Suits that can Look you in the face.

No cotton, no shoddy, no poor tailoring, no sweat-shop work—but all wool, silk-sewed clothing—made in clean, airy, light workshops by tailors who know how to stitch and "knead" a Suit into a shape that will stay.

Patterns are often rich—but not "flashy." The fit is the wonder of men who have never tried "ready-to-wear" before.

The new Fall styles in single and double breasted cuts are ready.

There is an Edge to our suits.

They're full of life—they're different. New styles right off the gridiron. You will find our $10, $12.50 and $15 lines especially attractive. Look to-day—buy any day.

FLEISHMAN AND BRO.

LETTER TO ZENO MOORE & BROS.

Greenville N. C.

Dear Sirs: The cheapest thing in the way of sending anything over the world is a postage stamp; and the cheapest way to shed water is paint.

Not whitewash; paint. Do you happen to know—it don't belong to your business to know about paint, you know—do you happen to know that most of the makers of paint stuff it out with lime and clay and sand and water and air?

They do stuff it out in the can; but not on the house. They make more gallons to sell or to buy; more money to pay for paint; more money to pay for putting it on; a good deal more money to pay for putting it on; but no more beauty; more rust; decay; disappointment; loss.

Devote is your paint, because it's all paint, no sham, and full-measure.

Yours truly, F. W. DEVOE & Co. P. S.—H. L. Carr sells our paint.

Ex-President Cleveland used to fish and hunt a good deal in the Barnegat Bay district. John Camburn, a Warrentown guide, says that one cold, wet night Mr. Cleveland got lost. He wandered through the mud and rain and dark more than two hours, but not a house could he see, not a light, not not a road. Finally, though, he struck a narrow lane and in due course a house appeared. Mr. Cleveland was cold and tired; he thought he would go no farther. So he banged at the door till a window on the second floor went up and a gruff voice said:

"Who are you?" "A friend," said Mr. Cleveland, meekly.

"What do you want?" "To stay here all night." "Stay there, then."

And the window descended with a bang and Mr. Cleveland, shouldering his gun again, resumed his journey wearily.

Notice.

There will be a meeting of the trustees of the graded school at the law office of Jarvis and Blow at 8 o'clock tonight. Every member is requested to be present. Sept. 28th, 1903.

THOS. J. JARVIS, Chairman.

Church Improvements.

Considerable improvements have recently been made to the Baptist church building that put it in much better condition. An order has also been given for the memorial window to occupy the front of the main auditorium.

English Blood Hounds.

W. C. Hines recently received from England a kennel of thorough bred English blood hounds. Three were shipped to him but one of the dogs died on the voyage across the ocean.

Like a Circus.

The first Sunday on this road was well patronized. So many people went out to see the train come in Sunday evening that it looked like a circus crowd around the depot.

Marriage Licenses.

Last week Register of Deeds R. Williams issued license to the following couples:

SUNDAY SCHOOL UNION.

Officers Elected for the Next year.

The quarterly union meeting of the several Sunday schools of the town was held in the Methodist church Sunday afternoon.

The reports of the schools for the quarter showed a good enrollment and average attendance, being a small increase over the previous quarter.

Short addresses were made by Mr. F. C. Harding and Rev. A. T. King, and there was a splendid recitation by little Miss Christine Johnson.

The following officers were elected for the next year:

President—M. A. Allen. Vice Presidents—W. R. Parker, L. H. Pender and W. B. Dove. Secretary—D. J. Whichard.

The same program committee was re-elected.

The next meeting will be held in the Baptist church on the last Sunday afternoon in December.

Superior Court.

MISSIONARY EXERCISES.

Interesting Services by the Children.

The children connected with the Baptist Sunday school gave a missionary service in the church, Sunday night, that was witnessed by a very large congregation. The exercises were splendid, every part being well rendered. Miss Annie Perkins had charge of the children in drilling them for this service, and the manner in which each part was given showed they had been well trained. The collection at the service was something over $25, and of this amount nearly $10 was in the children's mite boxes.

The program was as follows: Song—"Speed Away." Prayer by Rev. A. T. King. Questions by Superintendent M. A. Allen and answers by the children. Song—"The Morning Light is Breaking." Prayer—by W. H. Ragsdale. Recitation—"A Missionary Plea," by Miss Lillian Burch. Flower exercise by Misses Jamie Bryan, Eloise Cheek, Ruth Cobb, Grace Smith, Ethel Bowling and Inez Pittman. Questions and answers. Reading—"William Carey, the Father of Modern Missions," by Will Lipscombe. Song—"Missionary Band," by small children. Questions and answers. Recitation—"The Voices of the Children," by Misses Nannie Bowling and Essie Whichard. Short address by the pastor. Offering. Solo—"Entreat Me Not to Leave Thee," by Miss Janie Tyson. Reading—"The Story of the Missionary Hymn," by Hugh Ragsdale. Recitation—"As Stars in the Firmament," by Miss Lucille Cobb. Song—"From Greenland's Icy Mountains." Benediction.

Louis Sherry, the noted caterer, tells an amusing story of a chef whom he brought over from France. The chef, before his contract with Sherry began, lived in idleness for a month in Brooklyn. During the month he walked all over Brooklyn, and he dined all over it as well. What impressed him was the multitude of churches that he saw and the uniformity with which everything he ate was served with a melted butter dressing. At the month's end, when he reported for duty, Mr. Sherry said to him:

"Well, Alphonse, you have had a month to look about you. What do you think of America?"

"It is an extraordinary country," Alphonse answered. "It has twenty religions and only one sauce!"

When a woman happens to understand a joke she has a sneaking suspicion it is a pretty poor one.

It must have been an awful strain on Cinderella when she tried the slipper on not to pretend it was too big for her.

Between thirty five and forty-five there is not one woman in forty that does not dye her hair, and the reason she doesn't is because she doesn't have to.

Jinks—I understand that you are to enter the state of matrimony.

Blinks—Yes; I've got tired of living in the bachelor territory, and I guess I'll get admitted into the Union.

WHITE ROCKS—I have for sale a few white Plymouth Rock pullets and cockerels, pure breed and strong, healthy birds.

D. J. WHICHARD.

MONDAY AFTERNOON, SEPTEMBER 28, 1903.

Greenville needs, among other things, a building-loan association. There are many people here who are inclined to save something for a rainy day if an attractive and profitable plan for securing a home were presented to them, and once such an association is established it will be the means of drawing hundreds of new citizens. If half the money invested in the saloon business and saloon buildings in Greenville were put into a building-loan association, we confidently believe it would pay better than any mercantile business or bank in the town. Building associations benefit all—saloons benefit only their keepers, and that temporarily. We hope this word is spoken to the wise. If it is, it will be sufficient.

The following from the Statesville Landmark is the same doctrine we have been giving out ever since the negro question was settled to our satisfaction:

Every colored man qualified to vote should be allowed to vote, regardless of who or what he votes for; but public opinion should take note of and severely condemn any attempt to cater to the negro vote or to encourage the negro to exercise the right of suffrage. Let us forever have an end of this negro business in politics; let white men settle their differences at the polls as best they can, certain that whichever side wins will be a victory of white people. But whoever encourages the negro to exercise the right of suffrage and makes an effort to cultivate that vote, let him be marked.

Every part of the state should join heartily with Greensboro in making the October reunion a success and an occasion of pleasure and pleasant memories. Greensboro is probably the best business city in the state, and Guilford county leads the state in enterprise and progressiveness. Both the city and county always do their party in whatever undertaking and they should be heartily seconded by the whole state.

The Erie railroad has posted notices to the effect they will in the future only give employment to men under the age of 35 years. The best years of many men's lives come after 35. To side-track men of 40, 45 and 50 is to do without a great deal of brains, experience and conservatism.

To raise the question of the repeal of the fifteenth amendment at this time would be as unwise a thing as the South could do. We do as we please, anyway, so why fight for the shadow when we have the substance?

The sovereign grand lodge of Odd Fellows, in convention at Baltimore, has authorized the construction in the above city of a million dollar home for Odd Fellows. This order has been one of the blessings of the world, and it grows continually in good works.

If the Colorado military authorities are not overstepping their bounds new military law is a bad thing and the more the people learn of it the less will they like it.—Durham Herald.

We have been telling you that for about one year. Time is a slow but sure vindicator of right.

If King Menelik of Abyssinia is the wise old guy he is credited with being, he will pull himself through a knot hole in preference to mixing up with an American imperial administration.

The state of peace that is reigning in Macedonia reminds us of the peace that has been existing for sometime in the Philippines, although it may be a little worse.—Durham Herald.

The peace of the slaughter house.

We heard of a farmer the other day who was completely satisfied with the price he received for his tobacco. We hope this kind of satisfaction will become contagious.

Another "jook of Hingland" has been purchased for an American heiress. They are getting cheap now, this one cost only forty-millions.

In Cincinnati a negro woman's skin is turning white. Here is another negro problem for John Temple Graves.

We started in to keep an account of the candidates for governor by cutting notches on a telegraph pole, but the pole was not long enough.

The follies of youth are condemned as such, but the follies of old age are attributed to second childhood.

No doubt J. Wiley Shook now has a faint idea as to what struck Billy Patterson.

It was a sad day for the doodlers when Jeter C. crossed over to the sunny side of easy street.

Exactly.

Capt. Glenn's friends are now beginning to make themselves heard. It will be very plain in a short while that he is the favorite candidate for governor of North Carolina.—Winston-Salem Sentinel.

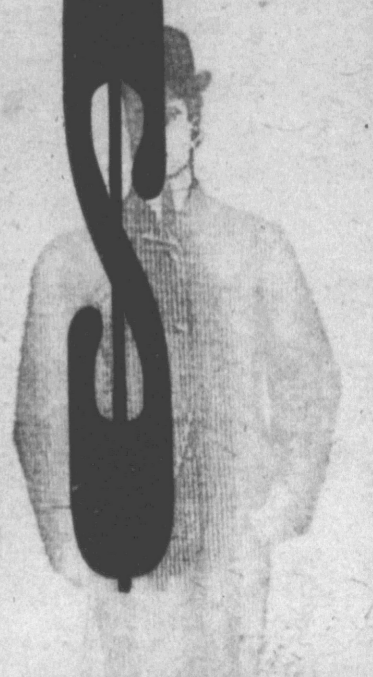

As expected, Capt. R. B. Glenn, of Winston, has come out for governor. He will make a formidable candidate for his competitors. He is a clean man and has a fine record for party service. He would make an excellent governor.—Greensboro, Telegram.

We print in today's paper a card from Hon. R. B. Glenn announcing his candidacy for governor of North Carolina. He is a simon pure democrat, an able lawyer and a gentleman of the highest character. He was elector at large in the presidential campaign of 1892 and district attorney during President Cleveland's second term. He discharged the duties of his office with honor to himself and the government. He is an eloquent speaker and well known throughout the state.—Statesville Mascot.

"How to prohibit prohibition," was the chief theme of discussion at the National Liquor Dealers' Association in Baltimore recently. The cry used to be "prohibition does not prohibit," and yet somehow, the liquor men violently opposed it. Now they recognize that prohibition does prohibit, and their problem, "how to prohibit prohibition."—Western Recorder.

Has Sold A Pile of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for more than twenty years and it has given entire satisfaction. I have sold a pile of it and can recommend it highly.—Joseph McElhiney, Linton, Iowa. You will find this remedy a good friend when troubled with a cough or cold. It always affords quick relief and is pleasant to take. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; R. L. Davis & Bros., Farmville.

Sour Stomach.

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, sour stomach is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals, and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the sour stomach may be avoided. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store and Greenville and R. L. Davis & Bro., Farmville.

Emergency Medicines.

It is a great convenience to have at hand reliable remedies for use in cases of accident and for slight injuries and ailments. A good liniment and one that is fast becoming a favorite if not a household necessity is Chamberlain's Pain Balm. By applying it promptly to a cut, bruise or burn it allays the pain and causes the injury to heal in about one-third the time usually required, and as it is an antiseptic it prevents any danger of blood poisoning. When Pain Balm is kept at hand, a sprain may be treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a quick recovery. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; R. L. Davis & Bros., Farmville.

In Praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"Allow me to give you a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mr. John Hamlett, of Eagle Pass, Texas. "I suffered one week with bowel troubles and took all kinds of medicine without getting any relief, when my friend, Mr. C. Johnson, a merchant here, advised me to take this remedy. After taking one dose I felt greatly relieved and when I had taken the third dose was entirely cured. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for putting this great remedy in the hands of mankind." For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; R. L. Davis, & Bros., Farmville.

Speculation is a good thing to teach people how to economize afterward.

THE GENUINE VS. COUNTERFEITS. The genuine is always better than a counterfeit, but the truth of this statement is never more forcibly realized or more thoroughly appreciated than when you compare the genuine De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve with the many counterfeits and worthless substitutes that are on the market. W. S. Ledbetter, of Shreveport, La., says: "After using numerous other remedies without benefit, one box of De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me." For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles no remedy is equal to De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

A woman can always believe a thing unless there is some reason for believing it.

THE PLEASURE OF EATING.

Persons suffering from indigestion, dyspepsia or other stomach trouble will find that Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. This remedy is a never failing cure for Indigestion and Dyspepsia and all complaints affecting the glands or membranes of the stomach or digestive tract. When you take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure everything you eat tastes good, and every bit of the nutriment that your food contains is assimilated and appropriated by the blood and tissues. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

DISTRESS AFTER EATING CURED. Judge W. T. Holland of Greensburg, La., who is well and favorably known, says: "Two years ago I suffered greatly from indigestion. After eating, great distress would invariably result, lasting for an hour or so and my nights were restless. I concluded to try Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and it cured me entirely. Now my sleep is refreshing and digestion perfect." Sold by John L. Wooten.

A PURGATIVE PLEASURE.

If you ever took DeWitt's Little Early Risers for biliousness or constipation you know what a purgative pleasure is. These famous little pills cleanse the liver and rid the system of all bile without producing unpleasant effects. They do not gripe, sicken or weaken, but give tone and strength to the tissues and organs involved. W. H. Howell of Houston, Tex. says "No better pill can be used than Little Early Risers for constipation, sick headache etc." Sold by John L. Wooten.
