"Lend Me Your Ears."

It is not often—about once in a century—that this paper advocates the creation of new offices, county, town, state or national, but as we haven't done it this century, and we recently witnessed an incident which came mighty near causing the spirit to move us. Maybe it did, but we had a cold and may not get the full benefit of the spirits' movings until next week. In the meantime we chronicle.

Two ladies drove into town in a mule cart on the first rainy day we have had since little Charlie Ross was lost. It is none of our business why they didn't go to a livery stable; they drove into a back lot and one of them proceeded to alight and unhitch the critter. At the first step on the ground the lady's feet went into the mudwell, we didn't measure the distance. The other lady alighted and did likewise. But they had evidently unhitched that "critter" before, and they succeeded this time, but we are almost willing to take a solemn oath that enough mud clung to their shoes to fill up the holes in Dickinson avenue. If they swore at Greenville, sweet village of mud, we didn't hear it and if the Clerk of Court in the Court House in the sky heard, we are sure he forgot to make any note of it.

The foregoing suggests that Greenville needs an official hitcher of horses to wait upon ladies without masculine encumbrances.

Just think what an impetus would be given to our dry goods and millinery industries should the message go over the rural routes that Greenville had appointed a force of handsome men to play the gallant at so much per diem! Why, we couldn't begin to handle the crowds with present facilities. It is true we would have to import such officers from Winterville or Halifax if we insisted upon beauty, but 'twould pay us to do it.

The other towns in the county would have to go out of business, or go and do likewise. But we would have the start of them, and we would make them look like the steam calliope in the circus parade.

It's up to Emperor Whedbee and his senate of noble Rowans.

Teach Children to be Ashamed of Idleness.

That there is much discontent with work among the so called middle classes in America is due in large part to the pampering of children, to the supply of their natural and artificial wants, and to the sentimental idea that "the day of toil will come soon enough."

In general, work is not a curse, but a blessing—a positive means of grace. One can hardly begin too early to impress upon children lessons of selfhelp by tasks appropriate to their age and forces, and to beget in them scorn of idleness and of dependence on others. To do this is to make them happy through the self-respect that comes with the realization of power, and thus to approximate Tennyson's goal of man: "Self-reverence, self knowledge, self control."—The Century.

Missionary Meeting.

There will be a called meeting of the Baptist Woman's Missionary Society Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock to finish up the work for the frontier mission box. All members of the society and every lady member of the church is earnestly requested to be present and take a part in this work.

W. R. Henry Asked to Resign.

Washington, Oct. 10.—The resignation of Walter B. Henry, national bank examiner for the states of North and South Carolina and Alabama, has been requested by Comptroller of the Currency Ridgley. Negligence and carelessness in his work is the cause of the demand for Mr. Henry's resignation. This information was obtained at the Treasury Department to-day, and when it became known, created genuine surprise among Tar Heels here.

The demand for Mr. Henry's resignation was made several days ago, and, as yet, it has not been received. The presumption is that the Carolinian will not surrender his very profitable position without putting up a fight, and his arrival here, with that of chairman Rollins, is not unexpected. The principal charge against Mr. Henry is that he has neglected his work, and is far behind in his examinations and reports to the Comptroller.

He has been ordered by the Department to cease visitations to banks in his territory, and, at the same time, his resignation was requested, together with all government's papers in his possession.—Charlotte Observer.

The Chronicle, of Augusta, Ga., is urging the city council to raise the license tax on saloons from $200 to $500 a year, as a means of raising more revenue and to the end of closing some of the joints, but the council has thus far declined to take action. A thousand dollars is much nearer the proper figure than that our contemporary suggests.—Charlotte Observer.

Greenville Volentier Fire Co. meets tonight

The executive committee of the Anti-Saloon League will meet at F. C. Harding's office Monday evening at 7:30. All in sympathy with the temperance cause invited to be present. A. B. ELLINGTON, Chairman.

Menaced by a Repetition of the Johnstown Disaster.

Paterson, N. J., Oct. 10.—The flood situation tonight is very grave. The water at Garfield avenue is higher by 50 inches than the point reached in 1902. The damage to the city is estimated to amount to over $2,000,000. Crowds of men are guarding the gate house at the mill race and at the first intimation that the gate will break away at Spruce street the dam will be blown with dynamite so as to turn the water into the chasm of the Passaic Falls. People are expecting the dam to go at any minute and a gun was fired at 10 o'clock to give the signal of extreme danger to the stricken population.

Should the dam give way, it is feared that there will be a repetition of the Johnstown disaster. The bridges in the city are giving way, causing a panic. Already tonight five bridges have gone down under the strain of the frightful torrent.

Building & Lumber Co.

A new organization here is the Building & Lumber Co. composed of R. J. Cobb, president; L. H. Pender, secretary; and C. V. York, manager. They will manufacture building material. A lot near the railroad has been purchased on which to locate the plant.

Schmitz Sandbagging.

Raleigh, Oct. 10.—Raleigh is laughing tonight at Bernard Schmitz, of Palimore, one of the witnesses in the Haywood case who gave out a cock and bull story Thursday night to the police that he had been attacked by sandbaggers on the street. It was discovered tonight that a little white boy whistled and Schmitz, who is excessively timid, ran and dashed into a telephone pole. It was this which gave him a blow on the head! The boy who saw the whole affair has told the whole story.

The executive committee of the Anti-Saloon League will meet tonight in the office of F. C. Harding.

MONDAY AFTERNOON, OCTOBER 12, 1903.

IMPOSSIBLE MILES

Within 6 hours after the appearance of last Tuesday's DAILY REFLECTOR, which contained the editorial assertion that the democracy of the South would not support General Miles for the presidency, a half dozen well-informed citizens make it their business to seek the editors and heartily endorse the assertion. We understand that the editorial referred to has met with the unqualified approval of the democracy of Pitt county.

Of course Pitt doesn't quite run the universe, but we have excellent reasons for considering the above incident significant, our friend of the Durham Herald to the contrary notwithstanding. The Herald of Friday says:

"Some of the papers are claiming that there are men whom the south would not support if they should get the nomination, but we do not believe there is that much independence in the party"

It is not a question of independent. It is a question of repugnance for a man who so utterly fails to reach even one Southern ideal. Should a Southerner attempt to vote for the man who handcuffed Jeff Davis, his gizzard would rise in his throat and choke him.

THE REFLECTOR has been an institution looked to and recognized by the democracy of Pitt county for more than 22 years. We have never, by one line or one word, violated party obligations; but we simply could not support Miles under any circumstances, and in spite of the gloomy observation of our Durham contemporary, we believe we are exactly in line with the democracy of the South.

High standard of life are plentiful; men who live up to them are wanted.

We have a new philosopher of work in Richard Watson Gilder, editor of the Century Magazine, who recently wrote:

"No one who comes in contact with affairs can fail to notice, as a sort of corollary to the enervation which comes to men of wealth through luxury, an increasing laxity of view among workmen concerning labor, a tendency to regard the daily task as something greatly to be regretted and hastily to be escaped from. . . . The general trend of the workman seems to be away from hard work and good work. . . . As a matter of fact, and not of theory, no man can do a worse service to another, whether rich or poor, than to deprive him of the absolutely healthful joy which there is in hard work. Woe to him who does not like his daily work, for if one cannot have the work he likes, he would better learn to like the work he has. . . . In general, work is not a curse, but a blessing—a positive means of grace."

Trade unionism, boycotts, etc., are being carried too far in Durham, and the town is bound to suffer for it in the end. It has come to pass that unless a merchant can show an union card he is boycotted by certain organizations of workmen. If conditions are the same in Durham as elsewhere, it is very likely that these same merchants have unpaid accounts on their books for supplies furnished to the very men who are now attempting to ruin their business. We believe that workmen have every right to organize, but we have seen unionism applied in a way that has brought sorrow to the hearts of thousands. In the hands of merciless, unreasoning men it is a force that can be used brutally and cowardly, and it is often done. "Do unto others" is still the best rule of life, and the leaders of labor unions are in need of being taught it.

The condition of the street crossings is a vile reproach upon Greenville. It was bad enough in warm, dry weather, but the whole population will be forced to develop webbed feet if they hope to cross our streets without taking a mud bath. The doctors and shoe dealers profit by the wretchedness of our streets, but the people are sore sufferers. N. B.—This is not a kick, but a statement of a most disagreeable fact.

Ex-Sunday School Teacher Dewey has money, and that money brings him friends, or he would not be able to evade the law so easily. We do not believe Dewey is in North Carolina, or has been in it since his flight. It takes a right smart man to steal $130,000 and escape detection. Such a man is Dewey and he isn't going to linger in the shadow of the penitentiary.

The Biblical Recorder declines to consider the annual "unfair" at Raleigh a state institution. We have for a long time believed that the only thing the state gets out of it is the privilege of making it a present of $1,500 every year.

The Boston Herald is booming one Olney for the presidency. Once upon a time a daffy old geezer tried to bring a dead man to life by running an electric wire up his back bone.

The Atlantic Messenger has been moved from New Bern to Morehead City and Rev. A. W. Setzer is now editor of that excellent church paper

A contemporary asks, "Is it wrong to be rich?" If it is, we are in no danger.

In Autumn.

Lead me toward autumn, toward her wondrous gold,

Her tapestries that hang upon the hill;

And in the silence that the valleys hold

Let me but wonder, and my heart be still.

Oh, in the matchless marvel of her place—

Her palace that is builded through the world—

Let me stand silent, awed, and humbly face

Her glorious crimson banners here unfurled.

And let me count the bounty that is stored

In her great coffers, bursting with their weight;

And let me linger at her generous board

Till winter makes it empty, desolate.

The world is her vast castle; I shall go

All quietly from room to beauteous room,

With flaming sumac, radiant, aglow,

To light me through the twilight and the gloom.

—Charles Hanson Towne.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. No one who is acquainted with its good qualities can be surprised at the great popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It not only cures colds and grip effectually and permanently, but prevents these diseases from resulting in pneumonia. It is also a certain cure for croup. Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. It is also pleasant to take. When all of these facts are taken into consideration it is not surprising that people in foreign lands, as well as at home, esteem this remedy very highly and very few are willing to take any other after having once used it. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; E. L. Davis Bros., Farmville.

Why Mothers of a Like Opinion Mrs. Pillmer, of Cordova, Iowa, says: "One of my children was subject to croup of a severe type, and the giving of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy promptly, always brought relief. Many mothers in this neighborhood think the same as I do about this remedy and want no other kind for their children." For sale by Wooten's drug store, Greenville, E. L. Davis Bros., Farmville.

Cause of Lockjaw,

Lockjaw, or tetanus, is caused by a bacillus or germ which exist plentifully in street dirt. It is inactive so long as exposed to the air, but when carried beneath the skin as in the wounds caused by percussion caps or by rusty nails, and when the air is excluded the germ is roused to activity and produces the most virulent poison known. These germs may be destroyed and all danger of lock-jaw avoided by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely as soon as the injury is received. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and causes cuts, bruises and like injuries to heal without maturation and in one third the time required by the usual treatment. It is for sale by Wooten's drug store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

BEARING DOWN PAINS

3647 Indiana Avenue, CHICAGO, ILL., Sept. 27, 1902.

I have been a sufferer with almost every kind of female trouble for years, but as long as I could get around and do my work I would not try patent medicines as I had no faith in them.

About eight months ago I had to take to my bed, suffering with prolapsus of the uterus, with bearing down pains and intense pains in the back. My aunt, who came to nurse me told me of Wine of Cardui and sent for a bottle. I am indeed glad that she did, for that first bottle started me on the road to recovery.

In a few weeks I was out of bed and in three months I was in better health and stronger than I had been in years. I take a dose now, occasionally, of Wine of Cardui and am kept in perfect health.

Mabel Cook
Sec'y. Woodman's Circle No. 70.

Wine of Cardui brings certain relief to women suffering any symptom of female weakness and perfectly regulates the menstrual flow. Wine of Cardui stops bearing down pains by permanently relieving the irritation which weakens the ligaments holding the womb in place. You need not suffer every month if you take this medicine. The periodical discharge will be painless and healthy without continual weakening drains. Wine of Cardui will make your health right and you may treat yourself privately in your own home. Secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist today.

LETTER TO R. WILLIAMS.

Greenville N. C.

Dear Sir: If it took 10 gallons to paint your house last time with somebody else's paint, and takes 8 with Devoe, we save you $8 or $10; for painting costs two or three times as much as paint.

Mr. Ezra Rathmell, Williamsport, Pa, always used 11 gallons of mixed paint for his house; Devoe took 6.

But that isn't all; that's only first cost; how long will it wear?

The paint, that goes furthest in covering, wears best too.

All paint, true paint, and full measure, are on one side; part paint, false paint, and short-measure are on the other. What can you expect?

Yours truly,

F. W. DEVOE & Co.

To All Whom It May Concern:
This is to certify that in July, 1902, I had a fistula in anus which had given me trouble for ten years past and I had consulted several physicians and had followed their prescriptions to the letter and continued to grow worse until I could not walk, and for eight months I could only walk on crutches, and in this condition I was advised to call on Dr. Moore, colored, which I did, and under his treatment I at once began to grow better and in one week the trouble was removed and I was perfectly well, feeling like a 16-year old boy, and the trouble has never returned.
