not that rather a harsh criticism on your town? A man will not come to Greenville on business simply because he cannot get out of town on Sunday. What is there so repulsive that a business man is so unwilling to remain over here on Sunday? Good accommodations, with refined social and religious privileges usually attract traveling men to spend Sunday instead of repelling them. But perhaps your Merchants' association wants the privilege of leaving town on Sunday. Why not go on Saturday or Monday? O, these days must be given to business. Yes, your business man wishes to go to Parmele or Goose Nest on a visit, or for recreation. Is not that a peculiar idea of true morality. For purely selfish purposes, working no real permanent good to the community. The Merchants' association will force the conductor, engineer, mail and baggage men, porters &c. of the train, and ticket agents and operators on the line—all to work on Sunday that a few men can have the privilege of going to Goose Nest.

Remember the men on the train are now away from home every day in the week except Sunday. Your action will drive them from home every day, so that they will be strangers to their own children. Capt. Hawks is superintendent of a Sunday school. You in your intense selfishness would go to the altar of God's church and take the leader of the children, and say give up your church, give up your fostering care of the children—give up your sacred hours of your Sabbath in your home and run this train on Sunday so we can visit Parmele and Goose Nest.

It will take something more than Sunday trains to make Greenville compare favorably with Wilson or even Ayden and Winterville. Sunday trains have had nothing to do with making Wilson such an active, town.

As I have noticed, a large majority of the leading, brainy men of Wilson are active members of the different churches of the town and opposed to the desecration of the Sabbath. One trouble with Greenville is that too many business men sacrifice the moral precepts of the Bible to their own desires of business and enterprise.

What use has the Lord for business, social, civil or political enterprises unless they conserve the real interests of the kingdom of God in bettering the condition of the human family?

If the Merchant's Association, or at least its representative, will only rub the greed of gain from his eyes and seek moral light to shine upon his conscience—then go out where he can see the injurious effects of Sunday trains upon the morals of the town, I feel sure he will change his position.

"Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy" is just as binding upon us as "thou shalt not steal," and I would remind you that when you advocate a plan to utterly ignore the law of God, you are laying the foundation, not only for dishonesty, but for anarchy and a socialism that will ultimately destroy your very existence as a corporate body.

Let me urge you to co-operate with the leaders of Christian thought in your town—even the pastors of your churches who stand as exponents of true morality as well as Christian principle.

F. A. BISHOP.

P. S. I ask that you give the name of anyone replying to this.

MONDAY AFTERNOON, SEPTEMBER 15, 1903.

We have received a book entitled "Jeffersonian Democracy," by John R. Dunlap. We would like to render the author the courtesy of reading his book, but we are so busy trying to make both ends meet we cannot do it justice now. A newspaper man who loves his work always has a dream of a happy day to come when he can lay aside the carking cares of business and read from sun to sun. The dream scarcely ever comes true, but it is always a dear illusion. Then there is ever another side. Would our readers, who are as busy as we are, care to wade with us through "Jeffersonian Democracy?" We think not. Therefore we reluctantly place the book upon a dusty shelf and turn to the seamy side again.

It seems that Mr. W. H. Bagley's connection with the editor of the News and Observer is proving something else than a blessing.

The Biblical Record is the only paper we have seen opposing Mr. Bagley's appointment as a director of the A. & N. C. railroad on the ground that the gentleman is not capable. All of the other harsh things said about him appear to come from people who have a personal dislike for Mr. Josephus Daniels, his brother-in-law. We are not saying that the governor did right or wrong in making the appointment, but the spirit of most of the criticism in the case appears to us too contemptible for consideration.

Please hold your breath. The governorship is decided, but you are to wait in patience for the name of the gentleman. Regarding our next governor the Warrenton Record says:

"He must be loyal to state and party; he must be a patriot and statesman; he must be a man of first class ability, and he must be a leader in the fight against the saloon. We know the man that fills the bill and in due time we will announce him."

We note the fact that Salisbury is to have an active prohibition campaign, and that "the saloon people have organized a paper to advocate their cause." All honor to the Salisbury newspapers that they stand aloof from the saloon, and all dishonor to the editor who defiles his paper and type in defense of the liquor iniquity.

When Senator Simmons says that Gorman stands a good show for the presidency we are bound to pin some faith to it. Senator Simmons is not the man to guess or jump blindly. If he says Gorman that is where we would put our money.

Congressman Small's inland waterway from Norfolk to Beaufort gets a glad hand every once in awhile. We hope he may live to see the fruition of his labors. He will need no other monument.

A Virginia editor has been arrested and jailed on the charge of arson. If he was a lawyer he would have a court house full of attorneys and would never see the inside of a jail.

Mosquitoes are very much like human beings. All of them try to sing and few succeed.

The Wilmington Messenger flatly credits THE REFLECTOR when it renders our matter to the Greensboro Reflector, but it may be doing Greensboro an injustice.

Did Mr. Beaver's "influence" run dry, or did he think it best to come in to the grand jury and trust to luck?

When you see a want ad for a man "with one or two thousand dollars to take an interest, &c," you realize that all the fakes are not dead yet.

Eve should be regarded as the patron saint of tailors and dress-makers, as she was the first to think of clothes.

In Greensboro they go out of doors to get married. But of course it is understood that we must make allowances for Greensboro.

From some casual remarks appearing in certain exchanges we gather that there has been a campaign in Reidsville.

We still have our original opinion of the newspaper that preaches temperance and advertises the whiskey business.

They say that John D. Rockefeller's fortune has shrunk to a paltry eighty millions. Poor, lonely John!

Write above our dust-covered head "Faithful to his friendships," and let the rest take care of itself.

The Honorable David Beenit Hill still harks from the tomb occasionally.

As an optimist the Raleigh Post is the limit. And most of its tips come true.

What's this? A Minnesota editor who had his appendix removed, has grown another appendix and must undergo another operation. That's the report. It had been supposed that one operation would do the business for all time for any appendix or appendices. It has been said that only the rich have appendicities. Can it be that the Minnesota editor is rich enough to have two? If so, old Nat Macon's statement, "a government of editors would be a government of the hungry" would be misleading.—News and Observer.

If some kind girl would marry Hobson, or Hobson would kindly marry some girl, it would save a number of prominent young ladies from one end of the country to the other from the embarrassment of being reported as engaged to the negro the Merrimac.—Winston-Salem Sentinel.

In Praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"Allow me to give you a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mr. John Hamlett, of Eagle Pass, Texas. "I suffered one week with bowel trouble and took all kinds of medicine without getting any relief, when my friend, Mr. C. Johnson, a merchant here, advised me to take this remedy. After taking one dose I felt greatly relieved and when I had taken the third dose was entirely cured. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for putting this great remedy in the hands of mankind." For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; R. L. Davis, & Bros., Farmville.

There is nothing in the world so clever as the way a widow can blush over things she once didn't.

Emergency Medicines.

It is a great convenience to have at hand reliable remedies for use in cases of accident and for slight injuries and ailments. A good liniment and one that is fast becoming a favorite if not a household necessity is Chamberlain's Pain Balm. By applying it promptly to a cut, bruise or burn it allays the pain and causes the injury to heal in about one-third the time usually required, and as it is an antiseptic it prevents any danger of blood poisoning. When Pain Balm is kept at hand a sprain may be treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a quick recovery. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; R. L. Davis & Bros., Farmville.

No matter how badly a woman got fooled on her own hero that she married, she is always ready to help her daughter to get taken in the same way.

THE GENUINE VS. COUNTERFEITS.

The genuine is always better than a counterfeit, but the truth of this statement is never more forcibly realized or more thoroughly appreciated than when you compare the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve with the many counterfeits and worthless substitutes that are on the market. W. S. Ledbetter, of Shreveport, La., says: "After using numerous other remedies without benefit, one box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me." For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles no remedy is equal to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

They do not gripe, sicken or weaken, but give tone and strength to the tissues and organs involved. W. H. Howell of Houston, Tex. says "No better pill can be used than Little Early Risers for constipation, sick headache etc." Sold by John L. Wooten.

DISTRESS AFTER EATING CURED.

Judge W. T. Holland of Greensburg, La., who is well and favorably known, says: "Two years ago I suffered greatly from indigestion. To all whom it may concern:
I hereby testify that my wife, Fanny L. Pearce, and my son, John W. Pearce, and Leona Pearce, wife of my son, J. W. Pearce, on or about the first of last March were strangely affected with a malady resembling fits, and when the attacks were on them they would scream and their paroxysms were so violent that they had to be held by main force. I applied to and had the services of five physicians without realizing any benefit whatever. I finally sought the ministrations of Dr. W. H. Moore, colored, and under his treatment my son passed three snakes, two of them were alive and one was dead. My wife passed several bugs with long snouts to them. It gives me pleasure to announce that they are all getting well and the fits have disappeared.

Women's Headaches

542 1-2 Congress Street, PORTLAND, MAINE, Oct. 17, 1902.

I consider Wine of Cardui superior to any doctor's medicine I ever used and I know whereof I speak. I suffered for nine months with suppressed menstruation which completely prostrated me. Pain would shoot through my back and sides and I would have blinding headaches. My limbs would swell up and I would feel so weak I could not stand up. I naturally felt discouraged for I seemed beyond the help of physicians, but Wine of Cardui came as a God-send to me. I felt a change for the better within a week. After nineteen days treatment I menstruated without suffering agonies I usually did and soon became regular and without pain.

Wine of Cardui is simply wonderful and I wish that all suffering women knew of its good qualities.

Mrs. Wilhelm
Treasurer, Portland Economic League.

Headaches are the danger signals of coming disease. Both men and women suffer headaches, but periodical headache falls only to the lot of women and is the unerring sign of irregular menstruation and bearing down pains. Completely prostrated by nine months of suppressed menses, blinded by headaches and racked with pain Mrs. Snow was made a strong and healthy woman again. Remember with Wine of Cardui no case is hopeless because this great remedy cures permanently nineteen out of every twenty cases and never fails to benefit a case of irregular menses, bearing down pains or any female weakness. If you are discouraged and doctors have failed, try Wine of Cardui, and try it now. Remember that headaches mean female weakness. Secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui today. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

Three Splendid Solos.

As had been predicted in THE REFLECTOR, Greenville church goes Sunday were favored with some excellent singing. At the morning service Miss Luez Wooten, of Kinston, sang "Calvary" in the Christian church, and Miss Janie Tyson sang "O, Divine Redeemer" in the Baptist church.

At the night service Miss Wooten sang the "Angel Serenade" in the Baptist church. All of these songs were beautiful and much enjoyed by the large congregations.

Blew up House.

Mr. W. G. Stokes, of Stokes, was here today to take legal steps against some parties for blowing up with powder a house belonging to him on Saturday night. It seems that this lawlessness is the outgrowth of incorporating a cross roads place so as to get a whiskey distillery located there.

Broke in House.

Saturday afternoon, while all his family were away from home, someone broke in the kitchen to the residence of Mr. W. S. Fleming in South Greenville. A window was broken out, and there was blood on the window and floor indicating that the thief cut his hand on the broken glass.

The thief seemed to be after something to eat, as some cooked food was the only thing missed. It was bold stealing in broad daylight.

Bad Cut on Hand.

D. J. Whichard, Jr., while about the graded school building Sunday, fell out the door and nearly split his right hand open on a tin can. Dr. W. H. Bagwell dressed the wound and had to take several stitches in it.

Some men are so convincing that when a woman kisses them they can make her believe that she almost did not let them do it.
