AT A GLANCE

The good features of our Overcoats proclaim themselves. There are a dozen kinds and styles. What's your particular preference—long, short or medium? We have it.

You Make the Decision

By the time we have shown you what Overcoat styles are worn, you will be able to decide which one becomes you and what cloth you want. All cloths, all colors, all styles, that deserve to be here are here.

The weather is rather Overcoatish now—don't you think so.

Thanksgiving Services.

There was a good sized congregation in the Baptist church, Thursday morning, and, heard an excellent Thanksgiving address by Rev. A. T. King. A collection was taken for the Thomasville orphanage amounting to $24.69 and subscriptions for Charity and Children $5.

At night the children of the Sunbeam society gave an interesting entertainment with Miss Fannie Bagwell as organist. A large audience was present. The program as published Wednesday was carried out, each child's part being rendered with the highest credit. The address by ex-Governor Jarvis was splendid. A collection for the memorial window was taken amounting to $12.38.

Services were held in the Methodist church at 11 o'clock and an interesting address was made by ex-Governor Jarvis. A collection was taken for their orphanage at Raleigh amounting to $18.

At night in the Christian church Rev. W. E. Powell gave an illustrated lecture that was much enjoyed. With a stereopticon he gave pictures from "Ten Nights in a Barroom," showing the evils of liquor drinking.

Elaborate Menu.

We overlooked mentioning in Wednesday's paper an invitation to take Thanksgiving dinner at Hotel Louise, in Washington. A handsome card containing the elaborate menu accompanied the invitation. The Louise is an excellent hotel and we regret we could not accept the invitation.

Dedication Postponed.

The dedication of the new school building at Farmville, which was to have taken place on next Monday, cannot be had as the contractor will not have the building completed. A number of people from Greenville were going up to these exercises and it will be some disappointment that the dedication must be postponed.

The Rev. Irl R. Hicks 1904 Almanac.

The Rev. Irl E. Hicks Almanac for 1904 is now ready. It will be mailed to any address for 30 cents. It is surprising how such an elegant, costly book can be sent prepaid so cheaply. No family or person is prepared to study the heavens, or the storms and weather in 1904, without this wonderful Hicks Almanac and Prof. Hicks splendid paper, Word and Works. Both are sent for only one dollar a year. Word and Works is among the best American Magazines. Like the Hicks Almanac, it is too well known to need further commendation. Few men have labored more faithfully for the public good or found a warmer place in the hearts of the people. Send orders to Word and Works Publishing Co., 2201 Locust St., St. Louis Mo.

Entertainment at Winterville

According to its usual custom the Philo-Altean Literary Society gave an excellent entertainment on Thursday evening, Nov. 26th.

In the music, both instrumental and vocal, and in the play each girl did her part well and reflected much credit upon themselves and the excellent society they represented. The following is a program:

Ballet March, Giorza, Misses Galloway and Robeson.

BREEZY POINT.

Aunt Debby Dexter, Miss Julia Sanderson.

Elinor Pearl, Miss Addie Cox.

Asleral Grant, Miss Clyde Dawson.

Mrs. Hardscratch, Miss Clara Brewer.

The Hardscratch Twins, Miss Lela Roach and Miss Myrtle Proctor.

Bernice Vernon, Miss Zoia Gresham.

Laura Leigh, Nannie House.

Edith Morton, Miss Ethel McDaniel.

Clarice Feneigh, Miss Bessie Holand.

Fawtine, Miss Lizzie Edmondson.

Old Clew, Miss Bessie Elmere.

Melutible Doolittle, Miss Ida Mooring.

The following music interspersed between the acts:

Cupid's Warnings, Powell, Misses Harrison and Dawson.

Faust Waltz, Lange, Miss Myrtle Proctor.

The Owl and the Pussy Cat, Ingraleam, Miss Zoia Gresham and chorus.

LaBeme DeFees, Smith, Miss Vivian Roberson.

Shot in Arm.

While out hunting the other day, Mr. John Tucker, a young man of Chicod township, accidentally shot himself in the arm. His injury is of such a nature that it is feared the arm will have to be amputated.

Representative Hardwick, of Georgia, introduced in congress a bill making it a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment from six months to five years, to sell, or in any way to dispose of, for gain, political influence or to purchase the same. That is a sweeping bill, but it may be found troublesome to determine just what is political influence in the realm of merchandising, and to catch the parties trafficking in it.

C. F. James was visiting friends near Wards Bridge Sunday. Charles, suppose we go together next time.

J. J. Harrington has suspended his school a few days on account of being sick.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Whitehurst left Saturday to visit Oakley and Greenville. Ed. is back and running the household by himself.

Lots of tobacco has been passing through for Greenville market this week. We have some unsold stuff yet. It is not sand lugs, but red coon.

We can now say we have had some winter. It was snowing yesterday to the delight of many, and to the sorrow of numbers of poor souls with a wood pile filled with nothing but snow.

Rabbit Fired the Gun and Wounded the Hunter.

Martin Price, living near the golf links at Northfield, took his gun yesterday and went out after rabbits. A big one appeared and Price chased it until it disappeared in a hole.

The hunter laid his gun down, got a golf stick and pushed it into the burrow. The gun was cocked and all ready for Price to pick up and shoot.

The cottontail came out with a rush and its first bound landed it on the gun. Its fore feet struck the trigger and the gun was discharged, both barrels going off at once.

Price was in a stooping position, his dog near him. He was just far enough out of the line of the gun to escape the full force of the charge in it, but two fingers were torn off, his leg was badly lacerated and his left cheek filled with shot. One of the dog's legs was shot off.

The rabbit is still at large.—Philadelphia, Special, 20th, to Baltimore Sun.

Married.

Mr. John C. Lamb, of Williamston, a popular visitor to Greenville, was married in Chapel Hill on Tuesday, his bride being Miss Frances MacRae, a daughter of Judge James C. MacRae.

Some North Carolina farmers have raised cotton, for a fact, this year. We read of a man near Laurinburg who planted 7 acres and gathered 12 bales therefrom. This is the kind of farming that pays. We have always held to the belief that farmers would make more money if they would plant fewer acres of any crop and fertilize and cultivate those acres thoroughly. This would bring better return than by scattering the same amount of fertilizer and labor over a larger number of acres. It is the small acreage well tilled that pays best.

That is a noble story of heroism which comes from Asheville, where in Ernest Petit, aged 8 years, lost his life while trying to save his 2-year-old sister. The clothing of the little girl caught on fire when her brother rushed to her rescue. His clothing also took fire and he was so terribly burned that he died a few hours later. The life of the little girl was saved. Men have bravely given their lives for their country, but in all history there is not a grander hero than this little boy.

The Supreme court has dismissed the petition of the Seaboard Air Line for a rehearing of the case of H. F. Seawell against the railroad, the case in which Seawell sued the railroad for being "rotten egged" at the Shelby depot, in 1900, and was awarded $4,500 damages. So the railroad will have to foot the bill, and Seawell can thank his stars that he got egged.

This reminds us of the story of the tramp who appeared one day dressed out as a regular sport. "You must er run erginst sumthin'," said a fellow tramp, who recognized his old chum even through the fine clothes. "Naw," was the reply "sumthin' run erginst me an' I got er thousan' dollars from the railroad for 'de kar hittin' me."

It seems impossible to make out a case of murder in this state unless a negro does the killing.—Durham Herald.

THANKSGIVING THOUGHTS.

BY MRS. R. E. COTTEN.

There is no connection between gratitude and gluttony, yet we are forced to admit that man has always expressed excessive joy by eating and drinking. This fact, while true, is hard to explain. Hilarity may be a component part of happiness, and hunger may be a component part of hilarity, and the excited emotions may stimulate the appetite, and thus explain the phenomena that feasting always accompanies felicity, and gratitude seems ever prone to express itself in eating.

Banqueting was in high favor both in Rome and Greece, and the Bible teems with accounts of such indulgences.

The approach of Christmas brings visions of all manner of edible delights rather than thoughts of the lowly Nazarene whose birth the season commemorates. On that occasion of joy known as a wedding, the happy couple share their prominence with the tempting viands which characterize such occasions.

If one wishes to honor a friend, let a feast be prepared and friends are bidden to come and share it. This custom has obtained from time immemorial and bears intimately on the evolution of hospitality.

In some localities even funerals are made feasts and it is a fact that $40 worth of pound cake was eaten at the funeral of George Washington. Any anniversary thought worthy of commemoration, from a baby's birthday to a great national victory, invariably takes the form of a feast, and as such, seems to give universal pleasure. It must follow that it is natural for man to express his joy and gratitude by eating and drinking. So when Gov. Winthrop desired to offer thanks for the safety and welfare of the Plymouth colony the religious fervor did not preclude, but rather encouraged the natural mode of expression, and so the Feast of Thanksgiving was inaugurated and has become a permanent part of our national life.

As the work of preparing feasts always falls to the lot of the women, we can picture those Pilgrim mothers making the traditional pumpkin pies and dressing the wild turkeys with which the woods of Massachusetts abounded. Nor was their pious zeal diminished thereby.

Those colonial days may have been some of the proverbial "good old times" of which all heard, but they were hard days for women, and now in retrospect, when Thanksgiving recurs, one of the special things for which women should be grateful today, is that they did not come over in the "Mayflower," and share the privations of those women. A bright woman has said that the Pilgrim mothers had more courage and deserved more praise than the Pilgrim fathers, for they not only bore all the privations and dangers which the Pilgrim fathers stood but they also had to endure the Pilgrim fathers themselves.

The Pilgrim mothers shared their forest homes with all the local insects, snakes, owls—sometimes bears—and often Indians, while we sit in our safe homes, secure from the intrusion even of flies and mosquitoes, and amidst our thanks invoke blessings on the man who invented screen windows and doors.

The world now is a very different place for women than it was then, and nowhere more so than in America. Thanksgiving continues to be a combination of gratitude and gluttony, but even this observance in the 20th century is very different from the 16th century. Women who live now have many more advantages and blessings for which to be thankful.

But a happiness won is a hope lost, and perhaps we have lost, in anticipation and the hopeful striving for things, equally as much as we have gained in the realization of greater benefits. While offering thanks for these opportunities and privileges women should remember that they bring greater responsibilities. She must rise to the full measure of her opportunity and prove herself a greater blessing to man than ever before.

Higher education should bring better and brighter homes, larger fields of endeavor should make happier people in these homes where the greatest ornament is love, and the sweetest privilege is to serve others.

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. Arthur Chapman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy teat the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville and E. L. Davis Farmville.

The Best Liniment.

"Chamberlain's Pain Balm is considered the best liniment on the market," write Post & Bliss of Georgia, Vt. No other liniment will heal a cut or bruise so promptly. No other affords such quick relief from rheumatic pains. No other is so valuable for deep seated pains like lame back and pains in the chest. Give this liniment a trial and you will never wish to be without it. Sold by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is Pleasant to Take.

The finest quality of granulated loaf sugar is used in the manufacture of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to maple syrup, making it quite pleasant to take. Mr. W. L. Boderick, of P. O. Boxville, Md., in speaking of this remedy, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with my children for several years and can truthfully say it is the best preparation of the kind I know of. The children like to take it and it has no injurious after effect. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

Only Makes a Bad Matter Worse.

Perhaps you have never thought of it but the fact must be apparent to every one that constipation caused by a lack of water in the system, and the use of drastic cathartics like the old fashioned pills only makes a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are much more mild and gentle in their effect, and when the proper dose is taken their action is so natural that one can hardly realize it is the effect of a medicine. Try a 25 cent bottle of them. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

A SCIENTIFIC DISCOVERY.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does for the stomach that which it is unable to do for itself, even when but slightly disordered or over-loaded. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure supplies the natural juices of digestion and does the work of the stomach, relaxing the nervous tension, while the inflamed muscles of that organ are allowed to rest and heal. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and enables the stomach and digestive organs to transform all food into rich, red blood. Sold by John L. Wooten.

A REMARKABLE CASE.

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marlton, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by John L. Wooten.

CURED OF PILES AFTER 40 YEARS.

Mr. C. Haney, of Geneva, O., had the piles for 40 years. Doctors and dollars could do him no lasting good. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured him permanently. Invaluable for cuts, burns, bruises, sprains, laceration, eczema, tetter, salt rheum, and all other skin diseases. Look for the name DeWitt on the package—all others are cheap, worthless counterfeits. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

A GOOD NAME.

From personal experience I testify that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are unequalled as a liver pill. They are rightly named because they give strength and energy and do their work with ease.—W. T. Easton, Boerne, Tex. Thousands of people are using these tiny little pills in preference to all others, because they are so pleasant and effectual. They cure biliousness, torpid liver jaundice, sick headache, constipation, etc. They do not purge and weaken, but cleanse and strengthen. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

Women's Headaches
542 1-2 Congress Street.
PORTLAND, MAINE, Oct. 17, 1902.

I consider Wine of Cardui superior to any doctor's medicine I ever used and I know whereof I speak. I suffered for nine months with suppressed menstruation which completely prostrated me. Pain would shoot through my back and sides and I would have blinding headaches. My limbs would swell up and I would feel so weak I could not stand up. I naturally felt discouraged for I seemed beyond the help of physicians, but Wine of Cardui came as a God-send to me. I felt a change for the better within a week. After nineteen days treatment I menstruated without suffering agonies I usually did and soon became regular and without pain.

Wine of Cardui is simply wonderful and I wish that all suffering women knew of its good qualities.

Mrs. Wilhelmina Snow
Treasurer, Portland Economic League.

Headaches are the danger signals of coming disease. Both men and women suffer headaches, but periodical headache falls only to the lot of women and is the unerring sign of irregular menstruation and bearing down pains. Completely prostrated by nine months of suppressed menses, blinded by headaches and racked with pain Mrs. Snow was made a strong and healthy woman again. Remember with Wine of Cardui no case is hopeless because this great remedy cures permanently nineteen out of every twenty cases and never fails to benefit a case of irregular menses, bearing down pains or any female weakness. If you are discouraged and doctors have failed, try Wine of Cardui, and try it now. Remember that headaches mean female weakness. Secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui today. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

SHOES

FOR PARTICULAR WOMEN

We are proud of our shoe stock this season. We are certain we have the finest line we have ever shown and we are certain that no other store gets even a little bit ahead of us.

ULTRA and BROCKPORT Shoes for Women are our strong cards, and we are able to meet the requirements of the most fastidious as well as the more conservative patrons, and we invite a thorough inspection of our line—ULTRA in name, ULTRA in character, ULTRA in every feature that contributes to fit, comfort and style. In finish, material and workmanship, we are proud to present to all lovers of good taste in footwear a shoe for which we have never yet had to make apology. The "Brockport" Shoe is constructed on common-sense principles without sacrifice of those attributes that appeal to a woman's taste, or her pride, in a well and stylishly dressed foot.

Our usually up-to-date line of children's and infant's shoes is even better than ever. We are positive we can insure you perfect satisfaction and save you money in your shoe needs.
