Hill Too Slow.

Murphy of Tammany invited David B. Hill of Albany—so the "Herald" hears—to make the principal speech at a McClellan meeting in Durland's Riding Academy on a Saturday night. Hill hesitated until Saturday morning, then he went to Murphy and reported for duty. "I am sorry, but it is too late," said the Tammany chief urbane. "I have asked Mr. Cockran to make the speech." Now—the "Herald" hears—it is the Murphy program to oust Hill definitely from the state leadership, to make Judge D. Cady Herrick of Albany leader in his stead, and to send a solid Grover Cleveland delegation to next year's democratic national convention.—Harford Courant.

Hall of History.

Miss Margaret Devereux, of this city, has loaned to the Hall of History at the State Museum, some very valuable papers and documents. There is the Treaty of Peace between the Tuscarora Indians and the whites, made in 1712; the signatures of Governor Sir Richard Everard and Governor Eden, beneath land grants a deed by Lord Granville to ladies in Eastern North Carolina, dated in 1706, and other deeds, grants, maps and papers, contained in a show-case.—News & Observer.

Production of Corn in 1903.

Washington, Nov. 11.—Preliminary returns to the chief of the bureau of statistics of the department of agriculture on the production of corn in 1903 indicate a total of about 2,313,000 bushels, or an average of 25.8 bushels per acre, as compared with an average yield of 26.8 bushels one year ago.

School Officers Meet.

Raleigh, Nov. 11.—The state association of county superintendents of public instruction met today in the capitol at 11 o'clock. Eighty-five superintendents were present at the opening and more arrived later. J. Y. Joyner, state superintendent, was elected president; John S. Scarborough, of Chowan, vice president, and W. G. Gaither, of Perquimans, secretary. State Superintendent Joyner delivered an address. He said the decrease of school districts by consolidation during the year was 557 and 347 new school houses had been built. There is an increase of 10,100 white children in the average daily attendance on the rural schools; this being an increase of 6 per cent., during the year, the greatest ever known in the state. There are yet 161,797 white children not enrolled in the public schools.

"It must be awful," said the plain citizen, "to be compelled by the exigencies of your position to keep silent when you feel that you should denounce the wrongs of the political system." "Yes," replied the chronic office-holder, "but it isn't half so awful as being compelled to talk about the things one would rather not have mentioned."—Chicago Daily News.

Southern Depot Destroyed.

Hillsboro, N. C., Nov. 11, 1903.—The Southern railroad depot was destroyed by fire here last night. The depot was about one half a mile from the court house and before any one could reach it the fire was beyond control. Nothing was saved. The fire was first discovered about 12 o'clock. Nothing has been discovered as to the origin.

The humor of the average man is so dry that he has to pay for the drinks in order to get others to listen to it.—Chicago News.

Knew Him By Missing Toe.

Goldsboro, N. C., Nov. 11.—Recently in Mount Olive there occurred a meeting of two brothers who had not seen each other for thirty-four years. Very naturally they did not know each other at first sight. In 1869 they left the Mount Olive section of this county and journeyed together to the Lone Star State to seek their fortunes. In a short while one grew home sick and wandered back to the scenes of his childhood, where he has remained since and reared a large family. At regular intervals for a number of years correspondence was kept up between the two. After a long time letters failed to arrive from the far away brother and he was mourned as dead. One night recently a stranger appeared at the threshold of Chief of Police Royall's residence in Mount Olive and demanded a bed for the night. The chief of police had retired when the stranger made his appearance and abrupt request and was in no hurry to comply. After some little parleying about the entertainment for the night the stranger said with some emotion:

"Why, brother, don't you know me?"
"No," said the chief.
The stranger then said:
"I am the brother you left in Texas thirty-four years ago and have come home to see you."

This did not satisfy the chief, and he said:

"The brother I left in Texas had his left big toe cut off. Shuck off your shoe and identify yourself."

Off came the shoe and then the sock. The big toe was gone. The two brothers stared at each other for an instant and then embraced. There was very little sleeping done in that household the balance of the night. The family was awakened to welcome the brother who had been mourned for as dead.

Fire in Kinston.

The Free Press reports the destruction by fire of the plant of the Kinston Mantel Company, Wednesday night. The loss was $25,000 with only $4,000 insurance. The fire threw a large number of skilled laborers out of employment.

Our courts cannot hope to wipe out the stain by hanging a few niggers.—Durham Herald.

BETHEL ITEMS.

Wins The Reflector Sewing Machine.

Mr. Woody McLawhorn, a subscriber to THE REFLECTOR at Winterville, was in to see us today to give instructions about shipping our sewing machine prize. Mr. McLawhorn drew ticket No. 0033 that corresponds with the one held by Mr. J. L. Little, cashier of the Bank of Greenville. This also tallies with records kept in THE REFLECTOR office, as each time a ticket was given out the name of the subscriber was recorded and the number put opposite the name, and our books show that he drew this number.

Mr. McLawhorn is a very happy man over his good fortune, for he will get a handsome Wheeler & Wilson sewing machine, one of the very best made. Of course he is going to present the machine to his good wife, and she may well feel proud of possessing one of such high grade.

Big Sale.

Today Foxhall & McDowell at Jeffress warehouse sold 990 pounds of tobacco for John H. Boyle at an average of 42 cents. That kind of sale counts.

Salisbury Saloons Wins.

Salisbury, N. C., Nov. 12.—The local option election here today resulted in a vote for saloons of 151, and for distilleries 122. A band of ladies worked at each precinct all day, and a continuous prayer service was held in one of the churches. It is stated that legal action will be brought to nullify the election on the ground that it was not legally called and conducted.

Col. Blackwell Dead.

Durham, N. C., Nov. 12.—At 11:15 tonight Colonel William T. Blackwell, known far and wide as the "father of Durham," breathed his last.

The shell game's low, you will agree,

The finer sense it shocks.

If you the real thing would be,
You want to water stocks.

Judge Peebles and the People.

The Greenville REFLECTOR said recently that "Judge Peebles is probably figuring on getting into some other kind of business when his present term expires." Upon that The Observer ventured the prophecy that if Judge Peebles is alive at the expiration of his term of office and desires re-nomination he will get it and will not run fifty votes behind the ticket. This prediction shocked THE REFLECTOR. It says: "There are considerably more than fifty democrats of unquestioned loyalty in this county, who have said that they would not vote to return Judge Peebles to the bench under any circumstances. These men are not liars or weaklings. They meant what they said. They mean it now." Doubtless; but it is a long time until the election. We quote again:

"The Observer is in a position to know that Judge Peebles has been denounced and flayed to a frazzle by nearly every decent paper in the state. For all our contemporary's observations of the figures and characters that cross the stage of life, will it say that all this spirit of the press amounts to nothing? Will it say that the whole thing will be forgotten ere next election day?"

No. It may not be forgotten, but it will not be remembered to Judge Peebles' injury. Our contemporary must pardon The Observer's scepticism, but it has been here a long time; it might be said to be an old offender; it has heard people talk in off years and seen the same people vote on election day, and the votes didn't square with the talk. Folks form brave resolutions when the time to put them to the test is afar off and reverse them amidst "the thunder of the captains and the shouting." They are not liars, but they change their minds.

Yet again:
"If Judge Peebles can be nominated and elected again on the democratic ticket, then the power of the press of North Carolina is a delusion and a snare, and principles and convictions are no more. Will The Observer support Judge Peebles for re-election? Will our contemporary consent to smooth over the greatest outrage perpetrated upon justice in this state since the day of the Yankee carpet-bagger? Will it help to palliate a fault so grievous it brings the blush of shame to the cheek of a North Carolinian who loves justice and his country? Surely The Observer will do no such thing."

Of course it won't. But what of that? As somebody said, some time ago, when its attitude upon some question was referred to in the conversation, "The Observer's no criterion." To be sure it will not support Judge Peebles for re-election. But that doesn't signify. It doesn't support by its voice or vote, either, anybody it doesn't want to.—Charlotte Observer.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, NOVEMBER 13, 1903.

Congressman W. W. Kitchen, of the fifth district, has introduced in congress a resolution providing a new article to the constitution prohibiting national or state legislation establishing or supporting any religion or prohibiting the free exercise of religion; also a resolution repealing the fifteenth amendment to the constitution.

Columbia is now grieving over not trading with Uncle Sam on the Panama canal. Too late to grieve over spilled milk.

Panama Rebellion.

There can be no doubt that the Panama insurrection was encouraged by outside influence which are interested in the construction of the isthmian canal, and it is safe to predict that within a very short time the independence of Panama will be recognized by the United States, and this, of course, will mean the consummation of the canal job which was put through congress at the last session. There is a great deal of grafting. The $40,000,000 which this government is to pay the French canal company for its concessions and property in Panama, and as the rejection of the Hay-Herran treaty threatened to prevent the grafters in and out of congress getting their share of the swag it was necessary to stir up a revolution on the isthmus in order to give the United States an opportunity to recognize Panama as an independent state and enter into negotiations with it for the construction of the waterway.—New Orleans States.

His Friends in this City, Also.

Col. Fred Olds, writing from Raleigh to the several papers of which he is correspondent, makes the assertion that in the gubernatorial race Major Steadman leads with Capt. Glenn in second place. That is merely Colonel Old's opinion of the situation. His friends in the city regard Captain Glenn's chances fully as bright as those of the next man—and perhaps a little brighter.—Winston-Salem Sentinel.

There may be a few statesmen these days but they do not get mixed up in politics.—Durham Herald.

Euthanasia.

An article by a Unitarian clergyman warmly endorsing the idea of euthanasia, following a discussion by a widely-known state medical society on the same subject, is causing comment in the newspapers. Some people know and some people do not know that euthanasia, as the word is generally used, means the killing of human beings hopelessly ill and obviously destined to speedy death accompanied by suffering. It is an old and fascinating subject for discussion among doctors. The writer remembers an occasion at a meeting of a state medical society when an old physician who had a state reputation rose and announced that he not only believed in euthanasia but had practiced it. A kind of fearful, breathless silence fell over the gathering as the old gentleman solemnly told of three cases in which he had put patients to death. One of these evidently was his near relative or close friend because the tears trickled down his face as he went over the details and narrated how he had consulted her on the subject and administered the fatal potion with her full consent, after a tender leavetaking. He told his story with unconscious dramatic force and it was evident that he was morbid on the subject to a degree which did not fall far short of insanity. No other doctor in the gathering acknowledged that he had purposely hastened death in his own practice, but several of them cautiously indicated circumstances in which they might do it. Possibly many have done it, but the case of the old doctor above alluded to illustrates one of the dangers. It was evident that he brooded over these deaths far more than was good for him and there was pitifully abundant indication that he was trying to have his medical brethren reassure him and tell him that he had done right. He described the symptoms in each of the cases with the most elaborate care and argued like a lawyer to show that early death was absolutely inevitable. Those who heard him judged that he had gone over the matter countless times in his own mind. Any conscientious doctor would be exposed to the same self-torture in like conditions. Always he would be likely to have some sudden doubt come to him in a time of depression whether the dead and gone patient really did not have some chance, whether something could not have been done at least to prolong life. One of the chief objections, we should judge to the practice would be the fearful responsibility it would throw on the doctor. The line between using narcotics to diminish the pain of the parting hours and using them to bring about the death stroke is a fine one, but probably the average physician does not care to overstep it.—Richmond News Leader.

FROM SOUTH AFRICA.

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. Arthur Chipman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy teat the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville and R. L. Davis Farmville.

The Best Liniment.

"Chamberlain's Pain Balm is considered the best liniment on the market," write Post & Bliss, of Georgia, Va. No other liniment will heal a cut or bruise so promptly. No other affords such quick relief from rheumatic pains. No other is so valuable for deep seated pains like lame back and pains in the chest. Give this liniment trial and you will never wish to be without it. Sold by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is Pleasant to Take.

The finest quality of granulated loaf sugar is used in the manufacture of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to maple syrup, making it quite pleasant to take. A REMARKABLE CASE.

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by John L. Wooten.

Only Makes a Bad Matter Worse.

Perhaps you have never thought of it but the fact must be apparent to every one that constipation caused by a lack of water in the system, and the use of drastic cathartics like the old fashioned pills only makes a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are much more mild and gentle in their effect, and when the proper dose is taken their action is so natural that one can hardly realize it is the effect of a medicine. Try a 25 cent bottle of them. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

SHOES

FOR PARTICULAR WOMEN

We are proud of our shoe stock this season. We are certain we have the finest line we have ever shown and we are certain that no other store gets even a little bit ahead of us.

ULTRA and BROCKPORT Shoes for Women are our strong cards, and we are able to meet the requirements of the most fastidious as well as the more conservative patrons, and we invite a thorough inspection of our line—ULTRA in name, ULTRA in character, ULTRA in every feature that contributes to fit, comfort and style. In finish, material and workmanship, we are proud to present to all lovers of good taste in footwear a shoe for which we have never yet had to make apology. The "Brockport" Shoe is constructed on common-sense principles without sacrifice of those attributes that appeal to a woman's taste, or her pride, in a well and stylishly dressed foot.

Our usually up-to-date line of children's and infant's shoes is even better than ever. We are positive we can insure you perfect satisfaction and save you money in your shoe needs.

A GOOD NAME.

From personal experience I testify that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are unequalled as a liver pill. They are rightly named because they give strength and energy and do their work with ease.—W. T. Easton, Berne, Tex. Thousands of people are using these tiny little pills in preference to all others, because they are so pleasant and effectual. They cure biliousness, torpid liver jaundice, sick headache, constipation, etc. They do not purge and weaken, but cleanse and strengthen. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

A woman is so naturally beautiful that she will conceal from herself the truth that her husband is not half good enough for her.

A SCIENTIFIC DISCOVERY.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does for the stomach that which it is unable to do for itself, even when but slightly disordered or over-loaded. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure supplies the natural juices of digestion and does the work of the stomach, relaxing the nervous tension, while the inflamed muscles of that organ are allowed to rest and heal. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digest what you eat and enables the stomach and digestive organs to transform all food into rich, red blood. Sold by John L. Wooten.

If a woman's stays were made of India rubber so she could always get in them you could never make her believe she was getting fatter.
