Stray Taken Up.

A small mouse colored mule was taken up at my lot near Greenville, on morning of 30th. Owner can get same by proving property and paying charges. A. L. POTTER.

Edmonson Taylor

October 28:h was an ideal day. Mother Nature was smiling her blessings on the world without. The sky was clear; the gentle zephyrs touched tenderly the leaves of yellow and gold; the sun, riding in his chariot of fire, was quietly ripening the fruits of the forest and the harvest of the field. The world without was indicative of the feelings of hope and joy and love that reigned in the hearts of a fair young couple in our midst. A host of friends and relatives had gathered at the bride's home, Mr. G. W. Edmonson's, about a half mile north of Bethel.

It was a beautiful parlor scene, when Mr. Walter Taylor with Miss Pearle, his bride, leaning upon his strong arm and trusting in his true and noble heart, came marching to the strains of Mendelssohn's march. The music was more magical because of the artistic touch of the skillful performer, Miss Ffie Grimes. The bride, tastily dressed in a blue tailor suit, confidently approached the marriage altar with no apparent ripple upon the wave of her emotion. The high-tide of her emotion had broken upon the shore of peaceful love and was quietly rolling over the sands of perfect trust. The groom, dressed in conventional black, betrayed his joy in the eventful day by his placid smile and steady step as they faced Rev. J. C. Hocutt, who so impressively performed the matrimonial rites, there was a hushed silence, as if the sympathizing crowd were listening for the holy word to seal the sacred vow. Clear and soft spake he the words that changed two into one, and clear and calm came their assent.

Many useful presents were given. After the happy union Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, accompanied by a few friends, drove to the home of their father, Mr. Bert Taylor, where awaiting them were seasons of refreshing. May their lives ever be as happy as their union and their union be as sacred as their lives.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON, OCTOBER 31, 1903.

From the evidence presented in court against him, that fellow Sam Parks must be the greatest rascal unhung. He has been proven so many times a villain the wonder is that the district attorney considers it necessary to go on with the trial. Parks betrayed and sold his friends in a shameful manner, and on the witness stand his looks and language are as vile as his character. Any jail in the country is too good for him.

The Thanksgiving issue of THE REFLECTOR is now being prepared. It will consist of from 12 to 16 pages and will have a guaranteed circulation of over 3,000 copies. This circulation is where it will do the most good to Greenville and Pitt county merchants.

If a pick pocket should operate upon us to the usual extent of two or three dollars, we should certainly keep quiet about it. It is bad enough to have only that much, but it is worse for everybody to know it.

It is not at all likely that Dowie will have to walk back to Zion City, via Chicago, notwithstanding a New York official has attached his horses and carriage.

It appears that another of J. Shirofront Morgan's monopolies, the hot air trust, is slipping from his grasp. Mr. Bristow's report on the postoffice scandals contains 1,000,000 words.

No doubt Theodore now regrets having called the extra session of congress, after getting a sample of the big stick medicine Senator Gorman is dealing out to him.

Missionaries are coming to this country to raise money for the Macedonians. Didn't they get enough out of the Ellen M. Stone kidnapping incident?

Nobody cares who Dowie's father was, but when the old man dies the lawyers will have something to say about Dowie's son being the son of his father.

"How old is Ann?" hasn't landed anyone in the mad house yet, but if the thing keeps up the road to the above institution will be doing business.

About 35 years ago Adelina Patti made her last farewell appearance on the American stage, and she has been doing it ever since.

Maybe those gold brick artists will escape justice, but you will notice that no more of their tribe have lingered round these parts.

When Gorman gets through with Theodore there won't be a place on the latter that you can catch hold of.

One way to razzle-dazzle the pickpocket is not to have anything but your hands in your pockets.

If Mr. Gorman were an Arab or Hottentot we would like him because Theodore does not.

A word to the wise is sufficient, but the fool has to have it beaten into him.

The Christian Convention saw Greenville at its best, for which let the Lord be thanked.

Mr. Bryan isn't doing the democratic party very much harm just now, which is unusual.

We have laws against carrying concealed weapons and when the guilty party is caught up with he is more or less heavily fined. But when he uses the weapon to kill a man he goes unwhipped of the law.—Greenville REFLECTOR.

And for that reason we contend that every bill of indictment for murder or manslaughter where the killing is done with a pistol should contain a count charging the carrying of a deadly weapon or the slaying with a pistol, and the penalty for these offenses should be much greater than for the ordinary crime of carrying a concealed deadly weapon.—Wilmington Messenger.

Perhaps we are irretrievably lost and there is no hope for our salvation, but to save our soul we cannot see any terrible wrong in people attending a nice, clean show. We can't see the difference between a performance in a public hall where an admission fee is charged and a performance in an annex to a church where an admission fee is charged or a collection taken. But perhaps we see through a glass darkly and maybe some day we will be able to discern the difference. In the meantime we propose to go to church and to the show, too.—Gaffney, S. C., Ledger.

We learn through our esteemed contemporary, the Southern Tobacco Journal, that "Mr. T. K. Bruner is a little worried about the North Carolina tobacco exhibit" that it has been proposed to, have at the St. Louis Exposition. Come, come, tobaccoists: you should show more interest. It will never do for the old state to be represented at the big fair next year and tobacco not figure conspicuously in the display.—Winston-Salem Sentinel.

If the penitentiary authorities would give the alarm sooner, they would stand a better chance of getting escaped convicts back. But the plan seems to be to wait until the fugitives have had an opportunity to get several hundred miles away and then give the alarm.—Greensboro Telegram.

Orange is a good county, full of law abiding people. If there were no more criminal proceedings in other counties, the cost of courts would be next to nothing. At the term of Orange court last week the solicitor's fee amounted to just two dollars.—Durham Herald.

We have never said that we wanted Bob Glenn for governor, but as long as he wants the job we hope he won't allow another man to root him out of the race.—Concord Tribune.

If the reporters have misrepresented Dowie or done him an injustice in any way why does he not say so. His conduct in the matter is that of a cheap fakir.—Durham Herald.

The fact that we have a charity organization in this town does not mean that every dead-head who thinks he should have help will get it.—Durham Herald.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. is not dangerous when this remedy is given. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. It is also pleasant to take. When all of these facts are taken into consideration it is not surprising that people in foreign lands, as well as at home, esteem this remedy very highly and very few are willing to take any other after having once used it. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; R. L. Davis Bros., Farmville.

Many Mothers of a Like Opinion. Mrs. Pilmer, of Cordova, Iowa, says: "One of my children was subject to croup of a severe type, and the giving of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy promptly, always brought relief. CURED WHEN OTHERS FAILED

1056 Winnemac Avenue, Chicago, Ill., Oct. 25, 1902.

Wine of Cardui can always be relied upon to cure when everything else fails. It is a certain cure for female diseases in their worst forms. I suffered for years with ulceration. Intense pains in the womb and ovaries and dreadful headaches unfitted me for my work. Finally I grew so ill that I had to keep to my bed. The pains were so intense at times as to cause spasms and a disagreeable discharge drained my life forces. In my extremity after all else had failed, I tried Wine of Cardui. After using it for two weeks I began to improve so rapidly that I felt encouraged to keep up the treatment, which I did for eighteen weeks, but at the end of that time I was entirely cured. What a relief was mine and how new and beautiful life looked to me when my health was restored. Only those who have passed through such a siege of sickness as I have will understand how much I value Wine of Cardui. It is indeed a boon to sick women.

Frances Mitchell
Secretary, North Chicago Frauen Verein.

Every weak woman needs Wine of Cardui. Wine of Cardui cures disordered and painful menstruation, periodical headaches, falling of the womb and leucorrhoea. It cures extreme cases of these troubles. It strengthens girls approaching womanhood, helps bring children to barren homes, makes pregnancy and childbirth easier, prevents miscarriages and is the best medicine ever made for use during the change of life. Why permit the good women in your home to suffer another day? Every druggist has $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

FROM SOUTH AFRICA.

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy,

Mr. Arthur Chapman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy that the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville and R. L. Davis Farmville.

Even Tammany Hall might learn a few tricks from the Russian foreign office.—Atlanta Journal.

A GOOD NAME.

From personal experience I testify that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are unequalled as a liver pill. They are rightly named because they give strength and energy and to their work with ease.—W. T. Easton, Boerne, Tex. Thousands of people are using these little pills in preference to all others, because they are so pleasant and effectual. They cure biliousness, torpid liver jaundice, sick headache, constipation, etc. They do not purge and weaken, but cleanse and strengthen. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

Everybody knew the weather man was good, but nobody dreamed he was this good.—Atlanta Journal.

Only Makes a Bad Matter Worse.

Perhaps you have never thought of it but the fact must be apparent to every one that constipation caused by a lack of water in the system, and the use of drastic cathartics like the old fashioned pills only makes a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are much more mild and gentle in their effect, and when the proper dose is taken their action is so natural that one can hardly realize it is the effect of a medicine. Try a 25 cent bottle of them. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. #### Cause of Lockjaw.

Lockjaw, or tetanus, is caused by a bacillus or germ which exist plentifully in street dirt. It is inactive so long as exposed to the air, but when carried beneath the skin as in the wounds caused by percussion caps or by rusty nails, and when the air is excluded the germ is roused to activity and produces the most virulent poison known. These germs may be destroyed and all danger of lockjaw avoided by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely as soon as the injury is received. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and causes cuts, bruises and like injuries to heal without maturation and in one third the time required by the usual treatment. It is for sale by Wooten's drug store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

North Carolina, Pitt County. To All Whom It May Concern: This is to certify that in July, 1902, I had a fistula in anus which had given me trouble for ten years past and I had consulted several physicians and had followed their prescriptions to the letter and continued to grow worse until I could not walk, and for eight months I could only walk on crutches, and in this condition I was advised to call on Dr. Moore, colored, which I did, and under his treatment I at once began to grow better and in one week the trouble was removed and I was perfectly well, feeling like a 16-year old boy, and the trouble has never returned.
