AYDEN ITEMS.

AYDEN, N. C. Sept. 30, 1903.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Prince, of Ellore, S. C., arrived Saturday to visit at the home of Mrs. Irvin Smith. Mr. Prince returned Monday, leaving his wife for a few days with her mother.

Prof. T. H. King, of Hickory, who is to be principal of the graded school here, arrived on Sunday morning's train.

Friday night Alonzo Dail, while riding along a county road a few miles from Ayden, was unexpectedly assailed from a dark place in the woods, by some unknown party. Dail's shirt was cut with a knife. Bodily, Dail received no harm save a little scare.

We are glad to note the young men here have enough energy about them to organize a string band. We have been needing a band of some kind for a long while.

W. E. Hooks, district manager of the Fidelity Mutual Life Insurance Co. of Philadelphia, received a check for $1,000 Monday, payable to the widow of the late Walter B. Pollard, of Farmville. Mr. Pollard died September 13th and the check reached here exactly 14 days later, having been sent immediately upon receipt of proof of death.

Misses Georgia Joyner, of La Grange, and Mary Hodges, of Kinston, arrived yesterday morning. They are both teachers of the graded school.

Miss Myrtle Moon, of Washington, D. C., arrived last night to take charge of the music class in the graded school.

Marcellus Smith left Tuesday for Franklin, Va., on business.

A good many of our people are courting in Greenville this week against their will Postoffice Facilities Increased.

The business of the Greenville postoffice has so increased that Postmaster Perkins found it necessary to add more lock boxes. The additional boxes, about 50, were put in Tuesday night, and to make room for them considerably changed the appearance of the interior of the office.

C. T. Manford made an opening display today of millinery and ladies goods. His stock is very large and embraces all the latest styles. His store was thronged with lady visitors.

Carolina Club Opening.

With the formal opening of the Carolina Club last night the social season was beautifully and fittingly inaugurated. It was undoubtedly the most successful and enjoyable event that has taken place in Greenville in years. The flower of the beauty, grace and chivalry of this old Southern town gave the scene a distinguished air, and the splendid arrangement made by the club officials gave thorough enjoyment to everyone present. The rooms were tastefully decorated with plants and flowers, and the music was all that could be desired. Supper was served at 10:30, and it was certainly one of the most enjoyed and appreciated features of the evening. Many invited guests were present, also the wives and daughters of members. The cuisine and service of the club are both above reproach, and Greenville thinks itself extremely fortunate in having such an institution in its midst, in which we heartily concur.

BETHEL ITEMS.

BETHEL, N. C., Sept. 30, 1903.

Mrs. Lou House and daughter returned to their home yesterday, after a short visit to friends.

Mrs. Alice Martin left yesterday for Rocky Mount, where she will spend a few days with her sister, after which she will attend the W. C. T. U. convention at Hickory, N. C.

Sawyer Brown is attending court in Greenville this week.

Prof. McWhorter, of Mount Olive, was in town Sunday.

T. M. Lawrence, Primitive Baptist minister, preached at the home of Mr. George Howards Sunday night.

After spending several weeks with parents and friends, Mr. William Britton left today for his place of business in Houston, Texas.

The revival at the M. E. church will continue until the last of the week. Fourteen added their names to the membership list last Sunday morning.

We are glad to see Miss Geneva Andrews, who has been ill for some time, out again.

Uncle Sam Gainer is attending court at Greenville this week.

Subject for Medical Students.

John Collins, a colored man, who has for many years been a familiar figure on the streets, died Tuesday evening. His body was shipped to Raleigh today to be turned over to the medical college at the State University.

WINTERVILLE ITEMS.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Sept. 30.

Henry May, one of our oldest and most substantial farmer friends living near here all his life, went to Ayden for the first time last Friday. This is the more remarkable from the fact Mr. May is no recluse, but a man that has seen no little of the outside world, and that he should have lived so long and so near this town and have never seen it is really strange.

There was a baptism in the Missionary Baptist church last Sunday night.

Only a small crowd from here took advantage of the first Sunday train.

Mrs. J. B. Galloway and son, Jimmie, of Grimesland, passed through Sunday on their way home from a visit to a sick friend near here.

J. W. Sparks came in Sunday morning from his trip to Chester, S. C.

Miss Effie Kittrell returned from her visit to Grifton Monday.

Miss Sadie Little has come home from the Misses Mumford's, near Ayden.

W. L. House and D. E. Cooper went to Grifton one day this week.

Misses Nannie and Lee Nichols were visiting Misses Effie and Hattie Kittrell Monday.

T. L. Mitchell and Mr. Becker, of Newbern, were here this week on business with the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

Little Miss Irma Cannon, of Ayden, is visiting Misses Carrie and Henrietta Wesson.

Car loads of cotton seed are now being shipped from this point.

Virgil Rountree, of Kinston, was here part of yesterday.

Mrs. Sparks and daughter, Miss Annie, of Graingers, are visiting the family of J. W. Sparks.

W. C. and Thad Askew, of Farmville, came down yesterday and spent the day.

Mrs. F. O. Cox and Mrs. Sallie Nelson went to Ayden Monday and returned Tuesday.

Little Miss Lillie Murphy, a student in the Wateryville High school, received a telegram announcing the death of her sister at Fremont, her home, last Saturday afternoon. She left at once on the evening train accompanied as far as Kinston by Prof. Lineberry. Her sister was buried the following day and Miss Lillie returned Tuesday to resume her studies. Our people deeply sympathize with this bright little girl and especially are her young schoolmates grieved and mourn with her in her sorrow.

Misses Cora and Sadie Carroll attended religious services here Sunday.

Prof. J. L. Jackson, of Contoe, after visiting relatives near here, has returned to his home.

H. A. Blow and W. Simons, of Greenville, were here last night.

The attention of the ladies is especially directed to the fact that Mrs. L. Griffin has a full line of fall millinery in prices to suit the times.

Hats for dress and popular wear. Hats trimmed becoming to the wearer. The trimming will be under the direction of Mrs. Ella Greene, assisted by Miss Billings, of Richmond, who has had much experience in millinery work.

Our salesladies are always pleased to show the goods. My friends and customers all over the county will receive a hearty welcome. Come to my openings on Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 30th and Oct. 1st.

MRS. L. GRIFFIN.

Murder Case.

The trial of Nathan Seasons, charged with killing Osborn Walker at Shelmerdine, last year, began in the Superior court this morning. Mr. F. M. Wooten appears with Solicitor Moore for the prosecution, and the prisoner is defended by Messrs. H. W. Whedbee and Roy C. Flanagan.

A venire of 50 was summoned from which to select the jury. The regular panel was first called and eight of these were accepted, the remaining four coming from the venire. The jury as empaneled is composed of R. Hyman, T. E. Langly, W. J. Summerell, M. A. Roberson, F. M. Smith, J. W. Martin, Jr., W. H. Clark, B. T. Bailey, B. S. Summerell, J. J. May, W. J. Fleming and W. E. Patrick.

The taking of testimony was still in progress at the time we go to press.

Body Found Floating in River.

Williamston, N. C., Sept. 28.—Late in the evening the body of a white man standing, partially erect, was seen floating down the river past the steamboat wharf. Investigation proved it to be the body of Bob Padgett, who lived with his family here in town. He was clad in a suit of overalls, such as he was seen to wear on the streets Tuesday night last, since when he has not been seen until he was thus discovered. He had in his pockets some two dollars in change a letter, a bottle of cologne and other articles.

At the coroner's inquest it was thought that there had been foul play as there was a serious bruise on his forehead, but no evidence could be had of such.

PACTOLUS ITEMS.

PACTOLUS, N. C. Sept. 30th, 1903.

Mrs. W. R. Whitehead, of Edgecombe county, is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. E. Bradley.

T. H. Rollins and wife, of Washington, spent Sunday here with his father, J. J. Rollins.

C. E. Bradley went to Greenville Thursday on business.

We had company Tuesday night. It was wrck train with a string band of coons.

C. E. Bradley went to Washington Monday.

C. F. James and C. E. Bradley spent part of Sunday in Carolina.

J. J. Harrington has charge of the free school here. He has a full school and Jack knows just how to handle them.

J. J. Satterthwaite is looking for water; been driving a pump for a week. Wonder what the temperature of the water is now.

The writer has been spending too much time from home of late, hence the shortage of items from our burg. But he is back in harness again now.

C. E. Bradley & Co. have some nice furniture just arrived. If you want a nice suit you can be furnished.

Mrs. Waldron came in last week to see her mother, Mrs. J. J. Rollins. She will spend two weeks down here with her old friends before returning to New Jersey.

C. E. Bradley will in a few days commence shipping lumber from here to Greenville for the purpose of building over there. He will move his family there, where they can have the advantage of the graded school.

A Sensible Grand Jury.

Wilmington, Del. Sept. 29.—The grand jury today announced that it had decided to ignore the bill against those charged with being concerned with the burning at the stake of George White, the negro who assaulted and murdered Miss Helen Bishop.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, SEPTEMBER 30, 1903.

Occasionally a relic of the dim and distant past in the shape of a tramp printer blows into this office and languidly inquires if there is any work. Yes, there is work aplenty here, but not for the bleary-eyed party with the beery breath. His day is gone forever, to the credit of the craft. His shadow lingers yet awhile, but he is now of few days and dreary, and soon the places that knew him will know him no more.

It is the duty of every parent in Greenville to send their children to the graded schools. Sometimes, we regret to say, conditions are such as to make this a duty almost impossible of performance. We hope such instances will be rare in this community, and that those parents who are able to send their children to school will see that every advantage is improved.

There was a disgusting spectacle at Salisbury Saturday. Seventh Day Adventists were holding a meeting there and baptized white and colored converts together. Women helped to wipe the negroes' heads and faces as the latter came out of the water and the same towels were used on both races. That is social equality with a vengeance.

Why is it that foreign countries have so much difficulty in getting together a cabinet? Are there so few people over there capable of filling cabinet positions, or are the offices without salary? Imagine an American cabinet position going begging?

An Alabama postmaster is in trouble because he offered P. M. G. Payne $50 for a better office. He had no finesse, or he would have raised the ante and presented the P. M. G. with a hundred dollar horse or dog.

It is doubtful if sound business men would want to lease the A. & N. C. railroad unless they saw something in it for themselves. Why, then, can't the state and stockholders get out of it what others see in it?

Now the season cometh on apace when the old gentleman with the benevolent aspect and side whiskers goes to the circus for the sole purpose of taking the children.

We are not prepared to attribute it to Providence, but it does seem that the Southern railway is being punished for its sins. The pity is that innocent and overworked employees must be sacrificed.

From all accounts that North Carolina cadet deserved dismissal, but it is probable that there are scores left as bad as he.

Wall street is somewhat indisposed. It is doubtful if it will receive much sympathy from the people it has made sick.

Now if the president will add a razor to his arsenal he will keep on the square with his Booker Washington colored friends.

"Drunk and down" continues to constitute the major part of police court business in Greenville.

Scientists predict that the human race will eventually become hairless. Comfort for the bald-heads.

The Durham man who was shot in a whiskey shop reaped exactly what he sowed.

A charity bawl is the one your neighbor's baby furnishes.

Plate glass has advanced in price. Never touched us.

The president of the S. A. L. has not resigned again.

LAUGHINGHOUSE'S RINGING RESOLVES.

The Farmers' National Congress in session at Buffalo, New York, adjourned after passing mild resolutions in favor of enforcing existing laws against trusts. The convention did not endorse the drastic and effective measures offered in a series of resolutions offered by Mr. J. J. Laughinghouse, of North Carolina, but they are educative and well worth consideration. Mr. Laughinghouse has given long and earnest consideration to the trust evil, particularly as it bears upon the farmers of the country. He has read much, and has seen and felt the burdens imposed by the trusts upon American agriculture, and the remedies he offered are believed by him and by many others to be necessary to give relief. The resolutions offered in that convention by Mr. Laughinghouse are as follows:

Whereas, Notwithstanding the penalties against trusts have been upon the statute book for ten years, there has been no instance of conviction or punishment inflicted in a single instance thereunder, while these devourers of the people's substance have been multiplied like the plagues of Egypt.

Resolved, That this convention respectfully petitions the President of the United States to see that the criminal statutes against trusts be strictly executed, in both letter and spirit.

2. Whereas, The criminal statutes against trusts have proven ineffective for their suppression; and whereas, the imposition of a ten per cent. tax upon State banks of issue, a perfectly legitimate business, procured their instant destruction,

Resolved, that this convention respectfully petitions congress to impose a franchise tax of ten (10) per cent. upon all corporations, engaged in inter-state commerce whose capital stock shall exceed one hundred million of dollars.

Whereas, One-third of the revenues of Great Britain are derived from a graduated tax upon incomes, the ratio increasing in proportion to the size of the income, and whereas, by the change of opinion of one Judge of the Supreme Court of the United States, the income tax levied by congress, which had been constitutional for more than one hundred years, was suddenly held unconstitutional, thus transferring one hundred millions of annual taxation from those most able to bear it and placing it upon those least able to bear it, whereby, already in these ten years the masses have paid one thousand millions of dollars in taxation which the people through their representatives in both houses of congress had ordered should be paid by Income Tax. Now, therefore,

CURED WHEN OTHERS FAILED

1056 Winnemac Avenue.
CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 25, 1902.
Wine of Cardui can always be relied upon to cure when everything else fails.
It is a certain cure for female diseases in their worst forms. I suffered for years with ulceration. Intense pains in the womb and ovaries and dreadful headaches unfitted me for my work. Finally I grew so ill that I had to keep to my bed. The pains were so intense at times as to cause spasms and a disagreeable discharge drained my life forces. In my extremity after all else had failed, I tried Wine of Cardui. After using it for two weeks I began to improve so rapidly that I felt encouraged to keep up the treatment, which I did for eighteen weeks, but at the end of that time I was entirely cured. What a relief was mine and how new and beautiful life looked to me when my health was restored. Only those who have passed through such a siege of sickness as I have will understand how much I value Wine of Cardui.
It is indeed
a boon to sick women.

Frances Mitchell

Secretary, North Chicago Frauen Verein.

Every weak woman needs Wine of Cardui. Wine of Cardui cures dis-ordered and painful menstruation, periodical headaches, falling of the womb and leucorrhoea. It cures extreme cases of these troubles. It strengthens girls approaching womanhood, helps bring children to barren homes, makes pregnancy and childbirth easier, prevents miscarriages and is the best medicine ever made for use during the change of life. Why permit the good women in your home to suffer another day? Every druggist has $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

GREENVILLE, N. C.

Resolved, We earnestly petition congress to enact a constitutional amendment to be submitted to the legislatures of the several states, empowering congress to levy an Income Tax.

4. Whereas, In a free country, no public office should be deemed so high and important that the people are incompetent to fill it, and it is increasingly important that the people should retain supervision of their public servants:

Resolved, That this convention respectfully petitions congress to pass a constitutional amendment to be submitted to the several legislatures providing for the election of United States Senators and all United States Judges by the people, and the adoption of a term of years, in lieu of life tenure, for the latter.

5. Whereas, by the Interstate Commerce Act, railroad and telegraph, telephone and express companies are forbidden to make any discrimination and by repeated decisions of the proper court, this act forbids the giving of railroad free passes, or telegraph, telephone and express franks to senators, congressmen and judges or other public officials, and the notorious violation of this law in favor of public officials is a bad example and a scandal:

Resolved, That this convention respectfully petition the president to take steps to secure the due execution of this statute.

6. Whereas, It is notorious that great trusts and corporations have acquired ownership or control of a large part of the newspaper press with a view of influencing public sentiment in their interest and to prevent the dissemination of correct and full information of intelligence upon matters vitally affecting the public welfare:

Resolved, That we recommend to the farmers and toilers of this country to patronize no paper whose utterances do not show that it stands at all times fully and squarely for justice to the people in the great contest in which we are now engaged, and against the trusts and illegal combinations that would rob us of the just fruits of our toil.

The papers did not state whether
Mr. Laughinghouse made a speech to the convention in favor of his resolutions. If he did, he spoke with characteristic force and convincing argument. He is a man who does not advocate any cause in which he does not sincerely believe, and a man who is ready always to give a reason for the faith that is in him. A ringing speech from him would have been like a bugle call to his brother farmers to awake from their lethargy and get ready for drastic action against the trusts that enrich themselves by using their illegal power to take the farmers' crops at their own prices and then advance the prices to all consumers.—Raleigh News and Observer.

THE STATE PRESS.

Dare county leads the state in the matter of local taxation for schools. At the recent election held in that county for taxation every district was carried for schools except
one. It is a fact worth heralding throughout the state that in ten districts, not a single vote was cast against taxation. When it is remembered that Dare county is so sparsely settled the result of the recent election becomes more significant.—Smithfield Herald.

Kill Them.

Last night Policeman Dudley was out shooting dogs that had been bitten by a mad dog. It would not be a bad idea to kill every dog running on the streets. There is no telling how many have been bitten.

After eating, great distress would invariably result, I sting for an hour or so and my nights were restless. I concluded to try Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and it cured me entirely. Now my sleep is refreshing and digestion perfect." Sold by John L. Wooten.

To All Whom It May Concern:

This is to certify that in July, 1902, I had a fistula in anus which had given me trouble for ten years past and I had consulted several physicians and had followed their prescriptions to the letter and continued to grow worse until I could not walk, and for eight months I could only walk on crutches, and in this condition I was advised to call on Dr. Moore, colored, which I did, and under his treatment I at once began to grow better and in one week the trouble was removed and I was perfectly well, feeling like a 16-year old boy, and the trouble has never returned.
