A Cure for Cold in the Head.

A Charlotte man submits to The Observer a remedy for cold in the head which, he affirms, is wonderfully efficacious, leaves no bad after effects, is harmless and bears the charm of simplicity. It is the prescription of a North Carolina physician—now deceased—prominent in his day. The remedy is simply an equal-part mixture of pulverized camphor and pulverized sugar and the method of application is to sniff this not unpleasant mixture up the nostrils. It may be kept near at hand and used frequently. It is said that several applications will clear the head and relieve the most disagreeable cold or catarrh, and that persistent use will effect a cure.—Charlotte Observer.

Died.

William, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hines, died at 4:30 o'clock this morning after an illness of ten days. He was nearly 5 years old, and an exceedingly bright child. The sorrowing parents have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community. The interment was at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon in Cherry Hill cemetery.

He Was Honest.

Friday while Mr. J. R. Ball was buying cotton in Trenton he was approached by a colored man who asked him if he remembered buying a bale of cotton from him, (the darkey,) two years ago. Mr. Ball, to humor the old darkey, told him yes, and to his utter astonishment the colored man, whose name was John Godwin, and lives in Jones county, pulled out a $10 bill and handing it to Mr. Ball told him that he had paid him $10 too much for the bale purchased two years ago. Mr. Ball's friends succeeded in bringing him to after a long while.

The honest old darkey said the money had done him a "shocking heap o' good" this summer.

The act of the old darkey was a highly commendable one, but not likely to be emulated very freely in these days.—Kinston Free Press.

Died.

Mrs. W. H. Walker, wife of one of the employes of the Beaufort County Lumber Company, died at Shelmerdine Monday morning. She leaves a husband and four children. The remains were taken by train today to Rocky Mount.

Tobacco Sales.

Mr. C. W. Harvey, secretary of the tobacco board of trade, reports the sales of leaf tobacco on the Greenville market for the month of November at 2,139,050 pounds. The sales for the four months, from the opening of the season to the first of December, make a total of 6,919,936 pounds.

After Reed Smoot

The National Congress of Mothers invites the presidents of National, State, or local organizations of women and representatives of every church in the United States to meet in Washington for an organized effort to prevent the retention of Reed Smoot in the United States senate.

It appeals to every individual who is interested in the protection of the home to write to the senator of the state in which he or she resides, to protest against retaining as a law-maker for the land a man who owes allegiance to a hierarchy and can only hold his political position through its consent; who is himself an apostle in a church which makes marriage essential to a woman's salvation, which embodies polygamy in its tenets, and without doubt encourages its practice. A high official in an organization sanctioning such practices is responsible for them, and is not fit as a law-breaker to be a law-maker for others.

The National Congress of Mothers asks every church in the land to send an appeal to its senator at Washington protesting in behalf of the homes, and of holy ideals of marriage against countenancing this menace to American standards of family life.

It appeals to ministers to inform themselves on the real gravity of the present situation, and asks them to present the subject to their congregations.

A committee of the senate will decide this matter within a month. If every man or woman who feels strongly on this subject will send a letter to his state senator, the voice of the people will be heard and will prevail.

Mrs. ROBT. R. COTTON.

Vice-Pres. Nat. Congress of Mothers.

Double His Salary.

And now comes a college professor with the honest and good sense to affirm that it is better for girls to put in the time usually devoted to the dead languages and higher mathematics in securing a practical knowledge of home making and home keeping. This professor should have his salary raised at once.—Hillsboro Observer.

DIPHTHERIA.

Every Precaution Taken.

Physicians in attendance pronounced that the little son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hines, who died last night, had diphtheria. The attention of Dr. Zero Brown, county superintendent of health, was called to the matter and he at once began taking every precautionary measure to prevent any other cases of the disease, the other physicians of the town co-operating with him.

Dr. Brown quarantined the home of Mr. Hines, treated each member of the family and instructed that only enough person attend the funeral to be sufficient to conduct it. He also found out as far as possible what persons had visited the family during the sickness of the child and directed them to remain at home until the danger period has passed. At the graded school he gave similar directions to all children who had been to Mr. Hines'. A large supply of antitoxine was telegraphed for to be used on all who were in the slightest degree liable to the disease.

With these precautionary steps taken by Dr. Brown and the other physicians there seems to be no danger whatever of another case of the disease developing.

STATE NEWS.

Scotland Neck has made a contract for electric lights.

At the N. C. conference in Goldsboro Mr. G. M. Lindsay, of Snow Hill, made a donation of $1,000 to the Methodist orphanage at Raleigh.

The saw mill, planing mill and cotton gin of E. B. Lasfor, of Potocasi, was destroyed by fire Saturday morning, together with five bales of cotton, two carloads of cotton seed and a quantity of dressed lumber.

Christmas comes next.

Old Play House Burned

Brooklyn, Nov. 30.—The Brooklyn Academy of Music, which shared with the Plymouth church the distinction of being one of the oldest and most historic structures in the borough, was destroyed by fire today. The building was gutted, nothing but part of the front wall remaining of the famous old play house. When the rear wall of the stage fell shortly before 11 o'clock it fell on the roof on Maggie Nelson, disusing its way as the academy. Everybody fortunately had left the saloon fearing just what happened, before the crash, but there was a story this afternoon that a man was buried in the cellar ruins. A search was made but no body was discovered.

Why He Was Not Promoted.

He watched the clock.
 He was always grumbling.
 He was always behindhand.
 He had no iron in his blood.
 He was willing but unfitted.
 He didn't believe in himself.
 He asked too many questions.
 He was stung by a bad book.
 His stock excuse was "I forgot."
 He wasn't ready for the next step.
 He did not put his heart in his work.
 He learned nothing from his blunders.
 He felt that he was above his position.
 He chose his friends among his inferiors.
 He was content to be a second-rate man.
 He ruined his ability by half-doing things.
 He never dared to act on his own judgment.
 He did not think it worth while to learn how.
 He tried to make "bluff" take the place of ability.
 He thought he must take amusement every evening.
 Familiarity with slipshod methods paralyzed his ideal.
 He thought it was clever to use coarse and profane language.
 He was ashamed of his parents because they were old-fashioned.
 He imitated the habits of men who could stand more than he could.
 He did not learn that the best pay-hisrt of salary was not in his pay-envelope.—From Success.

Dixon's Day to Die.

New Bern, N. C., Nov. 30.—Cyrus Dixon, the young white man who is to be hanged in Trenton tomorrow for the murder of Godfrey Weber, was taken from Craven jail this morning where he has been confined for safe keeping by Sheriff Taylor, assisted by three deputies. Before leaving the jail the condemned man talked rather freely about the crime for which he is to be executed. He said that he did not commit the crime outright, but furnished the gun and shells to do the shooting with. He said his heart failed him when it was time to act and handed the gun to a person whose name he refused to reveal. It is thought that tomorrow he will tell the whole tale of the affair and sensational developments are expected, as the man has friends whom he is depending on for assistance.

Now what will Bryan say about Cleveland?

Since Cleveland had his say Parker and Gorman stock are both booming.

If Dr. Jay is insane, let him follow Boyette to the asylum for criminal insane to be kept in confinement. And may the legislature forget he is there.

With three women in his home, and thousands of them throughout the country, all after Reed Smoot, there may be danger of his seat in the senate getting cold.

Your "Uncle Mark" is expressing gratification at assurances from Virginia republicans of their support for his nomination for the presidency. And Teddy is wondering how he can spike Hanna's guns.

Senator Hanna has frequently declared that he does not want the republican nomination, but his friends, and especially many enemies of President Roosevelt, believe that he could be induced to accept it when the proper time comes.

The stranger in Raleigh who held up a boy at the point of a pistol and demanded "a nickel or your life," must have been hard-up. That is a new style of begging and it is to be hoped the other members of the profession will not adopt it.

Many North Carolina editors are moving on to Washington City today, where for the next three days the state Press Association will hold a mid-winter meeting. The editor of THE REFLECTOR had hoped to be with them in the meeting, but circumstances are such that he cannot get away now.

The action of the senate in postponing the date of voting on the reciprocity bill until December 16 is looked upon as an affront to the president for his having called the extra session. When the senate expressed informally a desire to adjourn before the regular session, which commences on December 7, Speaker Cannon refused to consent to an adjournment until action was taken on the measure for which the extra session was called. As neither branch of congress can adjourn for more than three days without the consent of the other, the house will thus force the senate to remain in session.

Solicitor Rudolph Duffy of the fifth judicial district, was passing through this city yesterday, and remarked upon the unusual record which his district had during the present term.

"There are six counties in my district," said the solicitor, "and we have seven capital cases, six homicides, one arson. I doubt if another North Carolina district enjoys such an unenviable record."—Newberne Journal.

Thanksgiving day was observed in Wall street by closing the exchange. Some people would observe another Thanksgiving if it should remain closed.—Atlanta Journal.

A millionaire at New Rochelle, N. Y., got into a fight with his cook over $5 in wages which she claimed as due, and now she has brought suit against him for forcibly ejecting her from the back door, and has obtained a verdict of $400. Another vindication of American cookocracy.—Atlanta Journal.

Random Thoughts in Rambling Verse on Thanksgiving Day.

BY E. V. COX.

Here, wealth and fashion proud
neath stately spire,
Thank God for granting every hearts desire,
While anthems echo from the organs
grand
That peace and plenty so blessed the land.

Within some little way-side church's wall's
To Him who hears e'en "when the sparrow falls,"
A country congregation sings its praise
For mercies crowning all their peaceful days.

In every home are seen signs of a feast,
From landlord's richest to the tenants least
And friends are gathering from far and near
To laugh and sing away the day so dear.

The feast about over in jesting boast
Some guests had proposed that each drink a toast
To wealth and beauty and wine-inspired glee
The joy of living in the land of the free.

The toasts beginning, there were toasts for love,
Toasts for the sunshine coming from above,
Toasts for the bountiful harvests past
With wishes that the day might forever last.

At last one said as quiet he arose—
"What of the brother who joy never knows?
With us who have, every day is the same
But who is thinking of the blind and lame?"

"Bend ear to the ground and hear the low sound
That rises from the very sod,
Dost wonder thou then, that despairing men
Ask why should they thank our God?"

"They've wrongs to make right and battles to fight
And cold in the heart that forgets,
With Thanksgiving vow, remember them now
And time will not bring thee regrets."

"Amid thy rich feast, oh! Think of the least
Of travellers along the way!
The fortune hath crowned on him she hath frowned,
So help him be thankful to-day."

"So mine is a song for men with a wrong
With griefs and sorrows to cope,
They never will fall if at duty's call
They resolve to live and hope."

"For Hope's brilliant star doth shine from afar
Like that one over Bethlehem
And shadows do fly, when it cometh
nigh,
For glad it makes the hearts of men."

"The life that doth sleep, in the sluggish deep
Is alike to that which beats
In the cloud-crowned lord of the mountain peak
As morning sunlight he greets."

"Then mine be a song for the mighty through
Who this bright Thanksgiving day
With sorrows are bowed and hearts that are cowed
Poor sheep from their Shepherd astray."

FROM SOUTH AFRICA. New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy,

Mr. Arthur Chapman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy teat the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville and R. L. Davis Farmville.

The Best Liniment.

"Chamberlain's Pain Balm is considered the best liniment on the market," write Post & Bliss of Georgia, Vt. No other liniment will heal a cut or bruise so promptly. No other affords such quick relief from rheumatic pains. No other is so valuable for deep seated pains like lame back and pains in the chest. Give this liniment a trial and you will never wish to be without it. Sold by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is Pleasant to Take.

The finest quality of granulated loaf sugar is used in the manufacture of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to maple syrup, making it quite pleasant to take. Mr. W. L. Roderick, of Potosi, Md., in speaking of this remedy, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with my children for several years and can truthfully say it is the best preparation of the kind I know of. The children like to take it and it has no injurious after effect. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros., Farmville.

JOSEPH KEY BROWN

One hundred and sixty five members of the New York cotton exchange submitted estimates, Thursday, on the size of the cotton crop, and the average prediction was 10,724,000 bales. The lowest estimate was that of Atwood Violett, 9,875,000; the highest that of M. M. Well, 11,500,000. The North Carolinians on the exchange—at least those of them who are identified by the list of names published in The Journal of Commerce—guessed as follows: R. A. Springs, 10,250,000; W. D. Martin, 10,725; J. M. Ayer, 10,755.

Only Makes a Bad Matter Worse.

Perhaps you have never thought of it but the fact must be apparent to every one that constipation caused by a lack of water in the system, and the use of drastic cathartics like the old fashioned pills only makes a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are much more mild and gentle in their effect, and when the proper dose is taken their action is so natural that one can hardly realize it is the effect of a medicine. Try a 25 cent bottle of them. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros., Farmville.

A SCIENTIFIC DISCOVERY.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does for the stomach that which it is unable to do for itself, even when but slightly disordered or over-loaded. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure supplies the natural juices of digestion and does the work of the stomach, relaxing the nervous tension, while the inflamed muscles of that organ are allowed to rest and heal. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and enables the stomach and digestive organs to transform all food into rich, red blood. Sold by John L. Wooten.

A GOOD NAME.

From personal experience I testify that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are unequalled as a liver pill. They are rightly named because they give strength and energy and do their work with ease.—W. T. Easton, Boerne, Tex. Thousands of people are using these tiny little pills in preference to all others, because they are so pleasant and effectual. They cure biliousness, torpid liver jaundice, sick headache, constipation, etc. They do not purge and weaken, but cleanse and strengthen. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

542 1-2 Congress Street.
PORTLAND, MAINE, Oct. 17, 1902.

I consider Wine of Cardui superior to any doctor's medicine I ever used and I know whereof I speak. I suffered for nine months with suppressed menstruation which completely prostrated me. Pain would shoot through my back and sides and I would have blinding headaches. My limbs would swell up and I would feel so weak I could not stand up. I naturally felt discouraged for I seemed beyond the help of physicians, but Wine of Cardui came as a God-send to me. I felt a change for the better within a week. After nineteen days treatment I menstruated without suffering agonies I usually did and soon became regular and without pain.

Wine of Cardui is simply wonderful and I wish that all suffering women knew of its good qualities.

Mr. Wilhelm Snow
Treasurer, Portland Economic League.

Headaches are the danger signals of coming disease. Both men and women suffer headaches, but periodical headache falls only to the lot of women and is the unerring sign of irregular menstruation and bearing down pains. Completely prostrated by nine months of suppressed menses, blinded by headaches and racked with pain Mrs. Snow was made a strong and healthy woman again. Remember with Wine of Cardui no case is hopeless because this great remedy cures permanently nineteen out of every twenty cases and never fails to benefit a case of irregular menses, bearing down pains or any female weakness. If you are discouraged and doctors have failed, try Wine of Cardui, and try it now. Remember that headaches mean female weakness. Secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui today. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.
