SHOT FROM DARK LENOIR COUNTY MAN AMBUSHED.

Assassin Fired Load of Buckshot Into Charles F. Tate, Who Lives 10 Miles From Kinston. Wounds May Prove Fatal.

Mr. Charles F. Tate, a tenant on Dr. Tull's place about 10 miles from Kinston, was ambushed yesterday evening between sunset and dark, and shot with a shotgun loaded with buckshot, and the wound will probably prove fatal. Two shot entered the right shoulder, one passed through the windpipe and two went into the head at the right ear. From the latter wound the brain was oozing when medical aid reached the stricken man, but with advanced surgery it is thought possible to save his life even yet, though Mr. Tate's chances of recovery are extremely slim.

There is no evidence as to the perpetrator of the deed, but suspicion points to parties and the proper steps are being taken by the authorities.—Kinston Free Press, 1st.

PRESIDENT MOST CORDIAL TO MRS. SHIPP.

Washington, D. C. Oct.—The president received Mrs. Margaret B. Shipp, of Lincolnton, at the white house today and gave her a most cordial reception. She was presented by Judge Pritchard. The interview lasted some time and was most affected. The president was more than usually cordial as he indicated time and again while the contest over the Lincolnton postoffice was considered. The president took occasion to say many kind things about the gallant husband of Mrs. Shipp, whom he held in highest esteem. He recalled numerous incidents in which he had heard the late Lieut. Shipp figured at San Juan.

Thursday as Mrs. W. B. Greene was coming up town from her home, on Dickinson avenue, she became frightened at an unruly horse. She started to run in W. J. Thigpen's store, on Five Points, and fell in the door, hurting one foot quite severely. She has suffered much pain from the accident.

THE COUNCILMEN IN REGULAR SESSION.

At the meeting Thursday night the board of alderman did not have much business outside of the routine reports of officers and allowing accounts.

The returns of the recent railroad election were canvassed and the result declared to be in favor of taking $15,000 of the second mortgage bonds of the Raleigh & Pamlico Sound railroad.

S. T. Hooker, who had previously been elected chief of the fire department, and E. L. Humber, who had been elected chief engineer, were present and accepted the positions. F. M. Hodges, who was elected assistant chief of the department, declined to accept. Filling the vacancy was deferred to the next regular meeting.

The chairman of the board of trustees of the graded schools appeared before the board, and asked that the donation of $1,750 which the former board of aldermen had agreed to give towards the school building out of the funds arising from the sale of improvement bonds, be paid now out of the general funds to be replaced when the bonds are sold.

A committee was appointed to investigate the legality of this and report at a special meeting to be held on Wednesday night, 7th inst.

LIPTON FOR MIN- ISTER TO YOUR UNCLE SAM.

Salt Lake, Oct. 1.—"If King Edward would bring still closer together the English and American people, and if he would weld more firmly the commercial interests existing between English and American people and maintain the cordial relations of every character existing, he would make Sir Thomas Lipton his next ambassador to the United States," said United States Senator Thomas Kearns today in speaking of and lamenting the death of Sir Michael Herbert.

"Sir Thomas Lipton has done more during the last fifteen months to increase the good fellowship of genuine friendship existing between the American and English people," continued Senator Kearns, "than all the men and women in the British dominion."

Tammany Nominates McClellan.

New York, Oct. 1.—Tammany nominated Col. George B. McClellan tonight after a stormy session. The vote was 434 to 219, showing that Kings county had stood firm against the dictation of Tammany.

The Brooklyn men kept things excited from the start, and when they had lost on the fight for mayor began an attack on the nomination of Grout and Fomes, which put the convention in an uproar. They served notice that they would not support Grout in and event. At a late hour the prospects were that the convention would not adjourn until long after midnight.

A girl never thinks a young man's heart is in the right place unless she possesses it.

ARE IN A BAD WAY WILLIAMS' FINANCIAL EMBARASSMENTS.

Richmond Banking Firm of John L. Williams & Son Have Turned Their Affairs Over to an Interested Committee.

Richmond, Va. Oct. 1.—John Skelton Williams, president of the Seaboard Air Line railway, and a member of the firm of John L. Williams & Son, bankers of Richmond, and the largest holders of Seaboard stock, was interviewed at Baltimore tonight, over the long distance telephone, regarding the condition of the banking firm of his father and himself here, which is greatly embarrassed at present. He stated that the banks and affairs of his firm here and that of J. W. Middleдорff & Co., Baltimore, had been placed in the hands of a committee who had consented to take charge and conduct the business until the true financial condition of the firm could be found.

Old habits are hard to break. The saloon in North Carolina supported itself against public indignation so long with the negro vote that it cannot see how changed conditions are. The man or the institution that tampers with that vote now is lost. It may save itself in one election to be doubly damned in the next. And yet the saloon is registering the negroes wherever it can and in Raleigh with shameful disregard of the law and the constitution.—Charlotte News.

RAILROADS WILL RAISE FREIGHT CHARGES.

Chicago, Oct. 1.—"Railroad freight rates are likely to go up," so said Slason Thompson, of the railway news bureau, speaking to day of a proposed meeting in this city of the board of chairmen of the grievance committees of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, representing the employees of nearly every railroad system in the United States.

"If the organizations of the railway employees of the country continue to press their demands for increased wages, means must be found to increase the earnings in comparison with the increased wage expense, and the only feasible plan is through the freight department. Passenger rates cannot be changed."

Haywood Jury Empaneled.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 2.—The jury before whom Ernest Haywood will be tried for the killing of Ludlow Skinner, has been made up and duly empaneled. The taking of evidence began this morning.

Tillman Trial Drags On.

Lexington, S. C., Oct. 1.—The reading of the editorials from the files of the state newspaper for the year 1902 has consumed most of the court's time today. Mr. Elliott, of the prosecution's counsel, was engaged for not less than six-and-a-half hours in the reading.

BUSINESS CON- FERENCE OF BAPTISTS.

September 30th closed the associational year of the Greenville Memorial Baptist church, and that night the quarterly business conference of the church was held. The church letter to the Tar River Association, which meets at Rocky Mount on the 6th, was read: This letter shows that the church has 125 members, 19 being added during the past fiscal year.

The total membership of the Sunday school is 124.

The letter also showed that the aggregates, contributions for the year through the different organizations of the church amounted to $1634.28. The contributions to the Thomasville Orphanage amounted to $92.55, and to school and colleges $86.25.

The delegates to the association are W. H. Ragsdale, J. W. Bryan, and J. G. Bowling; alternates, W. T. Lee, S. J. Parham and D. J. Whichard.

The term of office of Deacons J. J. Cherry, C. D. Rountree, D. L. James and D. J. Whichard having expired, they were all re-elected for two years.

Van Wormer Brothers Executed.

Plattsburg, N. Y., Oct. 1.—Without fear in their faces or a falter in their steps, Willis, Burton and Fred Van Wormer went to the electric chair in Clinton prison at Dannemora and paid the penalty of their crime at Greendale on Christmas eve, two years ago. These three young men, nothing but boys, whose night rides in Columbia county terrorized the peaceful farmers for years, who gradually developed from mere mischief makers into thieves, and from thieves into barn burners, until they wound up their riotous careers in the deliberate, cowardly murder of the one man who had stood by them for years, their uncle, Peter A. Hallenbeck, went to their deaths in the way they said they would.

BOOKER TRAVELS IN EUROPE INCOG.

Paris, Oct. 1.—Booker T. Washington, head of the Tuskegee Institute, of Alabama, who is here, has been besieged by French reporters anxious to obtain an expression of his views on the negro question. In order to escape attention he is traveling under the name of Jones. Washington declined to speak to the French press representatives regarding his entertainment by President Roosevelt.

September Sales.

The sales of tobacco on the Greenville market for the month of September, as reported by Mr. C. W. Harvey, secretary of the board of trade, were 1,685,511 pounds. There was an improvement in grades offered over the previous month and the general tone of the market was better.

Good Sale.

Today at Jefferson Warehouse Galloway & Lee sold ten lots of tobacco at an average of 12 cents. One lot brought as high as 35 cents. That looks like reaching towards old time prices.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, OCTOBER 2, 1903.

MR. DEWEY WRITES A LETTER.

It appears that Mr. Dewey, the New Bern bank wrecking artist, has written a letter to the News and Observer, denying that his defalcation amounts to as much as state bank officials claim. The letter may or may not be a fraud, (we are inclined to think it is, but do not believe the News and Observer is a party to it.) It is full of crocodile tears and cowardly whining. If the letter really came from Dewey he is not only a thief, but a coward of the sickliest stripe. He says he intends to return and face the charges against him, and that he has not been the recipient of ill-gotten gains. Perhaps he forgot to mention where the money went to, and perhaps he thinks he can make a good defense by whining about what honest men should do, but it is doubtful if even one of his victims will be able to work up any sympathy for him.

Mr. Dewey intimates that he has "a proud and sensitive nature." Well, well, who would have thought it? He also hints that his soul is hungering for hope. This is where he has the best of his deserted and disgraced wife and children, who may be hungering for bread, for all he may know. It is too bad for his victims that his soul hungered for other people's money before it began to hunger for hope.

You need not be in any hurry to return, Mr. Dewey, unless you can make good. The only use the state could have for you would be as an ornament to the penitentiary. You danced and you must pay the fiddler.

The troops on strike duty in the Colorado mines have suppressed a daily newspaper by force of arms. The men who directed this thing probably know their country, and would not dare do such a thing in North Carolina. That is the difference between North Carolina and Colorado.

"The supremacy of cotton manufacturing in New England will continue to be unassailable," said the president of the New England Cotton Manufacturers' association recently. Unless New England begins to catch up with the 20th century there will be nothing to assail.

Mayor Harrison says the Chicago city hall is full of graft. He will not have to swear to it. Whoever went up against a Chicago hotel in 1893 is ready to believe that nine-tenths of the population are grafters.

We judge that Mr. Dewey must be Thibet in or some other foreign country. Maybe that is why it takes him so long to get back to North Carolina.

Mr. Dewey says he didn't steal more than half the amount charged against him. Probably borrowed the other half.

Senator Carmack says he will not repeal the fifteenth amendment this year. The country is profoundly grateful.

One candidate for governor has dropped out, but you'd never miss him.

The federal troops are maneuvering in Kentucky. The Kentucky mountaineers are making the same old brands.

Nature's School.

I put my heart to school
In the world, where men grow wise,
"Get out," I said, "and learn the rule,
Come back when you win a prize.
My heart came back again.
"Now, where is the prize?" I cried,
"The rule was false, and the prize was vain,
And the teacher's name was Pride."
I put my heart to school
In the woods, where the veeries sing,
And brooks run cool and clear,
In the fields where wild flowers spring,
And the blue of heaven bends near,
"Go out," said I, you half a fool,
And perhaps they can teach you here."
"And why do you stay so long,
My heart, and where do you roam?"
The answer came with a laugh and song—
"I find this school is home."
—Henry Van Dyke.

THE STATE PRESS.

There is a suspicion that the vagrancy law on the statute books of North Carolina may be made to produce just as good results as that one Georgia enacted. The proper enforcement of the law is the thing, and Raleigh is leading a movement to bring this about. We have in the state counterparts of the idle classes which Georgia has set to work—mainly darkeys living on petty thefts and white men in the cotton mill towns subsisting on the labor of their wives and children. Raleigh in taking initiative steps in this matter is doing North Carolina a real service.—Winston-Salem Sentinel.

Senator Carmack is now reported as denying that he intends to introduce a measure to repeal the fifteenth amendment, and regretting that his remarks which seemed to indicate such intention were published. We shall accept this as evidence that the gentleman is more sensible than the first publication would justify the people in believing him to be. He has intelligence and we are gratified to be thus encouraged to hope he will show that he has judgment and patriotism to go with it.—Raleigh Post.

We have talked with two gentlemen recently who have visited several of the eastern markets. One of these gentlemen was a large independent buyer, and he said the crop in the bright section was exceedingly common. The other gentleman was connected with the American Tobacco Company, and he told us that that the crop was a fairly good one. If the opinion of these gentlemen had been reversed we would not have wondered. But their opinions, under the circumstances, were somewhat confusing.—Southern Tobacco Journal.

The state board of agriculture of Georgia, basing its estimate upon September reports to the department states that the cotton crop of that state is short compared with last year, the figures for the present being 1,076,000, against 1,470,000 last season. It will be found to be short throughout the entire belt according to our best judgment of the situation. We are more confirmed in the belief that the present crop will not much, if any at all, exceed 10 million bales. It was a little over 10,700,000 bales last year.—Morning Post.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. No one who is acquainted with its good qualities can be surprised at the great popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It not only cures colds and grip effectually and permanently, but prevents these diseases from resulting in pneumonia. It is also a certain cure for croup. Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. It is also pleasant to take. When all of these facts are taken into consideration it is not surprising that people in foreign lands, as well as at home, esteem this remedy very highly and very few are willing to take any other after having once used it. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; R. L. Davis Bros., Farmville.

Many Mothers of a Like Opinion Mrs. Pilmer, of Cordova, Iowa, says: "One of my children was subject to croup of a severe type, and the giving of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy promptly, always brought relief. Many mothers in this neighborhood think the same as I do about this remedy and want no other kind for their children." For sale by Wooten's drug store, Greenville; R. L. Davis Bros., Farmville.

CURED WHEN OTHERS FAILED

1056 Winnemac Avenue. CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 25, 1902.

Wine of Cardui can always be relied upon to cure when everything else fails. It is a certain cure for female diseases in their worst forms. I suffered for years with ulceration. Intense pains in the womb and ovaries and dreadful headaches unfitted me for my work. Finally I grew so ill that I had to keep to my bed. The pains were so intense at times as to cause spasms and a disagreeable discharge drained my life forces. In my extremity after all else had failed, I tried Wine of Cardui. After using it for two weeks I began to improve so rapidly that I felt encouraged to keep up the treatment, which I did for eighteen weeks, but at the end of that time I was entirely cured. What a relief was mine and how new and beautiful life looked to me when my health was restored. Only those who have passed through such a siege of sickness as I have will understand how much I value Wine of Cardui. It is indeed a boon to sick women.

Frances Mitchell
 Secretary, North Chicago Frauen Verein.

Every weak woman needs Wine of Cardui. Wine of Cardui cures disordered and painful menstruation, periodical headaches, falling of the womb and leucorrhoea. It cures extreme cases of these troubles. It strengthens girls approaching womanhood, helps bring children to barren homes, makes pregnancy and childbirth easier, prevents miscarriages and is the best medicine ever made for use during the change of life. Why permit the good women in your home to suffer another day? Every druggist has $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

ORMONDSVILLE, N. C., Sept. 2.

Miss Mittie Harper, of Snow Hill, is visiting at W. A. Darden's. J. H. Darden and R. C. Coward went to Ayden today.

W. A. Darden was a delegate to the national farmer's association, which met in session at Niagara Falls. He was unable to attend.

Mrs. Bettie Patrick is visiting friends and relatives in Kinston.

Mrs. Elias Turnage and daughter, Miss Lucy, visited Mrs. W. M. Edwards, of Ayden, yesterday.

The High school is progressing finely now. By the consolidation of these districts, it has increased the number of children about fifty per cent., and in a few more weeks more teachers will be needed. The school is a credit to our community and is well patronized from other sections.

The new system ginbery recently installed by Turnage & Ormond is doing excellent work and the people are well pleased with the turn outs they receive. One man was heard to say yesterday that he received a hundred pounds more lint from a bale of cotton than he expected. Cotton is being hauled a distance of six to seven miles; this is good proof of its excellent work.

Mr. T. W. Lassiter, of Lizzie, was here a short while today.

Miss Sallye Palmer, of Hookerton, visited Miss Margaret Ormond last week.

Mr. J. K. Hardy went to Greenville Tuesday.

Some of our people were very much interested in the railroad question last week, but since the bonds were carried, the railroad has hardly been thought of.

Cause of Lockjaw.

Lockjaw, or tetanus, is caused by a bacillus or germ which exist plentifully in street dirt. It is inactive so long as exposed to the air, but when carried beneath the skin as in the wounds caused by percussion caps or by rusty nails, and when the air is excluded the germ is roused to activity and produces the most virulent poison known. These germs may be destroyed and all danger of lockjaw avoided by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely as soon as the injury is received. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and causes cuts, bruises and like injuries to heal without maturation and in one third the time required by the usual treatment. It is for sale by Wooten's drug store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

Hurt by Falling Pole.

While Carl Wilson, one of the sons of Mr. W. B. Wilson, was looking at the crew put up the circus tent Thursday, one of the poles fell and struck him across the temple. He received a right painful cut and bruise.

To All Whom It May Concern:
This is to certify that in July, 1902, I had a fistula in anus which had given me trouble for ten years past and I had consulted several physicians and had followed their prescriptions to the letter and continued to grow worse until I could not walk, and for eight months I could only walk on crutches, and in this condition I was advised to call on Dr. Moore, colored, which I did, and under his treatment I at once began to grow better and in one week the trouble was removed and I was perfectly well, feeling like a 16-year old boy, and the trouble has never returned.
