Gun Accidents.

It is lamentable that so many accidents occur with persons who hunt with guns. It would seem that all persons ought to be sufficiently warned by such accidents to keep the muzzle of a gun away from them. Almost every day there is account of some one being killed or seriously wounded from a gun shot while hunting. To be sure, those who hunt have had sufficient warning in the many accidents to others, and it is to be hoped that in the future people will be more careful.—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

Inmates Perish In Flames.

Atlanta, Nov. 18.—A special to The Constitution, from Tryon, N. C., says a telephone message from Columbia this afternoon brings the intelligence that the county poor house of this, Polk county, was burned last night and that four or five of the inmates perished in the fire. The origin of the fire is unknown.

He—Yes. It's only the man with a pull that gets ahead. She But—it's the man with the head that gets a pull.—Life.

Town—I understand he married a cold half million dollars. Brown—Yes, but it was colder than he expected. She won't let him handle a cent of it.

Misplaced Charity.

Two beggars recently here together were given a quarter each by some gentlemen whom they approached on the street. They were next seen going into the nearest barroom where the money was invested in whiskey.

Some men are so busy reforming everything in general that they have not time to reform anything in particular.

Yes, it was about as good as the racket Mr. Dewey worked on the people down there when he had them pull down that $4,000 reward which they had hung up for his apprehension.—Charlotte Chronicle.

That was a pretty good fake pulled off at Newbern, that the jail was about to be attacked by citizens of Jones county to liberate a prisoner confined under sentence for murder. And the state will have to pay the bill for calling out the naval reserves to guard the jail.—Greenville REFLECTOR.

W. D. DUKE, Gen'l Manager, C. W. CULP, Ass't Gen'l Mgr. W. P. TAYLOR, Traffic Manager

The Washington Government has refused to recognize the San Domingo revolutionists, and trumped up reasons therefor that it did not take the pains to look into it when it dealt with the Panama scoop. The revolutionists have no canal scheme and are not in it. Our government also refuses to recognize the blockade of Domingo ports. Weak nations are not to be considered seriously, it seems.—Wilmington Star.

A Thank-Offering.

The people of North Carolina know that the orphanages of the state rank among the greatest, most beneficent of our institutions.

An institution which rescues innocent helpless, children from the wreck of homes, provides for these little ones the necessities of life, gives them kind care, advantages of school and training in industrial branches, and moral and religious instruction, surely has the strongest of claims upon the heartiest sympathy and support of all of our people.

Many, who have had the care and training in our orphan's homes, are today living upright, Christian lives. We know not what their lives would have been without this help at a critical time without training in their childhood.

The importance, the necessity, of such work is becoming more and more appreciated.

At no time in the year is more done for this worthy cause than at Thanksgiving, and the practice of giving to the support of the destitute, homeless orphan children at this time is fitting and commendable. We are glad that Thanksgiving Day is growing to be distinctively 'orphans' day' in North Carolina.

Gratitude to God, which must fill the heart as we meditate upon His mercies, leads out into service for humanity.

May the thank-offering to this great cause this Thanksgiving manifest in a plain, practical manner true thankfulness on the part of a people greatly blessed.

May our gifts prove even a deeper interest in this most worthy work of rearing for and training our most helpless and needy children.

Innocent Men Seldom Convicted.

There is a tradition that an old fashioned North Carolina Judge in charging the jury in an aggravated case, who had been asked in his charge to repeat the maxim, "it is better that ninety-nine guilty men should escape than that one innocent man should be punished," promised to do so. When he came to that portion of his charge he emphasized the question and added: "But I tell you, gentlemen of the jury, that the ninety-nine guilty men have already escaped, and it is nowhere said that the hundredth guilty man shall be acquitted."

It is a rare thing for an innocent man to be convicted. We have never known a case, though we have heard of a few. In his charge to the grand jury at Kinston this week, Judge Brown dwelt upon the fact that "reasonableness of doubt does not mean any doubt at all, but the doubt arising in the minds of reasonable men." The Kinston Free Press quotes a portion of the judge's charge and adds:

"Along this line His Honor said that though he endorsed the maxim of the law which says that it were better to turn loose ninety-nine guilty men than to convict one innocent, that there was nothing in it to alarm a juror as during his seventeen years practicing at the bar and fifteen years on the bench he had never known a man whom he believed innocent convicted in court."

The judge might truly have added that he had seen many very guilty men acquitted, for that happens all too often in North Carolina and other states.—Raleigh News and Observer.

England may be the mother country, but the United States seems to be the father-in-law country.

PACTOLUS ITEMS.

PACTOLUS N. C. Nov. 19, 1903.

Saturday was a little bit dull. C. E. Bradley and C. F. James spent Sunday in Greenville.

Walter Webb and wife, of Elm City, came in on Tuesday night's train.

Are you ever cropp'd with Thanksgiving turkeys! If so, poor me.

The farmers are moving their cotton in now in some little hurry. Eleven cents tells who's got it.

I have several receipts written up ready to fill in your name for THE REFLECTOR. Will be glad to have you drop in.

C. E. Bradley.

Some young men were here yesterday and reported seeing a large bear near here, Tuesday night, in the public road. The boys had been out late and some of them people have dreams.

H. M. Cakes, state organizer, was here Tuesday and organized a township Farmers Alliance. Nine members were enrolled and the following officers were elected:

J. J. Satterthwait, president. C. E. Bradley, vice-president. M. T. Speer, secretary and treasurer.

Fernando Ward, chaplain. J. R. Overton, lecturer. J. R. Baker, doorkeeper.

Meets in Little Hall twice each month, Tuesday night after the first and third Sundays at 7.

Fell off a Stump.

There was a bit of excitement at the graded school during the noon recess today while the pupils were on the campus eating their dinner. Little Miss Marie Dove, daughter of Prof. Dove, was on a stump while eating. She got choked on a piece of bread which caused her to lose her balance and fall to the ground. The fall, to use the words of the physician who was summoned, knocked the bread and the breath both out of the child. Seeing her lying still on the ground some of the teachers thought she was killed and began screaming. The excitement spread among the pupils and for the time being all was confusion. The little girl soon came to and was not hurt, much to the delight of all.

And They Smacked.

Persons in the lower part of the court house yesterday evening were attracted by the sound as of an explosion and hastened to the sheriff's office from which place the sound emanated. There it was found the cause of the noise was the resounding smack of a dusky couple who had just been united in the holy estate of matrimony by Justice J. D. Cox.

At the conclusion of the nuptials the justice suggested to the dark hued Lothario that he salute the bride. To the suggestion the sensitive nerves of the lips of the dusky bride responded in a very creditable and proper pucker and the bridegroom gently folded her in his arms and the resounding smacks of the vehement osculations were heard to the front of the building and attracted others to the scene.—Kinston Free Press.

Full particulars of the deal were not learned nor is the purchase price to be given out yet, but if the terms of sale are met by the purchasers the transfer of the property will be made the first of February, 1904.—Kinston Free Press

Everybody's Magazine for December, the Christmas number, is well worth the small price of ten cents. It is beautifully illustrated and the reading matter especially interesting.

PERSONALS AND SOCIAL.

F. C. Toepleman, of Henderson, left this morning.

Misses Fannie and Valeria Fleming left this morning for a visit to William ton.

Miss Martha Harding, of Centerville, came up this morning to visit her sister, Mrs. F. C. Harding.

Mrs. J. W. Andrews and children returned Thursday evening from a visit to Robersonville.

Charlie James went to Ayden Thursday evening.

Mrs. John Pearce, of Ayden, who has been visiting Mrs. Emily Harris, returned home Thursday evening.

R. C. Cannon, of Ayden, spent the day here Thursday.

E. V. Cox returned to Ayden Thursday evening.

Elder J. M. Barfield, of the Ayden Baptist, was in town today.

Miss Mary Adams is visiting Mrs. C. O. Brown.

Stoves want to be fed on wood and plenty of it now.

Jane Latham, one of the colored people burned out at the fire here in July, is rebuilding her house.

Quarterly conference in the Methodist church tonight. It is the close of the conference year.

Just five weeks to Christmas.

A number of our subscribers are coming in after subscription receipts, without waiting to be reminded that it is pay time. Wish all would do that way.

Our October exports, valued in the report just issued by the government bureau of statistics at $160,370,059, break several interesting "records." This was the greatest month's total in all our history of trade, with the single exception of October, 1899. It showed a jump of $50,000,000 from September and of $70,000,000 from August, thus scoring the most rapid increase ever known in two months. The excess over the month's imports of $81,931,005 is $78,439,054, a "balance of trade" greater than any previous month has ever shown, again excepting October, 1899. Earlier in the season our record-breaking had been of a different and disheartening character. In March our imports of $96,230,457 exceeded all previous totals. The August exports of $89,446,457 were almost the lowest for five years, and fell below the March imports, thus making 1903 the first year in our recent history when the imports of one month exceeded the exports of any month of the same year. This amazing "change of form" between August and October shows that the country is already going to work again in the good old and only way, by cutting expenses and increasing sales, to heal the havoc that speculation has wrought.—New York World.

Seven Springs Hotel.

The papers conveying the Seven Springs property have been made out, signed and placed in escrow and only lacks the action of the purchasers in accepting and depositing amount to complete the deal.

The actual purchasers known in the deal are Messrs. Gibson and Humphery, of Goldsboro, but it is said there is a stock company or syndicate back of it and the property will be improved, and it has been intimated that a trolley line may soon put this famous watering place in close touch with the world by quick transit to the railroad.

Entered at the post office at Greenville, N. C., as second class matter. Subscription rates: One Year, $3.00; One Month, 25 cents; One Week, 10 cents. Delivered in town by carriers without extra cost. Advertising rates reasonable and can be had on application to the editor or at the office. We desire a live correspondent at every post office in the county, who will send in brief items of news as it occurs. Write plainly, and only on one side of the paper.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, NOVEMBER, 20, 1903.

Prof. Bassett continues to hold down the chair at Trinity.

The republican party may find an elephant on its hands before the Panama canal job is completed.

It looks like the Panama recognition was in the interest of caudal jobbery.

Raleigh ought to know better by the time she goes to elect another board of aldermen.

It looks like not a few will have to take rooster for Thanksgiving dinner and imagine its turkey.

W. J. Bryan has landed—on the other side of the pond in Liverpool.

Don't forget to lay by something for the poor and the orphan on Thanksgiving day.

As gold brick swindlers are usually sharp fellows, we may wake up some of these fine mornings to hear that they have escaped from the penitentiary.

Of course there will be blind tigers in this town but nobody believes for a moment that they will sell half the whiskey that would have been sold by the saloons.—Durham Herald.

Perhaps it is not because a negro is a negro that he does not receive the same treatment in the courts as a white man but because he has not the money.—Durham Herald.

Grover is in danger of getting his purse pulled under a fine for filling his game bag in Virginia without paying the prescribed hunter's license. He don't care for the fine if sport is good.

The treaty between the United States and Panama, under which this government is to construct and control the Panama canal, has been signed. And pretty soon Uncle Sam will be shoveling dirt across the isthmus.

What do you think cotton is going to do? is the question heard several times a day. That is just it. If one only knew, the fortune would be easy. But not knowing, there is danger in monkeying with the other fellow's game.

We sincerely sympathize with Editor J. P. Caldwell, of the Charlotte Observer, in the terrible bereavement that came upon him in the suicide of his son, Wednesday evening. The young man was just 20 years old, and took his own life apparently without cause.

"I traveled over about 100 farms in Pitt county," said Mr. Andrew Joyner yesterday, "and I'll tell you nearly all the cotton is not only picked, but sold. Even the speculative farmers have sold their crop. I would not be afraid now to buy January cotton at 12 cents.—Raleigh Post.

It seems Uncle Sam owes North Carolina $15,000 for the men who did service in the Spanish-American war, and there is talk of bringing suit for it. Step up, Uncle Sam, and pay your bills, and don't be setting your children a bad example by repudiating your debts.

We continue to hear and read much nowadays about the emancipated woman and what she is going to do; how she is going to assert her rights and dare maintain them, but the fact remains that the hand that rocks the cradle has lost none of its power to rule the throne. Whenever it ceases to do this or in some other form to largely govern mankind this civilization will be found to have passed its zenith and is on the wane. The man who defers to, and obeys the mother of children is a Christian civilization builder. The man who cannot be called from all else by the woman with a babe in arms is a degenerate and if there are many of these then civilization is losing ground.—Charlotte Observer.

There are now fifty applications for women to be received at the insane asylum here. Many of these persons are confined in county jails waiting admission. Dr. Jenkins says every effort is being made to receive these cases.—Raleigh Post.

This shows a deplorable condition of affairs. Only a few days ago we read of a young woman, in an extreme case of insanity, being taken to the state hospital in the hope of gaining administration but had to be turned away. The state is doing a great deal for education, and even talking of spending hundreds of thousands dollars in enlarging the capitol, while unfortunate creatures whose reason has been dethroned are neglected. This is a shame to the state.

Cotton Warehouses.

Says the Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

The Atlanta Journal argues forcibly for cotton warehouses in the South where farmers may store their cotton and borrow money on it rather than sell it at whatever price prevails just at the time they must have a little money. The South furnishes a large part of the world's cotton supply and it ought to have the control of its own product. The Journal pointedly says: "If the South had a regular system of warehouses, a revolution would be worked in the handling of the cotton crop. The farmer would no longer be compelled to haul his cotton to town as soon as it is picked and accept whatever price he can get for it. Instead, he could store his cotton in a warehouse, borrow on his warehouse receipts such money as he needs, and hold the cotton in his warehouse until he can get a satisfactory price for it. Under this system the profits of the cotton market would be reaped largely by the farmer himself, rather than by a few wealthy speculators in New York and Liverpool. The South has outgrown the present system, as it has outgrown its dependence on the North and East for all manufactured articles. The Journal looks to see large warehouses established shortly in all the principal Southern cities; warehouses which shall issue receipts acceptable to the banks and trust companies and which shall enable the farmer to realize money at once on his crop without sacrificing it to greedy buyers."

FROM SOUTH AFRICA.

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy,

Mr. Arthur Chapman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy teat the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville and E. L. Davis Farmville.

The Best Liniment.

"Chamberlain's Pain Balm is considered the best liniment on the market," write Post & Bliss, Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Da. of Georgia, Vt. No other liniment will heal a cut or bruise so promptly. No other affords such quick relief from rheumatic pains. No other is so valuable for deep seated pains like lame back and pains in the chest. Give this liniment a trial and you will never wish to be without it. Sold by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Da. vis & Bros. Farmville.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is Pleasant to Take.

The finest quality of granulated loaf sugar is used in the manufacture of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to maple syrup, making it quite pleasant to take. Mr. W. L. Roderick, of Pikesville, Md., in speaking of this remedy, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with my children for several years and can truthfully say it is the best preparation of the kind I know of. The children like to take it and it has no injurious after effect. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

Only Makes a Bad Matter Worse.

Perhaps you have never thought of it but the fact must be apparent to every one that constipation caused by a lack of water in the system, and the use of drastic cathartics like the old fashioned pills only makes a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are much more mild and gentle in their effect, and when the proper dose is taken their action is so natural that one can hardly realize it is the effect of a medicine. Try a 25-cent bottle of them. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

Nothing pleases the average woman so much as her ability to reverse a man's opinion.

A SCIENTIFIC DISCOVERY.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does for the stomach that which it is unable to do for itself, even when but slightly disordered or over-loaded. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure supplies the natural juices of digestion and does the work of the stomach, relaxing the nervous tension, while the inflamed muscles of that organ are allowed to rest and heal. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and enables the stomach and digestive organs to transform all food into rich, red blood. Sold by John L. Wooten.

A REMARKABLE CASE.

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by John L. Wooten.

CURED OF PILES AFTER 40 YEARS

Mr. C. Hauey, of Geneva, O., had the piles for 40 years. Doctors and dollars could do him no lasting good. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured him permanently. A GOOD NAME.

From personal experience I testify that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are unequalled as a liver pill. They are rightly named because they give strength and energy and do their work with ease.—W. T. Easton, Boerne, Tex. Thousands of people are using these tiny little pills in preference to all others, because they are so pleasant and effectual. They cure biliousness, torpid liver jaundice, sick headache, constipation, etc. They do not purge and weaken, but cleanse and strengthen. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

Women's Headaches

542 I-2 Congress Street,
PORTLAND, MAINE, Oct. 17, 1902.

I consider Wine of Cardui superior to any doctor's medicine I ever used and I know whereof I speak. I suffered for nine months with suppressed menstruation which completely prostrated me. Pain would shoot through my back and sides and I would have blinding headaches. My limbs would swell up and I would feel so weak I could not stand up. I naturally felt discouraged for I seemed beyond the help of physicians, but Wine of Cardui came as a God-send to me. I felt a change for the better within a week. After nine-teen days treatment I menstruated without suffering agonies I usually did and soon became regular and without pain.

Wine of Cardui is simply wonderful and I wish that all suffering women knew of its good qualities.

Mrs. Wilhelmina Snow
Treasurer, Portland Economic League.

Headaches are the danger signals of coming disease. Both men and women suffer headaches, but periodical headache falls only to the lot of women and is the unerring sign of irregular menstruation and bearing down pains. Completely prostrated by nine months of suppressed menses, blinded by headaches and racked with pain Mrs. Snow was made a strong and healthy woman again. Remember with Wine of Cardui no case is hopeless because this great remedy cures permanently nineteen out of every twenty cases and never fails to benefit a case of irregular menses, bearing down pains or any female weakness. If you are discouraged and doctors have failed, try Wine of Cardui, and try it now. Remember that headaches mean female weakness. Secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui today. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

SHOES

FOR PARTICULAR WOMEN

We are proud of our shoe stock this season. We are certain we have the finest line we have ever shown and we are certain that no other store gets even a little bit ahead of us.

ULTRA and BROCKPORT Shoes for Women are our strong cards, and we are able to meet the requirements of the most fastidious as well as the more conservative patrons, and we invite a thorough inspection of our line—ULTRA in name, ULTRA in character, ULTRA in every feature that contributes to fit, comfort and style. In finish, material and workmanship, we are proud to present to all lovers of good taste in footwear a shoe for which we have never yet had to make apology. The "Brockport" Shoe is constructed on common-sense principles without sacrifice of those attributes that appeal to a woman's taste, or her pride, in a well and stylishly dressed foot.

Our usually up-to-date line of children's and infant's shoes is even better than ever. We are positive we can insure you perfect satisfaction and save you money in your shoe needs.
