DR. PETERS ON THE PRESS.

Say it is Taking the Pulpit's Place.

The Philadelphia North American Friday contains the following:

"That the press is taking the place of the pulpit as a support of virtue's cause; that the church is no longer leading the way in the new civilization, and similar emphatic declarations were uttered at the meeting of the Philadelphia Baptist Association last evening in the Fourth Baptist church, but tonwood and Fifth streets, by Rev. Dr. Madison C. Peters.

"His address was on 'The Preaching of the Times.' Here are a few of the things he said:

"It is high time that we talk about the living Scribes and Pharisees who fill our pews and pay our salaries instead of holding gay tournament with the Scribes and Pharisees of Judea, who have been dust and ashes for nearly 1,900 years. People will come to hear us when we do not stick, stutter and stammer in telling the truth.

"The woman broke the looking glass because it showed the wrinkles in her face, and those who get vexed because sin is aimed at do so because they are shot."

"The pulpit should not be made a coward's castle; preachers should be prophets, not parrots—heralds proclaiming the coming day."

"In many prominent pulpits in America today the preachers simply dare not be uncompromising in their denunciation of sin and wickedness. Such preaching would drive out the men whose ill gotten wealth makes them essential to the church because they can make large contributions, and many a preacher is compelled to credit his hearers with virtues he knows they do not possess, and for the sake of his bread and butter is compelled to pandor to prejudices in public which in private he despises.

"The mightiest force in the world is the aroused conscience of a great people, and the chief quickener and educator of the conscience in the past has been the pulpit. The press is taking the place of the pulpit and is becoming the most important and effectual support of virtue's cause.

"The man who is enthusiastic about the church in its present condition only gives proof that he has ceased to be a living factor in the world's progress.

"I am not now speaking of Christianity, which is the life and inspiration of our civilization, but I do say that the church is not leading the way in the new civilization. What influence the church has she uses to conserve the heritage of the past.

"But who dares say the church is molding the future? With a narrow conception of her mission the church has sat on a high platform of empty dignity with folded hands, while the Young Men's Christian Association, the Women's Christian Temperance Union and hundreds of similar organizations are doing the work which the church should have done.

"Reforms of the most important character not only receive little support from the church, but have frequently to encounter its bitterest opposition."

We are sorry for the poor little school brat. He has to tote so many books to school, and so many of them are no account after he gets there with them. Nobody need ever be afraid of the proverbial "One book man" any more. We shall not forget, however, that the spellers of the country who stand head and shoulders above the graduates of Webster's blue back.

Wants it Always.

A young lady came in to subscribe for THE REFLECTOR. When asked for how long did she want it, she replied "I want it forever but will just pay for one year now" We appreciated that no little.

Teachers Meet Next Saturday.

As the rain last Saturday prevented the meeting of the Teachers' Association on that day, President Lineberry has issued a call for a meeting next Saturday. It is important that all teachers of the county be present, as much business will come before the body.

Mailing Letters at Trains.

Those who are frequently around the depot on a morning have noticed that a large number of letters are mailed there. It may be more convenient for some to mail letters there instead of at the postoffice, and in doing so they may think they are saving time, but in the majority of cases such letters do not reach their destination as soon as if they were mailed at the post office. The reason for this is very plain. Letters mailed at the postoffice are cancelled and made up according to routes before they are delivered to the railway mail clerk on the train. His first duty is to look after and assort the packages between stations, and it gives him as much as he can look after.

Letters mailed at the depot are dropped in the car loose, and as these have to be cancelled and made up in routes it often happens that the clerk has to wait until he reaches Weldon to get time to do this extra work. When this is the case such letters are delayed, and if any are for intermediate points they are carried by and reach their destination on the return trip. Of course no blame for this can attach to any one except the parties who mail the letters.

New Oil Tanks.

The Standard Oil Co., whose oil tanks here were burned last spring, are having new tanks put up. The location has been changed and the new tanks are some distance south of the depot.

Farmer's Consolidated Tobacco Company.

The Raleigh papers of the 9th inst., published the chartering of the "Farmer's Consolidated Tobacco Company, of Greenville, North Carolina." THE REFLECTOR having heard rumors of this organization, a reporter called on Mr. O. L. Joyner and made inquiries about it. Mr. Joyner said in response to our question that there was no secrecy or mystery about the movement, that it was a plain, straightforward business proposition.

He said that a number of farmers in Pitt county, who had been selling their tobacco in Greenville, desired to have an interest in a tobacco warehouse and to share in its profits. They thought that a businesslike way to go about it would be to obtain a charter. This has been done, and the company composed of farmers has been organized under this charter.

This has been done with no hostility to any one. The promoters of this enterprise have done only what they had a right to do. If it fails, only those who have or may put their money in it are hurt. If it succeeds, as it doubtless will, the whole county and community will be helped by it.

There is room in Greenville for this enterprise and there need be no fears that its purpose is to destroy anyone. The country people will patronize it if it is demonstrated that it is conducted on honest business principles and merits their patronage, otherwise they will not. So its success depends upon its management. That is all there is in it.

Teachers' Association Called Meeting.

The Pitt County Teachers' Association will meet in called session next Saturday, October 17th, at 10 o'clock. This will be an exceedingly important meeting and every teacher in the county is urged to be present.

Work for the entire year will be arranged for at this meeting, and your presence is an absolute necessity. The program will be the one which would have been had last Saturday if rain had not prevented. Those on this program are hereby notified to this effect.

G. E. LINEBERRY,
President.

Washington Goes Wet.

An election was held in Washington Monday on the question of saloons or no saloons. The saloons won by 88 majority.

Our Territory.

An exchange knew what it was talking about when it published the following: "The trade territory of a town is not all dependent upon the distance to neighboring trading points. The trade territory depends upon the enterprise of the merchants and the residents of the town. If a town does not reach after trade it will come only as fast as it has to and will grow as it is forced to.

But if the merchants go after business in the surrounding country, advertising in every possible way and making good every word of their advertising, trade will come from an increasing radius, the town will gain a reputation for being awake and will forge to the front. It is the men living within a certain number of miles from it that makes the town.

"In addition to the above, good roads should be built to the town, and everything should be done to make visitors comfortable, and make them feel at home."

One forgets all about bad weather when we have such pretty days as this.

Entered at the post office at Greenville, N. C., as second class matter.
Subscription rates: One Year, $3.00; One Month, 25 cents; One Week, 10 cents. Delivered in town by carriers without extra cost.
Advertising rates reasonable and can be had on application to the editor or at the office.
We desire a live correspondent at every post office in the county, who will send in brief items of news as it occurs. Write plainly, and only on one side of the paper.

MONDAY AFTERNOON, OCTOBER 12, 1903.

Is a Change in Educational Sentiment About to Set In.

We copy from two of our leading exchanges the following significant paragraph bearing out what we have expressed a fear of, namely, that the educational movement in North Carolina was being overdone. If we were going to offer a word of friendly admonition to the powers that be we would say better go slower, gentlemen, and it will last longer.—Henderson Gold Leaf

A contemporary suggests that there is a revulsion in educational sentiment about to set in in North Carolina. We can imagine nothing more deplorable that might take place than this. The magnificent labor that has been expended in this cause is just now beginning to show fruitage. The enthusiasm is but penetrating the byways of the state. A suspension at the fountain head would now be calamitous. It must be remembered that the work so far has been but to arouse the people to its importance. The ways and means are far from having been provided. Let there be no suggestion of stopping.—Monroe Journal.

The Raleigh Christian Advocate had an excellent editorial in its issue of last week on the educational situation in North Carolina, in which it was said that the uppermost thought in the public mind is that education [is being overdone. It would regret to see the work that is in progress receive any check, yet "would deem it more unfortunate that our charitable institutions should suffer in order that any other interest might thrive." For anyone to expect an appropriation for a state reformatory "is considered extremely Utopian," and it regards as being unfortunate the sentiment favorable to a division of the school taxes between the races on the basis of what each pays.—Charlotte Observer.

The Housekeepers Problem.

The Constitution says that "every household in Atlanta feeds some worthless negro who will not work so long as he can secure entrance to some one's kitchen." The Messenger, speaking of this end of the domestic situation in Wilmington, says: "There is no doubt that the household expenses of nearly every family employing negroes in our city are greatly increased by this custom of the employes. Why should the people submit to it? Let them put a stop to it, and let the city authorities enforce such vagrancy laws as we have." And The Asheville Citizen says: "Housekeepers must understand that it is a sin—an aiding and abetting of the commission of crime—to permit their servants to feed other negroes in the kitchen or to take off mysterious packages with them, when returning to their rooms or homes."

But what are you going to do about it? We have a pretty fair vagrancy law in North Carolina and in Charlotte, at least, it is pretty well enforced; but why should a colored gentleman spend hard-earned money for plebeian vittles when his lady will bring them to him without price? And as to this, there are Charlotte housekeepers who are perfectly conscious that they are being systematically robbed, but who frankly say that if they lock up things or have their servants under surveillance they cannot keep their cooks. And there you are. The three contemporaries quoted above discuss the subject of negroes living out of white folk's kitchens as if it were chargeable to the idleness of the bucks. That has something to do with it, but by no means all.—Charlotte Observer.

No doubt the order to Sir Walter Henry to send in his resignation is quite a jolt to that gentleman's corporosity. He has the sympathy of North Carolina friends.

The little Georgia girl who wrote Governor Terrell to "please let my papa come home, I misses him so much," struck a sympathetic chord. Her father was serving a life sentence and an application for his pardon was granted.

As a high diver Langley's flying machine seems to be a success.

North Carolina's wandering sons are feeling much at home in the Greensboro reunion. The old mother state welcomes them.

If cranks keep trying to play on the white house lawn Teddy may get a chance to wing one of them with his pistol before winter is over.

If it were possible to sue a state for false arrest, good claims could doubtless be made out against North Carolina by the attorneys for the defence in the murder cases now on trial at Raleigh and Lexington.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Exactly, but as this cannot be done both might be given a chromo on their discharge, with the apologies of the court for having detained the gentlemen for the time being.

The Success of the Sons of Carolina.
A grandson of North Carolina, Mr. Folk, will be the next governor of Missouri; a son of the old state, Mr. Cannon, will be elected speaker of the lower house of congress; another, Mr. William Shepard Bryan to be attorney general of Maryland, next month. It talks and tells everywhere.—Raleigh Post.

Washington declares in favor of whiskey and continues under the reign of the open saloon. From what we have noticed of the campaign in that town this result is about what was expected, as the fight made by the business men there, was purely from the standpoint of dollars. But they have a right to their opinion, be the consequences what they may.

Waiting.

Serene, I fold my hands and wait,
Nor care for wind, or tide, or sea;
I rave no more against Time or Fate,
For lo! my own shall come to me.

I stay may haste, I make delays,
For what avails this eager pace?
I stand amid the eternal ways,
And what is mine shall know my face.

Asleep, awake, by night or day,
The friends, I seek are seeking me;
No wind can drive by bark astray,
Nor change the tide of destiny.

What matter if I stand alone?
I wait with joy the coming years;
My heart shall reap where it hath sown,
And garner up its fruit of tears.

The waters know their own, and draw
The brook that springs in yonder heights;
So flows the flood with equal law
Unto the soul of pure delight.

The stars come nightly to the sky;
The tidal wave unto the sea;
Nor time, nor space, nor deep, nor high,
Can keep my own away from me.
—John Burroughs.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
No one who is acquainted with its good qualities can be surprised at the great popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It not only cures colds and grip effectually and permanently, but prevents these diseases from resulting in pneumonia. It is also a certain cure for croup. Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. It is also pleasant to take. When all of these facts are taken into consideration it is not surprising that people in foreign lands, as well as at home, esteem this remedy very highly and very few are willing to take any other after having once used it. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; R. L. Davis Bros., Farmville.

Many Mothers of a Like Opinion
Mrs. Pilmer, of Cordova, Iowa, says: "One of my children was subject to croup of a severe type, and the giving of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy promptly, always brought relief. Many mothers in this neighborhood think the same as I do about this remedy and want no other kind for their children." For sale by Wooten's drug store, Greenville, R. L. Davis Bros., Farmville.

Cause of Lockjaw,

Lockjaw, or tetanus, is caused by a bacillus or germ which exist plentifully in street dirt. It is inactive so long as exposed to the air, but when carried beneath the skin as in the wounds caused by percussion caps or by rusty nails, and when the air is excluded the germ is roused to activity and produces the most virulent poison known. These germs may be destroyed and all danger of lockjaw avoided by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely as soon as the injury is received. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and causes cuts, bruises and like injuries to heal without maturation and in one third the time required by the usual treatment. ### BEARING DOWN PAINS

3647 Indiana Avenue, CHICAGO, ILL., Sept. 27, 1902.

I have been a sufferer with almost every kind of female trouble for years, but as long as I could get around and do my work I would not try patent medicines as I had no faith in them.

About eight months ago I had to take to my bed, suffering with prolapsus of the uterus, with bearing down pains and intense pains in the back. My aunt, who came to nurse me told me of Wine of Cardui and sent for a bottle. I am indeed glad that she did, for that first bottle started me on the road to recovery. In a few weeks I was out of bed and in three months I was in better health and stronger than I had been in years. I take a dose now, occasionally, of Wine of Cardui and am kept in perfect health.

Mabel Cook
Sec'y. Woodman's Circle No. 70.

Wine of Cardui brings certain relief to women suffering any symptom of female weakness and perfectly regulates the menstrual flow. Wine of Cardui stops bearing down pains by permanently relieving the irritation which weakens the ligaments holding the womb in place. You need not suffer every month if you take this medicine. The periodical discharge will be painless and healthy without continual weakening drains. Wine of Cardui will make your health right and you may treat yourself privately in your own home. Secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist today.

Alcohol is one of the best of cosmetic remedies.

The netted vegetable fiber known as the loofah is much liked by many as a wash cloth; it is rough, cleanses the skin and possesses the superiority over the sponge in being easily and thoroughly cleaned.

SAVES TWO FROM DEATH.

"Our little daughter had an almost fatal attack of whooping cough and bronchitis," writes Mrs. W. K. Haviland, of Armonk, N. Y., "but, when all other remedies failed, we saved her life with Dr. King's New Discovery. Our niece, who had Consumption in an advanced stage, also used this wonderful medicine and today she is perfectly well." Desperate throat and lung diseases yield to Dr. King's New Discovery as to no other medicine on earth. Infallible for Coughs and Colds. 50c and $1.00 bottles guaranteed by Wooten's Drug Store. Trial bottles free.

Do not wash the hair too often, as it takes away the natural oil and will make the hair harsh. A shampoo once in two weeks is usually sufficient, unless very dusty work is being done.

North Carolina, Pitt County. To All Whom It May Concern: This is to certify that in July, 1902, I had a fistula in anus which had given me trouble for ten years past and I had consulted several physicians and had followed their prescriptions to the letter and continued to grow worse until I could not walk, and for eight months I could only walk on crutches, and in this condition I was advised to call on Dr. Moore, colored, which I did, and under his treatment I at once began to grow better and in one week the trouble was removed and I was perfectly well, feeling like a 16-year old boy, and the trouble has never returned. WILL EDWARDS. Witness: E. L. Weathington. Sworn to before me, Sept. 20th, 1903. H. HARDING, J. P.
