Cleveland Out of It.

Grover Cleveland has written a letter to his friend, St. Clair McKelway, editor of the Brooklyn Eagle, in which he declares emphatically that under no consideration would he again become the nominee of the party for the presidency. The letter in full is as follows:

"Princeton, N. J., Nov. 25.
"My Dear Mr. McKelway.

"I have waited for a long time to say something which I think should be said to you before others. You can never know how grateful I am for the manifestation of kindly feeling toward me on the part of my countrymen, which your invitation has brought out. Your advocacy in The Eagle of my nomination for the presidency came to me as a great surprise and it has been seconded in such a manner by democratic sentiment that conflicting thoughts of gratitude and duty have caused me to hesitate as to the time and manner of a declaration on my part concerning the subject—if such a declaration should seem necessary or proper.

"In the midst of it all and in the full view of every consideration, I have not for a moment been able, nor am I now able, to open my mind to the thought, that in any circumstance, or upon any consideration, I should ever again become the nominee of my party for the presidency. My determination not to do so is unalterable and conclusive. This you, at least, ought to know from me, and I should be glad if The Eagle were made the medium of its conveyance to the public.

"Very sincerely yours,
"Grover Cleveland."

New Railroad Chartered.

A charter was granted yesterday afternoon in the secretary of state's office to the Atlantic Railway Company, to operate between Raleigh and Goldsboro, about fifty miles. The total authorized capital stock is $250,000 and company is permitted to commence operations with $50,000, one thousand dollars a mile. The directors named in the charter are T. A. Green, of New Bern; Lovitt Hines, of Kinston, Nathan O'Berry and G. A. Norwood, Jr., of Goldsboro; John A. Mills and W. W. Mills, of Raleigh.—News and Observer.

Judge Peebles in Harnett.

The great majority of the newspapers were very severe on Judge Peebles for the manner in which he conducted himself in the Haywood trial in Raleigh, but not all of them criticised him. Some didn't have nerve enough to take a position at the time, and now since the storm has subsided a few are speaking up for him. His honor held court in Harnett county last week and the Dunn (Harnett county) Guide says of him.

Judge Peebles, who is holding court at Lillington this week, is one of our most conscientious and up-right judges. His sound and logical mind, trained to the nice discriminations of the law, seldom errs, while the impartial justice which he metes to all parties has endeared him to the hearts of our people.

"Conscientious and upright judge," "impartial justice which he metes out to all parties"—these be fine phrases. We hope they are deserved, but if they are Judge Peebles has changed his course since the Haywood trial.

But again, speaking of his honor's charge to the grand jury, the Guide says:

His charge to the grand jury at this term of court was an able address, delivered in an impressive and masterly manner. The judge called attention to the increase of crime in the state, especially the crime of homicide. The alarming spread of this dreadful crime has swept our country almost like a devastating plague. The remedy for this evil lies with the different juries. If the law be rigidly enforced, and every offender dealt with according to his crime, the dignity and majesty of the law might be better enforced and those who would not obey its precepts from principle might be taught to do so through fear.

Oh my country! Judge Peebles talking to the grand jury about the alarming increase of homicides, the necessity of a rigid enforcement of the law, etc. Did you ever? But from the information this paper has about his honor his cheek is unparalleled and he doesn't know what consistency means, and after reading the above we are fully convinced that this estimate is correct.—Statesville Landmark.

To the Tobacco Growers.

Reidsville, Nov. 28.—S. C. Adams, the president of the Tobacco Growers' Inter-State Association, of Virginia and North Carolina, has just issued a card, in which he states that the plan of organization adopted at the recent meeting of the association in Danville, is in the hands of the printer, and will be ready for distribution in a few days. Among other things, he says:

"The plan may not be just what all may want, but it was adopted unanimously by a representative body of tobacco growers, and should have our support. Should any feature prove unsatisfactory, we can change it at a future meeting. Let all farmers first get hold of these ideas—that we are not making war upon any one but as we are met by combinations who name the prices of nearly everything we buy self-preservation forces us to combine, that we may name the prices on what we sell. If we fail to do this, we cannot hope to improve our condition; every farmer in this country may assert with all emphasis possible that he cannot make tobacco at present prices, and it will accomplish nothing as long as he makes it and puts it on the market at these prices—to say we can't do a thing and then do it will never make any one respect our assertions."

Some of the others will breathe easier since Grover has said he don't want it and wouldn't have it.

One Way to be Happy.

One way to be happy, says the Gastonia News, is for every man to take his home paper. And he should not only take it, but pay for it as well which some people do not do. Don't borrow it from your neighbor, but subscribe for it in your own name and pay the price like an honest man and loyal citizen. Don't play the dead-beat—either on your neighbor or the publisher. The latter can stand it, but your neighbor does not want to be bothered that way about so small a matter. And yet he dislikes to refuse. Some people do not stop to think how much they owe the local paper. When you want a favor to whom do you go? Is it to the big city daily? No, the city paper don't know you; but the editor of your local paper does; and if he don't know you call to see him the next time you go to town, or go up and speak to him, for he will be glad to see you and form your acquaintance. If you don't take his paper subscribe for it. If you have an item of news give it to him, or write to him and tell about it. He is the man who tells of your success in life, and does you many little favors. If you do not help to support his enterprise you are not treating him right. He will treat you right. Be on his side. You don't know when you will need his help. Not only stand by his newspaper, but stand by every legitimate enterprise in your county as much as you possibly can.

Money in a Log.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 28.—Several days ago an elderly stranger was riding along the public highway, just west of Madison, and called to Robert Black, a farmer, who was gathering corn in a field by the roadside. Pointing to an old log cabin on the Black farm which had long been used for storing corn, the stranger said there was a big pile of money hid in the house.

"How much?" asked Black.
"About five thousand," replied the stranger and rode away.
The farmer laughed and thought it a funny joke, but suggested tearing down the old house, and yesterday he and his hired hands began the work. In one corner of the house, beneath the foundation and in the first log he found $4,200 in gold and silver coin, much of it being dated before the civil war. Mr. Black has no idea how it came there nor does he know who it was that told him the money was hidden in the old house.

Help One Another.

The best way to build up a town is to stand by each and every man in it who does right. Whenever a man is doing well do not tear him down. All the residents of a town ought to be partners, not opponents. Their interests are, to a certain extent mutual. What helps one helps others. In all likelihood the more business your rival does the more you will do. Every business man who treats his customers honestly, courteously and fairly will get his share, and the more business that can be secured by united efforts the better it will be for all. When a town ceases to grow it begins to die and the more the people do to kill each other in their business or good names, the more rapidly will utter ruin come to all.

Stand together for the advancement of every citizen—for the betterment of the community at large. If a man shows ability to prosper do not pull him back through jealousy or weight him down with cold indifference.—Chapel Hill News.

MONDAY AFTERNOON, NOVEMBER 30, 1903.

THE LIFE OF OUR NATION.

BY REV. F. G. HARTMAN.

Deut. 32:47. "It is your life."

That this nation possesses life, vitality, and power to perform its appointed functions, none will question. But whence came this national life, who gave it an existence, and what sustains, perpetuates and strengthens this nation, in its varied manifestations of life and strength? Is God the author of its life, in the same sense that He gives life to the individual soul? Does God nourish and develop the life given to this nation, on the same principle that he maintains and develops life in the individual?

Our text and connected lessons teach us that Almighty God is the source of national life, as well as every other kind, and that this life is preserved and developed, only by the observance of God's laws laid down for its guidance and control. On a national "Thanksgiving day" which was observed, as we read in the history of Israel, Moses said unto the assembled multitude "Know therefore this day, and consider in thine heart, that the Lord he is God in Heaven above, and upon the earth beneath, there is none else. Thou shalt keep therefore his statutes, his commandments, which I command you this day, that it may go well with thee, and with thee, and with thy children after thee, and that thou mayest prolong thy days upon the earth, which the Lord thy God giveth thee. Set your hearts unto all the words which I testify among you this day, which ye shall command your children to observe to do, all the words of this law. For it is not a vain thing for you, because it is your life and through this thing ye shall prolong your days in the land."

In this belief, our forefathers planted their homes and erected this government on these shores. This religion of Moses brought the early settlers to this country, and this religion guided and controlled them in establishing all public institutions. Religion has dictated the civil laws enacted and religion has shaped her public affairs from that day to this. "It is no vain thing for you," of these United States. "It is your life."

These facts have its true significance to "Thanksgiving Day," as we now observe it. A national custom it is today, not limited to any state or section of these United States. The president and governors of these several states heartily unite in calling together the citizens of the entire land, to offer their worship of praise and thanksgiving unto God.

The first proclamation to be issued in this the new world, was drawn by Governor Bradford, in the autumn of 1621, after the first harvest had been gathered by the New England colonists. Right gladly we can imagine, did those "Pilgrim Fathers" assemble in the house of God for special praise and thanksgiving. They had gathered their first harvest in this "land of the free and home of the brave." Right and proper was it to give thanks to God of heaven whom they served.

The observance of an annual "thanksgiving" was confined to the New England states until the days of the American Revolution, when congress recommended the national observance of the day. Later, upon the adoption of the present constitution of these United States, President Washington recommended the observance of a holiday. Immediately, therefore, upon the nation's birth, as a new living organism, God's hand was acknowledged. God the author of its life. Just as soon, as the nation's corporate life was bestowed under the new constitution, this religious custom of observing a national thanksgiving day was established.

Herein lies its significance. By this custom we recognize God as the author of our national life and certify that in the observance of his laws we find our safety and happiness.

There are at least four essentials of this religion, four factors that make true religion, the Bible, the sanctuary, the sabbath, the home. As a people, to maintain religion we must love God's word, God's house, God's day, and the home dedicated to God.

We do well to place God's look in our homes, in our schools, where it can be read and studied by the young in our land. "Set your hearts unto all these words. It is no vain thing for you." Do it and live.

You do well to honor the house of God, the sanctuary, where true worship is offered. "Forsake not the assembling of yourselves together, as the manner of some is." Do this and live.

You do well to preserve the Christian Sabbath, the Lord's day. "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy." France has her horse racing, Spain her bull fighting, Italy her operas, and Ireland her political meetings all on the Sabbath. Let not our enlightened people take any step backward, or encourage in the least the practices of the European Continental Sunday. "Blessed is the man (and nation) that doeth this, that keepeth the Sabbath from polluting it."

You do well to make your home religious, to have the wisdom and the courage to say with Joshua: "as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord."

As you love this country, your community, your home, your own life, embrace Christianity, accept and practice the Protestant religion the teaching, of which are set forth by all the evangelical churches.

Our country is what it is today because of its religion. It is our glory. When that is lost Ichabod is written upon her history.

The moral laws of God when accepted, loved, studied and obeyed, leads to the highest, happiest and truest life known on earth. Whenever these words of truth have gone there they have transformed and regenerated the life, whether it be an individual soul, a household, a state or a nation. "The entrance of thy words giveth light, it giveth understanding unto the simple."

Wherever and whenever these laws are trampled under foot, disobeyed and rejected there and then the punishment of heaven was inflicted. God deals with nations or with individuals. Those nations in the past that have ignored this holy law, have perished. Serve God and live.

Commerce did not save Tyre and Sidon, education, mental cultivation and refinement did not save Greece, mighty armies and vast resources did not save Rome. "Righteousness exalteth a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people." Only as we discover evil and condemn it, as we search for truth and practice it, are we moving in the path of safety. The practice of true religion is one life. Providentially, historically, constitutionally, legally, this is true. The legacy of the past, the hope of the future.

North Carolina has not got much in holding the football championship. It is an empty honor.

They have gone to finding petrified bodies out in Missouri now. Maybe the North Carolina gentleman will be lost sight of.

FROM SOUTH AFRICA.

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. Arthur Chipman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy teat the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville and R. L. Davis Farmville.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is Pleasant to Take.

The finest quality of granulated loaf sugar is used in the manufacture of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to maple syrup, making it quite pleasant to take. Mr. W. L. Roderick, of Potosi, Mo., in speaking of this remedy, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with my children for several years and can truthfully say it is the best preparation of the kind I know of. The children like to take it and it has no injurious after effect. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

Only Makes Bad Matters Worse.

Perhaps you have never thought of it but the fact must be apparent to every one that constipation caused by a lack of water in the system, and the use of drastic cathartics like the old fashioned pills only makes a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are much more mild and gentle in their effect, and when the proper dose is taken their action is so natural that one can hardly realize it is the effect of a medicine. Try a 25 cent bottle of them. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

Women's Headaches

542 1-2 Congress Street.
PORTLAND, MAINE, Oct. 17, 1902.

I consider Wine of Cardui superior to any doctor's medicine I ever used and I know whereof I speak. I suffered for nine months with suppressed menstruation which completely prostrated me. Pain would shoot through my back and sides and I would have blinding headaches. My limbs would swell up and I would feel so weak I could not stand up. I naturally felt discouraged for I seemed beyond the help of physicians, but Wine of Cardui came as a God-send to me. I felt a change for the better within a week. After nineteen days treatment I menstruated without suffering agonies I usually did and soon became regular and without pain.

Wine of Cardui is simply wonderful and I wish that all suffering women knew of its good qualities.

Mrs. Wilhelm
Treasurer, Portland Economic League.

Headaches are the danger signals of coming disease. Both men and women suffer headaches, but periodical headache falls only to the lot of women and is the unerring sign of irregular menstruation and bearing down pains. Completely prostrated by nine months of suppressed menses, blinded by headaches and racked with pain Mrs. Snow was made a strong and healthy woman again. Remember with Wine of Cardui no case is hopeless because this great remedy cures permanently nineteen out of every twenty cases and never fails to benefit a case of irregular menses, bearing down pains or any female weakness. If you are discouraged and doctors have failed, try Wine of Cardui, and try it now. Remember that headaches mean female weakness. Secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui today. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

SHOES

FOR PARTICULAR WOMEN

We are proud of our shoe stock this season. We are certain we have the finest line we have ever shown and we are certain that no other store gets even a little bit ahead of us.

ULTRA and BROCKPORT Shoes for Women

are our strong cards, and we are able to meet the requirements of the most fastidious as well as the more conservative patrons, and we invite a thorough inspection of our line—ULTRA in name, ULTRA in character, ULTRA in every feature that contributes to fit, comfort and style. In finish, material and workmanship, we are proud to present to all lovers of good taste in footwear a shoe for which we have never yet had to make apology. The "Brockport" Shoe is constructed on common-sense principles without sacrifice of those attributes that appeal to a woman's taste, or her pride, in a well and stylishly dressed foot.

Our usually up-to-date line of children's and infant's shoes is even better than ever. We are positive we can insure you perfect satisfaction and save you money in your shoe needs.
