

You Won't Mind

We hope that you won't mind being prodded gently about your Winter Suit--for it's time you were thinking about it.

If every man in town, who goes to the tailor for his clothes should see the

we are now showing, we are very much afraid that some of the tailors would have to close up shop.

See the three and four button Sack suits, single and double-breasted styles. Hand-padded collars, narrow hand-padded lapels and hand-made buttonholes. Trousers cut generous in width, with narrow welted side seams. Yes, sir, we want you to buy one of these Suits: you will find it satisfactory to the last degree, and come again.

More Negroes in the White House.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 2.—The incident which two years ago brought fame to President Roosevelt and Booker Washington alike, was repeated at the white house this afternoon. Negroes, some bright mulattos and others black, were received in the east room by the president and Mrs. Roosevelt, and afterwards they partook of a buffet luncheon in the historic state dining room. These negroes were seamen from the May Flower and the Sylph and they were received together with something like one hundred other seamen who were white. The negroes apparently enjoyed their reception by the chief executive more than their white companions. At least they manifested outward evidence to that effect when leaving the white house. The occasion promises to become historic for several reasons. It is the first time in the history of the government that a party of enlisted men of either the army or the navy has been formally received by the president and his wife. It is a second time in the history of the nation that negroes have dined at the white house, the other occasion being known to every person in the land. It is a third time that negroes have been received socially at the white house; the other occasions being the Booker Washington dinner and the presence of negro men and their wives at the judicial reception last winter which Southern congressmen made notable when they left in high dudgeon.

In the current issue of The Saturday Evening Post the author of "Letters From a Self-Made Merchant to His Son" has John Graham to write as follows to his son: "When a man spends his time trying not to make enemies he hasn't any left to attend to business. You can't step out in any direction without treading on somebody's corns, but unless you keep moving, the fellow who's in a hurry to get somewhere is going to fetch up on your banion. Some men are going to hate you because you're smooth, and others because you have a brutal way of telling the truth. You're going to repel some because they think you are cold and others will cross the street when they see you coming because they think you sloop over. One fellow won't like you because you've got curly hair, and another will size you up as a stiff because you're bald. Whatever line of conduct you adopt you're bound to make enemies but so long as there's a choice, I want you to make yours by being straight-forward and just. You'll have the satisfaction of knowing that every enemy you make by doing the square thing is a rascal at heart. Don't fear too much the enemy you make by saying No, nor trust too much the friend you make by saying Yes."

Rural Routes in North Carolina.

There are today in North Carolina, in actual operation, just exactly 400 free rural delivery routes. There had been up to October 1, 999 petitions for routes filed. Of these 400 were established and are now in successful operation, 282 were reported adversely and the other 317 are pending. Of these 400 routes, Congressman W. W. Kitchen of the Fifth district got the largest number, 51. Next comes Congressman Pou of the Fourth district with 48, and Congressman Thomas of the Third with 47. The other districts have routes as follows: Ninth, 46; Eighth, 44; Sixth, 43; Second, 34; First, 33; Tenth, 28; and Seventh, 26.

TWO BIG SALES.

Made at the Liberty Warehouse. Some days ago THE REFLECTOR printed a leaf tobacco sale made by the Liberty warehouse, and with it gave the challenge that it was the best sale made by any warehouse in Eastern Carolina this season. The challenge has so far not been taken up by any other house, but on Monday the Liberty made two sales that even surpassed the former high record. For J. C. Bland 24 lots of tobacco were sold as follows: 24 pounds at 21c, 165 at 21c, 44 at 40c, 68 at 39c, 82 at 35c, 112 at 39c, 112 at 40c, 86 at 42c, 70 at 39c, 128 at 42c, 110 40c, 92 at 38c, 103 at 37c, 100 at 40c, 146 at 39c, 108 at 30c, 76 at 40c, 166 at 30c, 132 at 30c, 100 at 33c, 82 at 30c, 100 at 27c, 110 at 17c, 104 at 15c, making a total of 2,420 pounds at $804.77. For P. W. Burnett & Bro. 9 lots were sold as follows: 154 at 8c, 216 at 8c, 132 at 23c, 142 at 35c, 23 at 40c, 30 at 42c, 33 at 50c, 24 at 48c, 20 at 46c, making a total of 774 pounds at $169.22. Of course it takes good tobacco to bring those prices, but these big sales show how W. T. Lipscomb & Co. work for the farmers who sell tobacco at the Liberty warehouse.

25 Persons Die in a Fire.

New York, Nov. 1.—Twenty-one men, three women and a ten-months-old babe were burned to death or suffocated in a fire that started early this morning in the House of All Nations, a five-story tenement at No. 426 Eleventh avenue, and which the police and coroner believe to be of incendiary origin. Some of the peculiar features of the disaster in addition to the startling loss of life, are that the fire was practically extinguished in 20 minutes, that the police could learn of but one person being injured, other than those who lost their lives, and that the property loss was only $7,000. The dead are mostly Italians.

Raleigh & Pamlico.

The Capital Construction & Development Co. of Raleigh, N. C., has been chartered, with office at 305 Wilmington street, to build the proposed Raleigh & Pamlico railroad, which is to extend from Raleigh to Washington, N. C., and on which construction is soon to begin. The incorporators of the construction company are E. B. Barbee, of Raleigh, T. M. Washington, of Wilson and S. H. Crocker, of Stantonburg.

Engineers are now surveying the route, one party going from Wilson toward Washington and the other from Wilson toward Raleigh. The capital stock of the construction company is $50,000, and Mr. Barbee is the principal stockholder. Its charter gives it broad powers.

Coney Island Fire-Swept.

New York, Nov. 1.—Coney Island today was swept by the most disastrous fire in its history, about two hundred and fifty buildings being destroyed, entailing a loss estimated at not less than $1,000,000. No lives were lost, although several persons were seriously injured. The fire started near the Steel Chase Park and swept along the bowery district, which is filled with flimsy frame structures that burned like tinder. The principal buildings destroyed were St. Auch's Hotel and pavilion and Henderson's theatre, both brick structures, erected since the great fire three years ago.

Old Fellows meet tonight.

ORMONDSVILLE ITEMS.

ORMONDSVILLE, N. C. Nov. 2. J. M. Ormond made a business trip to Kinston last Thursday. Mack Cauchill went to Tarboro Sunday. Deputy Sheriff W. H. Williams was on our streets last Thursday collecting taxes for this year. He says our township was the star township, last year, being only eighteen cents on the insolvent list. Our township is always in the lead. Its people never falter from doing their duty. Misses Fanny Hardee, Palmetta Taylor, of Hookerton, W. J. Hardee and B. P. Taylor went to Institute Saturday and returned yesterday. Misses Ethel Hill, of Fountain Hill, and SaMye Palmer, of Hookerton, visited Miss Margaret Ormond Saturday and Sunday. Jasper Frizzell went to Kinston yesterday. He says he thinks he will go again real soon. J. R. Turnage and sister, Miss Lucy, visited Miss Lillie Hodges, of Falling Creek, Sunday. Our High school has in enrollment now about sixty five pupils. Prof. Stephens, with Miss Carver as assistant and music teacher make a fine corps of teachers. The enrollment may reach a hundred after Christmas.

After Twenty-Seven Years.

Twenty-seven years ago Henry John Osborne of Kendal, Seneca county, suddenly disappeared, leaving a wife, Katrina, and seven young children. The wife, after years of patient waiting, gave him up as dead. Alone she reared and educated the children.

For some time Mrs. Osborne has been living with her daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Bendixon, at Kendal. One evening recently a rap was heard at the door. Answering the summons. Met a strange man, beyond middle age and well dressed, who asked for a drink of water.

At the sound of the man's voice Mrs. Osborne, who was in the room, started up and hastened to the door.

"Henry Osborne, have you come back to me after all these years?" she asked, recognizing her husband.

"My name is not Osborne, it is John Williams," he said.

"Oh Henry, you do not intend to deceive me now?" said the weeping wife.

But the man persisted in his denial, cut the interview short and left.

But Osborne had that day been recognized by Jack Bartlett, who knew him many years ago. Osborne maintained to Bartlett that his name was Williams, but the identification was positive. Now the white haired and careworn wife is enduring the grief of a second parting, while the children and grandchildren are wondering if he has contracted other ties and responsibilities during the twenty-seven years since he first went away.—New York World.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, NOVEMBER 3, 1903.

FOOLS, FRAUDS AND FANATICS.

To the disgust of all decent people, another fanatic on the race question has sprouted in North Carolina. This time it is Prof. John Spencer Bassett, of the chair of history of Trinity college. As a rule North Carolinians are little given to making promiscuous fools of themselves, but when one does begin to feel that buzzing noise in the place where his brains ought to be he generally goes the whole hog.

Such is the case with Prof. Bassett, who, in the South Atlantic Quarterly, declares that Booker Washington is the greatest man born in the South in a hundred years, except General Robert F. Lee, and that the negroes will eventually force social equality. The Trinity Solomon goes on in the above strain at length, and slanders and defames the South and Southern sentiments in every word he writes.

Candidly, we are ashamed that such a measly mind should belong to one who is connected with one of the state's proudest seats of learning. If Trinity is what it has always been considered in the South it's head will droop in shame for having harbored a spectacular viper, who insults the time-cherished ideals of North Carolina and the South. We blush for Trinity.

Of course Prof. Bassett's diatribe will have but one effect—it will simply feed the fire of race hatred, that is now and ever has been kept alive by fools, frauds and fanatics. The professor's glory in his incendiary utterances will fade quickly, but he has added his load of fuel to the flames, and we find ourselves wishing that he could live long enough to suffer in them for his misdeeds.

Reviewing the Greensboro reunion the Progressive Farmer said:

"Senator M. W. Ransom was nominally the presiding officer, but most of the actual work fell to Dr. McIver. General Ransom is clearly in his dotage, and we do not think it is good taste to longer exhibit him in places of such responsibility."

Such a thought and such language are vile, ungentlemanly and untrue. Gen. Ransom spoke in Greenville a short while ago, and he was not in his dotage then. He was the same brilliant, chivalrous soldier-statesman with which history and fame credits him. The snappings of a feeble dog are not more contemptible than the words quoted from the Progressive Farmer, commenting upon which the Manufacturers' Record says:

"That paragraph is eminently typical of the new 'educational' movement for the South, in which a few youngish North Carolinians at home and abroad have gained some note, and which does not seem able to avoid patronage or ignorance of the past. It may be suggested, however, that years of faithful service to one's state, years of accumulated honors, ought to inspire youth with respect for age, that progress is not necessarily inseparable from insolence and that mutual incensing is not made more acceptable by reflection upon others. The writer of that bumptious paragraph in the Progressive Farmer is probably incapable of appreciating the significance of his words. If a man in his dotage was selected to be 'nominally the presiding officer' of the conference, the men who from far and near accepted invitations to be present are likely to ask what was the real purpose of the conference."

H. C. Banks goes to the Asheville News Gazette, Hildebrand goes to Washington for the above paper and the Charlotte Observer, and Vincent, of the Charlotte News, goes to the Observer. They are all good newspaper men, and we hope the changes will profit them.

The mayor of Pittsburg is on trial for violating several laws. Why, we never knew it made any difference how many laws a man and office-holder violated in Pennsylvania.

Theodore says that the reasons for lynching a horse thief are evident, but that there is no excuse for lynching a rapist. He is the kind of man who places a horse above his own flesh and blood.

We don't see why old man Dowie has any kick coming because John Alexander says the old man is not his father. It is a thing to be proud of.

There is now a sense of ease and calm repose among the democrats who want to be president. It is announced that the Charlotte Observer will support the ticket.

Jones of Arkansas this time breaks out on the race issue. Somehow we have a recollection that Jones has failed annually in something.

The man who mentioned Booker Washington and Gen. R. E. Lee in the same breath is too tough for tar and feathers.

Theodore has not recovered from the castigation administered by Schoolmaster Gorman, and is still taking his meals perpendicular.

We will reserve our predictions on the election until tomorrow, when we shall be able to guess it exactly.

Prof. Bassett was wise enough not to air his opinions on the race question during the white supremacy campaign.

If Theodore is 45 and doesn't know any better, how old will Ann be when he cuts his wisdom teeth?

A contemporary says the revolution into Santo Domingo looks like war. Well, it's the first time.

The Durham Sun is discussing the New Year two months in advance. Must have a full coal box.

Prof. Bassett's views ought to succeed in getting him out of Trinity.

Probably Parson Massee thinks he has good company in Prof. Bassett.

Football is growing as tame as war. Only 40 killed so far this season.

How old will Ann be when the thing is settled?

Ann is not old. She is 'steen years young.

FROM SOUTH AFRICA.

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. Arthur Chapman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy teat the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville and R. L. Davis Farmville.

The Best Liniment.

"Chamberlain's Pain Balm is considered the best liniment on the market," write Post & Bliss, of Georgia, Vt. No other liniment will heal a cut or bruise so promptly. No other affords such quick relief from rheumatic pains. No other is so valuable for deep seated pains like lame back and pains in the chest. Give this liniment a trial and you will never wish to be without it. Sold by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

CURED OF PILES AFTER 40 YEARS.

Mr. C. Haney, of Geneva, O., had the piles for 40 years. Doctors and dollars could do him no lasting good. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured him permanently. Invaluable for cuts, burns, bruises, sprains, laceration, eczema, tetter, salt rheum, and all other skin diseases. Look for the name DeWitt on the package—all others are cheap, worthless counterfeits. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

A splendid thing to promote her happiness is for a man to be so absent minded that he will make love to his wife.

A GOOD NAME.

From personal experience I testify that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are unequalled as a liver pill. They are rightly named because they give strength and energy and do their work with ease.—W. T. Easton, Boerne, Tex. Thousands of people are using these tiny little pills in preference to all others, because they are so pleasant and effectual. They cure biliousness, torpid liver jaundice, sick headache, constipation, etc. They do not purge and weaken, but cleanse and strengthen. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

The biggest gold brick in the world is the experience that one buys.

A REMARKABLE CASE.

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by John L. Wooten.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is Pleasant to Take.

The finest quality of granulated loaf sugar is used in the manufacture of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to maple syrup, making it quite pleasant to take. Mr. W. L. Roderick, of Poolesville, Md., in speaking of this remedy, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with my children for several years and can truthfully say it is the best preparation of the kind I know of. The children like to take it and it has no injurious after effect. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

End of Century Book Club.

Reported for Reflector.

The End of the Century Club held its second meeting of the club year at Cottondale, the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Cotten.

The members always look forward with interest to this pleasant annual gathering in the country, and this year, the occasion proved no less enjoyable than the preceding ones, the weather combining with the hostess in giving the club a most delightful day. Many of the club members were present and several guests.

Much of the time devoted to unfinished business was given to the discussion of the starting of a public library. The club has long had this idea in view and has already given its own collection of books, but it necessarily requires the co-operation of the town to make it a success.

As it was suggested that at an early date, some form of entertainment be given, to which each person coming should bring either an old or new book. Thus forming the nucleus of a library; which it is hoped, will prove a source of pleasure and interest to the community.

Mention was also made of the rural schools and it was hoped Prof. Ragsdale would address the club at a convenient date. The literary work of the club year, the study of Shakespeare, was then taken up, and paper was read by Mrs. Quinerly, on the literature of the Elizabethan era. And after a few more hours of enjoyment, the club adjourned to meet at Mrs. Allen's on the first Tuesday in November. MRS. H. SKINNER.

Two Brothers at War.

New Berne, N. C., Nov. 2.—

What came near terminating in a tragedy occurred today at the office of the Pine Lumber Co., of this city where two brothers were the principals. The matter was over a financial dispute. Joseph E. Hawk, one of the parties involved, is president of the company, which does a large business, and the other E. G. Hawk, the manager of one of the small mills of the company at Croatan, ten miles from here. It seems that the former had suspicion that the financial affairs of the latter were not what they ought to be, and learning this morning that his brother was in the city, drove to Croatan and got possession of the books used in the mill and brought them back with him. When E. G. Hawk had been informed of his brother's action he went to the office of the company and demanded that the books be returned to him. Upon refusal a witness says he drew his revolver and again demanded the books. The other ran his hand to his hip in an attempt to also draw a pistol, but W. F. Aberly, secretary of the company, interfered, and in the melee one gun was discharged but no damage done. An officer arrived on the scene and arrested all the parties. The preliminary trial was held this afternoon and E. G. Hawk was held under $100 bond for his appearance at court, also $500 justified bond that he would keep the peace for six months. Aberly was put under a $50 bond.

A good cure for fever blisters on a girl's mouth is for her mother to stay in the room when men call on her.

Only Makes a Bad Matter Worse.

Perhaps you have never thought of it but the fact must be apparent to every one that constipation caused by a lack of water in the system, and the use of drastic cathartics like the old fashioned pills only makes a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are much more mild and gentle in their effect, and when the proper dose is taken their action is so natural that one can hardly realize it is the effect of a medicine. Try a 25 cent bottle of them. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

To All Whom It May Concern:
This is to certify that in July, 1902, I had a fistula in anus which had given me trouble for ten years past and I had consulted several physicians and had followed their prescriptions to the letter and continued to grow worse until I could not walk, and for eight months I could only walk on crutches, and in this condition I was advised to call on Dr. Moore, colored, which I did, and under his treatment I at once began to grow better and in one week the trouble was removed and I was perfectly well, feeling like a 16-year old boy, and the trouble has never returned.
