At the meeting in Raleigh of the state association of county superintendents of public schools, five district associations were organized as provided for in an act passed by the last legislature. Of the North-east district Prof. W. H. Ragsdale, superintendent of schools in Pitt county, was made president. This district embraces the counties of Currituck, Camden, Pasquotank, Gates, Hertford, Northampton, Halifax, Bertie, Chowan, Perquimans, Dare, Tyrrell, Washington, Martin, Edgecombe, Nash, Pitt, Beaufort, H. J. de and Pamlico.

AYDEN ITEMS

AYDEN, N. C. Nov. 14, 1903.
Dr. L. C. Skinner left Thursday to spend a short while in Tarboro. W. G. Smith and H. H. Bennett, of Washington, D. C., are here making a geological survey. Misses Kilpatrick and Lackey were here Thursday. Miss Lackey gave a very interesting lecture in the Free Will Baptist Theological Seminary, Thursday night, describing her visit in India as a missionary.

Misses Reba and Rosa Stokes, of Coxville, who are attending the Winterville High school, came last night to spend Saturday and Sunday with friends.

Leon Wooten, of Quinerly, spent Thursday night here.

Leshe Stroud and Ola Ross went to Farmville yesterday.

Mrs. Wm. Dunn, who has been spending some time at R. C. Cannon's, returned to her home in Kinston yesterday.

Edwin Tripp went to Farmville yesterday.

Mrs. M. M. Sauls and little daughter, Burruss, left Friday to spend a few days in Richmond.

W. L. Royster with the Cable Co., having closed his sale of pianos and organs, left Wednesday to look greener pastures.

J. E. Cannon, of Bountrees, was here yesterday.

Ayden has the reputation of being the cotton market. We have so much some days it has to be weighed on the ground. We have buyers in plenty, five in number.

R. F. Manning, of Winterville, was on our streets Wednesday.

To stand and hear our buyers bid on cotton you would almost think you were on a tobacco market. Don't forget this means something for the farmer.

New dwellings are going up here too numerous to mention. The graded school must mean something.

Rev. D. W. Davis, of Washington came yesterday.

W. B. Alexander went to Greenville yesterday.

Rev. S. B. Stevens is again in town. Always glad to see him.

Hen fruit gettin' awful scarce around these diggins, must be cause its high.

The expected has happened. Mr. Lindsay Sidbury, of Holly Ridge, near Wilmington, has written Dr. Kilgo that his boys shall not recite another lesson in Trinity by reason of the utterances of Dr. Bassett on the race question published in the Southern Quarterly Review. Should Mr. Sidbury's example be extensively followed it would play smash with Trinity.—Greensboro Record.

Tis called "Black Art" throughout land.

And yet to me it's funny To take a lot of water and Transform it into money.—Newark News.

It doesn't pay to cry over spilled milked, nor to crow over it, either.

Where to Find Her.

Durham, N. C., Nov. 13.—On account of the suit recently instituted by Mr. Brodie L. Duke against his wife, which will be docketed at the approaching term of court, the following telegram from Mrs. Duke, which was published in the afternoon Sun, will be of interest to the people of the state:

"Hotel Maryland, Pasadena, Cal., Nov. 11.—Publish in Durham and Raleigh that any person wishing to communicate with Mrs. Brodie L. Duke, of Durham, N. C., will find me at my home, 1045 South Orange Grove avenue, Pasadena, Cal., or by applying to my husband, Brodie L. Duke, now in Durham; only returned east in July; after several months' visit with us in our home here, and who has been in constant communication with me until he went to the Durham hospital a few weeks since. Mrs. Brodie L. Duke, of Durham, N. C."

This is a rather interesting sequel to the suit now pending. It shows that Mrs. Duke has her fighting blood up and that there is to be considerable litigation before the matter is settled. Recently Mr. Duke entered suit against his wife, and the notice of summons is now being published, in which it is said that he will ask the courts to declare that his wife has no interest in his real estate. This is done, so it is understood, because Mrs. Duke has refused to sign any deed for the conveyance of real property.

Shooting at Dunn.

Dunn, N. C., Nov. 12.—E. H. Tolar, an employee of the Erwin cotton mills, at Duke, was shot here today by W. M. Daniels, a clerk in Goldstein's store. It is stated that Tolar was in the act of drawing his own pistol when the shooting occurred.

Little is known of Tolar here. Mr. Daniels stands exceptionally high in the estimation of our people.

Tolar's wound is not considered fatal. He had a pistol in his pocket when the physicians began dressing the wound.

Not Houses Enough.

THE REFLECTOR believes a building and loan association would be a good thing for Greenville. The town is short on houses and if more people owned their homes they would make better citizens.

Take it Easy.

The Standard Oil Company has built a new tank here and put on a new delivery wagon. And the public is paying for both in the advanced price of oil.

Marriage and Reception.

The marriage of Mr. W. H. Dail, Jr. and Miss Mary Dorcas Blow will take place in the Episcopal church Wednesday afternoon, 15th, at 3:30 o'clock. A public reception will follow the marriage, from 4 to 5:30 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Blow, parents of the bride-elect.

The fellow who has an ax to grind should steer clear of sharpers.

The world suspects that a man is in love before he knows it himself.

There is a heap of difference between loving a girl before a nice open fire and then walking home late at night in the cold.

It is easier to be strenuous than it is to reach the presidential chair.

Train Rocker Caught.

This morning Constable Joe McLawhorn, of Ayden, brought a negro named Joe Worthington here to commit to jail. The negro had been arrested on the charge of rocking the passenger train, near Winterville, last Friday night when Mr. William Richardson, of Selma, a passenger on the train, was struck on the head by an iron tap thrown through the car window. A preliminary trial was held at Winterville and the evidence against the negro was so conclusive that he was sent to jail. A detective had been on the scene a few days and worked up the case.

Since arriving at the jail here the negro has made a statement that implicates two more parties, other arrests may follow. The negro admitted throwing the tap at the train.

Passengers Got Left.

The passenger train was reported 30 minutes late Friday evening and came in only about 15 minutes late. Consequently some intended passengers got left. Another result of incompetence somewhere.

WINTERVILLE ITEMS.

WINTERVILLE, N. C. Nov. 14, 1903.

There are unusually heavy shipments of turkeys from this point every day, so the agent informs us.

Frank Stevenson, of Newbern, spent several days here this week on business.

J. L. Hamilton left Thursday morning for Pipers Point where he has accepted a position as flagman with the A. C. L.

B. F. Manning went to Ayden Thursday.

Cotton yesterday 10¢.

W. B. Tucker sold Harrington, Barber & Co. one bale of cotton for $69.45 Friday. How does this strike you? Tenderly:

Owing to other arrangements Dr. J. M. Parrott did not deliver his lecture on "Perils to Health" here yesterday, but will do so Friday, the 20th at 11 a. m.

Mrs. Sarah Whitehurst and children, of Bethel, are visiting the family of M. G. Bryan.

Capt. George Hawks and Engineer Geo. Smith, of the passenger train, spent Wednesday night here.

There are but few attending court this week. Our people are a peaceful people and have no litigations.

W. B. Albritton, from near Greenville, was in town Friday.

B. T. Smith who has been visiting his daughter in Goldsboro, returned home on yesterday's freight.

Mrs. Mary Kittrell and her daughter, Miss Sallie, left yesterday to visit her married daughter in Robersonville who has several children sick with fever.

Sam Hudson and Roscoe Fields left yesterday for Farmville to remain until Sunday afternoon.

Ed Elks, of Grimesland, spent a hort while here yesterday.

Misses Vivian Roberson and Dora Cox will spend today and tomorrow with Miss Minnie McGowan.

A. M. Moseley, of Ayden, was here buying cotton Thursday.

Rev. W. E. Cox, of Greenville, spent yesterday here.

C. A. Fair and his friends returned from their hunting trip last Tuesday night. They brought a fine buck home with them and reported a grand time. The gentlemen visiting Mr. Fair were all high toned, courteous and polite, and our people were very much captivated with them. We all hope they will come again soon and remain longer. They left for Atlantic City Wednesday taking the deer with them.

A stranger of more than ordinary intelligent appearance has been loitering in our midst for the past few days. He interferes with no one, seemingly attends to his own affairs, leaves on one train, returns on another, takes a ramble in the country and again we see him among us. He turns out to be a detective, and last night caught a negro by the name of Joe Worthington, who threw the missile at the train Tuesday night and hurt Mr. William Richardson, of Selma.

Two kinds of sweet potato, one half white yam and the other half yellow yam, all under the same peeling and when cooked split just like an orange, was seen here this week.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON, NOVEMBER 14, 1903.

The big snow out in the Northwest may bring a snap down this way.

Grover is keeping very quiet, but he sees which way the wind is blowing:

Maybe Panama will send Uncle Sam a new hat for recognizing its secession.

We are beginning to see through the Panama canal, but like Durham's depot it is a thing of the future.

Prophet John Dowie has also asked for a passport to go abroad. With him and Bryan both out of the country there may come a rest from certain kinds of news in the papers.

Crumpacker has put up his scarecrow again by re-introducing his bill to reduce the congressional representation of those states which have discriminated politically against the negro. But nobody is frightened.

Some of our esteemed, contemporaries call them Panamians, others Panamats, again others, Panamatians, still others Panamans. Who or what in thunder can they be. Why not Panamatoes?—Raleigh Post.

Perhaps Pantomines would fit the case better.

That was a pretty good fake pulled off at New Bern, that the jail was about to be attacked by citizens of Jones county to liberate a prisoner confined under sentence for murder. And the state will have to pay the bill for calling out the Naval Reserves to guard the jail.

As the Greenville REFLECTOR would not support Judge Peebles if he should receive the nomination it must be about ready to join the ranks of the independents.—Durham Herald.

Did not know there were any independents to join, but we will be independent enough not to support the gentleman in question.

$30,000 was the large verdict given by a Wake county jury to the plaintiff in a suit against the Seaboard Air Line railroad for the loss of a leg. This is the largest damages ever given by a North Carolina jury. The verdict was set aside as being excessive. Remembering that another jury in the same county trying a man for murder let him go scott free, looks like a man's leg is regarded of more value than a man's life.

The recent meeting of county school superintendents in Raleigh both hit Prof. Bassett, and did not hit him. That is, a resolution was offered condemning the utterances of his recent article, which resolution was made public, but when it came up for discussion the resolution was tabled. This action was deemed proper from the fact that the body, being composed of men engaged in public school work, thought it without their province to adopt a resolution censuring a professor of a private school. All the same many of the superintendents were interviewed by the News and Observer, and their expressions were strong in disapproval of Prof. Bassett's article.

Our Newspapers.

The plain and strenuous way in which our North Carolina newspapers have rebuked the recent outrages against the law in this state and South Carolina by the courts of justice (?) gives good hope for the future. A few papers were either silent or attempted to straddle the fence, but the great majority of them we saw called things by their right names and entered their indignant protest against the burlesque. North Carolina journalists may not all be able, but the majority of them are brave and true. They love the good name of North Carolina, and they are set for the defense of the state against her foes without her borders. The people's liberties are not in danger so long as the press is alive and awake to its duty. It is very refreshing to see the papers shake the nonsense out of a fraud and probe hypocrisy to its depths. To be sure, now and then a toady or a coward may be found who waits to get orders, but where there is one like this there are ten who own their souls and who send their arrows to the mark. We have the highest respect for the newspaper men of North Carolina as a whole, and recent events have justified our good opinion.—Thomasville Charity and Children.

The New Graded Schools of Greenville

That was not only an interesting but an inspiring sketch of the inception, erection and occupation of the handsome graded school building just completed in Greenville, as given by the REFLECTOR.

Last February the legislature passed the act establishing graded schools in Greenville for both races, and authorized the town to issue $10,000 in bonds to erect the necessary buildings. Under that act the trustees were chosen, and in April the people voted for the issuing of the bonds. In July ground was broken for the new building, the trustees thinking a buyer had been found for the bonds. This proved a mistake, but a patriotic citizen, Mr. R. J. Cobb, seeing the intelligent energy as well as the high purpose of the trustees in so good a cause, promptly took them all. Work was prosecuted and in four months was completed, the buildings equipped and furnished and occupied on Monday. The cost of the two buildings and their equipment exceeded the proceeds of the bond issue. Ways and means were found, however, to secure this additional amount, hence the work stands forth an accomplished, a living and useful fact.

Splendid management, you say? Yes. Fine administrative capacity, as resourceful as determined? Yes. But when it is stated that Thomas J. Jarvis is chairman of the board of trustees that tells the whole story. He exemplified in this instance the same nerve, resourcefulness and fidelity to the public interest confided to his care that characterized his administration as governor of this great state and which distinguished that administration as few have been during the state's history. His confidence in the people is unflinching, his judgment unusually sound, his courage undaunted, and those occasions command for him success where failure marks the career and mars the usefulness of a large majority. He approached this school proposition with the same faith and courage and confidence and determination that characterized his conduct as legislator, governor, senator, and minister-representing this great government at a foreign court. Not the least of his achievements in his latest service is his ability to surround himself with able and loyal friends and co-laborers, and the occupation of the handsome new building at Greenville, under the happiest auspices is the gratifying result.—Raleigh Post.

FROM SOUTH AFRICA.

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy,

Mr. Arthur Chipman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy teat the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville and R. L. Davis Farmville.

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by John L. Wooten.

Only Makes a Bad Matter Worse.

Perhaps you have never thought of it but the fact must be apparent to every one that constipation caused by a lack of water in the system, and the use of drastic cathartics like the old fashioned pills only makes a bad matter worse. Try a 25 cent bottle of them. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

SHOES

FOR PARTICULAR WOMEN

We are proud of our shoe stock this season. We are certain we have the finest line we have ever shown and we are certain that no other store gets even a little bit ahead of us.

ULTRA and BROCKPORT Shoes for Women

are our strong cards, and we are able to meet the requirements of the most fastidious as well as the more conservative patrons, and we invite a thorough inspection of our line—ULTRA in name, ULTRA in character, ULTRA in every feature that contributes to fit, comfort and style. In finish, material and workmanship, we are proud to present to all lovers of good taste in footwear a shoe for which we have never yet had to make apology. The "Brockport" Shoe is constructed on common-sense principles without sacrifice of those attributes that appeal to a woman's taste, or her pride, in a well and stylishly dressed foot.

Our usually up-to-date line of children's and infant's shoes is even better than ever. We are positive we can insure you perfect satisfaction and save you money in your shoe needs.

Pithy Paragraphs.

The fellow who would marr for money finds it pretty hard work.

It's the worker who succeeds in life—not the fellow who is worked.

Take care of your enemies, and your friends will take care of them selves.

Some men are so easy-going that after a while they cease to go at all.

The people who are always looking for bargains seldom get rich as quickly as those who offer them.

Indian summer in all its glory has been upon us this week. Just why such a season at this time of year is called Indian summer, no one knows for certain.—Roxboro Courier.

A GOOD NAME.

From personal experience I testify that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are unequalled as a liver pill. They are rightly named because they give strength and energy and to their work with ease.—W. T. Easton, Boerne, Tex. Thousands of people are using these tiny little pills in preference to all others, because they are so pleasant and effectual. They cure biliousness, torpid liver jaundice, sick headache, constipation, etc. They do not purge and weaken, but cleanse and strengthen. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

A young man can't expect to keep his trousers creased when he is courting.

A SCIENTIFIC DISCOVERY.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does for the stomach that which it is unable to do for itself, even when but slightly disordered or over-loaded. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure supplies the natural juices of digestion and does the work of the stomach, relaxing the nervous tension, while the inflamed muscles of that organ are allowed to rest and heal. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digest what you eat and enables the stomach and digestive organs to transform all food into rich, red blood. Sold by John L. Wooten.

A polygamist is a man with more wives than brains.
