

Sam Jones in a Fierce Fight.

Cartersville, Ga., Sept. 14.—Postmaster Walker Akerman, whom Sam Jones denounced from the pulpit last night for selling wine in his office, this morning met the minister on Main street and a fierce fight followed, in which Sam Jones' lip was split and Akerman's eye blacked. In his sermon Mr. Jones declared that the postmaster was using his office to sell wine, calling it "dope" and that the people of Cartersville would prefer the president to come the Indianola game on them and give them a decent negro postmaster than give them such a dirty dog.

Two More Birds Fly the Coop.

Raleigh, Sept. 15.—Two white convicts, one under life sentence, effected a mysterious escape from the penitentiary Sunday afternoon. They were Drayton Medlin, sent here from Gaston county to serve a life term for murder, and A. V. Rice, of New Hanover county, sentenced to 10 years for larceny.

Slight Fire.

A slight fire was caused in Greene & Hooker's ginney this morning by a match in the cotton coming in contact with the gin saw. The damage was slight.

Change of Opening Date.

McKinley Statue Unveiled.

Toledo, O., Sept. 15.—Fully 100,000 people witnessed the unveiling of the bronze statue of William McKinley here today. The parade was the largest seen in Ohio since the close of the civil war. Senator Hanna introduced Senator Fairbanks, who delivered the address of the day.

Mrs. Peggy is 120 Years Old.

Reidsville, Sept. 12.—Possibly the oldest person in the state is a resident of Caswell county. Mrs. Peggy Murray, of Troy, is 120 years old. (She is now in a rational state of mind and walks among the flowers at all times. She is quite feeble and has almost entirely lost her eye-sight. Mrs. Malone, of Corbett, is 93 years old. There are a number of people in this county who have reached the 100 mile post.

Tucker Gets Requisition.

Raleigh, Sept. 15.—Deputy Sheriff L. W. Tucker, of Pitt county, will leave here today carrying to the governor of Pennsylvania a requisition for Essex Staton, colored, who is charged with killing his brother-in-law, Abram Little, near Grimesland in, March, 1902.

Safe Crackers Visit Youngsville.

Youngsville, N. C., Sept. 14.—Burglars entered the post office here last night and carried away practically all the stamps in the office and $200 in cash. Most of the money belonged to the government. The work was done by experts, as the post office doors were opened without injury. Bloodhounds followed the trail to a water tank on the railroad, one mile north of here. It is supposed that the burglars boarded the train at this point and escaped.

FOUL MURDER IN JONES COUNTY

AGED FATHER OF SENATOR F. M. SIMMONS STRUCK DOWN.

BEATEN TO DEATH BY A NEGRO State Deeply Stirred by One of the Most Brutal Crimes Ever Known.

Newbern, Sept. 13.—Jones county today is the scene of excitement from one end to the other, over the murder of Furnifold G. Simmons, father of United States Senator F. M. Simmons, who was brutally shot and clubbed to death yesterday afternoon by a negro whose name is said to be Daniels. Mr. Simmons, who lived about eight miles from Pollocksville, Jones county, went there yesterday to sell his cotton, and as he did not return last night his family became uneasy as to his whereabouts, as it was known that he had a good sum of money on his person. His grandson, Jas. H. Simmons, who is a merchant of this place, was notified last night that his grandfather was missing, and he left immediately to help in the search. Senator Simmons was also notified, and he arrived here today and was immediately driven out to his old homestead, and when he reached there he found that the body of his aged father had been found down on the banks of Trent river, about one mile from his home, with three gun shot wounds in the body, and a club wound on his head.

A report reaches here that the man who committed the crime was caught near Pollocksville, about 2 o'clock this afternoon, and there was every indication that the citizens were very much wrought up over the matter.

Mr. Simmons, the murdered man, was a quiet, peaceful old gentleman, and the affair has cast a gloom over this entire city, where he was well and favorably known. Mr. Simmons was 76 years of age.

A dispatch to The Observer correspondent from Pollocksville gives the following particulars: "Furnifold G. Simmons, father of Senator F. M. Simmons, was shot to death Saturday afternoon by an unknown party who was trespassing on his land, squirrel hunting. Mr. Simmons lives in Jones county, about 17 miles from this place. Friday afternoon he heard the report of guns on his land, and went out to find out who the trespasser was, but could not tell what color he was, as it was near nightfall. Yesterday morning the shooting was continued, and he again went out in search of the offenders, and this time he was shot himself. It is supposed from appearance that he lived several hours after being wounded. He was shot in the stomach, chest and throat with No. 4 shot. He was heard calling at intervals of three-quarters of an hour, but it was thought that he was after the trespasser, and no attention was paid to him. Last night as he did not return home, search was made for him but without success, so this morning the search was continued, and he was found about 100 yards from the road dead. One arrest has been made."—Charlotte Observer.

R. L. Humber, chief engineer, at a salary of $100 per year.

The board has selected good officers for the department.

Mr. Cotten Appointed.

This will be a notable gathering of the most prominent farmers from all parts of the United States. Various subjects relating to the interest of the farmers will be discussed by the most distinguished speakers of the land.

"What do you think of this?" said the Observant Citizen as he laid his evening newspaper aside and whirled the smoke from his pipe out the corner of his mouth. "The faith curing business seems to be doing untold good for the west."

"How so?" remarked his companion.

"At the camp meeting of one of the congregations," he replied; "several hundred testimonials of divine healing were given, mentioning cures including consumption, cancers, tumors, pneumonia, heart disease, Bright's disease, paralysis, diphtheria, rheumatism, typhoid fever and fractured bones."

"That is a pretty good record," said the observant citizen.

"But—"

"Well, the most remarkable part of the story," continued the narrator, "is that a carpenter who said that a screwdriver fell from a scaffold and gouged out one of his eyes, whereupon he immediately replaced it and prayed to God to save him from blindness, and the eye is now 'as clear as a crystal.'"

"Ah, yes—as clear as glass."

The reason a scandal party breaks up late is that every woman in it is afraid to go away and have the others take up her case.

One nice thing about the way women dress is that at a picnic they can sit in a damp place much more comfortably than a man can.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, SEPTEMBER 15, 1903.

Greenville, we believe, had at one time the reputation of having one of the strongest bars in the state. This reputation was no doubt fairly deserved, but no more so than it is today. We have lawyers here who would honor any bench in the land. Jarvis, James, Blow, Skinner and Sugg, are names of state and country-wide importance. Among the younger practitioners who have also won fame and recognition are Long, Whedbee, Moore, Fleming and Harding. Flanagan and Wooten are young attorneys whose names will in a few years rank with the highest. With this array of legal talent Greenville still holds her place at the head of the profession of law.

A Virginia editor has been arrested and jailed charged with arson—yet it was not his office which was burned, but two stores. Perhaps the owners wouldn't advertise and he concluded to put them out of business.—Greensboro Record.

If the editor is guilty as charged he shows a sadly defective reasoning apparatus. The merchants who would not advertise would have been put out of business without the use of fire. Not so quickly, perhaps, but as surely, and the editor would have been a free man.

The cry of fraud and graft has already been hurled at the Durham temperance administration. All of the town printing has been awarded to Captain J. B. Hunter, who is not a printer and has no printing establishment. The Durham Herald says it looks like graft, and from this distance we agree with our contemporary. But the officers of any town are going to give their friends the best of it whenever possible.

The Winston-Salem Journal has solved a problem. Our contemporary concludes that bow legs are due to the prevalence of artificial means of transportation leaving no chance for development of the muscles of the legs.

The Old Guard of the Gray.

Fast fades the flag of '61, the seasons blur its bars.

The rain and stain of many a year has dimmed its warlike stars; Yet, as of old, a thinning band while dies their elder day,

Beneath that honored emblem stand the Old Guard of the Gray.

No hate nor rancor of the past nor vengeful ire they know,

On the same fields with friendly hand they greet their former foe;

Gone is their ancient star, but still their pride no vantage gives— Their cause is long since dead, and yet the south they fought for lives.

She lives; but not to wait and serve to fawn and cower and fringe—

To flatter for a passing smile, and bend the faint knee's hinge— But proud as in those vanished years that she can ne'er forget.

She lives to claim her large estate and wear the coronet.

So here's those who loved her then—the South that lives and reigns—

To those whose dauntless blood today bounds thro' the southern's veins.

The victory is their's at last, but in a nobler way; All honor to that gallant few—the Old Guard of the Gray. —By William Hurd Hillyer.

The man who does no work is a loafer if not a vagrant, and if the law should be made to include this class it would do no hurt.—Durham Herald.

If the postoffice department allows Mr. Beavers to be as leisurely about his trial as he has been about surrendering himself it will be some time before his case will be determined. It looks as if the department feels itself under obligation to Mr. Beavers for consenting to surrender himself to the authorities and agreeing to stand trial on the charges which have been preferred against him. We look for the District of Columbia grand jury to make an apology for having found a true bill against him.—Wilmington Messenger.

In Praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"Allow me to give you a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mr. John Hamlett, of Eagle Pass, Texas. "I suffered one week with bowel trouble and took all kinds of medicine without getting any relief, when my friend, Mr. C. Johnson, a merchant here, advised me to take this remedy. After taking one dose I felt greatly relieved and when I had taken the third dose was entirely cured. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for putting this great remedy in the hands of mankind." For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; R. L. Davis, & Bros., Farmville.

When a girl refuses to marry a duke it is because he refuses to ask her.

Emergency Medicines.

It is a great convenience to have at hand reliable remedies for use in cases of accident and for slight injuries and ailments. A good liniment and one that is fast becoming a favorite if not a household necessity is Chamberlain's Pain Balm. By applying it promptly to a cut, bruise or burn it allays the pain and causes the injury to heal in about one-third the time usually required, and as it is an antiseptic it prevents any danger of blood poisoning. When Pain Balm is kept at hand a sprain may be treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a quick recovery. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; R. L. Davis & Bros., Farmville.

Probably if there were only a few men in the world women wouldn't have such objections to polygamy.

THE GENUINE VS. COUNTERFEITS.

The genuine is always better than a counterfeit, but the truth of this statement is never more forcibly realized or more thoroughly appreciated than when you compare the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve with the many counterfeits and worthless substitutes that are on the market. W. S. Ledbetter, of Shreveport, La., says: "After using numerous other remedies without benefit, one box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me." For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles no remedy is equal to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

Why does a girl always want the lights turned down when she is going to let a man kiss her against her will?

THE PLEASURE OF EATING.

Persons suffering from indigestion, dyspepsia or other stomach trouble will find that Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. This remedy is a never failing cure for Indigestion and Dyspepsia and all complaints affecting the glands or membranes of the stomach or digestive tract. When you take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure everything you eat tastes good, and every bit of the nutriment that your food contains is assimilated and appropriated by the blood and tissues. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

No matter how swelled a man's head is he never thinks he is of as much importance in the world as his wife does.

A PURGATIVE PLEASURE.

If you ever took DeWitt's Little Early Risers for biliousness or constipation you know what a purgative pleasure is. These famous little pills cleanse the liver and rid the system of all bile without producing unpleasant effects. They do not gripe, sicken or weaken, but give tone and strength to the tissues and organs involved. W. H. Howell of Houston, Tex., says "No better pill can be used than Little Early Risers for constipation, sick headache etc." Sold by John L. Wooten.

DISTRESS AFTER EATING CURED.

Judge W. T. Holland of Greensburg, La., who is well and favorably known, says: "Two years ago I suffered greatly from indigestion. After eating, great distress would invariably result, lasting for an hour or so and my nights were restless. I concluded to try Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and it cured me entirely. ## MARVELOUS CURE BY DR MOORE.

NORTH CAROLINA }
Pitt County }
To all whom it may concern:
I hereby testify that my wife, Fanny L. Pearce, and my son, John W. Pearce, and Leona Pearce, wife of my son, J. W. Pearce, on or about the first of last March were strangely effected with a malady resembling fits, and when the attacks were on them they would scream and their paroxysms were so violent that they had to be held by main force. I applied to and had the services of five physicians without realizing any benefit whatever. I finally sought the ministrations of Dr. W. H. Moore, colored, and under his treatment my son passed three snakes, two of them were alive and one was dead. My wife passed several bugs with long snouts to them. It gives me pleasure to announce that they are all getting well and the fits have disappeared.

I cure all troubles that flesh is heir to. I have made the blind see, the deaf hear and the lame walk, as people living here in Greenville and in the county will testify. My medicine and treatment are no humbug, but I guarantee a cure in all cases or take no pay. Don't continue to suffer, but try me and be convinced.

Women's Headaches

542 1-2 Congress Street.
PORTLAND, MAINE, Oct. 17, 1902.

I consider Wine of Cardui superior to any doctor's medicine I ever used and I know whereof I speak. I suffered for nine months with suppressed menstruation which completely prostrated me. Pain would shoot through my back and sides and I would have blinding headaches. My limbs would swell up and I would feel so weak I could not stand up. I naturally felt discouraged for I seemed beyond the help of physicians, but Wine of Cardui came as a God-send to me. I felt a change for the better within a week. After nineteen days treatment I menstruated without suffering agonies I usually did and soon became regular and without pain.

Wine of Cardui is simply wonderful and I wish that all suffering women knew of its good qualities.

Mrs. Wilhelmina Snow
Treasurer, Portland Economic League.

Headaches are the danger signals of coming disease. Both men and women suffer headaches, but periodical headache falls only to the lot of women and is the unerring sign of irregular menstruation and bearing down pains. Completely prostrated by nine months of suppressed menses, blinded by headaches and racked with pain Mrs. Snow was made a strong and healthy woman again. Remember with Wine of Cardui no case is hopeless because this great remedy cures permanently nineteen out of every twenty cases and never fails to benefit a case of irregular menses, bearing down pains or any female weakness. If you are discouraged and doctors have failed, try Wine of Cardui, and try it now. Remember that headaches mean female weakness. Secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui today.
All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

THE WEATHER.

Showers tonight and Wednesday.

In one of Mr. Chase's classes in painting was a young man who could not paint pictures much better than he could save money, and the allowance given to him by his father was very often gone before he knew it. One day Mr. C. was talking to the class on the subject of perspective, and this particular student did not appear to get the idea very clearly. To make it plain Mr. C. went back to the rudiments to get a good start.

"You understand," he said, "that the further you get away from any object the smaller it appears?"

The young fellow shook his head.

"No," he replied, doubtfully, "I'm not so sure about that."

Mr. Chase was provoked, and not a little surprised at such ignorance, and said so.

"It's all right as to some things," responded the student, "but not all. Now, there's $10 bill. The further I get away from that the bigger it appears."—New York Times.

Whipped by Negroes.

Last Friday two negro women, Annie Simmons and May Daniels, met Master Herbert Johnson, aged 7 or 8 years, son of Mr. George Johnson a respected white citizen who lives about one mile from Gold Point and four miles from this place. When the negro women met the child on the public highway, they at once gathered switches and gave him an unmerciful whipping, cutting the blood from him in several places. The negroes gave no reason whatever for their rash act.—Robersonville News.
