Southern Progress.

Baltimore, Oct. 20.—Reuben Foster, president of the Chesapeake Steamship Company, said today in speaking of a trip south with Southern Railway officials:

"Everything in the south is of an encouraging character and bringing fair prices. The banking situation is strong, and the general monetary situation is enviable.

"Every business centre of the south, such as Richmond, Norfolk, Greensboro, Atlanta, Birmingham, Knoxville and Charlotte, was visited by our party, and we found the general growth of the community, the manufacturing interests, the business interests and the general condition of affairs most satisfactory.

"I was much gratified to learn that the great shrinkage and slump in securities in Wall street has in no way affected southern prosperity. Everything is on the boom there and the business man and manufacturer does not seem to care very much what bulls and bears are doing.

"The tip of our party was the annual inspection tour of the Southern system, and I want to say that I was struck with the general excellent condition of the system. The general improvement that the property has undergone within the past year is wonderful. Grades have been reduced, curves eliminated and new ballast laid. This shows that there has been a great expenditure of money, all of which has been cared for and was taken out of the earnings of the property.

LOW ROUND TRIP RATES.

Via Atlantic Coast Line.

Richmond, Va.—Account of the Richmond Horse Show Tickets on sale October 12th to 15th, inclusive, with final limit October 16th. The rate from Greenville, N. C., to Richmond and return for this occasion will be $5.00, including one admission to the Horse Show.

Raleigh, N. C. North Carolina State Fair. Tickets on sale October 17th to 23rd, and for trains due to arrive fore-noon of the 24th final limit October 26th. The rate from Greenville, N. C., to Raleigh and return for this occasion will be $4.45, including one admission into the Fair Grounds.

W. J. CRAIG, General Passenger Agent
 H. M. EMERSON, Traffic Manager.

Lost and Found.

Wednesday night Mr. H. C. Hooker took off his vest and hung it on the back of a chair in his place of business. His watch was in one pocket of the vest. At the time to close up he forgot his vest and went home without it. A clerk opened at the usual hour this morning and when Mr. Hooker came down later the vest and watch were gone. A quiet search was started at once and both vest and watch were found adorning the person of a colored gentleman sauntering around in tobacco town.

Errors in Street Names.

In some of the signs put up on the street corners giving the names of the streets of the town very prominent errors are noticed in two of the names. For Dickinson avenue the name is spelled Dickerson and for Sutton lane the name is spelled Suttens. Both these corrections should be made at once, as it not only misinforms the public but is a reflection upon the town for street names to be wrong.

Fifty-Ninth Annual Convention of the Christian Church.

Tuesday, Oct. 27th, the state convention of the Christian church will begin its sessions at the Christian church. Tuesday will be devoted to the work of the Christians Woman's Board of Missions. A number of those who will take part in this days work are quite prominent in the work of this society. Among the number will be Miss Annie Agnes Lockey, a returned missionary.

Wednesday morning the convention, proper, will begin. Many of the speakers are men of national fame. Dr. F. D. Power, of Washington, D. C., B. L. Smith, of Cincinnati, and several others outside the state are expected.

Many of the delegates will come on Monday evening's train, and those who have so kindly consented to entertain delegates should be ready to take them Monday night. A large delegation is expected and Greenville should do herself credit by showing to these visitors that Greenville is second to no town in the state in hospitality.

Nail Through Foot

Mr. T. W. Whitehurst is suffering with a very lame foot. Wednesday night near the graded school he stepped on a nail that went through the sole of his shoe and pierced almost entirely through his foot, the point of the nail resting against the skin on top of the foot. It is a very painful wound and gives him much trouble in walking.

Row at Corn Husking

Wednesday night during a corn shucking on the Taylor place, near Oakley, in Carolina township, Mr. Bud Gray was cut across the temple with a knife by a negro. The two men had got into a dispute that ended in the cutting. Mr. Gray's cut is reported to be quite a bad one.

LETTER TO FLEMING & MOORE.

Greenville N. C.

Dear Sirs: What's the penalty for making or selling short measure paint in your state?

And does it make any difference, if three-fourths of the paints are short-measure?

Is seven pints a full-gallon or a fool-gallon?

What's the penalty for making or selling whitewash for paint?

Is whitewash paint, if mixed with a little paint and labeled "Pure mixed paint," or something like that?

But we don't intend to go into the business. We make Devco lead and-zinc full-measure and true.

Yours truly,
 F. W. DEVCO & CO.
 P. S.—H. L. Carr sells our paint.

Notice! Notice!

C., on Sept. 21st, 1903, to meet us at the Clerk of the Court's office in Greenville, N. C. on Tuesday, Oct. 27th, inst. When and where we will be prepared to make deed to said purchases upon payment of their respective bids. If any of said purchases at said sale have assigned his or her bids it will be necessary to write Jno. E. Cobb, at Tarboro, the particulars of same in full, at once.

Respectfully yours,

Mintree-White

Greensboro, N. C. Oct. 21, 1903.

At 9:30 tonight, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Bryan White, 413 Ashboro St., this city, Miss Mary Belle White, their daughter, was married to Mr. Joseph Powhatan Minitree, Jr., of Washington, D. C., the ceremony being conducted by the bride's pastor, Rev. C. E. Hodgkin of Westminster Presbyterian church. It was a quiet home wedding, only a few friends and relatives being present. Among out of town relatives present were Col. and Mrs. Joseph P. Minitree, parents of the groom, Misses Elizabeth and Claudia Minitree, Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Hollifield, of Washington, D. C., Mr. and Mrs. Herbert A. White, of Greenville, N. C., Mr. J. Wesley White, of Washington, D. C., Mr. Norris G. White of Durham, N. C. and Mr. J. Burt James, of Cape Hill, N. C.

Mr. J. E. Minitree of Washington, brother of the groom, acted as best man; Miss Imogene Loyal Bernard, of Chatanooga, Tenn., was maid of honor—gowned in white silk, carrying LaFrance roses. Mrs. Herbert A. White, of Greenville, N. C., was dame of honor—wearing black spangled net over black taffeta, carrying LaFrance roses.

The bride was attired in a go-away gown of navy blue cloth, and carried an exquisite bouquet of bride roses. Mr. and Mrs. Minitree will spend their honeymoon in Atlantic City and New York, thence returning to their future home in Washington, D. C. The bride is one of the fairest and most accomplished young ladies of the state, beloved by a large circle of friends, while Mr. Minitree, the son of Col. Joe P. Minitree, purchasing agent of the Southern Railway, Washington, D. C., is well known and deservedly popular wherever known.

The High Point Enterprise tells that of three convicts sent to the penitentiary from Montgomery county last week none had ever been to school or heard a sermon. In a town near Charlotte is a family which had in its employ for twelve years a colored boy, now a man—one of the best negroes that ever lived; the major domo, the stay of the household. Recently his girl died of consumption. The report was started that she was conjured by him, and it spread among the negroes and found ready acceptance. In his church, of which he had been treasurer and the leading member, he got the cold shoulder. Throughout the town the negroes ostracised him and looked at him askance; he was cut off from all association with his race, the attitude of which became so threatening toward him that by the advice of his employer he left the town between suns and went to Richmond. Here are two true stories. Men and brethren, the heathen are at our doors.—Charlotte Observer.

Annual Bazaar.

Merriment, song and beauty are the predominant features of this ever popular company, which comes to the opera house next Monday night. Seats on sale at Burch's Saturday morning. Prices, 25, 35 and 50.

Elijah Dowie.

The Dowie hosts have invaded New York City and the Metropolitan newspapers are giving Dowie an advertisement that must warm cockles of his financial soul. It is pertinent to ask who he is and what is the secret of his marvellous power.

In the first place he is a man of good education. He was trained in the famous schools of Scotland and studied theology at the University of Edinburgh, was a pupil of the celebrated Dr. Guthrie. Whatever Dowie may be he is no fool. The chances are that he has not even the virtue of fanaticism. He is a cool, calculating business man, with an intimate knowledge of human nature especially of the fool part of it.

Dowie made a failure at preaching. With the exception of the darkey revival the pulpit is not the best place for the exercise of Dowie's peculiar powers which we shall speak of directly. But he is enough of a student of the Bible to weave the web of his own claims and errors into the warp of vital truth. It may very well be that some of his deluded followers may have been helped by him spiritually. His theological education is something not to be left out of view in any estimate of his character.

And in brief, the secret of his power is hypnotism. Any student of psychology, using the more recent text-books is able to understand perfectly his hold upon his followers and his reputed cures of disease.

There are many impressionable people who really suffer with imaginary diseases. We call them "hypned." They have hypnotized themselves into a belief that they are ill. This belief has a direct action, which we are just beginning to understand, upon the vital functions themselves.

Now it is really a blessing to those people to be hypnotized into the opposite belief, that they are well. A strong nature can accomplish that result. It is often true that the physician's confidence in his cure and the faith of the patient in him are about as good for the patient as the drugs themselves, if not better. The Christian Scientist acts upon this principle and brings in the claims of the Christian religion to assist in the hypnotic process.

Dowie does the same thing. He has gathered around him in Chicago a band of weak-minded people, rich and poor, and he gets the rich to give him their money for the common good and he puts the poor to work in some congenial industry which he has established in the city which he has built, his Zion. He earns the gratitude of the people whom he has persuaded out of their diseases and retains his hypnotic hold upon them by his own force of character and strong will. It makes no difference to them that he has amassed a personal fortune that is counted by the millions and that his wife can be robbed of thousands of dollars worth of diamonds, or that he lives himself a life of luxury beyond the dreams of his followers. He preaches to them on Sunday, uses enough of Biblical truth to excite their religious emotions, makes his claims of supernatural revelations and miracles and rakes in the shekels. We suppose that he expects to cheat the devil some time and the New Yorkers will probably shed their eyeteeth for his benefit now.—Charlotte News.

It is the man who has been fooled the oftenest by women who knows that a widow wouldn't do any such thing to him.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, OCTOBER 22, 1903.

Commenting upon the acquittal of Tillman, the Danville Bee says:

"There are also some extenuating circumstances when the fact is taken into consideration that newspaper attacks are always one-sided. To jump on a man and abuse him when he has no means to vindicate himself before the public is rather an unfair advantage and gives him no redress."

Any newspaper man in the business ought to have more sense than to take such a position as the above. The Bee knows very well that the majority of decent newspapers are ever ready to give a person against whom a charge is made every opportunity to disprove it. If Tillman could have produced one iota of evidence that the Columbia State's charges were false, he could have found hundreds of newspapers who would gladly present his defense. The fact is, he was guilty and knew he could not prove his innocence, so he murdered Gonzales.

In horticulture a spectacle will be presented at the St. Louis world's fair perhaps never before seen in the way of a fruit exhibit. The building covers 6 acres, four of which will be devoted exclusively to fruits. North Carolina will show not only apples which will be kept in cold storage, but it is hoped, next spring strawberries, dewberries, blackberries, whortleberries and peaches will be sent fresh for exhibition during the season, also vegetables, which will be shown in agriculture. It is believed that an exhibition of our early fruits and vegetables will have a tendency to very greatly increase the area of the market of these products.

We congratulate the fair city of Henderson upon voting out the open saloon, and we sympathize with the people of Weldon who voted upon the question and were unable to rid themselves of the greatest curse of the age.

Henderson has done nobly, but there is yet hope for Weldon and all who really want to abolish the saloon. The liquor men are losing ground every day, and prohibition and dispensary sentiments are gaining accordingly. Speed the day when there will not be one open saloon in all the commonwealth.

The Philadelphian who was secretary of a New Jersey building and loan association and got away with a half million of the association's dollars, is another of the slick ones. Discrepancies were discovered in his books three months ago, and he was given until Oct. 12th to make good the shortage. When the time rolled around he had made good his disappearance.

The Durham Herald says:
"Of course Mr. Roosevelt may have said that he would appoint no negroes to office in South Carolina and meant it, but just because a man's president he cannot always do as he pleases in these matters, or at least he cannot afford to."

A man can always afford to fulfill honorable promises—whether he be president or peasant.

As New York people like to be humbugged, Dowie will probably find good pickings there until the police run him away.

Every once in a while somebody gets up and moves that the words of "Dixie" be changed. Such contentions are useless. It is the tune of "Dixie" that is dear to the heart of every Southerner, and by the memory of our fathers, that never shall be changed.

A western religious conference adopted resolutions asking the legislature to abolish capital punishment. They are knocking at the wrong door. Judge Peebles is the man for the business.

If men want to run a cheap, degrading vaudeville show under the guise of a state fair, they ought to be compelled to put up all the money, instead of receiving bounties from the state.

It's no use to blame the jury in the Haywood case. With the presiding judge as chief counsel for the defense, the jury is apt to see it that way.

Theodore has called an extra session of Congress for November 9. Well, we still have other things to be thankful for.

The fair that can't get along without such attractions as the Greensboro midway must be very thoroughly rotten.

How old man Pete Barnum would groan if he could gaze upon the New York operations of John Alexanderowie!

We suggest that in the next state campaign our orators cut out that habit of "viewing with alarm" and "pointing with pride."

Perhaps too much trust was placed in that Baltimore trust company which recently put up the shutters.

We have lost track of Mr. Bryan, but we are confident he is talking, wherever he is.

Every dog has his day, and mad dogs have been doing something in that line recently.

As his successor has been appointed, it is now up to Mr. Henry to get mad and quit.

Will the Southern railway kindly publish its collision schedule for the ensuing week?

The Miles boom cannot claim to have "also run."

With "Jen."
A crust with "Jen" is riches—
The sweetest an' the best!
A humble spot—
A garden plot,
An' "Jen" to make it blest!

For earth with her is heaven,
Where many a rainbow bends;
So close it seems
To heaven's own dreams,
The angels are my friends!
—Atlanta Constitution.

When you tell a woman a joke, the way to make her understand it is funny is to laugh when you are telling it.

It's curious how much more indignant men get over being made fools of by others than making fools of themselves.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
No one who is acquainted with its good qualities can be surprised at the great popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It not only cures colds and grip effectually and permanently, but prevents these diseases from resulting in pneumonia. It is also a certain cure for croup. Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. It is also pleasant to take. When all of these facts are taken into consideration it is not surprising that people in foreign lands, as well as at home, esteem this remedy very highly and very few are willing to take any other after having once used it. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; R. L. Davis Bros., Farmville.

Many Mothers of a Like Opinion
Mrs. Pilmer, of Cordova, Iowa, says: "One of my children was subject to croup of a severe type, and the giving of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy promptly, always brought relief. Many mothers in this neighborhood think the same as I do about this remedy and want no other kind for their children." For sale by Wooten's drug store, Greenville; R. L. Davis Bros., Farmville.

Cause of Lockjaw.

Lockjaw, or tetanus, is caused by a bacillus or germ which exist plentifully in street dirt. It is inactive so long as exposed to the air, but when carried beneath the skin as in the wounds caused by percussion caps or by rusty nails, and when the air is excluded the germ is roused to activity and produces the most virulent poison known. These germs may be destroyed and all danger of lockjaw avoided by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely as soon as the injury is received. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and causes cuts, bruises and like injuries to heal without maturation and in one third the time required by the usual treatment. To advertise your confidence to the world give it to a woman.

A man has very different ideas on bad luck the day a girl refuses to marry him and two years after.

The same man can bunco the same crowd over and over again, but it must be with a different game.

A woman's idea of being nice to a man is to make him understand that she understands that if he isn't in love with her it is because she tries to discourage him.

To All Whom It May Concern:
This is to certify that in July, 1902, I had a fistula in anus which had given me trouble for ten years past and I had consulted several physicians and had followed their prescriptions to the letter and continued to grow worse until I could not walk, and for eight months I could only walk on crutches, and in this condition I was advised to call on Dr. Moore, colored, which I did, and under his treatment I at once began to grow better and in one week the trouble was removed and I was perfectly well, feeling like a 16-year old boy, and the trouble has never returned.
