Dedication of New School Building, November 6th, 1903.

The board of trustees of the graded schools of Greenville being desirous that the new school building should be dedicated to the sacred cause of education with appropriate ceremonies, directed the executive committee to prepare and carry out a program suitable to the occasion. In accordance with said instruction the executive committee of the board have arranged the following as the order of exercises.

The superintendent, teachers and pupils will assemble at the court house as usual. November, 9th, 1903. At 9 a. m. they will march to the school building in order and by grades. The Osceola band, always ready to contribute to worthy objects, has kindly offered to escort the children on their march and to make music for them.

3. Bible reading and prayer, by Rev. A. T. King.

12. Doxology and benediction, Rev. W. E. Powell.

Public cordially invited to be present and participate in the exercises.

The Best Sale Yet.

Parham & Parham report the best single sale of tobacco on this market this season. This lot was sold for J. L. Bland, of Craven county, Thursday, Nov. 5. The hustling manner in which Parham & Parham started in to rebuild their warehouse this summer made people think they were going to make a record in Greenville, and they have certainly done so. Below we give the figures of the sale for Mr. Bland:

Sixty-six pounds for 40c, 58 pounds for 40c, 95 pounds for 37c, 68 pounds for 39c, 60 pounds for 40c, 90 pounds for 30c, 46 pounds for 47c, 70 pounds for 40c, 88 pounds for 35c.

Better Grades Sell Well.

The tobacco warehouses had large sales this week. For ordinary grades prices ruled low, as usual, but where good grades were offered the prices were very satisfactory. Some tobacco sold as high as 75 cents a pound this week.

Convention of County Superintendents.

The second annual convention of the state association of county superintendents will convene in the hall of the house of representatives next Wednesday morning, November 11th, and continue for two days.

Eighty-five out of the ninety-seven superintendents in the state have already notified the state superintendent of public instruction that they will attend the entire meeting and the other twelve will probably be heard from favorably this week.

The interest manifested by the large number who have written that they are coming speaks well for the educational enthusiasm that is abroad in the state of North Carolina.

An interesting program has been arranged, beginning Wednesday morning at eleven o'clock and closing Friday morning at eleven o'clock. On Wednesday, the first day of the convention, among other numbers on the program is the following:

3:40 to 4:10 p. m.—Teachers' Institutes. Discussion led by Superintendent Y. D. Moore of Caldwell and Superintendent W. H. Ragsdale of Pitt.

On Thursday there will be an explanation of the Grimes and Cunningham prizes.

A friend of Frank R. Stockton tells of an occasion when the humorist, who was as a rule extremely averse to social functions of any nature, was induced to attend a "literary" dinner in Washington, given by a certain Western senator in honor of a well known Indiana novelist.

Mr. Stockton had taken into dinner the sister-in-law of his host. She was an excellent woman, but anything but "literary."

The conversation touching upon the beauties of Omar Khayyam, a spirited discussion of the Persian poet ensued, during which the bewildered woman from the West caught from time to time the name of "Omar."

Turning to Mr. Stockton the sister-in-law asked:

"Who is this Mr. Omar they're talking about? Very popular in society, I suppose."

"Why, madam," replied the humorist gravely, "that man did something that forever shut him out of society!"

"Gracious me!" exclaimed the worthy dame, "and what was that?"

"He died some eight hundred years ago," replied Stockton, smilingly.

Notice.

A meeting of the board of trustees of the graded schools and the executive committee is hereby called to meet at my office at 7:30 p. m. November 7, 1903. All members requested to be present.

November 6, 1903.

THOS. J. JARVIS.

As a rule the orator who uses the biggest words has the least to say,

LIQUOR MEN WILL GET FAIR DEAL

BUT CAMPAIGN AGAINST SALOONS WILL GO ON

SALOONS MUST GO NEXT YEAR

The Liquor Men Will be Given Until Next June to Get Out of Business.

A number of representative citizens of the town met Thursday night in the office of Mr. F. C. Harding for the purpose of taking the petition prepared under the direction of the anti-saloon league to the board of aldermen asking that an election be called on the question of establishing a dispensary in Greenville and against a distillery operating in the town.

At this meeting of citizens all the legal phases of the election were discussed and after fully considering these it was decided not to present the petition to the aldermen until the January meeting of the board. The reasons for this decision are as follows:

The law says that such an election shall be called in the same year in which the petition is presented and that the election cannot be held within three months of another election. To comply with this part of the law, if the petition had gone in now the election could not be held earlier than the 29th of December, as another election was held in the town on the 22nd of September.

Again the law says that when a majority of the citizens of a town vote against saloons it shall be unlawful for the county commissioners or governing board of such town to thereafter issue license to any person to sell liquor in the town, but persons already engaged in the business can have six months from the date of the election to dispose of their stock on hand and close their business if their license continue in force that long. Under this part of the law if the election should be held on the 29th of December no licenses could be issued on the 1st of January following, and as the licenses already issued would expire on the 31st of December the saloon men would have only two days in which to dispose of stock on hand and close their business. This would be practically putting them out of business at once.

The board of aldermen being in session Governor Jarvis was deputed to go before them and make known to them that the petition would not be presented at this meeting but that it would be at the first meeting in January, 1904. Governor Jarvis went immediately before the board and made known to them that the petition would be presented at their January meeting and that they would be requested to order the election to take place sometime in February. He stated that those for whom he spoke confidently believed the result of the election will be in favor of dispensary, but they thought it was nothing but fair that those engaged in the liquor business should have reasonable time to close up their business and seek other employment. That if the petition is presented in January and the election is held in February that the saloon keepers will have until July 1st to close up and go into other business. The spirit of the law seems to favor allowing six months for that purpose and this arrangement will allow that time. No reasonable man can complain that this is not ample notice. In the meantime the campaign against saloons and against distillery will go right on. Committees have been appointed to conduct it. Those men engaged in the liquor business in Greenville had just as well make up their minds now that they cannot continue in it after the 30th of next June. The election is going to be carried against them.

The Sun's Rule.

The Baltimore Sun is one of the best paying papers in America, and if it could have a political campaign going all the time it would have money to burn. Yesterday it had over two pages of political matter which was paid for at transient advertising rates. In Maryland the newspapers print no political announcements, no "appeals to voters," no praise of candidates, no criticism of policies or tickets except as regular advertisements at high prices. During the past month the Sun has put thousands of dollars to the good by charging for publishing matter that papers in other cities print without charge. It charges both parties alike and will permit the man who foot the bill to say what he pleases, even to attacking the position of the Sun if he desires to do so.

The Sun is right. Why should a newspaper foot the bill for political campaign literature? Why shouldn't the campaign managers include in the expenses enough money to print all announcements, appeals, appointments, and everything else the party managers wish to give to the public? They pay for posters, circulars, traveling expenses, tons of pamphlets and other literature. Why shouldn't they pay newspapers for the use of their columns?—Raleigh News and Observer.

End of Century Book Club.

Reported for Reflector. A most delightful meeting of the club was held on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Allen at her home on corner of Washington and Third streets. The house was artistically decorated with chrysanthemums and roses, "American Beauties" being given as souvenirs.

The literary features were greatly enjoyed. Mrs. Arthur read a paper on "King John" and the play was generally discussed, contrasting the two characters, King John and King Richard II.

Those present were: Mrs. Arthur, Mrs. Bowen, Mrs. Cotten, Mrs. Bert Moye, Mrs. Joe Moye, Mrs. Laughinghouse, Mrs. Ficklen, Mrs. Harry Skinner, Mrs. Wooten, Mrs. Little, Mrs. James, Mrs. Fleming, Mrs. Hartman and Mrs. Quinerly.

Dainty refreshments were served and Mrs. Allen declared to be a charming hostess.

The club will meet with Mrs. Bowen on Fifth street, November the seventeenth.

Late Trains.

The afternoon freight trains are making late schedule now and do not get in much ahead of the mail train. Two trains a day are the great need on this road.

It is easier to keep out of the matrimonial harness than it is to get out.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, NOVEMBER 6, 1903.

THE PICTURESQUE PEANUT POLITICIAN OF THE WEST.

Whatever there is against Roosevelt, and the Lord knows there is enough, it is no disgrace to have incurred the ill-will of such blatant cattle as J. Wiley Shook. The picturesque peanut politician of the west is a standing joke in North Carolina. Since he ceased to be a revenue doodler and was pried off the federal teat, he has assumed a more or less threatening but not at all dangerous attitude toward Roosevelt and his administration. As long as J. Wiley was fed and clothed at the expense of the government, through the favor of the republican administration, he licked the hand that fed him morning, noon and night. Then the G. O. P. and especially the Rooseveltian appendage thereto, was good enough for him. But the moment he was choked off the revenue teat he became the especial prophet of the Lord whose mission it was to give the president advice and the rest of the country hot air. In fact, J. Wiley isn't a bump on a log in his own state or in any other, and never will be. He is a crank to the limit, and any party does good business when it gets rid of him.

We used to think that Col. Cunningham was not much of a politician but a very good farmer. We were mistaken in the first premise. What the colonel does not know about the game could be stuffed into the hollow tooth of a gnat—leastwise that is the impression he is making at present.

We are bound to admire the spirit of Asheville in going to work at once to rebuild the burned auditorium. Asheville must be one of the most public-spirited cities in the state, judging by the loyalty and enthusiasm put into the work of repairing the ravages of the flames.

Raleigh is now denying that 500 people walked her streets at night during the fair, on account of being unable to secure accommodations. Raleigh ought not to mind a little thing like that. If the yaps didn't want to walk, why didn't they sit down?

For the first time since 1897, except in the month of July, there was a deficit for the fiscal year in the United States treasury yesterday. Why not appeal to Machen et al to tide the government over its embarrassment?

We thought we had put a few kinks into Seth Low, but that picture of him in the Winston-Salem Journal makes our effort look like 29 cents.

One paper says Prof. Bassett should explain. Not so. He should never open his trap upon the subject, nor dip his pen in ink to write upon it again.

The prize liar of the universe now has an opportunity to tell you how many birds he would have killed had not the wind blown the wrong way.

The democratic gains are encouraging, but one foolish yawp can spoil it all before next November.

No doubt Senator Hanna is highly gratified to receive the Lord's endorsement via J. Wiley Shook.

Well, we would have been suspicious of a democratic victory in Ohio, anyway.

The election put the governorship in the shade a trifle, but it will soon sprout again.

The smile on Senator Gorman's face is of the genuine Sunny Jim variety.

If publicity and notoriety were Professor Bassett's objects, he has no kick coming.

Only great countries can afford to be robbed as this country has been.

No doubt J. Wiley is now asking: "Are my wings on straight?"

The crop of cranks doth multiply exceeding fast.

Editor Poe's Apology.

We make mistakes, as some other people do, but we hope we shall ever have the manliness to acknowledge our mistakes when we see them. Re-reading our rather hastily prepared account of the Greensboro reunion, we are convinced that one reference to an aged and distinguished North Carolinian should not have been made—because it was unnecessary and because it so was unfortunately worded as to suggest lack of respect for a man full of years and of honors. No one, we are sure, is further from such a feeling than we are; and our only object was to question the wisdom of trading on the reputations of aged veterans when the effect of bringing them forward is merely to give a pitiful contrast to their old-time strength and eloquence.—Progressive Farmer.

The Southern Railway, we are told by the Charlotte Chronicle, has begun to furnish the news of accidents on its lines, "giving as nearly as possible a list of the dead and injured, the cause of the wreck and any other notes of interest connected therewith." This has been the policy of Western and Northern roads for some time. It is better than to attempt to keep the news from the public and prevent the circulation, in instances, of grossly exaggerated stories.—Winston-Salem Sentinel.

It's the man who makes mistakes that does something; the man that makes none does nothing. The squirrel that lives in the trees which surround the capitol and the birds which sing in their branches make no mistake, but fulfill their narrow mission with unerring certainty, but the men who guide the affairs of state are often perplexed, and often make grievous blunders, which may demonstrate their powers to do things right.—Raleigh Times.

If North Carolina furnished the Confederacy more men than any other state did, it should have the credit of the achievement; if it didn't, it is high time the straight of the matter were arrived. But it did. The claim wouldn't otherwise have gone unchallenged so long.—Greensboro Telegram.

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy,

Mr. Arthur Chapman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy teat the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville and R. J. Davis Farmville.

The Best Liniment.

"Chamberlain's Pain Balm is considered the best liniment on the market," write Post & Bliss, of Georgia, Va. No other liniment

Give this liniment a trial and you will never wish to be without it. Sold by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, E. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

CURED OF PILES AFTER 40 YEARS.
Mr. C. Haney, of Geneva, O., had the piles for 40 years. Doctors and dollars could do him no lasting good. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured him permanently. A REMARKABLE CASE.
One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by John L. Wooten.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is Pleasant to Take.
The finest quality of granulated loaf sugar is used in the manufacture of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to maple syrup, making it quite pleasant to take. Mr. W. L. Roderick, of Poolesville, Md., in speaking of this remedy, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with my children for several years and can truthfully say it is the best preparation of the kind I know of. The children like to take it and it has no injurious after effect. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

A GOOD NAME.
From personal experience I testify that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are unequalled as a liver pill. They are rightly named because they give strength and energy and do their work with ease.—W. T. Easton, Boerne, Tex. Thousands of people are using these tiny little pills in preference to all others, because they are so pleasant and effectual. They cure biliousness, torpid liver jaundice, sick headache, constipation, etc. They do not purge and weaken, but cleanse and strengthen. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

Consider the ways of the humble dray; it has a tongue, but it never gossips.

Knocking a man down for calling you a liar doesn't improve the allegation.

It's easier for the average woman to land a husband than it is to keep him landed.

Jealousy makes a woman think she can secure a monopoly on a man's love by acting up.

Beware of the man who never did anything wrong. There's a first time for everything.

It may be that matches are made only in heaven, because the fire never goes out in the other place.

Never kick a man for calling you a donkey unless you are anxious to prove the truth of his assertions.

The woman has yet to be born who would mistake a plush sack for a sealskin on the back of a neighbor.

Wilmington, N. C., Nov. 5.—A middle aged white woman was mortally wounded here last night by the accidental discharge of a revolver which fell from the pocket of a man who was in her room. The ball struck her in the forehead and passed to the center of the head. The woman lingers at the hospital but there is no chance of her recovery.

Princeton, N. J. Nov. 5.—The race trouble has reached Princeton. Today A. B. Davis, colored, started in to deliver the mail on one of the rural free delivery routes outside of Princeton, but the owners of boxes along the route are objecting to their new postmaster on account of his color. That Davis should get the appointment instead of one of the white applicants has enraged the box owners and about twenty of them threatened to withdraw from the route if Davis is retained.

A SCIENTIFIC DISCOVERY.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does for the stomach that which it is unable to do for itself, even when but slightly disordered or over-loaded. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure supplies the natural juices of digestion and does the work of the stomach, relaxing the nervous tension, while the inflamed muscles of that organ are allowed to rest and heal. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and enables the stomach and digestive organs to transform all food into rich, red blood. Sold by John L. Wooten.

It was ordered that the fireman of the steam engine be paid $2 for each fire alarm at which the engine is fired up.

It was decided at a previous meeting of the board that the ordinance prohibiting the use of fireworks will be suspended the usual hours at Christmas, provided the dealers in fireworks agree not to offer for sale any pop crackers above a specified size. Washington, D. C. Nov. 5.—The navy department received three dispatches today from Commander John D. Hubbard, of the gunboat Nashville at Colon. In the first he told that he had landed a force of blue jackets and marines to preserve order at that place. In the second telegram he said; there had been no blood shed at Colon and that he had withdrawn his men yesterday. The third dispatch evidently sent today came late this afternoon. In it Commander Hubbard said he had again landed an armed force to protect American citizens.

Only Makes a Bad Matter Worse.

Perhaps you have never thought of it but the fact must be apparent to every one that constipation caused by a lack of water in the system, and the use of drastic cathartics like the old fashioned pills only makes a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are much more mild and gentle in their effect, and when the proper dose is taken their action is so natural that one can hardly realize it is the effect of a medicine. Try a 25 cent bottle of them. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bro., Farmville.

Letters from W. J. TURNAGE

Passenger, Baggage and Freight Transfer

Cured by the use of Kodol are received daily. Their troubles nearly all begin with indigestion or other stomach disorder.

If the food you eat fails to give strength to your body, it is because the juices secreted by the stomach and digestive organs are inadequate to transform the nutrient properties of the food into blood. That is indigestion. The system is deprived of the amount of nourishment required to keep up the strength, and the result is that one or more of the delicate organs gradually grows weak, and then weaker, until finally it is diseased. Here a great mistake is made. That of treating the diseased organ. The best doctors in the land make this very mistake. Why should they? It is so easy to see that the trouble is not there.

Kodol Cures

This famous remedy puts the stomach and digestive organs in a healthy condition so that rich, red blood is sent coursing through the veins and arteries of every muscle, tissue and fiber throughout every organ of the entire body, and by Nature's law of health, full strength and vigor is soon restored to each.

Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders. I have taken Kodol for nearly two months after each meal and it is the only remedy that gave relief from the terrible pains I endured. After a time I would take it but once a day, and now, while I keep a bottle handy, I seldom need it, as it has cured me. Mrs. J. W. COOLBAUGH, Milo Center, N. Y.
