THE FARMERS' CONSOLIDATED TOBACCO COMPANY.

Organized Under the Laws of North Carolina.

So quietly and methodically was the Farmers' Consolidated Tobacco Company organized, that for once, at least, to the credit and business judgment of the promoters, the public was not consulted, and to this day not much is known of the plan of organization except by those who have done the work and those who are interested as stock holders. True there are some on the outside who seem to know a great deal about the company, but the fact that when asked for information the only reply received is "well, they say so and so," is evidence that such persons know nothing more about the company than any one else on the outside.

That the company is actively engaged in business is generally known, but that is about as much as the public does know, hence anything in the way of information gained on the outside is not reliable. THE REFLECTOR, preferring to always be correct in what it says, for the second time called on Mr. O. L. Joyner, who is said to be the active head manager of the company's affairs. Having known Mr. Joyner intimately for years, and knowing he was a man whose utterance could be relied upon, we asked him to give us a more comprehensive outline of his company, assuring him that a large majority of the people felt interested in such an organization in our midst and that it would be to the interest of the company to let those things be known, rather than leave the public to get its information from mere outside rumors.

After reflecting a moment Mr. Joyner, with his usual earnestness and emphasis, said "Mr. Whichard, several years ago when I, an inexperienced boy, came from the farm to Greenville, to engage in the tobacco warehouse business on capital borrowed through Gov. Jarvis and on the strength of my father's help, (every dollar of which, I want to say, was repaid years ago by my own efforts and with my own earnings) everything at that time looked bright. I had implicit confidence in myself and in the balance of mankind. But since that time experience, the school in which it is said fools only will learn, has taught me many good lessons, a very important one being that, generally speaking, he who writes or talks for the public benefits only the public, while what he says is seized upon by those who have neither the sense nor inclination to write or talk themselves, as an opportunity to do him injury. Therefore having no desire to damage the Farmers' Consolidated Tobacco Co., which it has been my great pleasure and privilege to assist in organizing, I prefer saying nothing except that in which the public may have a direct interest.

"However, I will say this: The charter of this corporation gives us the power to do anything not prohibited by the laws of North Carolina. Under this charter no stockholder is liable, except to the amount of his stock. The largest stockholder has no more voice in its management than the smallest or poorest man in it. The object of co-operation is to serve the interest of the masses of the tobacco farmers and not a favored few. If the tobacco farmers will join us and give us their help and patronage then argument, explanation and persuasion will not be necessary to convince them where their interests and real friends are."

Is there anything you will say about your plans and operations? "No, sir. When I look back over the past twelve years and see the things that I have said for the public, recall the nights that I sat at my desk in the lonely hours trying to think and write, God knows, in the interest of the tobacco farmers of Eastern North Carolina and the Greenville market, and then realize how much my motives were misunderstood by some and willfully misrepresented by others, I have a disposition which came by nature to say a good deal. But in these twelve years I have learned much of the lesson of patience, and if my friends will in charity overlook what I have said out of the fullness of my heart, I will not again refer to it.

"If there is a tobacco farmer interested in this company and he will come to see me, I will patiently explain and convince him what he can gain by co-operating with us."

From the foregoing it seems that this is a corporation of farmers, organized for the purpose of selling their own tobacco and doing such other things as they see proper.

The people of the county know Mr. Joyner and his early connection with the tobacco market. He is the only warehouseman who has been continually in the business since the beginning of the market. For a long time he wrote a tobacco department for THE REFLECTOR and contributed to the tobacco journals of the country. Thus he was helping as no other man did to advertise and build up his town and community.

At the same time THE REFLECTOR, too, was doing a great deal of pulling for the tobacco interests, and while the paper has not been given the support it should have had from the market, its columns have always been open to the advancement of public interests, and especially the tobacco industry and market. Several times in recent years we have suggested to Mr. Joyner that he again write the tobacco news, but for some reason he has not done so. However, he has always shown his appreciation of the efforts of THE REFLECTOR by liberally patronizing its advertising columns and its job printing department.

AYDEN ITEMS

AYDEN, N. C. Nov. 11, 1903.

D. E. McGlohon spent Sunday in LaGrange.

Dr. Laughinghouse, of Greenville, spent Sunday night with Dr. Jos. Dixon.

Yesterday evening between Winterville and Ayden and unknown party threw an iron bolt at the passenger train. The bolt burst through the window of a car and hit Wm. Richardson, of Selma, on the head making a very ugly wound. Mr. Richardson stopped here and was taken to the doctor's office. He is able to be up this morning and took the train for his home.

The manager of this department, having been ill for the last three days, has been unable to keep up with the latest for this issue.

L. H. Witherington and family, who have been spending several days in the country, returned home Monday.

Opening of Congress.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 9.—The Fifty-eighth congress convened in extraordinary session at noon today in accordance with the proclamation of President Roosevelt for the purpose of enacting legislation necessary to make effective the Cuban reciprocity treaty. The day was devoted simply to personal greetings and organization. The House elected Joseph G. Cannon, of Illinois, speaker.

The house assembled the largest membership in its history and the scene before the gavel fell in that body was one of animation, both on the floor and in the lobbies and corridors. The day was crisp and bright, and the Capitol building presented the appearance of a new structure with its coat of white paint and complete renovation within.

Crowds of eager spectators, both men and women, thronged the corridors and rotunda of the capitol early in the day and the galleries to which admission was had by card only, were taxed to their capacity long before the hour for assembling arrived.

Committee rooms, which had been in the hands of the renovator during the recess, were thrown open, and many informal receptions were held by popular chairmen. With the speakership question out of the way in the universal endorsement of Mr. Cannon, there was nothing to worry the legislative mind, and the day was given up to the settlement of the occasion.

Tickled Their Chins.

Marion, N. C. Nov. 9.—Governor Pennypacker and staff passed through here today on a special going West. The train stopped a few minutes at our station, and as usual on Sunday, a great many negroes collected at the depot to see the train pass, and as soon as the train halted the party got off and made themselves very familiar with the negroes, arming them around the shoulders and tickling them under the chin and slapping them on the back as familiarly as if they had met old acquaintances. We did not know the governor, as we had no one to point him out to us. There were some ladies in the crowd who seem to enjoy the scene.

Colored Church Improvement.

The colored Methodist church, under the leadership of Rev. F. B. Hunter, is making extensive improvements to the house of worship, York's Temple, in readiness for the annual conference which meets here on the 25th inst. The building is being considerably enlarged and remodelled, new pews and stained windows put in, and the entire appearance of the house changed and improved. The single spire in front has been torn down and two new ones will go up at the corners, over double entrances into the building.

WINTERVILLE ITEMS.

WINTERVILLE, N. C. Nov. 11, 1903.—Miss Ella Meeks was visiting Miss Debbie Manning last week.

Misses Lida Roberson, Hattie Kittrell, Profs. Lineberry and Nye attended the county teachers' institute Saturday.

Rev. Mr. Fuquay, of Fuquay Springs, preached in the Missionary Baptist church here Friday night.

Mr. Garriss, of Falkland, has taken a position with the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

If you want your horse shod, if your harness or your own shoes need repairing, and for general blacksmith work call and see W. L. House on Main street.

Washington Smith, wife and little girl were visiting Mrs. Evelyn Cox a few days the past week.

W. L. Hurst went to Greenville Monday.

Rev. W. E. Cox, of Greenville, conducted services in the Episcopal church here Monday evening.

Dr. James M. Parrott, a member of the state board of medical examination, will speak in the school chapel Friday, Nov. 13th, at 11 a. m. Subject: "Perils to Health." All are invited.

Since writing concerning the scoundrel who so shamelessly deserted his young bride in our midst we learn he is in the clutches of the law on a charge of forgery. The gallows would be too merciful an ending for such a life as his.

C. A. Fair and his friends from Atlantic City are down in Craven county hunting bear, alligator, etc. They carried a two-horse turnout to bring their game home.

W. C. Hardee and Isaac Hart, of Greene county, were here Sunday and Monday visiting their sisters, Mrs. Britt and Miss Esther Hart.

Elias Sutton, while working on the machinery at the steam mill of Parnell Tripp, Monday, had the forefinger of his right hand so badly crushed Dr. Laughinghouse had to amputate it at the first joint. With the exception of right much pain Mr. Sutton is getting along very well.

Miss Lila Harrington, an aunt of our townsman, J. F. Harrington, died at the home of her brother, Paul Harrington, last Sunday morning and was buried Monday afternoon.

Rev. W. E. Cox is having a nice residence built out on College street near the home of Dr. B. T. Cox.

Miss Dora Cox attended services at Ayden Sunday.

J. C. Galloway, of Grimesland, came here calling last Sabbath.

Mrs. J. D. Cox and Mrs. F. O. Cox spent the afternoon in the country Sunday.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, NOVEMBER 11, 1903.

A recent issue of The Mecca, a journal published both at New York and Washington City, is devoted largely to two prominent North Carolinians—Senator F. M. Simmons and Congressman John H. Small. The front page is adorned with a splendid picture of Senator Simmons, and besides giving a page of editorial comment on his speech on "The Race Problem in the South" before the North Carolina Society at its annual reunion in New York, May 20th, it publishes the entire text of his speech just as it was delivered. There is also in the paper a splendid likeness of Congressman Small with a two page article on the proposed "Inland Water Route" which he has introduced and is laboring so earnestly to get established by congress. The Mecca refers to Mr. Small as a congressman of broad and business like views, and a valuable member not only to his immediate constituents but to the South at large.

Better leave your diamonds at home when you go to New York. You remember that Mrs. Dowie lost a $1,500 diamond brooch there recently, and now Captain Richmond Pearson Hobson, the Merrimac-Santiago hero, has appeared before the New York police court to report that his sister had been relieved of a purse containing $68 and a gold medal, studded with 38 diamonds and worth $1,000. The slick fingered are not particular about whom they touch.

Mr. J. Y. Jordan, of Asheville, a former member of the state democratic executive committee, sent to Tammany Hall leader Chas. F. Murphy a telegram reading as follows:

"Congratulations on the success of Tammany Hall, and I especially congratulate you on declaring for Grover Cleveland for president in 1904, assuring you that Mr. Cleveland will receive the solid vote of the South."

Surely it is beginning to look like Mr. Jordan's assurance is no idle dream.

Another bishop has lifted up his voice and thanked God that we have a president who is not afraid to sit down with a negro. And a brother bishop in the same meeting said he was glad they had a Senator Fillman in the South. Fine themes they are for a big religious gathering.

Raleigh seems covered in shame at the action of her board of aldermen and wants to hold an indignation meeting. The question is, why did she elect that kind of men?

The Rhamkatte Roaster, alias the News and Observer, prints his name Prof. Bassett.

Now we'll wait to see if there's anything doing in Teddy's extra session of congress.

North Carolina folks just will go to the head of the procession. Speaker Cannon was born in Guilford county, and John Sharpe Williams, the democratic leader, is of North Carolina stock. If Mr. Cannon is proud of it, he is careful not to say so. The Mississippi man is glad for everybody to know it.—News and Observer.

Where The Finger-Board Points

After having had six days in which to look over the situation and consider the election returns, we find little occasion to modify or enlarge upon the brief editorial review in last Wednesday's paper. The results in New York city and Maryland are highly gratifying. The democrats lost the state of New York last year by only 8,000. With a presidential candidate upon whom the party can unite with the average cohesiveness of the New York democracy, it can carry the state next year, and the influences which control New York almost invariably carry New Jersey and Connecticut. The re-election of a democratic governor in Rhode Island was a fortuitous circumstance and democratic success in that state in a presidential year is not to be expected. The outcome in Kentucky and Mississippi was looked for; the democratic victory claimed in Massachusetts was not realized; the democratic gain in Iowa is pleasing as a pointer, though Iowa is normally republican, and conditions out there are always normal in the years when presidents are elected. Fusion was mashed flat in Colorado and Nebraska, the republicans carrying both by substantial majorities, offering occasion for unqualified joy to democrats as to the latter; but a pleasure, as to the former, which is modified by regret since the result points to the defeat of Senator Teller, an honest, able and useful man, when he comes up for re-election. But the greatest democratic victory of the day was in the size of the republican majority in Ohio, which was an instruction to democrats everywhere to unload their faddists and quit their foolishness.

The elections in the aggregate, while not especially important per se, are a demonstration that the remarkable and proverbial vitality of the Democratic party is not exhausted, and are a finger-board pointing the party to the old combination—the South, New York, New Jersey, Connecticut and Indiana. Surely it has graduated in sage brush and mining-camp statesmanship and is ready to return to the old school of politics, to instruction which instructs and to leaders who lead somewhere.—Charlotte Observer.

In Chicago posters were recently stuck up all over Morgan Park: "To the colored population of Morgan Park: 'Forty-eight hours to get out!' This followed the murder of the chief of police by a negro. The negroes fled from their homes, abandoning possessions.

If this had happened in the South, it would have called forth another bloody shirt waving. But as it happened in the state of Abe Lincoln and Joe Cannon, little or nothing has been said about it. Much depends upon whose ox is gored.—News and Observer.

Professor Bassett will perhaps claim that he did not mean all that he said while some people will have it that he meant a good deal more.—Durham Herald.

This thing of telling a man who wants office to wait is poor comfort. In this case waiting does not always bring its reward.—Durham Herald.

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy,

Mr. Arthur Chipman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy teat the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville and R. L. Davis Farmville.

The Best Liniment.

EXHIBIT!

ALL THIS WEEK.

In order to prove to all our friends that the Majestic is the most perfect range on the market, we have arranged for a Cooking Exhibit lasting one week.

During this exhibit we will have a Majestic Range in operation and show our friends that it will bake better and quicker, heat more water and heat it quicker, with less fuel than any other range made.

We don't ask you to believe all our statements but do ask you to call at our store any time during the exhibit, and we will convince you that the Majestic is exactly as represented. Don't fail to give us a call—note the date.

Exhibit Now Going On

Free during week of Exhibit. We will give One Set of Majestic Ware Free to any one purchasing a Great Majestic Range during this exhibit. We make the broad statement that this set of ware is the finest ever offered for sale—not a piece of tin in the entire set. We have the ware at our store, if you will call and see the set you will agree with us that it can't be bought for less than $7.50. Biscuits baked in 3 minutes and served with delicious coffee to all who call. Be sure and come.

Exhibit Now Going On

Don't fail to call and get a GOOD CUP of COFFEE and HOT BISCUITS, and see the working of the Best Steel and Malleable Iron Range on Earth. A range that will cook with half the fuel you are now using and will last a lifetime.

A REMARKABLE CASE.
One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by John L. Wooten.
Kindness is the master key to all hearts.
Those things are not worth seeking that are not worth keeping.

A GOOD NAME.
From personal experience I testify that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are unequalled as a liver pill. They are rightly named because they give strength and energy and do their work with ease.—W. T. ### BEARING DOWN PAINS

3647 Indiana Avenue, CHICAGO, ILL., Sept. 27, 1902.

I have been a sufferer with almost every kind of female trouble for years, but as long as I could get around and do my work I would not try patent medicines as I had no faith in them.

About eight months ago I had to take to my bed, suffering with prolapsus of the uterus, with bearing down pains and intense pains in the back. My aunt, who came to nurse me told me of Wine of Cardui and sent for a bottle. I am indeed glad that she did, for that first bottle started me on the road to recovery. In a few weeks I was out of bed and in three months I was in better health and stronger than I had been in years. I take a dose now, occasionally, of Wine of Cardui and am kept in perfect health.

Mabel Cook

Sec'y. Woodman's Circle No. 70.

Wine of Cardui brings certain relief to women suffering any symptom of female weakness and perfectly regulates the menstrual flow. Wine of Cardui stops bearing down pains by permanently relieving the irritation which weakens the ligaments holding the womb in place. You need not suffer every month if you take this medicine. The periodical discharge will be painless and healthy without continual weakening drains. Wine of Cardui will make your health right and you may treat yourself privately in your own home. Secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist today.

TAP THROUGH CAR WINDOW.

Mr. Wm. Richardson Painfully Hurt.

Information came by telephone, Tuesday night, that when the south bound passenger train on this branch of the Atlantic Coast Line was about a mile below Winterville, some one threw a 2 inch iron tap through one of the car windows. The tap struck Mr. William Richardson, of Selma, who was a passenger on the train, with heavy force on the head, cutting him quite severely. His hand saved him from being hurt more seriously. Mr. Richardson stopped at Ayden, where his wound was dressed and passed through here this morning on his way home.

An effort was made at once to get blood hounds to the scene to hunt for the miscreant who threw the tap but the dogs could not be secured. Every effort should be made to find and severely punish the guilty party. This is the second time a missile has been thrown at the passenger train in the same vicinity.

A SCIENTIFIC DISCOVERY.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does for the stomach that which it is unable to do for itself, even when but slightly disordered or over-loaded. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure supplies the natural juices of digestion and does the work of the stomach, relaxing the nervous tension, while the inflamed muscles of that organ are allowed to rest and heal. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digest what you eat and enables the stomach and digestive organs to transform all food into rich, red blood. Sold by John L. Wooten.

Lost—Two checks, one for $130.82, the other for $12.69, former signed by R. L. Davis & Bros. of Farmville, latter signed by Street & Conkran, Baltimore, Md. The public is warned not to pay these checks. J. S. TUNSTALL.

Residence Badly Damaged.

Williamston, N. C. Nov. 10.—At three o'clock this morning the residence of Mr. W. G. Lamb was discovered on fire and was badly damaged before the fire could be extinguished. The family were sleeping on the second floor and were aroused by the smell of smoke, which was so dense the stairway was found with difficulty. Miss Mayo Lamb, with rare presence of mind, groped her way through smoke and heat down the stairs to carry her little niece to a place of safety, then returned to show the other inmates of the house the way to get out.

The damage to building and furniture is estimated at $1,500 covered by insurance.

Fire Bug Caught.

Rockingham, N. C. Nov. 10.—Henry M. Smith has been arrested on the charge of being the cause of the recent incendiary fires here. Suspicion rested upon him and for some days his movements have been shadowed by a detective. Smith was seen by the detective in the act of setting fire to another building. He is a man of bad character, and was only a few months ago, while serving a term in the penitentiary for larceny, pardoned by Governor Aycock.

Only Makes a Bad Matter Worse.

Perhaps you have never thought of it but the fact must be apparent to every one that constipation caused by a lack of water in the system, and the use of drastic cathartics like the old fashioned pills only makes a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are much more mild and gentle in their effect, and when the proper dose is taken their action is so natural that one can hardly realize it is the effect of a medicine. Try a 25 cent bottle of them. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

A GOOD NAME.

From personal experience I testify that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are unequalled as a liver pill. They are rightly named because they give strength and energy and do their work with ease.—W. T. Easton, Boerne, Tex. Thousands of people are using these tiny little pills in preference to all others, because they are so pleasant and effectual. They cure biliousness, torpid liver jaundice, sick headache, constipation, etc. They do not purge and weaken, but cleanse and strengthen. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.
