Suits that can Look you in the face.

No cotton, no shoddy, no poor tailoring, no sweat-shop work—but all wool, silk-sewed clothing—made in clean, airy, light workshops by tailors who know how to stitch and "knead" a Suit into a shape that will stay.

Patterns are often rich—but not "flashy." The fit is the wonder of men who have never tried "ready-to-wear" before.

The new Fall styles in single and double breasted cuts are ready.

There is an Edge to our suits.

They're full of life—they're different. New styles right off the gridiron. You will find our $10, $12.50 and $15 lines especially attractive. Look to-day—buy any day.

FARMVILLE CORRESPONDENCE.

FARMVILLE, N. C. Sep. 22, 1903

Although the day looks gloomy, the clouds overhanging the sky, and there are strong indications of rain, yet the busy hum of the cotton gin and the ceaseless rap rap of the hammer are heard, all indicating that there is life and energy in the old town yet.

There is marked improvement in the way of building in the town. Mr. Bert Smith has nearly completed a fine residence. The graded school building is on the way, and a beautiful home is being built for Mr. Frank Davis, of the interprising firm of R. J. Davis & Bros. The M. E. church is nearly completed, and the congregation hopes to occupy it before the year closes.

Large quantities of cotton are being brought to Farmville, and after being ginned finds ready sale at satisfactory prices.

The question of voting a certain amount of bonds to the railroad from Washington has been settled and we hope that before many months the road will have been surveyed and grading begun along the entire route.

We were pleased to meet our good friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Stokes, former citizens of our town. They intend making Greensboro their home. We wish them great success in all their undertakings.

When we turn from things of a local character, to those of a general character, we find much upon which the mind can meditate and wonder at the complex, and most difficult problems to which we are brought face to face, and which we cannot set aside, for we realize, the longer we allow these great issues to remain unsettled the more difficult still will it be to settle them.

We were reading an article in the Morning Post, headed "Struggle for Supremacy." The article speaks of the annual meeting of the Indiana State Federation of labor at West Bend. The speeches made there manifested a spirit of antagonism to capital, and loudly protest against the measures put forth by capitalists to enslave the laboring man, and this convention adopted plans by which the laborer should be free, at least from the dominant rule of the employer. To look at the issues between these two great powers, whose interest should be one, working against each other, and make demands upon each other that appear to be wrong, we are forced to believe that a crisis will be reached before many years, and, unless congress passes stringent laws for the control of both labor and monopolies, the time will not be long before the white slave will be forced to settle this question, and that not without bloodshed.

All classes of men, both rich and poor, should be made to obey the laws, and law should be based upon justice to all men alike, the wage earner given a sufficient compensation for his labor. Until this is done by a nation of law, and that law carried out to the full letter and spirit, we can never expect to have a government where peace and happiness abide, and where the capitalist and laborer shall meet on the one great platform of equal rights to all men and favoritism to none.

A woman either worries because the hair she has won't curl, or because she hasn't any that wouldn't curl if she had it.

The expansion of the currency doesn't worry the average man a millionth part as much as the expansion of his expenses.

BETHEL ITEMS.

BETHEL, N. C., Sept. 23, 1903.

Dr. Nash left this morning for his home in Rocky Mount. He has preached very powerful sermons. There has been one of the old time revivals at times. There was not room enough at the altar for the penitents.

S. I. Carson went to Greenville on business Thursday.

Squire Gainer returned from Williamston Friday morning. He spent several days there this week on business.

Will James and Miss Alice Grimes, of Robersonville, were in town Thursday.

Prof. Z. D. McWhorter, of Mount Olive, will be in Bethel Saturday.

The young people of the graded school met Friday evening and organized a literary society. The following persons were elected as officers of the society.

President, Henry Staton, Vice President, Joe Bowers, Secretary, Miss Elizabeth Jones, Treasurer, Miss Lonie Creep, Chaplain, John D. Everett, Sergeant at Arms, Whit Cherry, Monitor, Judson Blount.

A new daily passenger service has been established between Greenville and Washington. The handsomely furnished passenger boat Alteio leaves Washington every morning at 8:30, reaching Greenville at 11:30 a. m. Leaves Greenville at one 1:30 p. m., reaching Washington at 4:30 p. m. The above schedule began last Monday. Robert Winstead is in command of the new steamer. This new route will prove a great convenience to our people.—Washington Gazette Messenger.

Carl D. Parker returned Friday evening from Poughkeepsie where he has been taking a business course.

Old Joe Forbes, the best cook in town, now has his restaurant up stairs in the Brady building. Oysters in any style and meals at all hours.

WINTERVILLE ITEMS.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Sept. 26.

Governor Bob Glenn. That's all right. Let it be.

Miss Mary Ives spent Monday and part of Tuesday with Miss Cora Carroll.

R. v. Mr. Blanchard will fill his regular appointment here Sunday and Sunday night.

Mrs. M. G. Bryan has returned from her visit near Pactolus.

There was a runaway here yesterday evening. Slight damage to a cart, a few badly frightened women and lots of fun for the boys. Joe Smith paid the fiddler.

Miss Effie Kittrell is visiting in Grifton.

The music furnished by the choir in the smith department of the Hunsucker Carriage Company is something wonderful, especially do we commend Joe Manning as soprano and Harvey Cox as an all around go as you please.

J. F. Harrington, of our town, long noted for extreme politeness and genial smiles of attractive nature, added but another wreath to his many other qualifications last Tuesday on entering the central phone office here and perceiving, and as he supposed, a lady of old acquaintance, made his usual Chesterfieldian bow, only a moment later to find himself confronted by a maiden of dusky hue, who coldly stared and failed to respond to the greeting accorded, causing Frankie to retire hurriedly amid the quiet smiles of those who viewed the scene.

Mrs. C. A. Fair and Mrs. Sarah Taylor went to Greenville Wednesday.

Tax Collector Tucker says the tax books are now open and those owing town taxes are requested to come forward and settle.

The marriage of Miss Effie Elizabeth Kittrell to Mr. Guy B. Taylor on the 14th October, 1903, will be in the church at 2 o'clock, instead of "at home." No cards will be sent out in town, but all are cordially invited to attend. We regret the mistake in our last items.

Fannie and Jesse Highsmith, from near Stokes, have been here visiting for several days.

J. F. Harrington and W. L. House went to Greenville Thursday.

Mrs. Bettie Britt and Miss May Tucker went to Greenville shopping one day this week.

L. F. Elliott left for Henderson yesterday for several days' visit.

There was quite a large crowd here Friday after machinery delivered at this point for parties lying off from the railroad.

The millinery openings are expected to draw a large number of ladies today. The preparations made are large and the display and taste are beautiful. Our milliners cannot be excelled in any particular.

Mr. Grisham, of Wilmington, is here for a day or two.

Miss Sadie Little left on yesterday's train for Ayden, where she will visit the Misses Munford.

A Welcome Visitor.

The first show of the season will visit our city on Thursday, Oct. 1st. Surely this item of news will please the young folks. The Southern Vaudeville Shows is one that has a standing record of presenting a good performance in one big ring, in the good old style. Nothing is permitted to appear that will mar the pleasure of the skeptically inclined. Neither is the usual army of fakers often seen in the wake of shows allowed to follow this organization. Fifty great celebrated artists will appear at each performance. Fully two and one half hours of enjoyment is afforded. Let all attend. Afternoon at 2 o'clock, evening at 8 o'clock.

AYDEN ITEMS.

AYDEN, N. C., Sept. 26, 1903.

Prof. and Mrs. A. J. Manning left yesterday for their new home at Jamesville.

J. R. Smith went to Greenville Thursday.

Work has begun on the new hotel.

O. L. Whichard left Thursday for Charleston, S. C., where he has accepted a position as saw filer.

Will Norman, of Wilmington, spent Thursday night here.

Mr. Charles Skinner, of Greenville, spent Thursday night here with his son, the doctor.

A. M. Museley went to Robersonville Thursday.

Dr. L. C. Skinner and W. E. Hooks left yesterday afternoon to attend the grand ball at Greenville.

The colored people had a big day here Thursday.

R. F. Johnston went to Grifton yesterday on business.

WENT BACK ON HIS LAWYER.

You Cannot Always Count on a Guilty Negro.

There are amusing things that happen in court sometime. Friday the solicitor prayed the judgment of the court upon a man who had previously plead guilty to the charge of assault with deadly weapon. The judge began making some inquiry as to the magnitude of the offense to measure the punishment accordingly. The lawyer for the negro arose to make a statement. He went on to tell the court what an excellent man his client was, that he did not even have a pistol at the time of the trouble because he told him he did not have one and he was a truthful negro. After the lawyer was through the solicitor called the prisoner to the stand "Now, where did you get the pistol you had that day?" asked the solicitor. The negro went right ahead and told all about it and the audience smiled at the embarrassment of the lawyer.

Prompt Payment.

Friday Mr. J. L. Sugg, agent of the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance company, of New Jersey, received a check for $5,076.99 payable to the widow of the late Mr. Arden C. Tucker. Mr. Tucker, who died less than a month ago, had carried a policy in that company for seven years, and the check was sent immediately on receipt of proof of death.

Munford's Store News

Miss Anna E. Graf, of Baltimore, has taken a position with Munford's big store in the millinery department. It is needless to say anything of Miss Graf's skill as an artist in this line, as she has been making and designing Mrs. Higgs' pattern hats for several years. With Miss Graf, Mrs. Higgs and Mrs. Cowell Munford's millinery department will be an undoubted success.

The fall opening of the big store will take place Wednesday, September 30th. The display will include dress goods, trimmings, millinery and fancy notions. Munford's well known ability in the display line will be seen at its best this season.

The aborigines of Peru can, in the darkest night and in the thickest woods, distinguish respectively a white man, a negro, and one of their own race by the smell.

The largest gas engine in the world, having 3,000 horse power, will be sent by a Belgian manufacturer to supply part of the motive power of the world's fair at St. Louis.

CARDUI BABIES

Many homes are mere lonely abodes because no children are there. Barrenness exists in almost every case because female diseases have paralyzed the organs of womanhood.

Wine of Cardui imparts health and strength to the diseased parts and makes motherhood possible in thousands of cases where barrenness is supposed to be incurable. Wine of Cardui regulates the menstrual flow and also prevents miscarriage and cures bearing down pains. Wine of Cardui removes the cause of barrenness by making the female organism strong and healthy.

Go to your druggist and secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui. The use of Wine of Cardui will bring happiness to your home.

In cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, "The Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tennessee.

AMETHYST, COLO., Feb. 24, 1902.

Wine of Cardui is worth its weight in gold. It does more than you claim. It has saved my life and caused me to become a mother when everything else failed. MRS. DORA I. E. LE FEVRE.

BRYANT, VA., Feb. 18, 1902.

My daughter-in-law, Lizzie Giles, found great benefit in Wine of Cardui. She had a miscarriage in March 1901, before using your medicine. She was in very bad health, so I persuaded her to try Wine of Cardui. Since then she has had a fine baby boy. Soon he will be three weeks old. She highly recommends Wine of Cardui.

My daughter, Fannie Hudson, also has a fine baby boy by your treatment. She highly appreciates Wine of Cardui. MRS. LOUISA GILES.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON, SEPTEMBER 26, 1903.

Two Los Angeles young women have established a "babyry" where mothers can check their young hopefuls while they go shopping. The process is exactly like that of checking your hat or umbrella at a hotel or other public place, with the exception that the young women promise to handle the babies with care and deliver the right baby every time.

Hon. Lawrence D. Tyson, speaker of the Tennessee house of representatives, and a native of Pitt county, will attend the Greensboro reunion in October. He will respond, on behalf of Tennessee, to an address of welcome to visitors. He is one of the many sons of Pitt who have made their fortunes in other lands, and of whom we are very proud.

The Greensboro Telegram says: "The people of Lexington, S. C., are said to persist in believing that something will turn up to delay the Tillman trial and judging from the past they have a good reason for their belief."

If Jim Tillman's toes turn up it will be the best thing for the state of South Carolina.

It is said that the solicitor who is to prosecute Jim Tillman once killed a man, and was defended in court by Tillman, who secured his acquittal. It doesn't make any difference. Gonzales' murderer would be acquitted anyway.

Mr. Hearst is accredited with the desire of acquiring an organ in North Carolina to further his presidential ambition. If he gets one we hope it will not be a hand organ affair like that one at Edenton.—Charlotte News.

A rich remark on an old subject.

Some young people in this town, and some who are not so young as they once were, need more soap and less perfume. You may enjoy the perfume you use, but other people do not.

It is probable that there are more pianos per capita in Greenville than any other town of like size in the state. And it is certain that they are owned by industrious people.

Just about this time begin to look out for the fellow who knows exactly who will be our next governor. Of course he doesn't really know any more about it than you do.

Governor Yates of Illinois in denouncing Southern lynchings talks like a man who has just interviewed a nestful of very industrious "yaller jackets."

The postoffice robbing business is perking up a bit. Of course it is all on account of Cleveland's second administration.

The people of the German empire spend $35 per capita for beer—$625,000,000. Greenville doesn't do that exactly, but we are growing.

We hope Postmaster General Payne will not be compelled to earn a living after he is pried off his job. It would go hard with him.

The president has returned to the white house. Cranks, take notice.

Wonder what those editors who write about the evil of colossal fortunes would do if they were offered one.

The straw hat still lingers here and there, but where is the yap who used to ask, "Is it hot enough for you?"

We believe New York still has its Hell Gate, John Alexander Dowie notwithstanding.

Washington's tomb at Mt. Vernon is to be vulcanized. Good heavens! Is Beavers after that, too?

No doubt the Macedonians have a grievance—and that is about all they seem to have.

Poverty may be a blessing, but it is seldom that those who have it so consider it.

We will now pass up the ice cream plate and revel in pigs' feet.

THE GENUINE VS. COUNTERFEITS. The genuine is always better than a counterfeit, but the truth of this statement is never more forcibly realized or more thoroughly appreciated than when you compare the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve with the many counterfeits and worthless substitutes that are on the market. W. S. Ledbetter, of Shreveport, La., says: "After using numerous other remedies without benefit, one box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me." For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles no remedy is equal to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

You don't find many girls refusing a man unless they are dead sure he is going to ask them again.

THE PLEASURE OF EATING.

Persons suffering from indigestion, dyspepsia or other stomach trouble will find that Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. This remedy is a never failing cure for indigestion and dyspepsia and all complaints affecting the glands or membranes of the stomach or digestive tract. When you take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure everything you eat tastes good, and every bit of the nutriment that your food contains is assimilated and appropriated by the blood and tissues. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

It ought to make men feel ashamed to figure out how many bonnets all the cigars they have smoked would buy.

A PURGATIVE PLEASURE.

If you ever took DeWitt's Little Early Risers for biliousness or constipation you know what a purgative pleasure is. These famous little pills cleanse the liver and rid the system of all bile without producing unpleasant effects. They do not gripe, sicken or weaken, but give tone and strength to the tissues and organs involved. W. H. Howell of Houston, Tex. says "No better pill can be used than Little Early Risers for constipation, sick headache etc." Sold by John L. Wooten.

A woman could be happy sitting on the prongs of a pitchfork if the man she loves told her he loved her most there.

DISTRESS AFTER EATING CURED. Judge W. T. Holland of Greensburg, La., who is well and favorably known, says: "Two years ago I suffered greatly from indigestion. After eating, great distress would invariably result, lasting for an hour or so and my nights were restless. I concluded to try Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and it cured me entirely. Now my sleep is refreshing and digestion perfect." Sold by John L. Wooten.

Emergency Medicines.

It is a great convenience to have at hand reliable remedies for use in cases of accident and for slight injuries and ailments. A good liniment and one that is fast becoming a favorite if not a household necessity is Chamberlain's Pain Balm. By applying it promptly to a cut, bruise or burn it allays the pain and causes the injury to heal in about one-third the time usually required, and as it is an antiseptic it prevents any danger of blood poisoning. When Pain Balm is kept at hand a sprain may be treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a quick recovery. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; R. L. Davis & Bros., Farmville.

Sort of Flesh He Preferred.

Maxim Goriky, whose passionate denunciation of the Russian government against the Kishineff massacre threatens to cause him trouble at home, has a number of idiosyncrasies, among them being a periodical change from a flesh to a vegetable diet.

It is said of Goriky that he dined at a table d'hote one day in one of his periods of vegetarianism, and was much annoyed by the importunities of an old lady who sat opposite him.

"Wou't you try, sir," "a little of the chicken?"

"No, madam," Goriky answered. "Perhaps, then, you would like some of the boiled ham?"

"None, I thank you."

"Dear me! But surely you'd have a portion of roast beef?"

"No," said the novelist, continuing to eat vegetables only.

"Some roast mutton?" resumed the indefatigable old lady.

Goriky gave her a stern look. "Let me inform you," he said, "that I never eat any flesh but human flesh, and I prefer that raw."
