Bellah-Thomas.

Mrs. Mary E. Thomas makes formal announcement today of the engagement and coming marriage of her daughter, Louella, and Mr. Lovick Percy Bellah. Miss Thomas, who has only been out of school a short time, is a young girl of bright and cordial manners, and handsome appearance. She is a representative of an old and prominent Tennessee family, her father, the late Mr. James W. Thomas, who was a well-known and highly esteemed citizen of Nashville, was a former state treasurer. She is a great niece of the late Miss Jane Thomas, who was so much beloved here. Mr. Bellah is a native of Mobile, who has resided in Nashville for four years, and has made many friends here. He is now with the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis Railroad, and occupies an enviable position in the esteem of his associates.

The marriage will take place at the Thomas home on West Broad street at 8 o'clock in the morning, Wednesday, November 11, and only the immediate family will be present. The bride will wear a traveling costume and there will be no attendants. Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom will leave for a wedding journey to Florida, stopping enroute to visit Mr. Bellah's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Z. Bellah, in Mobile. On their return they will make their home with Mrs. Thomas. The bride's sister, Miss Jessie Thomas, will come from Cleveland to attend the wedding—Nashville, Tenn., Banner.

The bride elect is a sister of Mrs. J. L. Little, of Greenville.

Diogenes Died too Soon.

A Union county farmer a few days ago called at the office of Our Home, a weekly newspaper published at Marshville, paid for the paper a year in advance and said "Here's a dollar more. It's to pay for the paper during the time I was reading it but was not a subscriber. I've had value received for it."

Diogenes died too soon. If he had lived until today he would put up at the house of Mr. J. N. Sturdivant—for that is the name of this prince of honest men—and begged to learn honesty of him.

Let us hope that the example of Mr. Sturdivant will be widely followed. If so, this paper will be compelled to buy a large safe to hold all the money that will roll in from those who have been reading the paper without subscribing for it.—Raleigh News and Observer.

Employed Three Generations.

Mr. G. T. Tyson, of Beaver Dam township, tells us that while he is yet not an old man he has had representatives of three generations of one family at work on his farm. Thirty years ago one of his farmers was a faithful old colored man. Ten years later the old man's son went to work for Mr. Tyson, and now a grandsons is at work for him.

The Best Yet.

The Ted E. Faust Minstrels, who gave a show here Saturday, were the best that have visited Greenville. The audience was large and all speak in highest praise of the company. The costumes were magnificent and the performance excellent.

Many a man is compelled to keep his word because no one will take it.

When the girl gets the swimming craze it is a sign she is getting fat where it doesn't show any other way.

0033 A WINNER.

THAT NUMBER DRAWS REFLECTOR SEWING MACHINE.

LAST TICKET GIVEN OUT TODAY.

The Plan Brought The Reflector One Thousand Dollars in Subscriptions.

Some months ago THE REFLECTOR announced that it was going to give a Wheeler & Wilson, drop-head, ball bearing sewing machine to one of its subscribers. To determine who should get it a thousand tickets were prepared numbered consecutively from 0001 to 1000, there being four figures on every ticket. A blank ticket was sent to Mr. J. L. Whichard, of Norfolk, and he was asked to fill the blank with a number between 0001 and 1000, seal the ticket in side of three envelopes and mail it direct to Mr. J. L. Little, cashier of the Bank of Greenville, who had kindly consented to keep it without being opened until he should be requested by the editor of THE REFLECTOR to break the seal and make public the number the ticket contained.

The disposition of the tickets then commenced, one being given free to every subscriber of THE REFLECTOR who paid as much as $1 at one time, every dollar getting a ticket, and the person getting the ticket corresponding in number with the one held by Mr. Little to have the machine.

The last of these tickets was given away today and the following correspondence tells the remainder of the story:

Greenville, N. C. Nov. 2, 1903.
 Mr. James L. Little,
 Cashier Bank of Greenville,
 Dear Sir: As all of THE REFLECTOR sewing machine prize tickets have been disposed of, you will please break the seal inclosing the one in your keeping and advise me the number recorded thereon, you still retaining it until the corresponding ticket has been brought to me, when I will call for the one you have.

Thanking you for your kindness in keeping the ticket while the others were being distributed, I am,

Yours truly,
 D. J. WHICHARD.

Greenville, N. C. Nov. 2, 1903.
 Mr. D. J. Whichard,
 Editor REFLECTOR,

Dear Sir: As requested I have broken the seal of the envelopes and find that the ticket contains number 0033.

Congratulating in advance the holder of the winning number, and hoping the plan has been a successful one for THE REFLECTOR, I am,

Yours truly,
 JAMES L. LITTLE,
 Cashier Bank of Greenville.

So the holder of ticket number 0033 is entitled to the machine prize. Whoever has this ticket can bring or send it to THE REFLECTOR. If the ticket is held by a subscriber too far from Greenville to come in person to bring it, we would suggest that it be sent by registered letter to guard against danger of loss. Write your name in ink across the back of the ticket and send us your shipping address and the machine will be shipped you direct from the factory.

In order that the machine, which is one of the best made, may be entirely new when it reaches the winner, and also to avoid the possibility of its having to be reshipped from Greenville, we have let it remain in the factory of the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine Co., at Atlanta, Ga., to be shipped on our order. It will be ordered shipped just as soon as the subscriber holding the winning number furnishes us shipping directions.

Colored People Monopolize Depot.

Something ought to be done to prevent the large number of colored people gathering around the depot about train time and monopolizing the premises. They gather there in large numbers every day, and it is much worse on Sundays, when they go by hundreds. They crowd all over the platform so that people having business there can hardly get to the waiting room and baggage room. Some regulation should be adopted that will prevent loafers of both races gathering around the depot in the way of those who have business there. If the railroad authorities cannot make and enforce such a rule the officials of the town should take action and come to their assistance.

Moved to Greenville.

Mr. J. J. Laughinghouse has moved his family from Grimesland to Greenville. They occupy the O'Hagan house, on Pitt street, which has been remodelled during the past summer and made one of the handsomest residences here. His family will add much to Greenville and are cordially welcomed as citizens of the town.

Tied Up and Robbed.

Greensboro, N. C., Oct. 31.—A white man, giving his name as Turner and his place of residence Staley, was held up by three negroes in Buchanan street, near the depot, last night and robbed of a new overcoat and his purse containing $25. His screams brought a crowd to his assistance. He was found tied to a fence and his assailants had fled. He said he had been drinking and wanted to go to the depot; offering to pay a negro named Charles Simmons to show him the way; that Simmons started with him, but turned him over to two other negroes who proceeded to do him up. The police were unable to find Simmons last night or today.

TRUE SOLDIERS OF THE CROSS.

Writing of the sad death of Mrs. Booth Tucker, the noted Salvation army leader, the Charlotte News concludes:

"And so we have never felt inclined to make light of the wearers of the army uniform nor to deery their peculiar and spectacular methods. If there are men that can only be reached in that way, let not our more correct canons of taste shut such men out. And then there is something inspiring in the military obedience which they render their authorities, a spirit that any Christian Church might well desire for its own."

And never in the history of the world has there been an institution less deserving of being made light of. These salvationists are not always of the finest appearance, but they are workers in the cause of the cross—strong, brave consecrated men and women to whom the religion of Jesus Christ is a vivid and lasting reality. They endure much, struggle much and hope much. They feed the starved body as well as the sin-stained soul, and they make Christ's religion a thing possible of attainment for the poor wrecks of the street. They don't ask how bad you have been, they don't require impossible promises. If you desire something better—even if you desire to desire something better than sin and its price, they take you into their hearts and the little store of material things they have. You don't have to wear fine clothes to find the Christ of the Salvation army soldier. Poor, hungry, naked and lame, you are led to the Saviour of the world, who said: "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me"

Exorcism.

Lonely I am today, and full of doubt, Questioning fate, and dallying with fear.

That vaguely whispers warning in my ear Of unknown dangers, past my finding out,

Until I wonder what 'tis all about— My life on this unsatisfying sphere, The solitary quest from year to year,

My soul within and all the world without.

And then I hear your footstep on the stair,

And feel the clinging question of your kiss,

O gently Love! My spectres, in despair

At your approach, have fled to the abyss.

How strange it seems that I should ever care

For any cause or purpose beyond this!

—Elisa Barker.

The Influence of The Youth's Companion.

The gospel of good cheer brightens every page of The Youth's Companion. Although the paper is nearly seventy-seven years of age, it does not look back on the past as a better period than the present.

The Companion believes that the time most full of promise is the time we are living in, and every weekly issue reflects this spirit of looking forward and not back.

To more than half a million American families it carries every week its message of cheer. Its stories picture the true characteristics of the young men and women of America. Its articles bring nearly three million readers in touch with the best thought of living men and women.

Annual Announcement Number fully-describing the principal features of The Companion's new volume for 1904 will be sent to any address free.

The new subscriber for 1904 will receive all the issues of The Companion for the remaining weeks of 1903 free from the time of subscription, also The Companion Calendar for 1904, lithographed in twelve colors and gold.

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION, 144 Berkeley St., Boston, Mass.

One Bruce Craven, whoever he is, writes a long article in the Charlotte Observer in which he criticises and ridicules the editors who have dared to criticize the judges and the courts. And then the esteemed Raleigh Post crawls out of its shell long enough to say that in 99 cases out of 100 such criticisms "are the flippant outbursts of ignorance or prejudice." We trust that those editors who have been criticising courts and judges—and this includes the great majority of the newspapers of the state—will take due notice and be governed accordingly. It is a "flippant outburst of ignorance and prejudice" to criticize persons of prominence and those in authority. They can do no wrong and their boots should be licked. If you want to abuse somebody cuss out the niggers and poor white folks who have no friends.—Statesville Landmark.

Only Makes a Bad Matter Worse.

Perhaps you have never thought of it but the fact must be apparent to every one that constipation caused by a lack of water in the system, and the use of drastic cathartics like the old fashioned pills only makes a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are much more mild and gentle in their effect, and when the proper dose is taken their action is so natural that one can hardly realize it is the effect of a medicine. Try a 25 cent bottle of them. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. No one who is acquainted with its good qualities can be surprised at the great popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It not only cures colds and grip effectually and permanently, but prevents these diseases from resulting in pneumonia. It is also a certain cure for croup. Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. It is also pleasant to take. When all of these facts are taken into consideration it is not surprising that people in foreign lands, as well as at home, esteem this remedy very highly and very few are willing to take any other after having once used it. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; R. L. Davis Bros., Farmville.

Many Mothers of a Like Opinion

Mrs. Pilmer, of Cordova, Iowa, says: "One of my children was subject to croup of a severe type, and the giving of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy promptly, always brought relief. Many mothers in this neighborhood think the same as I do about this remedy and want no other kind for their children." For sale by Wooten's drug store, Greenville, R. L. Davis Bros., Farmville.

CURED WHEN OTHERS FAILED

1056 Winnemac Avenue,
CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 25, 1902.

Wine of Cardui can always be relied upon to cure when everything else fails. It is a certain cure for female diseases in their worst forms. I suffered for years with ulceration. Intense pains in the womb and ovaries and dreadful headaches unfitted me for my work. Finally I grew so ill that I had to keep to my bed. The pains were so intense at times as to cause spasms and a disagreeable discharge drained my life forces. In my extremity after all else had failed, I tried Wine of Cardui. After using it for two weeks I began to improve so rapidly that I felt encouraged to keep up the treatment, which I did for eighteen weeks, but at the end of that time I was entirely cured. What a relief was mine and how new and beautiful life looked to me when my health was restored. Only those who have passed through such a siege of sickness as I have will understand how much I value Wine of Cardui. It is indeed a boon to sick women.

Frances Mitchell

Secretary, North Chicago Frauen Verein.

Every weak woman needs Wine of Cardui. Wine of Cardui cures disordered and painful menstruation, periodical headaches, falling of the womb and leucorrhoea. It cures extreme cases of these troubles. It strengthens girls approaching womanhood, helps bring children to barren homes, makes pregnancy and childbirth easier, prevents miscarriages and is the best medicine ever made for use during the change of life. Why permit the good women in your home to suffer another day? Every druggist has $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

FROM SOUTH AFRICA.

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy,

Mr. Arthur Chapman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dunny that the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville and R. L. Davis Farmville.

A GOOD NAME.

From personal experience I testify that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are unequalled as a liver pill. They are rightly named because they give strength and energy and to their work with ease.—W. T. Easton, Boerne, Tex. Thousands of people are using these tiny little pills in preference to all others, because they are so pleasant and effectual. They cure biliousness, torpid liver jaundice, sick headache, constipation, etc. They do not purge and weaken, but cleanse and strengthen. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

A REMARKABLE CASE.

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by John L. Wooten.

CURED OF PILES AFTER 40 YEARS.

Mr. C. Haney, of Geneva, O., had the piles for 40 years. Doctors said dollars could do him no lasting good. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured him permanently. Invaluable for cuts, burns, bruises, sprains, laceration, eczema, tetter, salt rheum, and all other skin diseases. Look for the name DeWitt on the package—all others are cheap, worthless counterfeits. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

Advertising is the gentle rain that falls upon the plant and nurtures it.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is Pleasant to Take.

The finest quality of granulated loaf sugar is used in the manufacture of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to maple syrup, making it quite pleasant to take. Mr. W. L. Roderick, of Poolesville, Md., in speaking of this remedy, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with my children for several years and can truthfully say it is the best preparation of the kind I know of. The children like to take it and it has no injurious after effect. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

The Best Liniment.

"Chamberlain's Pain Balm is considered the best liniment on the market," write Post & Bliss, of Georgia, Vt. No other liniment will heat a cut or bruise so promptly. No other affords such quick relief from rheumatic pains. No other is so valuable for deep seated pains like lame back and pains in the chest. Give this liniment a trial and you will never wish to be without it. Sold by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

Dowie Vs. Dowie.

Chicago, Oct. 31.—John Murray Dowie, crushed by the attack made upon him by his son, John Alexander Dowie, says: "The statement that I am not the father of John Alexander Dowie is the greatest myth ever uttered by the mouth of man. It is scandalous that my son should repudiate me after I have done so much for him. He is my son and was born in lawful wedlock. No one can deny it. The records may be had at the great register offices, Princes street, Edinburgh, Scotland. I have always lived a quiet, peaceable, Christian life, and it breaks my heart to have this trouble come toward the end."

Judge Dowie, who is respected by the whole community, lives here in his little cottage. The resemblance between John Murray Dowie and John Alexander Dowie is so close that the father has often been taken for the son. The old man is growing feeble and the recent trouble has aged him greatly.

Paint in the Water.

Wilmington, N. C., Oct. 31.—As a result of drinking water which was poisoned by paint, the four year old daughter of Mr. Charles McMillan, an architect of this city, died this morning, and an infant son lies at the point of death. Rain water running off a freshly painted roof and emptying into a cistern which furnished the supply of drinking water for the family, was the cause of the trouble. The children drank the water and it caused inflammation of the stomach. Medical skill was powerless to relieve the intense suffering of the children. The boy cannot recover.

To All Whom It May Concern:
This is to certify that in July, 1902, I had a fistula in anus which had given me trouble for ten years past and I had consulted several physicians and had followed their prescriptions to the letter and continued to grow worse until I could not walk, and for eight months I could only walk on crutches, and in this condition I was advised to call on Dr. Moore, colored, which I did, and under his treatment I at once began to grow better and in one week the trouble was removed and I was perfectly well, feeling like a 10-year old boy, and the trouble has never returned.
