Thrown Under the Wheels

Wilmington, N. C., Nov. 19.—Owen Hansley, a young farmer, living near Castle Haynes, this county, was horribly crushed to death under train No. 42 of the Atlantic Coast Line as it was passing out the yards in this city to night. Hansley was late in reaching the station on his return home and came down an embankment and ran up in front of the train as it was leaving the station. He attempted to board one of the cars, but in doing so he miscalculated the speed of the train and was thrown under the wheels. The remains were taken to an undertaker's shop and are being prepared for shipment to his home tomorrow.

Fire at Tarboro.

Tarboro, N. C. Nov. 21.—The old Marriatt building, a two-story frame structure on Main street about two blocks from the river, was destroyed by fire last night. The fire started in the rear of the building and had made good headway when discovered. Being in a thick business section the firemen had a hard fight to save adjoining property. The building was used as a bakery and market and the occupants lost nearly all they had in it. A brick building will take the place of the one burned.

Quarterly conference in the Methodist church tonight. It is the close of the conference year.

Rev. F. A. Bishop.

The resolution adopted by the quarterly conference of the Methodist church, and published elsewhere in this paper, voices the sentiment of the entire people of Greenville, regardless of denomination. Mr. Bishop is a man held in highest esteem by all, and he is the kind of citizen that Greenville loves to have. It is regretted that the laws of his denomination will take him elsewhere, yet having consecrated his life to the service of God and the church these laws must be obeyed.

Agent Moore Has Narrow Escape.

Though people may be ever so careful, they sometimes unwittingly find themselves in dangerous places. It so happened Friday with Mr. J. R. Moore, agent of the Atlantic Coast Line. He started to go from the freight office to his residence across the railroad. A long string of freight cars were on the track with a break in front of the office door to permit passing. Thinking the train had finished shifting Mr. Moore started to cross the track through this opening, when he was struck by the cars coming together. With presence of mind he supported himself from falling and by pushing back off the track escaped being run over.

The End of the Century Book Club.

REPORTED FOR THE REFLECTOR.

A most pleasant meeting of the club was held with Mrs. Bowen, at her home on Fifth st. The house was tastily decorated with potted plants and cut flowers.

Owing to the lack of time, the literary program for the evening was not carried out, however Mrs. Little read a very interesting synopsis of the play of Julius Caesar.

Those present were: Mrs. James, Mrs. Little, Mrs. Wooten, Mrs. Cotten, Mrs. Authur, Mrs. Allen, Mrs. E. A. Moye, Mrs. Quinerly, Mrs. Fleming, Mrs. Vines, Mrs. Swanson and Mrs. Joe Moye.

Delicious refreshments were served and Mrs. Bowen declared by all a most charming hostess.

The club adjourned to meet with Mrs. J. B. Cherry on the first of December.

Resolutions.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted by the Greenville Quarterly Conference:

Whereas, Rev. F. A. Bishop has served the full limit of the law of the church as Presiding Elder of the Washington District, and will be taken from us and appointed to another field of labor at the approaching session of our annual conference; and

Whereas, he has made his home with us for the past four years and will, in all probability, reside no longer in our midst; therefore, be it

Resolved, 1st, That we express our appreciation of his earnest and faithful work, advancing all the interests of the church within the district; and

Resolved, 2nd, That his four years sojourn in Greenville has been both pleasant and profitable to us, and that we assure him that he has the esteem and good will of us all, and that we will follow him with our prayers and best wishes wherever in the providence of God he may be sent.

Driven Out to Die.

Goldsboro, N. C., Nov. 19.—While roaming through the woods out beyond Hermann Park yesterday, some children found a negro man in a sitting posture at the root of a big tree. The man was stiff and cold and the children supposed that he was dead. The coroner, Dr. Thos. Hill, was notified and he went out to make an investigation. He found that the negro was not dead, but that he was numb from cold and that he was very ill.

From negroes who live in that vicinity it was learned that the negro had been living with some other negroes in the neighborhood.

He had been ill for some time and unable to work and the negroes with home he was living had driven him from their home. This occurred last Monday and the negro after leaving home had wandered into the woods. He was overcome with weakness and sat down beside the tree to rest.

He was unable to get up and stand where he was until the children found him yesterday. He was taken to the Emergency hospital and provided with comforts and medicine.

Ask War Against Boll Weevil.

Washington, Nov. 20.—Members of congress from the cotton growing states held a meeting today to discuss the boll weevil problem. It was determined that a committee of three members from each state should call upon the president and lay before him the serious situation which is confronting the cotton states, and request him to urge upon congress the importance of carrying into effect the plan which will be submitted by Secretary Wilson in his annual report.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON, NOVEMBER 21, 1903.

When Chicago gets through with her city railroad strike there will be something else doing.

Something of the negro's inhumanity to his race can be judged by the scene at Goldsboro, where a poor, sick man was driven from home by those with whom he lived and was found in the woods almost frozen to death.

The fellows who are fooling with cotton boll weevils are breeding trouble.

A meeting of the board of trustees of Trinity College has been called at Durham Dec. 1st, to consider matters growing out of the Bassett article. It is also rumored that Prof. Bassett has already written his resignation which will be in the hands of the trustees at their meeting. It is presumed the trustees will lose little time in accepting the resignation.

Mrs. Carrie Nation is on the war path again. This time she is doing Washington. She went to the white house where her persistent efforts to see the president led to her forcible ejection by two policemen. Then she went to the capitol and created such excitement in the senate gallery that policemen again took charge of her. The next scene was in the mayor's court where she was allowed to pay a fine of $25 for disorderly conduct.

Aided by democratic votes, the Cuban reciprocity bill passed the house of representatives. By an arbitrary disregard for the rights of the minority the republicans prevented the submitting of any amendments, and the democrats were forced to accept the bill for want of something better. It will no doubt pass the senate with the democratic assistance the necessary two thirds majority for the treaty has been obtained already in that body. The bill may be passed in time to adjourn the extra session before thanksgiving. Representative McClellan, democratic mayor-elect of New York made an eloquent speech in the house in favor of the bill. He said in part, "now at last, after years of waiting, after the spectacle of a lobby practically dominating congress, we propose to partially fulfill our pledge to Cuba by giving her this two penny measure of relief, that is warranted not to offend the susceptibilities of the most sensitive trust in existence. We have made a solemn promise to Cuba. If a republican majority, in its might, is only willing to partially keep the promise, the blame and the shame rest with the republican party. This bill is but a partial fulfillment of our obligation, but as we are confronted with the alternative of either not fulfilling that obligation at all, or of fulfilling it in part, there should be no difference of opinion on this side of the chamber as to the necessity of enacting the bill."

Although the democrats in the senate condemn the president's rash haste in recognizing Panama and his gross blunder in publishing a discarded part of his coming message in which he threatened Colombia, they will support a canal treaty if the president sends one to the senate. Their assistance is necessary because the republicans have not the two-thirds majority, required for the ratification of a treaty. Senator Bacon of Georgia expressed the general opinion of his party colleague when he said, "The majority of the democrats do not intend to permit the president to put them in a position which can be considered as antagonistic to the canal. I have no doubt the republicans would be very glad to see the democrats occupy that position, and it is a very safe rule in politics as well as in war, not to do what your enemy wants you to do." At the same time he declared that our government violated every recognized principle of international law and every obligation of one nation to another with which she was at peace, by recognizing Panama almost before the news of the revolution reached Colombia.

Let Editors Alone.

The editor of the Record has had the good luck of recovering his pocket-book, which was stolen last month at the state fair. The only thing missing from it is the one dollar bill that was in it, as the thief was afraid to attempt to use the three small unendorsed checks that were in it, and the other contents were receipts and papers of no value to him.

The pocket-book and was found and kindly returned by Mr. R. A. Grubbs, of Lynchburg, who is employed on the train service of the Norfolk and Western Railroad Company. He found it in the coal box of a coach that was used on an excursion train to Raleigh during the fair. The thief had thrown it there in disgust after finding only one dollar in it.

This is the second time that the editor's pocket-book, has been stolen and returned, which is quite a coincidence. The other time was in 1896 when Bryan spoke at Charlotte on his tour of this state. It is to be hoped that the pick-pockets will be warned by this experience of their brethren and hereafter not molest the pockets of a country editor?—Chatham Record.

The Graves of a Household.

They grew in beauty, side by side,
They filled our home with glee;
Their graves are severed far and wide,
By mount and stream and sea.

The same fond mother bent at night
O'er each fair sleeping brow;
She had each folded flower in sight—
Where are those dreamers now?

One midst the forest of the West,
By the dark stream is laid;
The Indian knows his place of rest,
Far in the cedar shade.

The sea, the blue, lone sea, hath one—
He lies where pearls lie deep;
He was the loved of all, yet none
O'er his low bed may weep.

One sleeps where Southern vines are drest,
Above the noble slain,
He wrap his colors round his breast
On a blooded field of Spain.

And one—o'er her the myrtle showers
Its leaves by soft winds fanned;
She faded midst Italian flowers,
The last of that bright band.

And parted thus they rest, who played
Beneath the same green tree;
Whose voices mingled as they prayed
"Around one parent knee!"

They that with smiles lit up the hall,
And cheered with song the hearth—
Alas for love, if thou wert all,
And naught beyond, O earth!

FROM SOUTH AFRICA.

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. Arthur Chapman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy teat the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville, and E. L. Davis Farmville.

The Best Liment.

"Chamberlain's Pain Balm is considered the best liniment on the market," write Post & Bliss, of Georgia, Vt. No other liniment will heal a cut or bruise so promptly. No other affords such quick relief from rheumatic pains. No other is so valuable for deep seated pains like lame back and pains in the chest. Give this liniment a trial and you will never wish to be without it. Sold by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is Pleasant to Take.

The finest quality of granulated leaf sugar is used in the manufacture of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to maple syrup, making it quite pleasant to take. Mr. W. L. Roderick, of Poolesville, Md., in speaking of this remedy, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with my children for several years and can truthfully say it is the best preparation of the kind I know of. The children like to take it and it has no injurious after effect. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, B. L. Davis & Bros, Farmville.

Only Makes a Bad Matter Worse.

Perhaps you have never thought of it but the fact must be apparent to every one that constipation caused by a lack of water in the system, and the use of drastic cathartics like the old fashioned pills only makes a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are much more mild and gentle in their effect, and when the proper dose is taken their action is so natural that one can hardly realize it is the effect of a medicine. Try a 25 cent bottle of them. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, B. L. Davis & Bros, Farmville.

A SCIENTIFIC DISCOVERY.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does for the stomach that which it is unable to do for itself, even when but slightly disordered or over-loaded. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure supplies the natural juices of digestion and does the work of the stomach, relaxing the nervous tension, while the inflamed muscles of that organ are allowed to rest and heal. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and enables the stomach and digestive organs to transform all food into rich, red blood. Sold by John L. Wooten.

A REMARKABLE CASE.

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by John L. Wooten.

CURED OF PILES AFTER 40 YEARS.

Mr. C. Haney, of Geneva, O., had the piles for 40 years. Doctors and dollars could do him no lasting good. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured him permanently. Invaluable for cuts, burns, bruises, sprains, laceration, eczema, tetter, salt rheum, and all other skin diseases. Look for the name DeWitt on the package—all others are cheap, worthless counterfeits. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

A GOOD NAME.

From personal experience I testify that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are unequalled as a liver pill. They are rightly named because they give strength and energy and do their work with ease.—W. T. Easton, Boerne, Tex. Thousands of people are using these tiny little pills in preference to all others, because they are so pleasant and effectual. They cure biliousness, torpid liver jaundice, sick headache, constipation, etc. They do not purge and weaken, but cleanse and strengthen. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

PORTLAND, MAINE, Oct. 17, 1902.

I consider Wine of Cardui superior to any doctor's medicine I ever used and I know whereof I speak. I suffered for nine months with suppressed menstruation which completely prostrated me. Pain would shoot through my back and sides and I would have blinding headaches. My limbs would swell up and I would feel so weak I could not stand up. I naturally felt discouraged for I seemed beyond the help of physicians, but Wine of Cardui came as a God-send to me. I felt a change for the better within a week. After nineteen days treatment I menstruated without suffering agonies I usually did and soon became regular and without pain.

Wine of Cardui is simply wonderful and I wish that all suffering women knew of its good qualities.

Mrs. Wilhelmina Snow
Treasurer, Portland Economic League.

Headaches are the danger signals of coming disease. Both men and women suffer headaches, but periodical headache falls only to the lot of women and is the unerring sign of irregular menstruation and bearing down pains. Completely prostrated by nine months of suppressed menses, blinded by headaches and racked with pain Mrs. Snow was made a strong and healthy woman again. Remember with Wine of Cardui no case is hopeless because this great remedy cures permanently nineteen out of every twenty cases and never fails to benefit a case of irregular menses, bearing down pains or any female weakness. If you are discouraged and doctors have failed, try Wine of Cardui, and try it now. Remember that headaches mean female weakness. Secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui today.

All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.
