FARMVILLE CORRESPONDENCE

FARMVILLE, N. C., Nov. 16, 1903.

Since last Wednesday until last night, a series of meetings have been held in the Episcopal church at this place by Revs. Messrs. Joyner, who with their sisters and other near relatives came from different parts of this and other states, and held a family reunion near the old homestead where most of them saw the light of day. Last night's services were very impressive—as each one of the brothers, (four of whom were ministers of the Episcopal church) gave short talks of their early days, of the dear ones whose places are now vacant—of their long separation, and the sad thought that they were soon to part again never to look into each other's faces until they meet in that blessed home where no one shall ever say goodbye. This service was very precious and solemn. It was soul coming in close touch with soul, and the farewells were freighted with words of endearment, words of encouragement, words of hope, and faith, each one experiencing the blessed thought that though separated here in this life, there shall be a happy reunion when they shall dwell together in a land of undying love in the Father's house of many mansions.

Case Against Phelps Dismissed.

The arrest of Jacques Phelps, mentioned in Tuesday's REFLECTOR, was in a warrant sworn out by J. B. White, of Contentnea township, before J. J. Stokes, J. P. of Ayden. The warrant, which was made returnable before H. Harding, J. P. at Greenville charged Phelps with having gone in a trunk belonging to White and taking $85. The warrant was delivered to Constable Joe McLawhorn, of Ayden, who came to Greenville Tuesday morning and arrested Phelps. The latter was kept in custody at the court house until White and his wife arrived in the afternoon. Lawyers were employed on both sides and after consultation between these and the parties interested the case was called before Justice Harding. Counsel for the prosecution stated to the court that they had no evidence to convict the defendant, and therefore moved that the case be dismissed, the prosecution to pay the cost. Upon this motion the case was dismissed.

The case has caused much comment and there are all kinds of rumors about it, but the above is the record of the court in the matter.

DAI'-BLOW.

Pretty Afternoon Church Marriage.

St. Paul's Episcopal church was a beautiful scene at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, when the marriage of Mr. W. H. Dail, Jr., and Miss Mary Dorcas Blow was witnessed by a large number of admiring friends.

The church was artistically decorated, the color scheme being green and red with white background. The windows were darkened and soft lights added a rich halo to the scene.

Promptly at the appointed hour the bridal party reached the church and entered to the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. J. B. Cherry.

The first to proceed up the aisle were the ushers, Dr. Charles Laughinghouse and Messrs. N. S. Fulford, T. M. Hooker and C. S. Forbes. Then came Miss Lizzie Blow alone, followed by Messrs. C. W. Harvey and J. D. Garden. Next was Miss Lizzie Jones followed by Mr. George Dail brother of the bridegroom, with Miss Pattie Skinner.

Miss Lottie Blow, sister of the bride and maid of honor was next to enter followed by Mrs. Charles Laughinghouse, dame of honor.

All eyes were turned to the beautiful bride who entered with her father, Senator Alex. L. Blow. She was met at the altar by the bridegroom who had entered through the vestry with his best man, Mr. Frank Wilson.

Then as the "Flower Song" softly floated from the organ, the ceremony that joined two loving hearts was performed by Rev. W. E. Cox, assisted by Rev. F. H. Harding of Tarboro.

The bride's maids were each attired in green albatros trimmed with heavy white lace, large black picture hats, and carried red carnations.

The maid of honor wore pale green silk with large white velvet hat, and carried carnations.

The dame of honor wore gray crepe de chine, white lace hat, and carried pink bride roses.

The bride's costume was heavy white satin with real lace, and she carried a bouquet of American beauty roses.

All the gentlemen wore Prince Albert coats, with silk hats.

After the ceremony the bridal party withdrew from the church in couples, and a brilliant reception followed from 4 to 5:30 o'clock at the home of Senator and Mrs. A. L. Blow, parents of the bride. The color scheme of the parlor was green and white and of the dining room green and red.

The display of bridal presents was large and beautiful, attesting to the wide popularity of the couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Dail left on the evening train for a bridal tour to New York and other cities, followed by the best wishes of a great number of friends.

WINTERVILLE ITEMS.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Nov. 18.

The prosperity, progress and good ahead and how is never on the wane in Winterville. During the present week several families have moved among us and others have been here to perfect arrangements for doing so after Jan. 1st.

Mr. Roger is filling position of agent during Mr. Green's absence.

That was a sharp piece of detective work here last week. The train was rocked Tuesday night. Wednesday evening a detective came and Saturday morning the culprit was behind prison bars. The officer being an entire stranger working upon his own resources, and accomplishing his purpose within such a short period, is certainly deserving of praise as well the thanks of the community. 'Twas indeed a clever piece of detective ingenuity.

W. L. House and family spent Sunday visiting Mrs. Tom McLawhorn, near Harahan.

Miss Hilda Cox, who has been attending Fair Mount college near Bristol, Tenn., since March last, returned home Monday morning in response to a telegram requesting her to assume charge of a school.

Josh Manning is clerking again across the way.

His Fate.

"You are me prisoner," announced the officer in plain clothes, grasping the pickpocket by the collar.

"What right have you got to arrest me?" angrily exclaimed the other.

"I'm a p'leeceman."

"You'll have to show me."

The officer simply pointed to his shoes.

"Thirteens!" gasped the pickpocket, submitting to be leadaway.

WEDNESDAY - AFTERNOON, NOVEMBER 18, 1903.

The two North Carolina members of congress called on President Roosevelt for the first time Monday. During the conversation the president remarked that North Carolina is most creditably represented in congress. Therein the president is right.

The democrats in congress held a caucus to determine their action upon the Panama canal question and it developed that hardly two of them held the same opinion. At that rate the end of time will find the canal still a matter under discussion.

Rumor has it that the Seaboard Air Line and Southern Railway are about to get together as one system. Monday's Charlotte Chronicle neatly illustrated the rumor in a cartoon showing a brakeman waiting to couple together the cars of the two systems.

And the lawyers are going to fatten on the Duke disagreement at Durham. There is money on both sides and Durham papers say the fight is going to be a big one. Mrs. Duke has retained a California congressman as one of her attorneys.

The Colombian government has sent a protest to the American government against the recognition the latter gave of Panama's secession. They lay the main responsibility for the secession to the United States and express much surprise thereat.

Making clay brick may not be altogether so pleasant to some gentlemen's (?) taste as making gold brick, but the Supreme court of the United States says North Carolina is doing the right thing under the circumstances.

To the gentlemen (?) who deal in gold bricks—You should stay out of North Carolina to carry on your business, or your field of operation may be narrowed to the walls of the penitentiary.

Dr. Crum, the colored collector of customs at Charleston, is still a bone of contention. The president seems determined to force Crum on the people who do not want him.

Panama hats will be much in evidence if the new government gives a new one to all the ambassadors who recognize it.

The man with the hoe must do some lively chopping now to keep pace with the man with the cotton.

The young man who lives beyond his income is on the road to danger.

Be sure your sins will find you out.

Mr. Cleveland's Views.

Grover Cleveland, interviewed the other day by a New York World reporter on the results of last week's elections, made a statement which is worthy of comment not only because of the source from which it emanated, but because it epitomizes the present situation of the democracy. He said:

"As an old-fashioned democrat and a thorough believer in the time-honored principles of my party and in their potency to win the favor of our people when honestly presented, a survey of the field after the battle of last Tuesday cannot fail to afford me the sincerest gratification.

"Passing by the minor results accomplished and viewing the consequences in the largest sense, the outcome seems to indicate a long step taken in the direction of sane democracy and party unity. With these fully secured, I believe that all those who love our party for the sake of its principles may look for renewed party triumphs with such hope and confidence as has not been justified during the years of our wandering and forgetfulness of party integrity."

If Mr. Cleveland had been only referring to the results in Ohio, where Tom Johnson met with defeat and not to the victories in Kentucky, Maryland and New York, his words would yet be true. For from the defeats, as well as from the victories, it is evident that the party is tired of those "wanderings" in which they have been led by the Johnsons and Bryans. Wherever the campaigns were fought on true democratic principles and the party was captained by the sort of leaders whom Mr. Cleveland would probably compliment with the title of "old-fashioned," the result was most encouraging. It was a demonstration that the ranks have turned away for all time from Johnsonism and Bryanism and are eager to give support to true democratic principles.—Atlanta Journal.

The Georgia Daughters of the Confederacy have started a movement to establish a home for aged ex-slaves who served the South faithfully during the war. The movement should succeed, but when we come to think of it this class of old darkeys are generally taken care of by the white people of the neighborhood in which they live and in instances where this is the case then are doubtless happier than they would be in a public institution.—Charlotte Chronicle.

The Girl Who Works.

The South has always been conservative on her social side, and it is to be hoped that she will always remain so.

In no country has woman been so honored and yet so restricted as here. Only a few decades back a woman who supported herself by her own exertions by following any of the ordinary callings, was considered masculine, and was thought to have a lack of feminine delicacy. Her social position was never more than second rate, consequently only a few brave pioneer spirits would ever make up their minds to resist this sentiment.

While we are southern to the core, we are glad to see this sentiment a thing of the past. The great army of women who are supporting themselves and families as typewriters, clerks, bookkeepers, agents, printers and drummers, are a credit to our business world. Women, in certain lines, are fully the equal of men—especially is this true of bookkeeping, printing, typewriting and selling goods.

We believe that the day is not far distant when she will receive equal wages for work—Cordele Sentinel.

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. Arthur Chapman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy that the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville and R. L. Davis Farmville.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is Pleasant to Take.

The finest quality of granulated loaf sugar is used in the manufacture of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to maple syrup, making it quite pleasant to take. Mr. W. L. Roderick, of Poolsville, Md., in speaking of this remedy, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with my children for several years and can truthfully say it is the best preparation of the kind I know of. The children like to take it and it has no injurious after effect. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

Only Makes a Bad Matter Worse.

Perhaps you have never thought of it but the fact must be apparent to every one that constipation caused by a lack of water in the system, and the use of drastic cathartics like the old fashioned pills only makes a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are much more mild and gentle in their effect, and when the proper dose is taken their action is so natural that one can hardly realize it is the effect of a medicine. Try a 25 cent bottle of them. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

A SCIENTIFIC DISCOVERY.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does for the stomach that which it is unable to do for itself, even when but slightly disordered or over-loaded. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure supplies the natural juices of digestion and does the work of the stomach, relaxing the nervous tension, while the inflamed muscles of that organ are allowed to rest and heal. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and enables the stomach and digestive organs to transform all food into rich, red blood. Sold by John L. Wooten.

A REMARKABLE CASE.

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by John L. Wooten.

They cure biliousness, torpid liver jaundice, sick headache, constipation, etc. They do not purge and weaken, but cleanse and strengthen. Sold by John L. Wooten.

Women's Headaches

542 1-2 Congress Street.
PORTLAND, MAINE, Oct. 17, 1902.

I consider Wine of Cardui superior to any doctor's medicine I ever used and I know whereof I speak. I suffered for nine months with suppressed menstruation which completely prostrated me. Pain would shoot through my back and sides and I would have blinding headaches. My limbs would swell up and I would feel so weak I could not stand up. I naturally felt discouraged for I seemed beyond the help of physicians, but Wine of Cardui came as a God-send to me. I felt a change for the better within a week. After nineteen days treatment I menstruated without suffering agonies I usually did and soon became regular and without pain.

Wine of Cardui is simply wonderful and I wish that all suffering women knew of its good qualities.

Mrs. Wilhelmina Snow
Treasurer, Portland Economic League.

Headaches are the danger signals of coming disease. Both men and women suffer headaches, but periodical headache falls only to the lot of women and is the unerring sign of irregular menstruation and bearing down pains. Completely prostrated by nine months of suppressed menses, blinded by headaches and racked with pain Mrs. Snow was made a strong and healthy woman again. Remember with Wine of Cardui no case is hopeless because this great remedy cures permanently nineteen out of every twenty cases and never fails to benefit a case of irregular menses, bearing down pains or any female weakness. If you are discouraged and doctors have failed, try Wine of Cardui, and try it now. Remember that headaches mean female weakness. Secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui today. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.
