TAMMANY TIGERS LEAD THEM ALL

M'CLELLAN IS ELECTED MAYOR BY SIXTY THOUSAND.

TOM JOHNSON LOSES, OHIO

Maryland and Other States Went Democratic in the Elections Yesterday.

New York—G. B. McClellan was elected Mayor of Greater New York by 60,000 plurality. Grout for comptroller, whom the fusionists and republicans made such a fight against, ran ahead of McClellan's vote. Low carried but one of the five burroughs and that was Richmond. There his vote was 200 below two years ago. Tammany swept the board clean and elected its ticket from top to bottom. After McClellan's election was assured Mayor Low sent him a message of congratulations. Tammany forces throughout the city united in a general jollification.

Frankfort, Ky. — Returns indicate Beckham's reelection by 18,000 plurality and the election of 70 members of the legislature against 30 republicans. The senate will be composed of 23 democrats and 15 republicans.

Boston, Mass.—John Bates, republican candidate for governor, was re-elected by a plurality of 40,000 over W. A. Gaston, the democratic nominee. Entire republican state and legislative tickets received large majority.

Columbus, Ohio.—Excellent weather throughout Ohio had much to do with heavy vote polled. Myron Herrick for governor will run ahead of Tom Johnson from 90,000 to 100,000. Legislature republican.

Richmond, Va.—Election passed off quietly in this state. Democrats secured all but about 25 members of the legislature. Less than 22,000 votes were polled in this city, where the democrat ticket had but slight opposition.

Des Moines, Iowa.—Returns from the state show democratic gains of 21 per cent. This reduces Cummin's majority to less than 15,000, or 20 per. cent below two years ago. The vote was light.

Bridgeport, Conn.—B. Mulvihill, the labor mayor, was elected for another term by a majority of 2,000. The democrats swept the city, only two aldermen being elected by the republicans.

Salt Lake City, Utah.—Indications point to the election of the Gentile city ticket and the defeat of Mormon ticket in the hottest campaign in the history of the city.

Jackson, Miss.—The election here was the quietest ever known and a small vote was polled. There was no opposition to the democratic ticket and consequently little interest in result.

Providence, R. I.—The returns from state election show that Garvin, democrat, has been re-elected by a reduced majority.

Lincoln, Neb.—Nebraska is very close on Supreme court judge. Republicans carry the state for university regents.

Jersey City, N. J.—Mark M. Fagan, republican, mayor, was re-elected for term of two years, by a plurality of 1500.

Denver, Col.—Colorado has gone republican, electing Campbell for Supreme court judge by a large majority. The vote was light.

Baltimore, Md.—Warfield, democratic candidate for governor, is elected by safe majority.

FARMVILLE CORRESPONDENCE.

FARMVILLE, N. C., Nov. 2, 1903.

We desire to give some idea of the immense trade that is being carried on at Farmville. There has been up to date, since the cotton trade opened, two thousand bales of cotton sold, aggregating nearly one hundred thousand dollars. This is only one item in the diversity of trade products of our little city, while the ready cash, passing into pockets of the merchants for goods, is another evidence of the great amount of business done there. Every merchant seems to be busy, and although tobacco is very low, still there is a hopeful feeling pervading the minds of the people, that as the year closes, the leaf will find better prices, and repay the farmer for his toil and labor. We sincerely hope that trade will be so adjusted that the farmer may receive prices that will amply pay him, and the manufacturer not lose anything in the advance in the price of tobacco so much desired, that the producer may not be the loser.

Our graded school building is nearing completion, and when finished will be a very handsome structure and does credit to the experienced contractor, James Parker.

The carpenters are kept quite busy. There are several other houses to be erected, one a large store house for J. W. Parker on Main street, and several for W. J. and W. M. Lang.

We notice not very much is said about the new railroad coming to this place. If this road fails to come to Farmville, a great deal of freight which it would have, will be lost to this road, and the road now running here will continue to hold all the patronage of the town. We think that the road will lose a great deal by leaving Farmville out of the route. Calculating the distance from point to point, we find that if this road shall be run direct from Wilson to Snow Hill, from the latter point to Greenville, coming to Farmville, it will be only one and a half miles further than to go from Snow Hill to Greenville and leave Farmville off the route. With this fact before us we are certain the road will be vastly benefited by running to Farmville, as the amount voted by Farmville township can be used on the construction of the road, whereas if the road is not located here, the bonds will not be issued, and the road not receive any passenger or freight traffic. We hope the head men of this new road will see their opportunity and act accordingly.

On Thursday evening from 8 to 11 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanly Smith gave a most interesting "placard party" in honor of Mr. George Pennington, of Tarboro, and Miss Vivian Parker, who is at home for a few days from school at Wilson. The instrumental music by Miss Parker and singing by Mr. Pennington added much charm to the occasion. A beautiful hand painted placque was awarded to Mrs. J. Warren Parker for her guassing ability. A sumptuous supper was served, which bore testimony of Mrs. Smith's artistic taste. All present join in thanking Mr. and Mrs. Smith for so pleasant an evening.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, NOVEMBER 4, 1903.

Gold does not make happiness, and those able to make the biggest show before the outside world often have less of peace around the fireside than those who eat bread by the sweat of the brow. Durham's latest sensation is a suit brought by B. L. Duke against his wife, which it is said may be followed by a divorce. It seems they have not lived together for two years or longer. A plain home with domestic happiness is worth more than all the cigarette trust dollars.

The stench in the government postoffice department has reached the office of their assistant postmaster general. The disclosures of corruption keep on involving higher officials and even the head of the department may be found tainted before the meeting closes. At any rate he goes at investigations very gingerly.

The old lady who took along a footwarmer with her to the theatre in Paris had an eye to comfort, but there came near being a panic in the audience when the shawl wrapped around the warmer took fire and the smell of smoke began spreading around.

The records of the mayor's court are strong argument against saloons. Places are licensed to make people drunk and the people are fined because they get drunk. Better do away with the drunk factories and save the people.

Dowie and his host have shaken off the dust of New York. They have pulled up stakes and returned home, having found that New York is not so easy to turn over as John Alexander thought.

Those two negroes who refused to let white ladies have their seats in a crowded Raleigh street car and had to be collared and pulled out by another passenger, must have been reading after Prof. Bassett.

Roosevelt is fixed now. John Alexander Dowie has given him an indorsement. With Booker and Dewie both backing him Teddy ought to feel well helped up.

Charlotte goes on curtailing the liberties of the "booze" dealers. Bar rooms there are now required to close at 8 o'clock in the evening.

Prof. Bassett might apply for a chair in Tuskegee. Surely Frinity ought to give him the shake.

If it is impossible to have a law passed that will make "pistol toting" a felony, let it constitute that offense in all cases where it is used upon another, after being so carried.—Asheville Citizen.

Do You Sleep Well?

For some weeks past the latest cure for insomnia has been compressed into the advice, "Waggle your toes and snore". Nearly every newspaper in the United States has copied this remedy, so-called.

The counting process has been worn threadbare. Counting the knots in the ceiling used to be prescribed, and if the roofs could be lifted and the sleepless people could be counted every night, the record would be astonishing for numbers. The trouble is that one's thinkers go on a rampage whenever one stops trying to think.

This effort to stop thinking is one of the hardest things ever attempted by a nervous person.

The prescription which calls for waggling and snoring reads this way. "Lying on the right side with the knees together and considerably flexed the victim of insomnia should begin to pedal both his feet, slowly up and down with the movement entirely in the ankles. The pedalling should keep time with the natural rhythm of respiration and be continued until it is followed by deep and spontaneous breathing.

"Several people who have tried this remedy, report involuntary deep breathing invariably before they have pedalled up and down a dozen times. In obstinate cases of insomnia the patient may need to keep up the pedalling two or three minutes or even more with intermission if necessary.

"The treatment may be varied by moving the feet alternately instead of simultaneously, though the latter method has proved the more efficacious in the cases known to the writer.

"The explanation is simple. The blood is pumped from the head and with the removal of brain tension a general relaxation follows with consequent deep respiration and refreshing sleep."

So far, so good, but what is good for one is not always the best plan for another. What is "one man's meat is another's poison," is the old saying. One man might waggle and snore until midnight if he drank a cup of strong coffee, or was perplexed about a business matter or suffering great anxiety. Sometimes we worry ourselves by trying to sleep, and incur wretched insomnia by the worry.

Insomnia kills its thousands. It is a forerunner of insanity very often, perhaps always.

Wagging and snoring are not expensive remedies and are worth trying; but dieting will cover the bill, quite as often. A full stomach will make a throbbing brain nine cases out of ten.

If possible, dismiss your worries when you lie down at night. It is the strenuous mind that makes one's thinkers begin to rampage, as the rule; but wagging and snoring will not hurt you.

Try it once.—Atlanta Journal.

Referring to the contemplated reunion of survivors of the famous battle of the Crater, near Petersburg, Va., a gentleman well informed of Confederate history says that the Sixty-first North Carolina regiment took part in that memorable engagement and a number of Wilmington veterans were there. Mr. Jno. E. Crow, who was one of the number, has received an invitation from Mr. Geo. S. Bernard, president of the Petersburg Branch of the Grand Divouac of the Crater Legion, asking him to be a guest in his home in Petersburg on that occasion. It is more than probable that Mr. Crow will attend.—Wilmington Star.

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. Arthur Chapman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure snitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine

I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy teat the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. Mr. C. Haney, of Geneva, O., had the piles for 40 years. Doctors and dollars could do him no lasting good. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured him permanently. They cure biliousness, torpid liver jaundice, sick headache, constipation, etc. They do not purge and weaken, but cleanse and strengthen. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by John L. Wooten.

Ran Away.

Mr. E. D. Harrington's horse ran away this afternoon. The horse broke loose from in front of Edmonds & Fleming's barber shop, where he was hitched to a post and ran up Evans street to Second. Turning into Second street the horse took to the sidewalk, the buggy colliding with Major Harding's gate. Here the horse became free from the buggy, which was considerably broken, and ran on to the bridge, where some one stopped him.

Only Makes a Bad Matter Worse.

Perhaps you have never thought of it but the fact must be apparent to every one that constipation caused by a lack of water in the system, and the use of drastic cathartics like the old fashioned pills only makes a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are much more mild and gentle in their effect, and when the proper dose is taken their action is so natural that one can hardly realize it is the effect of a medicine. Try a 25 cent bottle of them. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

YOU MAY BE CURED

544 Garfield Avenue,
 CHICAGO, ILL., October 9, 1902.

After doctoring for eleven months and taking forty-three bottles of medicine and finding no relief for leucorrhoea resulting from irritation of a fallen womb I took Wine of Cardui and fourteen bottles cured me. This seems strange but it is the simple truth. Wine of Cardui helped me from the time I began taking it and having heard it praised so highly by friends who had tried it I felt satisfied that it would help me, and it did. It cured me. Took every bit of ache, pain and headache, cramps and dragging down sensations away till I felt young, strong and happy once more. It is a wonderful medicine and a true friend to women. When I look back on the months of torture I had it seems like a hideous nightmare. Wine of Cardui will cure any woman I believe. I have more faith in it than all other medicines combined.

Frances Kingsley
 Vice-Pres., Chicago Historical Club.

How can you refuse relief when you know you are growing worse day after day? Shooting pains, irregularity, inflammation and bearing down pains make thousands of women miserable. Why drag through life never enjoying anything? Wine of Cardui has made over 1,500,000 weak and suffering women well and strong. We ask you to go to your druggist today and secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui and begin to take it at once. Do that and the health Mrs. Kingsley writes about will soon be yours. If you think special directions are needed in your case, address, giving symptoms, Ladies' Advisory Department, The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.
