REAR ADMIRAL BOWLES IS OUT.

Chief Naval Constructor Resigns and W. L. Capps is His Successor.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 26.—Announcement has been made today of the resignation of Rear Admiral Bowles, chief naval constructor of the United States navy. The resignation takes effect November 1st, when Admiral Bowles will join the Four Rivers Ship and Engine Building company, of Quincy, Mass., which company is building the battleships Vermont and New Jersey, the protected cruiser Des Moines and the destroyer MacDonough. Washington Lee Capps has been appointed successor to Admiral Bowles.

North Carolinian Badly Beaten.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 26.—Robert B. Welch, a young man from Charlotte, N. C., applied to the Norfolk county jail yesterday for medical aid. He reported that two men held him up near Mount Hermon, Norfolk county, Friday night, and after robbing him of $16, beat him into insensibility and threw him in a deep ditch to die. The victim's eyes are so badly swollen he cannot see, and his head and face are terribly bruised. The authorities have taken up the search for the highwaymen and would be murderers, who are thought to be negroes.

What? No Soap?

The writer of a letter in the London Times refers to the announcement that a royal commission is about to be appointed to investigate the physical deterioration of the English people. He proceeds to declare the conviction that this deterioration is due to the excessive use of soap, which removes the natural oil given by the Almighty to protect the body, and thus exposes it to rheumatism, chills, disease and dirt. The writer boasts that he has not used soap for thirty years, while all the time he was doing the hardest kind of work at sea, and yet he never had a twinge of rheumatism or any other ailment.

The appearance of this letter was the signal for a general press investigation into the philosophy of soap. Physicians, dermatologists, complexion specialists and even recruiting sergeants have been interviewed on the subject, with the result that soap comes forth victorious and is declared to be an absolute necessity of life under modern conditions. The Lancet admits that soap is calculated to make the skin purple, because it removes the natural oil, but cold cream is a remedy for this.

"Nevertheless," says the Lancet, "not a few people manage to maintain personal cleanliness without the use of soap at all."

A Ton Left Off.

Had you noticed what heavy names are sometimes handled in print? THE REFLECTOR printed just two-thirds of a name last week, and then left a ton of it out. It was Mr. J. A. L. Templeton who sent us the solution to Ann's age, but it was printed Temple with the ton left off.

Time is really in the hands of the clock.

Never be irritated or unkind to anybody.

CHRISTIAN CONVENTION IN ANNUAL SESSION.

A LARGE NUMBER OF DELEGATES AND VISITORS HAVE ARRIVED AND ARE BEING ENTERTAINED BY OUR PEOPLE

A number of delegates to the North Carolina Christian Missionary Convention arrived Monday evening and many more came in this morning, giving promise of a large and most interesting meeting.

Monday night a social meeting was held at the church to give the delegates and others opportunity of greeting each other. A brief praise service was followed by an informal mingling together with hand shaking and exchange of greetings. The cordiality of the meeting was delightful.

The work today was devoted to the Christian Woman's Board of Missions, an auxiliary to the convention. This was largely attended and the proceedings revealed the excellent work the women have done and are doing in giving the gospel to the world and planting the standing of the cross in every land.

The exercises began at 9:30 with a praise service led by Mrs. J. R. Tingle.

Mrs. H. L. Coward then delivered the address of welcome which was most beautifully worded and carried to the hearts of all delegates and visitors the warm welcome accorded them. This was most appropriately responded to by Mrs. Phil Crawford, of Kinston.

Then came the address of the president, Mrs. T. B. Jones, of Wilson. This was exceedingly interesting and told much of the noble work the women are doing and that the money, used by them is well invested. The address closed with several recommendations to enlarge the work of the C. W. B. M. and enable the accomplishment of even greater results in the future.

Miss Payne Kilpatrick, of Kinston, the secretary, read her report showing the number of auxiliaries and giving detailed statistics of each. These showed considerable gains during the past year.

The treasurer, Miss Rosa Lofton, of Kinston, reported the receipts and disbursements for the year and Mrs. L. M. Omer, of Asheville, the state organizer, made report of her work and the auxiliaries organized.

The president announced the following committees:

Future Work—Mrs. O. Grainger, Mrs. N. J. Rouse, Mrs. Draugh, Misses Mary Whitehurst, Daisy Carman, Katie Barnes.

Young People—Mrs. Sallie Hines, Mrs. J. F. Taylor, Miss Katie Snakenburg.

Enrollment—Misses Rosa Lofton, Minnie Tunstall, Nancy Coward, Anna Howard.

Literature—Mrs. Mary Kilpatrick, Mrs. H. D. Merrill, Mrs. Phil Crawford, Mrs. P. B. Hall, Misses Mary Moye, Alice Lang.

Auditing—Mrs. Annie LaRoque, Mrs. M. E. Mosely, Mrs. Pattie Hooker.

Nominations—Mrs. W. J. Crumpler.

Miss Kilpatrick gave a recitation "Why our Auxiliary did not disband," that answered at the modern excuses for not doing the Lord's work.

Mrs. T. E. Hooker delightfully entertained the convention with a song "Forever with the Lord," that was well rendered, Miss Minnie Tunstall being accompanist.

Miss Anna Howard, of Kinston, read a paper entitled "The twentieth century woman's God given opportunity." This paper showed careful preparation and pointed out many opportunities for women in spreading the gospel, which opportunities should be used ere they pass beyond reach.

The morning session closed with singing "America" and benediction by Mrs. Omer.

The convention is a handsome body and the proceedings are marked by much zeal and enthusiasm.

THE REFLECTOR goes to press too early to give any of the afternoon proceedings in this issue. The C. W. B. M. will conclude its exercises tonight and the convention proper begins tomorrow morning. The program for Wednesday is as follows:

9:00 Devotional exercises by J. R. Tingle.

9:15 Address of welcome, W. E. Powell.

6:30 Response, C. W. Howard.

9:45—President's address.

10:15—Enrolling names of delegates.

11:26—Miscellaneous business

12:45 Address—Soul winning, J. W. Tyndall.

2:00—Devotional exercises, J. L. Burns.

2:10—Sunday school session. Report of delegates.

2:40—Address, Aspiration in the Sunday school, M. S. Spear.

3:25—Address, The Superintendent, W. J. Crumpler.

4:00—Miscellaneous Business.

7:30—Devotional exercises, I. W. Rogers.

7:40—Address, Church Extension, by Dr. F. D. Power, of Washington City.

Old Times Passing Away.

The poem that we old folks learned in the reading book at school "Hear the children gaily shout, Half past four and school is out," will have to be revised to meet the present custom of turning out at half past two. The old blue back speller is not the only good thing that has given place to new ideas.

A PERFECT PAINLESS FILL

is that one that will cleanse the system, set the liver to action, remove the bile, clear the complexion, cure headache and leave a good taste in the mouth. The famous little pills for doing such work pleasantly and effectually are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Bob Moore of Lafayette, Ind., says: "All other pills I have used gripe and sicken, while DeWitt's Little Early Risers are simply perfect." Sold by John L. Wooten.

Delegates to the Christian convention are arriving by every boat and train. So many delegates and visitors are here that it is impossible to print a list of the names or with whom they are stopping.

If troubled with a weak digestion try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They will do you good. For sale by Wooten's drug store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

GIRLS AS STRIKE-BREAKERS.

Boston Messenger Boys Hang Around and See Girls Carry Messages.

Boston, Oct. 26.—Still looked out as messengers by the A. D. T. Co., two hundred or more boys discharged last Friday today witnessed an increase in the force of the girls now doing the work. It was estimated today that more than two hundred girls are carrying messages. The idle boys formed groups at various points near the State street office of the W. U. T. Co., but no acts of violence were reported.

Bloody Tragedy in New Bern.

New Bern, N. C., Oct. 26.—Chas. Meadows was murdered by Will Phillips Saturday night, so says the coroner's jury. Some time ago Phillips ran away with Meadows' wife. The two men met in a saloon Saturday night and quarrelled. It is stated by Phillips that Meadows offered Phillips a sum of money to allow Meadows' wife to return to him, which Phillips refused. The two men were seen together at ten o'clock Saturday night. Sunday morning Meadows' body was found near the junction of the A & N. C. railroad shops and National avenue.

His throat bore marks which indicated conclusively that the man had been strangled to death. Intense feeling has developed. Phillip is in jail awaiting trial at November court.

GRIMESLAND ITEMS.

GRIMESLAND, N. C., Oct. 26, 1903.

Rev. J. R. Tingle preached a very fine sermon in the Christian church Sunday; it was enjoyed very much.

Mrs. J. T. Proctor and H. H. Proctor went to Greenville today to attend the Disciple convention.

Miss Susie A. Moore, who has been home on account of sickness, has returned to her school at Chocowinity.

Mrs. Bettie Proctor and little daughter, Susie, went to Greenville Monday to attend the convention.

Foster Quinz, who has been visiting his kindred in Grimesland returned to Greenville this morning.

Master Thomas Proctor and Hickey Galloway are very fine sports, so they say.

We've had a fine school and good attendance and a good looking teacher; that is more than some can say.

Cotton Jumps.

New York, Oct. 26.—There was great excitement and activity at the opening of the cotton market today. More or less general frosts had been reported in the cotton belt over Saturday and Sunday, and with Liverpool this morning exhibiting great firmness, there was a scare of sorts here that started prices some 20 to 43 points higher.

October closing Saturday at 9 96 sold up to 10.40 on the call, while December touched 10.28, January 10.25, March 10.20 and May 10.20.

This enormous gain naturally attracted heavy buying, and after call prices were depressed several points on the more active positions.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, OCTOBER 27, 1903.

We are in sympathy with the News and Observer's contention that the salaries of judges ought to be subject to an income tax, but our contemporary nor anyone else has explained how to get around that part of the constitution which declares that the salary of a judge shall not be reduced during his term of office. We believe the judges ought to pay, but they have the constitution on their side, and nothing short of a constitutional amendment can bring about a change. The matter is not of sufficient importance to justify an amendment, so it looks as if it will have to rest where it is for many years.

Several hundred Portuguese laborers have been brought to the vicinity of New Bern and given employment. Reports state that they are an honest and industrious people, and if that is true we need them all over the South to take the place of the idle, shiftless negroes, who have always been unsatisfactory laborers.

We note from several industrial journals that North Carolina keeps well to the front among the Southern states which are constantly building manufacturing industries. And this in spite of the black ignorance attributed to us by the Southern education board.

Some fellow in one of the colleges up North gravely announces that American women will never become drunkards. Certainly they will not have time for such a diversion as long as they have to take care of such idiots as the one who made the above profound statement.

The Winston-Salem Sentinel says:

"We have a compositor who will persist in setting up the President's name 'Boozevelt.' Over indulgence in the ardent is not one of Mr. Roosevelt's vices."

Maybe it is the compositor who looks upon the lager when it's yaller.

Everybody knows this has been a bad tobacco year and there is but little hope of higher prices, but Greenville will sell her full share of tobacco and get as good prices for it as any other market in the state.

Of course the yap who says that a victory for Seth Low this year means victory for Theodore next year thinks he knows all about it, and that is why he is a hopeless case.

A handsome sick handkerchief was picked up in front of the Presbyterian church one day last week.—Henderson Gold Leaf.

What made it sick, Thad? Had it been blown on too much?

The friend who cannot understand can destroy your peace of mind quite as effectually as the enemy who will not understand.

If Lieutenant Peary doesn't hurry up and discover the North Pole again, the bloomin' thing will get adrift.

The Norfolk Landmark pays a handsome compliment to Hon. John H. Smith and urges that he be placed on the rivers and harbors committee. There is no man on the South Atlantic slope so well qualified.—Raleigh News and Observer.

Which leads us to inquire which John H. Smith are you talking about?

There are a great many people who could rob the public just as successfully as Dowie does if they had his whiskers.

Indiana has erected a statue to a horse, but the best Booth Tarkington has been able to do is in the photograph line.

Matt Quay's son has broken into the United States navy. Well, maybe that's as good as place as any for the boy to live it down.

It's about time for Admiral Cochran to "Hoch der Czar" and fighting Bob Evans' to cuss out the balance of the outfit.

As Prof. Langley's machine would have done no practical good if it had been a success, not much is lost.

Many an earnest effort has brought only failure because of the certain knowledge that it would not be appreciated.

The war cloud in the East can't be very serious, as Richard Harding Davis hasn't butted in yet.

It is not exactly true that a woman has no sense of humor—she has no sense of a man's humor.

A Cornell professor writes to The Atlanta Constitution that the writers who criticize and caricature President Roosevelt should be severely punished. The same issue of The Constitution contains a cablegram informing the world that a German priest has been arrested for lese majeste, because he criticized the empress for having her picture taken in a low cut dress. Such incidents give color to the fear expressed by Judge Reagan, of Texas, that this republic will be changed into a monarchy. When the crime of lese majeste becomes a part of our institutions monarchy is not far off.—Chattanooga News.

The Court of Appeals of New York has handed down a decision declaring dependence upon faith healing in the case of sickness to be criminal negligence. It takes a North Carolina legislature to license the practice of that kind of healing.—Greenville REFLECTOR.

Which reminds us that a North Carolina legislature can sometimes do as many fool things as any body of men that ever got together.—Henderson Gold Leaf.

Considering the cost of wrecks and damage suits resulting from wrecks, it would seem that it would pay the Southern to double-track its whole system. While this would not prevent all wrecks it would prevent a good many of them.—Durham Herald.

Of course that Buncombe tragedy may have been a direct result of too much whiskey, still you cannot hope to pass a law that will prevent a man of his standing getting it if he wants it.—Durham Herald.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is not dangerous when this remedy is given. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. It is also pleasant to take. When all of these facts are taken into consideration it is not surprising that people in foreign lands, as well as at home, esteem this remedy very highly and very few are willing to take any other after having once used it. It is probable Mr. Dewey's letter accomplished what was designed on the part of the writer, namely the withdrawing of the $500 reward which would of course end up the hunt for him by detectives. Our comment upon the letter when it appeared was, that it was a very weak document and was destitute of the courage which makes even a highway robber a more or less interesting character. This we thought traceable to a physical and mental collapse, and that he would at once put himself upon the mercy of the court. But this has not been done and as is suggested by some editors. It may be a scheme to blow off the dogs, and give Mr. Dewey a chance to make good his escape—Raleigh Times.

South Carolina papers are boldly claiming that witnesses were bought in the Tillman trial, but it would make no difference now if they could prove it—the murderer is a free man.—Durham Herald.

A Baltimore firm advertises for "a young man to serve at a lunch counter." This is evidently a new dish they are getting up.—Durham Sun.

That is an important and gratifying statement that Colonel W. E. Holt makes through the medium of The News today. He is a recognized authority on the cotton mill business and a man of conservative temper and sober statements. It is doubly good fortune to the South that the cotton farmers should be getting such good prices for cotton and that the manufacturing outlook should be so bright at the same time. There is nothing whatever the matter with the South these days. As a favorite declamation speech for the school-boys used to say, "We are rising up, we are rising up."—Charlotte News.

Behaviour is like a mirror in which every one show their image. It is the summit of humility to bear the imputation of pride. The very first step toward action is the death warrant of doubt. The chief source of self happiness is the act of making others happy. People are generally deserted in adversity. When the sun sets our very shadows seem to follow us. DIETING INVITES DISEASE.
To cure Dyspepsia or indigestion it is no longer necessary to live on milk and toast. Starvation produces such weakness that the whole system becomes an easy prey to disease. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that one cares to eat, and is a never failing cure for indigestion, Dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Kodol digests what you eat—makes the stomach sweet. Sold by John L. Wooten.

Cause of Lockjaw,
Lockjaw, or tetanus, is caused by a bacillus or germ which exist plentifully in street dirt. It is inactive so long as exposed to the air, but when carried beneath the skin as in the wounds caused by percussion caps or by rusty nails, and when the air is excluded the germ is roused to activity and produces the most virulent poison known. These germs may be destroyed and all danger of lockjaw avoided by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely as soon as the injury is received. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and causes cuts, bruises and like injuries to heal without maturation and in one-third the time required by the usual treatment. It is for sale by Wooten's drug store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

To All Whom It May Concern:

This is to certify that in July, 1902, I had a fistula in anus which had given me trouble for ten years past and I had consulted several physicians and had followed their prescriptions to the letter and continued to grow worse until I could not walk, and for eight months I could only walk on crutches, and in this condition I was advised to call on Dr. Moore, colored, which I did, and under his treatment I at once began to grow better and in one week the trouble was removed and I was perfectly well, feeling like a 16-year old boy, and the trouble has never returned.
