To the Tobacco Planters of Eastern North Carolina.

We want every tobacco farmer who has not taken stock in the Farmers' Consolidated Tobacco Company to come to see us at the Farmers Warehouse, Greenville, N. C., whether you bring tobacco or not.

We want to explain to you the plan of the organization. This is a matter in which every tobacco grower, and every citizen of the county who is interested in the well being of the tobacco farmers, should feel a personal interest. If it is a good thing for the tobacco farmers it should and will be supported and patronized. If it is not a good thing, then the tobacco farmers should condemn it.

We ask you, however, to look into it yourself and be your own judge. Do not listen to what any one says about it, but as a free man draw your own conclusions, and we will abide by your decision.

We a ready have enough farmers in it to make it a grand success in the warehouse business, but that is not all we want. We want every farmer in Eastern North Carolina who feels the necessity of united effort on the part of the tobacco farmers to become interested, and if you will examine our plans in a cool business way we are satisfied you will join us.

FARMERS' CONSOLIDATED TOB CO.

The Colleges Filled With a Lot of Toughs.

Having served as trustee of a college in this state for a number of years, and having lived in a college town for the past twenty years, we are convinced that there is no class of people in all the country who need taking down a "button hole" more than does a large per cent of the young men registered as students in North Carolina colleges. In these colleges you will find an element that is dangerously near anarchy and outlawry. They do not hesitate to hold up the authority of the college, when it runs counter to their wishes, destroy and mutilate its property, and visit all sorts of humiliating indignities upon a young man whose only crime is that he is spending his first year at college. These are not hasty conclusions, but are facts based upon numerous examples, and are intended for the guilty, and no body else. To be convinced that these unwarranted practices of students are on the increase, you only have to read the papers, which tell about them in all sections of our country.—Raleigh Times.

Merchant of Venice.

A strong company will play The Merchants of Venice in the Opera House Friday night. This is one of Shakespear's Drama's which has pleased every where it has been played, and I have learned from Mr. J. J. Willis, of Wilson, that it is one of the best shows that has visited that city this season, so feel as if I can guarantee it to be an up to date show.

Could not Shake It Off.

In bidding friends good bye at the depot, as he was departing for his new field of labor, Rev. H. M. Eure referred to the scriptural injunction about shaking the dust of the town off your feet, and said "as Greenville dust has all turned to mud I can't shake it off." We hope enough of it will stick to him to keep him always reminded of Greenville.

The knee bent in true prayer straightens for true work.

Railroad in Pamlico.

New Bern, N. C., Dec. 9.—Major Henry R. Bryan, vice president of the Pamlico, Oriental and Western Railroad Company, which connects Craven and Pamlico counties, says the work is progressing rapidly. The grading is complete and the track laid from the junction of the Atlantic and North Carolina railroad to Neuse river, where the bridge begins. Pile driving work is now going on under the supervision of Samuel Howard of this city. The bridge, when completed will be one mile one hundred and fifty feet, with two thousand and six hundred piles in the foundation. A steel draw is on the way and is expected to be in place by the first of January. The entire length of the road will be sixty miles, covering the best business portion of Pamlico county. Vice President Bryan expects the completion of the road by the middle of June.

Columbus, Ga., Dec. 9.—In the Superior court here tonight, a jury returned a verdict of voluntary manslaughter against R. H. Burton, who was on trial for killing his seventeen-year-old son. The killing occurred in this city September 5, 1903.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, DECEMBER 10 1903.

NINE YEARS OLD.

Just nine years ago this afternoon there was something doing in Greenville—something that put people to talking and marked an epoch in the history of the town as well as in the career of this paper. It was then that THE DAILY REFLECTOR made its first appearance, a little sheet of only three columns to the page.

At that time Greenville was a small town, and though the paper was small its size was sufficient to meet the requirements then existing. Yet people declared it a bold venture to start a daily paper of any size in a town like Greenville was then, and so it was. But THE REFLECTOR was given to boldness, and it had confidence in the people it served. It believed if they wanted a daily paper they would support it, and the intervening years from then until now have proven that this faith was well founded.

Greenville has gone right on growing from that time until it has doubled its size; and THE REFLECTOR to lead in the march of progress has enlarged three times in these nine years. Not always has it found smooth sailing, but its motto was keep pushing, even though the voyage seemed rough and threatening. In the last two years especially there have been hindrances through misfortunes to those connected with the paper that required courage and a brave heart to meet, yet in the face of these there was no faltering but the paper has continued to go forward and do its best for the community.

THE REFLECTOR today has more patrons than at any time in its history, showing the esteem it holds with the people. We are grateful to the people for their esteem and patronage, and grateful to Him whose care and guidance has been with us through these years. It is the purpose of the paper to go on doing its best, leaving the results with Him who rules the destinies of men.

Some weeks ago the connection between the trains on the Atlantic Coast Line and Southern Railway was broken at Selma and since that time people traveling that way have been greatly inconvenienced. The corporation commission has ordered the Coast Line to move up its train 25 minutes so as to restore the connection at Selma. While such matters are before the commission is the time Greenville and other towns on this branch of the Coast Line should be moving for a morning connection from Raleigh. It can be had if the people show they want it.

Of all the despicable characters coming under the catalogue of thieves, the grave robber is the lowest type. The discovery has been made that in a cemetery at Newport News, Va., ghouls have been opening new graves and robbing the bodies of jewelry and shrouds. Two bodies found were entirely nude. That is worse than they do in Mexico, where the robbers steal the coffins and put the body back in the hole.

You can just bet there will be some cotton made next year.

That Crumstieks in the president's throat and seems hard to swallow.

The outlook is that the scandals in the postoffice department are about to get an airing.

A business man who is a close observer of the times has stated to THE REFLECTOR that the next legislature of North Carolina will make a clean sweep of saloons in the state. Indications certainly point that way, and it is time the saloon men themselves were reading the handwriting on the wall.

The meeting of the cotton mill men in Charlotte, Tuesday, favored curtailing the output of the factories. Steps were taken to call a meeting of cotton mill men generally and get them all to co-operate with the movement to put out less of the manufactured product. This will mean higher prices for calico and other cotton goods.

For ten years the people of Des Moines worked through Congressman Hull to get an army post established there. They finally succeeded and Des Moines has a post that cost $1,000,000. The first step on the part of the government has been to garrison the post with negro troops. The people of Des Moines are greatly incensed and now say that if the negroes are not withdrawn they will defeat Congressman Hull for renomination. Des Moines is hard to please.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Have You a Boy to Spare.

The saloon must have boys, says the Presbyterian, or it must shut up shop. Can't you furnish it one? It is a great factory, and unless it can get about 2,000,000 from each generation for raw material, some of these factories must close out, and its operations must be thrown on a cold world, and the public revenue will dwindle. "Wanted—2,000,000 boys," is the notice. One family out of every five must contribute a boy to keep up the supply. Will you help? Which of your boys will it be? The Minotaur of Crete had to have a trireme full of fair maidens each year; but the Minotaur of America demands a city full of boys each year. Are you a father? Have you contributed a boy? If not, some other family has had to give more than its share. Are you not selfish, voting to keep the saloon open to grind up boys, and then doing nothing to keep up the supply?—Ex.

STATE NEWS.

The aldermen of Elizabeth City have refused to issue liquor licenses.

The keeper of Wake county jail, at Raleigh, was assaulted Tuesday night by prisoners who attempted to escape but were foiled. The pick pocket captured during the state fair led the assault.

Since the sheriff of Caldwell county died a few weeks ago his daughter has been appointed tax collector and is filling the office well.

State Auditor Dixon says that the pension warrants will go to the various counties in time to be distributed December 15, and that pensioners on that day should call on the clerk of the court for their warrants, instead of upon the registers of deeds as formerly.

FROM SOUTH AFRICA.

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. Arthur Chapman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy teat the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville and R. L. Davis Farmville.

The Best Liniment.

"Chamberlain's Pain Balm is considered the best liniment on the market," write Post & Bliss, Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis of Georgia, Va. No other liniment will heal a cut or bruise so promptly. No other affords such quick relief from rheumatic pains. No other is so valuable for deep seated pains like lame back and pains in the chest. Give this liniment a trial and you will never wish to be without it. Sold by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is Pleasant to Take.
 The finest quality of granulated loaf sugar is used in the manufacture of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to maple syrup, making it quite pleasant to take. Mr. W. L. Roderick, of P. O. Box 10, in speaking of this remedy, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with my children for several years and can truthfully say it is the best preparation of the kind I know of. The children like to take it and it has no injurious after effect." For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

A REMARKABLE CASE.
 One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by John L. Wooten.

A GOOD NAME.
 From personal experience I testify that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are unequalled as a liver pill. They are rightly named because they give strength and energy and do their work with ease.—W. T. Easton, Boerne, Tex. Thousands of people are using these tiny little pills in preference to all others, because they are so pleasant and effectual. They cure biliousness, torpid liver jaundice, sick headache, constipation, etc. They do not purge and weaken, but cleanse and strengthen. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

Women's Headaches
 542 1-2 Congress Street.
 PORTLAND, MAINE, Oct. 17, 1902.
 I consider Wine of Cardui superior to any doctor's medicine I ever used and I know whereof I speak. I suffered for nine months with suppressed menstruation which completely prostrated me. Pain would shoot through my back and sides and I would have blinding headaches. My limbs would swell up and I would feel so weak I could not stand up. I naturally felt discouraged for I seemed beyond the help of physicians, but Wine of Cardui came as a God-send to me. I felt a change for the better within a week. After nineteen days treatment I menstruated without suffering agonies I usually did and soon became regular and without pain.
 Wine of Cardui is simply wonderful and I wish that all suffering women knew of its good qualities.
Mrs. Wilhelmina Snow
 Treasurer, Portland Economic League.

Headaches are the danger signals of coming disease. Both men and women suffer headaches, but periodical headache falls only to the lot of women and is the unerring sign of irregular menstruation and bearing down pains. Completely prostrated by nine months of suppressed menses, blinded by headaches and racked with pain Mrs. Snow was made a strong and healthy woman again. Remember with Wine of Cardui no case is hopeless because this great remedy cures permanently nineteen out of every twenty cases and never fails to benefit a case of irregular menses, bearing down pains or any female weakness. If you are discouraged and doctors have failed, try Wine of Cardui, and try it now. Remember that headaches mean female weakness. Secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui today.
 All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

Queen Quality

The First Requisite

The very first requisite of a shoe is that it shall fit the foot with absolute accuracy. Closely but not tightly! No waste space, yet no pressure! The "QUEEN QUALITY" Shoe is made so that

It Fits the Foot

It fits just as a Paris made glove fits the hand. Have you ever noticed no other shoe talks much about Fit? They talk about "style" and "beauty" and "form" and other things that mean nothing. But they say little about FIT! They don't dare to!

"Queen - Quality"

fits because it is an entirely different construction which, by the way, adds many dollars to the weekly pay roll.

But the shoes fit perfectly!

A White Ant Diet.

A book on the Kongo Free State gives this picture of the fondness of the natives for white ants: "In the white ant month the natives have a very busy time. The river is deserted, and men and women, boys and girls, go out to gather the white ant for food. I cannot say I admire their taste, but the white ant is not bad as food, merely very rich. In this month he is about an inch long. The natives gather him in hundreds, pull off the wings and roast him. The native boys have a shorter way with him. Sometimes at mess white ants fopped on to the table, attracted by the light. The boys who were waiting pounced on them and without further ceremony popped them into their mouths."

Strength of Eggshells.

Most people are aware of the power of eggshells to resist external pressure on the ends, but not many would credit the results of tests recently made, which appear to be genuine. Eight ordinary hen's eggs that were submitted to pressure varied between 400 pounds and 675 pounds per square inch. With the stresses applied internally to twelve eggs these gave way at pressures varying between thirty-two pounds and sixty-five pounds per square inch. The pressure required to crush the eggs varied between forty pounds and seventy-five pounds. The average thickness of the shells was thirteen one-thousandths inch.

The Public School.

The public school is generally underestimated and is frequently looked upon with indifference. Its influence cannot be expressed in a few words, but its influence is the lifeblood of the home, the community and the nation. Any ordinary imagination can conjure up a state of affairs that would soon come to pass if the schoolhouse were closed. It is the great sieve into which all the nations of the world are thrown, to be shaken down to the common level of obedience and patriotism.—Schoolmaster.

History Repeating.

Mr. Binks—I don't like the looks of that young man who calls to see Clara.

Mrs. Binks—He looks exactly as you did when you first came to see me.

"Was I any such fool as that?"

"Yes, you were, and yet I married you in spite of all my parents could say, and I am afraid that in spite of all we can say our Clara will now be just as big a fool as I was."

An Odd Inscription.

At Wymondham, Norfolk, England, is this inscription at an old country house engraved on an oak board and all in one line: "Nec nisi gis servus, nec hospes hirudo." Translated from the Latin, in which it appears in antique Roman capital letters, it may be rendered, "No dormouse as a servant for me, neither a horse leech for a guest."

Not a Case of Superstition.

Mrs. B.—Oh, Charles, we can never sit down with thirteen at table.

Mr. B.—Pshaw! I hope you're not so superstitious as that.

Mrs. B.—No, of course not. But we have only twelve dinner plates.
